WPI's New Showroom Assists Builders and area Home-Owners

by Daven Henderson for the Courier Journal

Wilson Properties Incorporated is a business that was founded in September 1991, operating within multiple areas such as roofing and construction, real estate, and building supplies. The owner of WPI, Benji Wilson, has grown up in the construction business by following in his father's footsteps.

"I grew up in it with my dad who still is a home builder," said Wilson. "I enjoyed construction, but I also enjoyed other things that go along with it. I've been a home builder since the mid 80's when I used to just operated under my name, Benji Wilson Builders. Around that same time I got my real estate license."

Over the years, WPI has added different divisions in the company that provides products such as trash cans, painting supplies, and porta-johns. The company works with General Contractors, On Site Solutions, and Real Estate all under the acronym of WPI. Wilson is proud to talk about some recent additions they offer now.

"WPI has different divisions: For instance, we do a lot of roofing and restoration work, and we take our customers through the insurance process to get them to a good, clean close," Wilson said.

"We also have a general contractor division

Distinction

FLORENCE - In an effort to help prospective parents find hospitals that deliver quality maternity care, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Alabama announced that Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital has been designated as one of the first hospitals to receive the Blue Distinction Center for Maternity Care designation, a new designation under the Blue Distinction Specialty Care program.

This new Blue Distinction Centers for Maternity Care program evaluates hospitals on several quality measures, including the percentage of newborns that fall into the category of early elective delivery, an ongoing concern in the medical community. Compared with babies born 39 weeks or later, early term infants face higher risks of infant death and respiratory ailments such as respiratory distress syndrome, pneumonia, and respiratory failure, among other conditions. These babies also have a higher rate of admission to Neonatal Intensive Care Units.

In addition, hospitals that receive a Blue Distinction designation agreed to meet requirements that align with principles that support evidence-based practices of care, as well as having initiated programs to promote successful breastfeeding. The program also evaluates hospitals on overall patient satisfaction, including a willingness to recommend the hospital to others.

Blue Distinction Centers for Maternity Care is an expansion of the national Blue Distinction® Specialty Care program. They are hospitals recognized for delivering quality specialty care safely and effectively, based on objective measures developed with input from the medical community.

"We take pride in meeting and in some cases exceeding the requirements to be a Blue Distinction Center for Maternity Care," said ECM Women's Pavilion Manager, Melissa DeFoor.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield (BCBS) companies across the nation have recognized more than 280 hospitals as Blue Distinction Centers for Maternity Care.

Riverhill Index EQS of 338

FLORENCE - Riverhill School recently completed a rigorous AdvancEd Re-accreditation process and earned an Index of Education Quality Score of 338. The average Index of Education Quality (IEQ) Score of all public and independent schools completing this same process during 2015 was 278.

Riverhill School is located in Florence and is accredited through AdvancEd, an umbrella organization that includes SACS, AISA, and numerous other accrediting agencies. AdvancEd covers over 32,000 public and independent institutions in over 70 countries and involves 20 million students. Schools are required to go through a re-accreditation process every five years. This process includes a visit from an External Review Team that spends several days on campus interviewing stakeholders and investigating the educational practices of the school. Five main areas are explored: Purpose and Direction; Governance and Leadership; Teaching and Assessing for Learning; Resources and Support Systems; and Continuous Improvement.

Riverhill School is an independent, non-parochial school serving students in Pre K2 through Sixth Grade.

in which we are licensed to do commercial work in the state of Alabama," he added.

Another division Wilson is proud of is WPI Building Supply. Their new showroom is now open at 801 North Patton St. in Florence, one block behind Long Lewis Volkswagen-Mitsubishi.

"In building supply, we supply a lot of what we install. We provide roofing, shingles, single-ply rubber roofs, and venting," said Wilson.

"We also have a paint store with California Paint which owns multi-lines and is a go-green, planet-friendly paint company. It offers low-to-zero VOC (volatile organic compounds). That is the stuff that smells. A reduction there is good for people who might have respiratory problems."

Wilson is also eager to talk about is their On-Site Solutions.

"WPI On-Site Solutions is one of our most recent add-ons and we are really excited about that. It is the roll-off trash containers and porta-johns which we rent out to contractors and individuals for parties and events, such as weddings and festivals," he said.

