Letter From The Director Kayla Doney

The Franklin County Chamber of Commerce (FCCoC) unites and promotes hundreds of businesses, professional firms, community organizations, government entities, and individuals. The FCCoC is successful because of the dedication and involvement of our Ambassadors, Board of Directors, members, and staff. We have so much to celebrate about our community including all of the hard working individuals who make Franklin County a wonderful place to live, work, and play. In the following pages you will find the businesses and individuals that make our community great and made this publication possible. I encourage you to support Chamber Members first when searching for goods and services in our area.

To learn more about FCCoC, I invite you to stop by the Chamber at 44 Chamber Way in Winchester, visit our website at www.franklincountychamber.com, or give us a call 931.967.6788.

Best Regards,
Kayla Doney, Executive Director

CHAMBER

Franklin County Chamber

75 years young and just getting started!

Story By: Amanda E. West | Photos by: Brooke Snyder

When most people achieve their “golden years,” they slow down and appreciate retirement — but not the chamber of commerce. They are lacing up their bootstraps at 75 years young and preparing to work harder than ever. “Our community is constantly growing, and so [is] the chamber,” said Executive Director Kayla Doney. “We have evolved tremendously in the last 75 years through tourism, newcomers, and retirees. Between the cabins at Tims Ford Marina, Twin Creeks, Fairview Campground, and the campground at Circle E, we have more visitors taking advantage of our beautiful lake and mountains. I love being involved in my community. Supporting and promoting local businesses are my favorite part of the job. I enjoy the way locals love and support each other.”

The chamber does more than sing the praises of Franklin County to vacationing tourists. They also roll out the welcome mat for brand-new businesses, provide quality leadership, facilitate change within our community, and promote industrial and business growth. Imagine answering hundreds of questions each year via email, telephone, mail, and face-to-face. The diligence of the chamber pays immeasurable dividends to the rest of us.

The chamber wants to recognize several notable members: one of its oldest members, Bennett’s Pharmacy; Hall Furniture, Small Business of the Year; and Russell Barnett Automotive Family, Large Business of the Year.

Hall Furniture

“Hall Furniture was voted Franklin County Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year in 2021. They have been servicing Franklin County since 1949. We are thrilled to be celebrating their accomplishments in our community for 74 years! Hall Furniture should receive an award for being one of the chambers’ oldest members.” said Doney.

Isaac and Mary Gladys Hall relocated from Alabama after purchasing a furniture store from Hall’s previous employer, E.H. Lehman. With extensive knowledge of furniture, the support of his beloved family, and the drive to fulfill his dream, Hall opened the doors. Even though seven decades have passed, Hall’s vision is still being carried out by his great-granddaughter, Carlie Gaby, who joined the business in 2018. “While many faces of the family have retired (Jerry, Nancy, Patsy, and Tammy) over the years,” said Gaby, “Mitch (Hall’s grandson) and I keep the traditions and small-business dream of Isaac Hall alive. We are four generations and 74 years strong.”

“We try to maintain and run Hall Furniture by ‘The Golden Rule’: treat others as you would like to be treated. Our customers have become friends and family over the years. It’s always fun to see repeat customers [and] the different generations of shoppers that we have because their parents or grandparents shopped with us,” said Gaby.

Being a chamber member is a terrific way to network with other local businesses. “It is always wonderful to visit and fellowship with other business professionals. We love Doney,” said Gaby. “She does a wonderful job bringing all the businesses together, from big to small, making us all feel a part of the chamber.”