"We really go after the homeowner more for our trash containers because so many are being the Do-It-Yourself people. If you're going to do it yourself, having the right tools and having an adequate trash container to take care of your trash is the way to go. Bring it out, fill it up, we take it away. It's that simple," he added.

There may be a number of distinct areas within this business, but Wilson emphasizes that it all comes back to what they do in real estate and construction.

Wilson knows he wouldn't be able to do this on his own. He and his wife, Irma Wilson, are business partners.

"We are a team, and we wouldn't be able to build a company to this level without teamwork. My weak points are her strong points and vice versa. We plan to continue growing this company together every day," he said.

For those not familiar with WPI in Florence and around the Shoals, Wilson wants them to understand they are there for them.

"We have to take care of our cities and communities. We have to give back. We have to do a little bit more than what is expected of us. Everyone has to set an example so the next generation can enjoy what we have. We have to continue to do our part by working together to keep the city clean."

ASK THE ATTORNEY

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

not automatically allow "discovery". Discovery in the legal sense means or includes depositions, written questions that are to be answered under oath and subpoenas. In a regular automobile accident case that we would handle, a case involving a person who was hurt, we would be very interested in obtaining the cell phone number and the carrier (AT&T, Verizon, Sprint) so that we could issue for a subpoena to find out whether or not the person at fault was either talking or texting at the time of the accident.

That brings up a point that should be made. We use repair bills, medical bills and the other side's phone records to prove our case we photograph skid or scuff marks from the accident scene and we use the physical evidence from the damage to the vehicle for the jury to consider. The problem is people that are really hurt aren't out snapping pictures of the car that hit them and writing down the exact time of the accident. People who are doing those things probably are not hurt that badly.

You will be able to testify that you saw the person on the phone. You will be able to describe or show photographic evidence of where the impact on your car was. You will be able to testify as to your version of how the accident happened. You will need to know the value of your car before the accident and after the accident and you should have a person who regularly repairs cars to testify as to how it will cost to repair your car present in court. Unfortunately, I do not believe that you will be able to prove, other than through your testimony, that the person that hit you was a distracted driver.

Buckle up and drive safely.

Please send the questions to: "Ask the Attorney," P. O. Box 38, Florence, Alabama 35631 or visit our website at: www.mhatt.com

Q I was hit in a parking lot by a teenager who was on her cell phone and not looking at all when she backed into me. She was still on her cell phone when she got out of the car. The police would not make a report because it was on private property and I only have liability insurance. The whole situation makes me very angry. Is there anything I can do to prove that she was on her cell phone and not paying attention?

Charles, Tuscumbia, AL

A Parking lot accidents really cause problems for people who don't have full coverage insurance. I am not suggesting that everyone should have full coverage insurance. In fact, I spoke to a young lady who had bought a 12 year old Jaguar and was paying $200 a month for full coverage insurance. Those cars can be bought for $5000 and I don't know that the math works out to pay full coverage for a car that can be replaced relatively inexpensively.

Property damage only cases that have less than $5000 in damage to the car should go to small claims court. It is not economically feasible to hire me to go to small claims court for a $2000 or $3000 case. By the time you pay the attorney's fee, your net result isn't enough to pay for the repairs for your vehicle. Small claims court is designed for non-lawyers to prepare reasonably well with common sense evidence and witnesses and present their case to a judge who makes a decision, in writing, typically after the parties leave.

Ask Dr. Webb

Dr. Robert Webb

This is #6 in the series about why we should be concerned with seniors taking so many pills: Beer's List of Potentially Inappropriate Medications (the Category III Drugs).

Category III drugs can be taken by seniors but only with caution. While these drugs can have some benefit for some people, they often have side-effects limiting usage. There are several drug groups and again I'll list only the more common ones; for a complete listing and description, go on-line (Beers Criteria).

ASA [Aspirin] for preventing a first heart attack – compared to risk of bleeding, now no evidence to support its use when over age 80.

Dabigatran [Pradaxa] and Prasugrel [Effient] – blood 'thinners' for preventing blood clots – more bleeding compared to warfarin [Coumadin], if over age 75 and if chronic kidney problems.

Antipsychotic group of drugs, 2nd generation [concerns are only related to treatment of dementia agitation: quetiapine (Seroquel), risperidone (Risperdal), etc.] – can lower salt levels [sodium]; increase risk of stroke, diabetes, premature death.