Bennett's Pharmacy

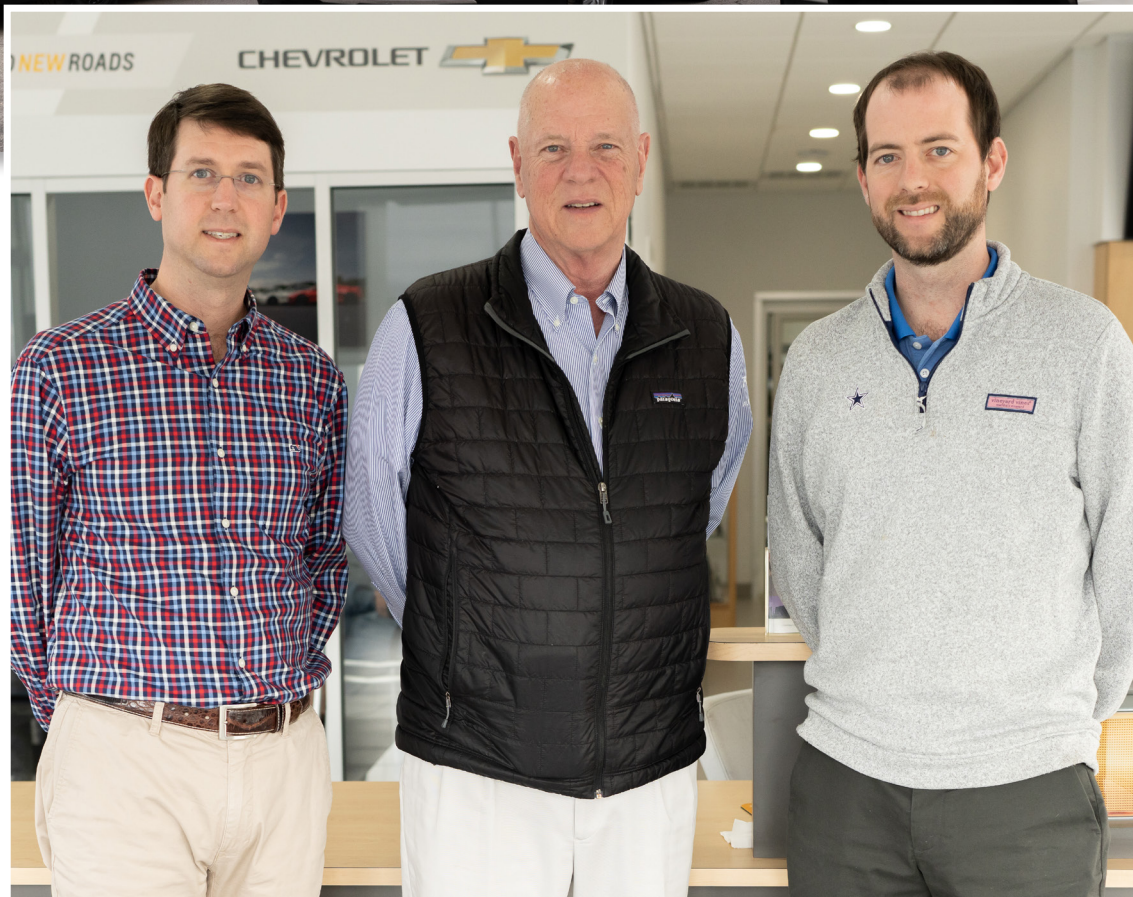

"They are a three-generation pharmacy," says Doney. "However, to us locals, they are much more than a pharmacy. Bennett's has the coolest knick-knacks for gifts, the best ice cream and milkshakes in town, and the most delicious chicken salad and pimento cheese (which you can buy by the tub!). They offer an old-fashioned ambiance as you sit at the soda fountain while you eat your lunch or wait on your prescriptions to be filled!"

Bennett's Pharmacy was established in 1958 by Loel Bennett and was later passed to his daughter, Betty Don Henshaw. Bennett's granddaughter, Lisa Wallace, teamed up with her mother to run the pharmacy until Henshaw's death in 2013. Today, Wallace proudly carries on the Bennett family legacy, seamlessly blending the old ways with the new. "We are unique because we were the first pharmacy in Franklin County to put computers in our store," said Wallace. "We have been very active in providing vaccines and medication management services, plus we offer durable medical equipment. We try to help our patients stay as healthy as possible. We want everyone to live long, healthy lives."

"The soda fountain has held a very special place in our lives," said Wallace. "It can bring a smile to your face whether you are picking up a prescription or just coming by for a treat. If you need a quick lunch, our chicken salad plate is delicious, followed by a banana split. If you live here, you know about our Bloody Marty and our prescription services, but if you are new to town, the chamber gives you access to local businesses and what they offer that makes each one unique. Kayla Doney and her staff have provided us with many tools, such as social media marketing. Ribbon cuttings (for new businesses) and meeting new members are very important, as well as the social networking activities that the chamber provides."

Russell Barnett Automotive Family

“Russell Barnett was voted Franklin County Chamber of Commerce Large Business of the Year for 2021. They opened in 1939 in Waynesboro, Tennessee, and moved to Franklin County in 1981. Today, Russell Barnett is still your ‘one-stop shop’ for new or used vehicles, collision repair, service center, and even rental cars! We are proud to have a family-owned large business that provides many services in one place for our constituents,” said Doney.

“We have six locations,” said Alex Barnett, who works at the Ford store in Winchester. “We have a Chevrolet GMC store, Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram store, and Ford store in Winchester. We have a Kia store, a Ford store, and a Collision Center in Tullahoma. We also rent cars, trucks, and vans from the Chrysler store in Winchester and the Kia store in Tullahoma.”

Members of the chamber since 2000, Barnett said, “Kayla Doney truly cares about Franklin County and the people here. I believe she wants what is best for us. She believes this is the best place to live and work. I think it is important to have a strong chamber. I believe they benefit the community and the businesses that are connected with them. It’s a good way to become involved, know what is happening in the community, and meet new people. They play an important role in our community. When businesses and people get involved, it makes our community better, and we are able to support one another.”

Jump off Tims Ford Lake and into Historic Downtown Winchester for a stroll back in time. You will enjoy our quaint shops, unique restaurants, and frequent community events. By land and water, Winchester has you covered.

Welcome To Franklin County!

Nestled at the southern edge of the Cumberland Plateau, Franklin County boasts a dynamic and prosperous community rooted in a strong sense of place, economic vitality and diverse recreational opportunities for residents and businesses of all sizes. Our proximity to the rapidly growing metropolitan areas of Chattanooga and Nashville, TN and Huntsville, AL allows Franklin County residents and businesses to participate in diverse marketplaces while enjoying the vibrant, small-town charm characteristic of rural Tennessee.

Franklin County provides excellent career opportunities for all education types while maintaining a low-cost but high standard of living. The University of Tennessee Space Institute, the University of the South and Tennessee College of Applied Technology are training the next generation of innovators, professionals, and tradespeople. Not to mention, Franklin County features abundant recreational amenities like Tims Ford Lake, Franklin State Forest, and the Walls of Jericho State Natural Area. Combine all these assets with the smiling faces of area residents, and it is not hard to understand why Franklin County is growing.

As 2023 unfolds, the mission of the Franklin County Chamber of Commerce is to welcome and support everyone who finds their way to one of our thriving cities. We have a tremendous opportunity to bridge existing business and culture with new investment and ideas. My personal goal is to advance the existing Program of Work of the Chamber while developing fresh strategies for economic development, business networking and community engagement.

The future for Franklin County is bright so get out there and enjoy! Take a hike, enjoy the lake, shop the shops, move your business here- you will be happy you came and happier if you stay!

Sincerely,
Mary Lee McConnell, President

Ambassadors

Ambassadors are an elite corp of official boosters whose goal is to increase public awareness of the functions of the Chamber of Commerce for Franklin County. Ambassadors are vital to the success of the Chamber. Business leaders support their community by allowing their employees to serve employees with a vision for a better community who are willing to give their time and enthusiasm as an Ambassador. Ambassadors form the official hospitality team, which welcomes new businesses, contacts members, volunteers to chair projects, and helps to build a better County.

A word from Franklin County Mayor CHRIS GUESS

As Mayor of Franklin County, I would like to extend a warm welcome to our community.

One of our highest priorities, in Franklin County, is to provide our youth with the absolute best educational opportunities to insure the most successful future for them possible. Franklin County High School along with our two new Middle Schools are state of the art facilities and promote the desire for higher education. We also partner with nearby higher learning institutions to make it possible for our youth to pursue advanced education. The Tennessee College of Applied Technology, the University of the South, Motlow State Community College and the University of Tennessee Space Institute are our neighbors and partners in education.

It is also important to recognize our diversified manufacturing base that is vibrant with employment opportunities in the automotive industry and research and testing facilities, among other trades. In addition, our progressive business community and thriving entrepreneurial development at our Franklin County Business Development Center make Franklin County a competitive and advanced county in Tennessee.

Franklin County has a rich history that can be recognized at various historic locations throughout the county including Falls Mill, the Cowan Railroad Museum and Tunnel, the Old Jail Museum, and the stunning campus of The University of the South at Sewanee; And that is just to name a few!!