Carbamazepine [Tegretal], and many anti-depressants, such as paroxetine (Paxil), sertraline (Zoloft), venlafaxine (Effexor), amitriptyline (Elavil) – all can cause salt imbalances, dropping blood pressure, causing more falls.

Omeprazole [Prilosec] and other proton pump inhibitors – these suppress all stomach acid which increases risk of hip fractures (by blocking calcium absorption), pneumonia, and a severe bacterial diarrhea (c.difficile) – and now may contribute to dementia.

Although some have taken these drugs without problems for years to control their particular symptom, if one is having problems, or just wants to reduce the number of pills taken, it usually won't hurt to try weaning off some of these and see whether you're better—or worse. But, best to work with your doctor to supervise this.

And, to that end—next time, the final article: how to safely reduce the number of drugs taken.

Ask Dr. Webb is a bi-weekly article sponsored by Hospice of the Shoals as a community service to answer questions about hospice care and end of life issues. Please submit questions to ssimpson@hofts.org or call 256-767-6699.

Dr. Robert Webb has focused his practice on geriatrics and palliative care since 2003. He is the Medical Director at Hospice of the Shoals.

Commentary

High Profile Errors in Judgment

By now we all have heard about the apparent extra-marital relationship that Governor Robert Bentley has been maintaining with his senior advisor, Rebekah Mason. Bentley apologized for inappropriate conversations, but as of this writing he continues to maintain that improprieties included nothing of a physical nature. That is strange. Based on his own words through multiple conversations he did not realize were being recorded, Bentley apparently has some memory/dementia issues. That may be a strong indicator that he should resign.

With Mason being employed at Bentley's pleasure, his first overtly non-business comment could have resulted in a sexual harassment suit. Often times the 'company' is also included as a defendant. That's all a budget-strapped state needs at this point. As the state's chief executive, that is poor judgment and validates a resignation.

If the Governor didn't have a physical affair with Mrs. Mason as his recorded conversations seem to strongly verify, then he is highly delusional. With his decision-making ability so compromised, that should validate termination.

Mrs. Mason compounded the chaos by crying gender bias against her accuser, former law enforcement chief, Spencer Collier, claiming his accusations were strictly because she was a female. If SHE has senior advisors, they must have advised against an admission or an apology. That too was worthy of a resignation.

Post 11 Hosts Brown for Veterans Event

FLORENCE—The American Legion Post #11 of Florence / Lauderdale County will host a Benefit Concert, "An Evening with T. Graham Brown" on April 9 at 7pm at the Florence-Lauderdale Coliseum.

"The American Legion Post #11 sponsors a lot of veterans programs including an Honor Guard," said Post Commander Nolan Burns. "We are a group of veterans that receive no federal or state funding. This is a fundraiser for us to continue to support our programs. We are hoping the public and other veterans will support this event." Burns also stated, "I am proud of all the support we have received so far and look forward to that evening."

T. Graham Brown was born Anthony Graham Brown in Arabi, Georgia. T's first performed in a duo, Dirk & Tony before founding two more bands, "Reo Diamond" and "T. Graham Brown's Rack of Spam." He married in 1980. The couple has one son, Acme Geronimo Brown.

Brown and his wife Sheila moved to Nashville in 1982 and he found work singing advertising jingles for companies such as McDonald's, Disneyland, Budweiser, Almond Joy, Coca Cola, Kentucky Fried Chicken, and many others. He was also the singing narrator in the Taco Bell "Run for the Border" television spots.

Brown also found work as a songwriter for E.M.I. Publishing before signing to Capitol Records in 1984. He was

We Better Rethink

Editor:

Everybody's jumping on Donald Trump for saying that if the law says aborting a baby is illegal, a woman should be punished. It confuses me because if anyone murders a baby, they will be punished.

A fetus has scientifically been proven to be a life. If it becomes law that it is

Rattlesnakes are not overpopulated, on the contrary, due in part to rattlesnake roundups, they may be declining. ” murder to abort a baby, why wouldn't someone be punished whether it be a doctor or a midwife or the woman herself who has an abortion? It is the murder of a baby. People better rethink their opinions because those opinions would be defenseless and Trump would be right.

We Should Be Happy

Editor:

Life is lived once. Be happy. What should you be doing today? What do you want to be doing today? Where should you be today? Where do you want to be today? An old friend who recently died said, "Do what you enjoy."