Another feature of Franklin County is the exceptional Tims Ford Reservoir which is a gathering place for numerous year round outdoor activities such as fishing tournaments, family hiking excursions, and backwoods camping trips. There is also Tims Ford State Park which includes a Jack Nicklaus golf course!

Come stay a while in Franklin County, indulge in our wealth of opportunity, see our beautiful scenery, and discover the driving force of our economy, the vitality of our people! If you already call Franklin County home, we are proud to have you and hope you take advantage of the abundant resources right at your doorstep.

The characteristic describing Franklin County that is most attractive is the feeling of camaraderie and closeness of a small tight knit community with the feeling of togetherness that makes our County feel like home and a perfect place to raise a family and live the quintessential "American Dream".

A word from Decherd Mayor MARY NELL HESS

Decherd was founded in 1853. Decherd owes its beginning to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad which was completed in 1851 through what was to become the town of Decherd. The town is named for Peter S. Decherd, who along with his business partner Ezekiel D. Sanford in 1852, purchased the land and in 1853 developed it into a town complete with blocks and streets.

The town was originally incorporated in 1856, then again after the Civil War in 1868. The Civil War dominated life in Decherd during the war years. No major battles were fought in the area, but several skirmishes were fought over control of the railroad.

From 1885 to 1901 the town, along with many towns in Franklin County, was officially unincorporated due to the “Four Mile Law”, which allowed for the selling of liquor within four miles of schools in incorporated communities only. The town was re-chartered by the General Assembly on April 22, 1901. Governor Benton McMillin signed the private act creating the town. J.F. McGill became mayor in June of that year. R. Ross Powell was the first city recorder. The town also had one Town Marshall. The population in 1900 was about 1000.

In 1890, James Terrill built and established Terrill College on the site where Decherd Elementary School now stands. Decherd is proud of its three largest employers, Nissan Power Train Assembly, Kroger and Henley Supply & Millworks. We have two schools; North Middle School and the before mentioned Decherd Elementary. Decherd’s Lions Club has been active since 1957 providing glasses and eye screenings to our citizens. Our two city parks, Hank Weddington Park and John L. Sanders Park, provide picnic areas, walking trails, softball and playgrounds for all to enjoy.

Decherd is definitely a town on the move into the 21st Century. We have housing available, eateries galore, places to work and play. When you are in Decherd, you can get to anywhere in the world.

We are very proud of our history and this wonderful place to work and live.

A word from Huntland Mayor DOLTON STEELE

Huntland is a beautiful rural community in Middle Tennessee in the southwest part of Franklin County—12 miles southwest of Winchester, the county seat; 22 miles east of Fayetteville, the Lincoln County seat; 35 miles northeast of Huntsville, Alabama; and 100 miles south of Nashville, Tennessee’s state capitol. Huntland has a planning and zoning commission and is governed by five alderman who meet every third Tuesday of the month.

Huntland has one of the county schools, established in the early 1900s, educating students K-12 with about 832 students enrolled. Huntland is proud of its family-oriented elementary, middle school, and high school. They excel in academics, as well as sports. Town water is obtained from two wells with an up-to-date filtration plant. A city park lies in the center of town with a community center and fire hall. A local bank enhances the town’s business section of about twenty businesses. A lumber company is located in the industrial area. A medical clinic ensure residents' health care. Huntland has a Dollar General Store and a remodeled bank building serving as the City Hall and Water Department.

For 70 years, the Huntland Lions Club has held an annual 4th of July celebration. Partly surrounded by beautiful mountains and fertile farmlands, Huntland is a great place for people who enjoy small town life. We encourage you to visit our lovely town.

A word from Estill Springs Mayor JAMES DAVID KELLEY

Incorporated in 1948, Estill Springs is the second largest town in Franklin County. Before 1840, the Estill family had acquired property in the area that bears their name today. Frank Estill offered the railroad company a right-of-way for the construction of a railroad through his land. After the railroad was completed about 1850, there was much attraction to the area.

Mineral springs were probably first discovered by the Cherokee Indians who inhabited the area. Originally, the springs contained sulfur, chalybeate, limestone, and freestone water. The remaining springs are still the source of the town's water supply. Thus the name Estill Springs.

Spas and resorts soon arrived near the springs and became popular with summer vacationers in pursuit of the reputed curative qualities of the water. Mr. Estill had deeded the springs to the town, therefore making this an ideal location for a summer resort. One of the regular summer visitors was the wife of General Douglas McArthur.

Estill Springs' residents take great pride in their churches. Ten churches cover most major denominations. Estill Springs' first public school was a frame building. When this school burned, a new brick building containing six rooms and an auditorium was created and later expanded to accommodate the growing population. Since 1977, elementary students in grades K-6 attend Rock Creek Elementary School. Only the remodeled gym of the old school building remains as the Young and Moore Community Center. Motlow Community College is 10 miles away, and University of TN Space Institute is six miles away, and we have a new Franklin County High School.

Active civic organizations include Boy Scouts of America, Lions Club, Masonic Lodge #651, and Homemakers clubs. Other active community groups are the Saddle Club, Little League, girls softball, Coon Hunters Club, and the Estill Springer's Square Dance Club. Recently completed is the Estill Springs Memory Lane, a fully lighted walking trail with benches, water fountains, bird houses, and a sign dedicated to former citizens of Estill Springs. Greenway Walking Trail is 1.2 miles along the shoreline of Tims Ford Lake with historical markers.

Estill Springs Fire department has all the latest equipment and strives to certify all volunteer firemen. The police department has a dedicated group of officers who provide 24-hour service. We also have two ambulance stations and two excellent hospitals six miles away.

The Mayor and Board of Alderman past and present maintain the lowest tax and water rates in Franklin County, also drawing new residents.

If you're looking for small town atmosphere with a touch of business district, surrounded by a beautiful lake (Tims Ford Lake), opportunities for great outdoor enjoyment, friendly people, pure clean air with accessibility to industry, let me take this opportunity to invite you to drive through, come for a visit or, better yet, make our hometown yours!

A word from Cowan Mayor MARK LEDBETTER

Cowan, nestled in the foothills of the Cumberlands, developed in the mid-19th Century as a railroad and manufacturing industrial base. The famous Mountain Goat, a railroad branch line serving Sewanee and the coal mining towns of Grundy County, connected with the mainline at Cowan and made the Cowan depot a famous landmark. Today, the Cowan Depot is home to Cowan Railroad Museum, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Cumberland Mountain Tunnel, another historic landmark, was once the longest railroad tunnel in the world. The downtown depot district is home to restaurants and specialty shops while also serving as host to several cultural events. The Fall Heritage Festival and the Cowan Christmas Parade are among Franklin County's oldest and largest outdoor events. The nearby Monterey Station hosts large indoor events during the year as well. Cowan Center for the Arts is home to a number of music events, and Franklin County Arts Guild operates a gallery with classes, exhibits and lectures. Be sure to visit Cowan and enjoy what our historic hometown has to offer. For a list of area business, events and attractions, log on to www.visitcowan.com.

A word from Winchester Mayor TERRY HARRELL

Whether you're soaking up some rays, reeling in a trophy bass or shopping for a great bargain, you'll discover more by the lakeshore in Winchester, TN. A stone's throw away from Nashville (90 minutes), Chattanooga (60 minutes), and Huntsville (45 minutes), Winchester is the perfect city to lose the world and find yourself. From outdoor recreation to shopping, dining, and more, you'll find fun with a southern accent in Winchester.

Winchester has a rich culture dating to 1809 when it was incorporated. Winchester was named for General

James Winchester, a veteran of the Revolutionary and Indian Wars. Winchester is a proud partner and participant of the Civil War Trail and the Trail of Tears.

Education and community livability are priorities of the Winchester Mayor and Council. Winchester is surrounded on three sides by Tims Ford Lake, a 10,800 acre lake with 246 miles of shorelines. Our schools are progressive and focused on today's educational needs. Community livability is thriving with the development of Twin Creeks Resort & Marina five minutes from downtown Winchester. The Tennessee Main Street program recognized historic downtown Winchester as a Tennessee Main Street Community, because of the continuing revitalization of the storefronts and infrastructure.

Smiling faces are waiting to greet you for a visit or to welcome new residents or businesses. We are here to make sure you discover more by the lakeshore.

A word from SEWANEE

Sewanee is home to one of the nation's top liberal arts colleges and a seminary of the Episcopal Church. Since its founding, the University of the South has graduated 27 Rhodes Scholars, 53 Watson Fellows, dozens of Fulbright Scholars, and 35 NCAA Postgraduate Scholars, while the institution's School of Theology has added to its alumni ranks countless bishops, including three of the last five presiding bishops of the Episcopal Church.