Life is not only about our gratification. We have family members and work associates who are impacted by our decisions. To totally go off the wall and make decisions that are only about us is careless. To never make decisions that are about us is stupid.

Another dying friend recently told his Facebook followers to pursue life and go for whatever dreams or goals they had in life. While he had pursued many of his, I also got the message that he had unfinished business or dreams that he had cast aside and never pursued.

Don't live your life with regrets. Get in the game and enjoy whatever time you have to play the game, or get on the road and enjoy the scenery along the way. Life for many people is watching life go by. We watch others live on television. We watch others at sporting events. We sit on the sofa and vegate, get depressed, eat too much, get fat, and then need drugs to get us through the day.

Life is for living. We weren't created

LAST WEEK, WE RECEIVED a panicked call from a medical client who said their documents were all scrambled. They told us there was a message on their screen saying they had to purchase "bitcoins" and send them to a specific wallet in order to get their stuff back. This virus travelled through their network attacking all their computers. The documents were not a big deal.

Fisher

But what really got their goose was that their X Ray machine had many configuration files in the form of a text file. Well, this virus scrambled those files with an unhackable password. So their X Ray machine was down. That's not good for a business that counts on being able to look at your broken bones.

by "The Computer Skeptic"

Fortunately, this client had just recently renewed their subscription to an online backup service. They were able to get their stuff running with minimal downtime. But many clients will not be so lucky. A recent news story told of a California hospital actually paying out over $17,000 to cybercriminals to get their data back.

The month of March saw a large increase in this type of virus. My loyal reader may recall an article from last year on a virus called Cryptolocker. This virus required that an end user open an email attachment that then infected the computer and scrambled documents.

The Locky virus is different. This virus (and others like it) is distributed by video ads -- you know, the obnoxious ads you see on websites that play without you clicking on anything. These ads depend on software such as Flash, Silverlight or the code built in to Internet Explorer to run the video. All you have to do is visit a website that is displaying one of these ads. The virus "sees" that you have not updated your video player, jumps into your computer and has a little fun at your expense.

Some of the recent attacks were from viruses that attacked "unpatched" servers. Servers are the central computers in many businesses that dish out information to other computers. So this kind of virus crawls the internet looking for unpatched servers. When it finds one, it scrambles the files on the server as well as all the computers attached to the server. Nice, huh?

So what can you do about this? The solution is really easy. First, have a backup of your data. Keep it in a safe place where it is not attached to a computer. An online backup services such as Carbonite is a good choice. An external hard drive is also a good solution. Just be sure to unplug the drive when not in use.

Then you must--absolutely must--keep your software up to date. You know those Java and Flash player pop-ups that you ignore? Don't ignore those. When your computer tells you it has operating system updates to install, install them now, not later.

with E.M.I. for 13 years. His first release as an artist for Capitol, "Drowning in Memories", made TOP-40 on the Billboard country charts. His debut album and Title Song, "I Tell It Like It Used To Be", went to TOP-10, followed by "I Wish That I Could Hurt That Way Again" which landed at number 4. His next two singles, "Hell and High Water" and "Don't Go to Strangers" made their way to the number one slot.

He sang in Tanya Tucker's single "Don't Go Out," from her album Tennessee Woman.

Brown joined Broadway icon Carol Channing for a duet of "Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree" on her 2012 album True To The Red, White, and Blue. He also recorded a duet with Lulu Roman of Hee Haw fame. He appeared on a Country/Gospel album, Working on a Building, featuring a quartet version of the title song with Marty Raybon, Jimmy Fortune, and Trace Adkins that reached number one on the Gospel chart.

In 2014 Brown collaborated on an album featuring guest appearances by Leon Russell, The Oak Ridge Boys, Steve Cropper, Jeff and Sheri Easter, the Booth Brothers, Three Bridges and others. In July 2014 the first single from the album was released on the MCM World Media Label. The song, "He'll Take Care of You" was written by well-known, award winning songwriters; Dan Penn, Gary Nicholson, and Donnie Fritts.

"The post wanted to put on a concert to expand public awareness of the American Legion, and our commitment to community involvement," said Senior Vice Commander Lance Smith. "Post #11 represents veterans of our area, and there is a strong veteran presence in Lauderdale County. The American Legion is involved in scholarships, baseball, Boys State, student awards, and County Government Day. We also host ceremonies on Memorial Day, Veterans Day, and Armed Forces Day. The benefit concert will help fund these programs." Smith added.