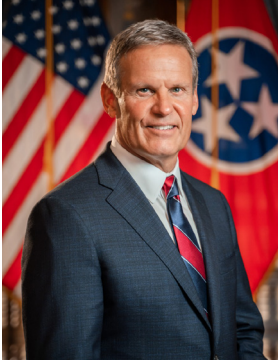

Sewanee, as the University is familiarly known, is located atop the Cumberland Plateau between Nashville and Chattanooga, Tennessee. Sewanee's physical environment, which includes a 13,000-acre campus, provides an unparalleled place in which to study and reflect, and has, over its history, become a meeting place for some of America's most respected literary figures. In addition to its traditionally strong curriculum in the arts and humanities, Sewanee is also known for its science programs, including the unique interdisciplinary Sewanee integrated program in the Environment. Whether a student is interested in arts or sciences, Sewanee provides a challenging and nurturing environment that helps each achieve their very best.

Downtown Sewanee has amenities to complement everything available at the University. A short five-minute bike ride from main campus, the village is home to a bank, a post office, an art gallery, a gas station, a park, a bicycle shop, gift shops, a convenience store, a florist, a weekly farmers market and five restaurants (soon to be six)—quite a lot for a town of over 2,600.

WORLD RENOWNED MANUFACTURING

Franklin County's manufacturing base is broad and known worldwide, producing some of the world's best products. Chamber Executive Director Kayla Doney and other community leaders and economic development officials have a broad vision for growth that includes creating more quality jobs and bringing greater diversity to its current economic base.

Franklin County is home to more than 52 industries producing goods ranging from rugs and hi-pile synthetic fabric to fabricated metal products, rubber weather stripping, and power train engines. Doney says, "The county's attractiveness to these employers and a host of other businesses is largely the result of its abundance of natural resources, readily available utilities, reasonable tax rate and strong community support."

ARNOLD AIR FORCE BASE

The nearly 40,000-acre Arnold Air Force Base (AFB) is home of the Arnold Engineering Development Complex (AEDC). The Complex is a United States Air Force wing-level organization. The workforce of AEDC and tenant units, comprised of 41 uniformed service members, 430 Department of Defense civilians, and 2,301 contractor employees, at Arnold AFB provide developmental test and evaluation capabilities of the nation to prove the superiority of systems required to meet the demands of the National Defense Strategy.

AEDC team operates at 11 sites in eight states and provides 68 distinct, developmental test capabilities ranging from aerodynamic and propulsion wind tunnels to rocket and turbine engine test cells, space environmental chambers, arc heaters, ballistic ranges, sled tracks, and other specialized units.

The base and Complex were dedicated in the memory of Gen. Henry "Hap" Arnold, the father of the United States Air Force, in 1951 by then President Harry S. Truman. Today, the vision of AEDC is to maintain Arnold's goal of an Air Force Second to None.

NATIONAL AEROSPACE SOLUTIONS

NAS is the Test Operations and Sustainment contractor at Arnold Engineering Development Complex at Arnold Air Force Base in Tennessee with remote operating locations in Maryland and California. Whether you're an engineer, an electrician, a pipefitter, or someone trained in business operations, there are many opportunities available with NAS. It takes everyone to make the mission successful. Our employees provide test and evaluation for some of the world's premier aerospace systems. Our work with the U.S. Air Force keeps the warfighter safe by testing systems before they are used in actual flight.

NAS is a Bechtel-led joint venture with Sierra Lobo, and teaming partners nLogic and Chugach. Find out more information at www.nas-llc.us

HI-TECH MOLD & ENGINEERING, S.E. INC. • BAXTER ENTERPRISES • TA-TECH

Hi-Tech Mold & Engineering Inc. opened in 1998 offering the southern states a mold builder and a premier change and repair facility. They put a premium on utilizing the latest CAD software and techniques. From concept to final design, they and the engineers who apply them, pride themselves on innovative ideas.

Baxter Enterprises began as a tool tryout, support, and test facility to Hi-Tech Mold & Engineering in southern middle Tennessee in 2001. Baxter Enterprises has grown into a full-service Tier 1 and Tier 2 supplier to the plastics industry, with facilities covering over 400,000 square feet and employing over 300 people. It houses 25 injection molding machines with a range from 85 to 3,500 tons. In 2016, Baxter Enterprises expanded to a third location in Westminster, SC.

Headquarters for Hi-Tech Mold & Engineering Inc. and Baxter Enterprises are located in Rochester Hills, Michigan. The companies are owned by the Schulte family and managed by Robert Schulte.

NISSAN NORTH AMERICA, DECHERD

For 25 years, Decherd has been home to Nissan's U.S. powertrain operations, and it's a community full of heart.

In the midst of farm fields that go on for miles, Decherd became Nissan's U.S. center for advanced engines and eMotors, powering the all-electric LEAF, best-selling Rogue, rugged Frontier, and more.

Decherd's powertrains may be the heart of Nissan products across America. But the operations are powered by the people of Middle Tennessee – more than 2,000 team members who have proudly engineered and manufactured nearly 17 million engines and eMotors. Powertrains and career opportunities bring teammates to Nissan Decherd, but it's the people, passion and culture that keep them there. What has set it apart for the last 25 years (and counting) is the power from inside.

What's new in Franklin County Schools?

Open enrollment, sports, an apprentice program, and free meals

Story By: Amanda E. West | Photos by: Brooke Snyder

The mission of the Franklin County School System is to provide students the opportunity to achieve their potential in an environment conducive to optimal learning. Following their motto, Franklin County teachers, staff, and students “Strive for Excellence” in everything they do. “Our children are our most valuable asset and the future of our community, state, and nation! Investment in their learning is my first priority, and providing them with the opportunity to excel is our daily focus,” said Stanley Bean, director of schools.

OPEN ENROLLMENT: During open enrollment, a parent or guardian may request that their child attend a school within the district other than the one to which they are zoned. Each year, open seats are posted online, allowing parents to request an open seat for their child(ren.) Parents who wish to request an open seat in the school of their choice must download the request form and submit it to the Central Office before open enrollment ends. Dates for open enrollment are posted online at www.fcstn.net.

INTERSCHOLASTIC SPORTS: Athletic programs offer students expanded learning opportunities, such as self-discipline, building self-esteem, and learning to work together as a team. Students who participate in extracurricular activities can achieve higher grades, have fewer discipline problems, and have better attendance records. With top-notch programs for students interested in basketball, cross country, football, bass fishing, volleyball, wrestling, bowling, baseball, softball, track and field, golf, soccer, tennis, and swimming, your student is sure to discover the perfect fit for their athletic abilities.

GROW YOUR OWN APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM: In January 2022, the United States Department of Labor established an apprenticeship program that includes structured on-the-job learning and hands-on training from an experienced mentor. This program, designed for prospective teachers, allows employees in good standing who have a recommendation from the principal; those with an associate degree (or equivalent hours) from an accredited college or university; and those who have been accepted to the University of Tennessee Southern's (UT Southern) Teaching Education Program (2.75 GPA and 21 ACT) to work as an educational assistant while also completing a course of study required by UT Southern. Upon successful completion of the program, which takes about two years (including summer coursework), the apprentice will earn a bachelor's degree with a license to teach. Tuition, books, program fees, etc., are covered by grants meaning there is zero cost to the apprentice. If you've been thinking about finishing your education and investing in the education of others, today is the perfect time to start.

FREE SUMMER MEALS: Kids 18 and under eat free, thanks to the Franklin County School Nutrition Program. There is no registration required. Children do not have to be present for pick-up. Meals consist of five breakfasts, five lunches, and ½ gallon of milk per child. For the location, dates, and times go to www.fcstn.net.

STATE INDUSTRIAL TRAINING SERVICE

available to Franklin County and its public school system affords outstanding educational opportunities at all levels. Public and private schools offer strong college preparatory, vocational, and technical programs. A variety of higher education opportunities are available within driving distance of Winchester. These include two of the leading academic institutions offering graduate programs, a community college, and two area vocational technical schools.

Franklin County Schools offer a variety of enrichment programs that take students beyond the normal curriculum. Our elementary schools have achieved “Exemplary Schools” status awarded by the Tennessee Department of Education and have received one of the “Ten Great Schools” awards. The “Basic Skills First” program focuses the efforts of elementary teachers on reading, language arts, and mathematics. Our Excel program gives gifted students opportunities for enrichment. Music, art, and physical education teachers promote creativity and good physical health. Special education gives help to our special needs students.