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit #11 will be feeding the band and sound crew. The Sons of the American Legion Squadron #11 will be operating the Concessions Stand. The American Legion will host and facilitate ticket sales.

Adjutant Mary Day Smith confirmed that tickets are available at the American Legion of Florence, the Florence Tourism Office, the Florence Coliseum, and at the door of the Coliseum at the night of the concert.

If you have any questions, please call Post #11 at 256-764-5122 located at 318 South Court Street in Florence.

We Should Be Happy...

to watch life go by. Life was never intended to be a non-active existence.

Today get up and do something. As long as it's legal, moral, and healthy what do you have to lose? Don't spend a lot of time asking others what you should be doing. They really don't know your heart. Ask yourself, talk to God about it, and then move forward with living and be happy.

Mistreatment is Barbarous

To the Editor:

Rattlesnakes are shy by nature—they prefer the company of other rattlesnakes and do not seek out humans. But every year they are slaughtered in rattlesnake roundups, Roman circuses of cruelty and barbarity.

Some snakes are captured by spraying gasoline or ammonia into their burrows, forcing them to the surface; some are yanked out with hooks or tongs. Snakes are reportedly frozen and their mouths are sewn shut so they can be used as photo props. They're dropped and kicked. They are decapitated and skinned, after which their fangs are used to make earrings, their skins are turned into boots, and their flesh is consumed as a novelty.

Rattlesnake roundups have nothing to do with public safety or controlling snake populations. Instead, they promote misinformation and stereotypical fears about snakes and encourage people to treat them with disrespect.

Rattlesnakes are not overpopulated, on the contrary, due in part to rattlesnake roundups, they may be declining. They pose little threat to humans, but gassing them out of their burrows can harm endangered species and pollute the environment. Snakes play important roles in ecosystems by preying on rodents, and are an important source of food for eagles, hawks, bobcats, and other predators.

I am for the child™

I am for the child who has attended eight schools in four years. Because she is moved around in foster care. Because her birth mother, debilitated by mental illness, neglected her. I am for her.

The child who almost died. Who now sits surrounded by strangers, in the back of yet another class at a different school. Failing because she has missed so much of her education at no fault of her own. I am for that child.

To listen to her. To stand up in court for her. To speak for her. To champion without compromise for what's in her best interest.

Because if I am there for her, I know she is that much more likely to find a safe, permanent home. That is the child I am for.

I am a Court Appointed Special Advocate Volunteer. I am a CASA.

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL

Brooke caught Katie drinking alcohol. Bill recruited Justin to find Liam. Wyatt interrupted his honeymoon to visit his mom before her extended trip. Quinn nearly fainted when she found Liam holding the sword necklace. Despite now being married to Wyatt, Steffy still couldn't keep her mind from thinking about Liam. Katie begged Brooke to keep her secret from Bill. Liam asked Quinn what all she had been hiding from him besides his real name. Bill and Steffy feared the worst when Justin's investigation turned up nothing. As Liam's memory slowly started coming back, he specifically remembered the love he and Steffy shared. Quinn feared that the police -- or worse, Bill -- soon would be knocking on her door. Wait to See: A father takes sides between his two feuding daughters.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Kayla met Jade for the first time and realized she knew all about Ava. Ciara confronted Chase after he broke into her mom's house. In an unexpected turn of events, all the charges were dropped against Steve. Kayla called off her engagement. Philip had a heated confrontation with Deimos about Victor. Maggie shared an emotional moment with Summer before her surgery. Deimos wanted to learn more about Nicole's past. Abigail's worst nightmare came true when she encountered Ben. Steve was depressed over losing the love of his life. Meanwhile, Kayla confided in Roman about Steve. Ciara and Theo kissed. Abigail plotted her revenge against Ben. Wait to See:

Steve and Kayla reminisce about their epic romance.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

Sam came to a conclusion about Nikolas and Hayden. Anna pulled a fast one on Paul. Michael told Dante his theory about Sabrina. Tracy learned that she must have surgery. Sam stopped a potential disaster from happening. Carly reminded Sonny of the consequences of going after Carlos. Alexis took matters into her own hands on behalf of her daughter. Carly turned to Jason for help. Anna showed Paul that she was a very strong woman. Alexis surprised Kristina. Sonny reassured Michael that he had everything covered.

Sam and Carly squared off over Jason. Nina's fate was determined with a single phone call. Tracy displayed a noticeable change. Wait to See: Valerie reconsiders her feelings for Curtis.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

An angry Victoria burst in on Phyllis's press conference. Ashley assured her daughter that she wasn't in love with Stitch. Michael advised Victoria to strike a deal with Billy before doing anything else. Sharon ran in to the nurse who Dr. Anderson hired to help deliver the baby. Nikki opened up to Paul about her relationship with Victor. Dr. Neville asked Stitch if he still had feelings for Ashley. Nick told Victoria that he thought Adam might make a play for the company. When Nick offered his help at Newman, Victoria was thrilled to have him back. Shawn went into labor. Wait to See: Victor and Nikki recall happier times together.

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

JUST BE HONEST

Dear Dave,
I took a new job less than a month ago. Just the other day, I was recruited by a huge company for the same position that pays twice what I'm making now. I didn't apply for the job that was offered; they came directly to me. I didn't sign a contract or promise to work a certain length of time with my current employer, but they're good people and I want to do the right thing and handle things well. Do you have any advice?
Jeff

Dear Jeff,
In situations like this I always try to put on the other person's shoes. Let's pretend you own the company and you just hired a young guy. A few weeks later, someone comes in out of the blue and offered him double what he's currently making. I can tell you what would happen here. I'd tell him to take it. I mean, I would. And as an employer I'm certainly not going to double his income that quickly.

I think you take the job. Just walk into your leader's or supervisor's office and tell the truth. Lay it all out there, and let them know that while you feel awful about the situation, you had no intention or misleading them or causing problems, but you simply can't pass up the opportunity. Be sure to show an extreme amount of gratitude, and promise to do everything possible to make the transition as easy as possible.

Truthfully, if an organization cares about its team members, and one of those has the ability to double their income and they're not breaking a promise in the process, this type of scenario is perfectly reasonable. It may be a little uncomfortable for you—and inconvenient for them for a while—but they can't realistically expect you to pass up the opportunity to double your salary.

You're a good man, Jeff. Congratulations!
- Dave

SETTLEMENTS FOR MEDICAL BILLS

Dear Dave,
Will hospitals take a settlement on past due medical bills, or is this a rare occurrence?
Kristin

Dear Kristin,
It's not all that rare for hospitals to accept a settlement on past due bills. Most businesses will accept a settlement on past due accounts, and many hospitals will accept a deeply discounted settlement because they've usually gotten a big chunk of their money up front from the insurance company.

Let's say you had a $1,000 bill with a hospital you honestly haven't been able to pay for several months, or even two or three years. If you go to them and offer $300 or $400 as a settlement, there's a good chance you'll have a deal. Just make sure you get the agreement in writing before you hand anyone a check.

Remember, you have a moral and legal obligation to pay your debts in full if at all possible. But if you truly can't afford to pay, an agreed upon settlement between two parties can be an honorable and acceptable compromise.

A Word of Encouragement

The numbers have it. JESUS SAID IN Matthew 7:13-15 "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." Now, right now, not I hope I am going to be, or I am trying, but now, are you part of the many or the few? Today literal billions are following false prophets, false religions and false brethren, and false gods with perverted bibles straight into the depths of perdition. If you are part of the saved few who have been cleansed by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, and you have lost friends and loved ones out there; you had better get busy and try to bring them in. Time is running out on all of us. If you are saved and walking with God, you should be looking for the return of Jesus Christ, with joy, every day.

To my sinner friends out there, what will God do with you if pass from this life into eternity this week? Are you counting on God balancing the scales of your doing good and evil? You lose. Are you counting on yourself, mom, dad, good works and words, or church, keeping the commandments and sacraments, rituals and ordinances to get you through? You lose. Just what is the criteria essential for Almighty God to allow your entrance into heaven? ANSWER: THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF JESUS CHRIST.

Philippians 3:9 "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Just how would God find you if you left this world today? John 6:47 "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." John 8:24 "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." Don't let the devil steal these words from you. Keep this article. Ask Christ for his righteousness today. YOU MUST HAVE CHRIST'S RIGHTEOUSNESS to go to heaven.