At the secondary level, enrichment is provided for college preparatory courses. An “honors” mathematics program begins at the ninth grade level and allows students to complete calculus in high school. English classes are grouped so students can be challenged at their own levels. Franklin County students compete successfully in the Chattanooga Regional Science Fair. Annually, over one million dollars in scholarships are awarded in public high schools. Academic enrichment in music, drama, and art broaden the cultural awareness of our students and community.

Many of our students begin a vocation immediately after graduation. Introduction to trades and equipment begins during middle school and helps develop leadership and teamwork skills that will contribute to their success. Through the vocational educational focus, training is available in trades and through industrial education, childcare, health occupations, consumer science, agriculture, office occupations, marketing, and industrial arts.

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools has accredited Franklin County High School and the middle schools. The system’s professional staff consists of 450 teachers with over 50% holding a Master’s degree or above. Our teachers are dedicated, caring people who work hard for the children of Franklin County.

Accredited private schools that offer classes in kindergarten through grade twelve are also available. There is close coordination between the public and private schools.

There is a major intangible resource that makes a positive impact on the lives of the students in Franklin County. This resource is the “helping hand” shown through the support of parents, the Chamber’s Partner-In-Education, Education Edge programs and by private citizens. It increases motivation, academic achievement, and improves behavior. If you are seeking excellence in education and a desirable environment in which to rear children, Franklin County deserves your consideration.

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

Franklin County has an Adult Education Program for adults who are interested in completing their elementary and secondary education. The program functions year round with both daytime and evening classes. It is an adult centered learning environment. The Adult Education Program provides English for speakers of other languages. Many of these students also prepare for U.S. Citizenship. Certified teachers teach all classes.

A computer laboratory, instructional videos, books, and software provide an atmosphere of learning, which is tailored to meet individual needs and learning styles. Industries in the area are welcome to tour our facility.

TENNESSEE COLLEGE OF APPLIED TECHNOLOGY OF SHELBYVILLE - FRANKLIN COUNTY CAMPUS

This Shelbyville school was the first of 26 such centers across the state and made possible by legislation enacted by the 1963 General Assembly of Tennessee. It is governed by the Tennessee Board of Regents and is staffed with highly qualified individuals who are specialists in their fields. Each occupational program is equipped with modern tools, machinery, and materials necessary to provide high quality instruction, which is both realistic and practical. The Center is accredited by the accrediting Commission of the Council on Occupational Education.

The primary mission is to meet the occupational and technical educational needs of the citizens and industry in a seven county area in southern Middle Tennessee.

The Center fulfills this mission by providing instructional programs designed to prepare persons for employment. Programs are also designed to add to skills and knowledge of workers already employed.

Full-time preparatory classes meet six hours daily between the hours of 7:45 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. Part-time preparatory classes meet Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings from 5:45 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. Supplemental offerings and schedules can be offered in some cases.

Colleges & Universities

MOTLOW COMMUNITY STATE COLLEGE

Motlow State Community College is a public, multi-campus college in southern middle Tennessee offering associate degrees, certificates, associate of applied science degrees, and flexible learning pathways. For over 45 years, Motlow has proved to be a student-centered institution that promotes academic excellence as well as personal and professional growth.

The original campus opened its facilities in 1969 on 187 acres of land donated by the late Senator Reagor Motlow and family. Motlow College also has campuses in Fayetteville, McMinnville and Smyrna, a teaching site in Sparta, and a partnership in Shelbyville at the Middle Tennessee Education Center. The College serves more than 540,000 citizens in Motlow's 11-county service area.

Motlow is a part of the Tennessee Promise Program—a statewide initiative allows graduating seniors in Tennessee the opportunity to attend Motlow for two years tuition-free regardless of financial status.

Many Tennessee Transfer Pathway degrees may be completed at Motlow. If followed exactly, the pathways guarantee admission to most public universities in Tennessee. Students can save at least 25% on the total cost of tuition by attending Motlow College their first two years.

In addition to offering over 40 Tennessee Pathway degrees, Motlow offers AAS degrees in nursing, early childhood education, information systems technology, mechatronics, business, and paramedic. Technical certificates can be earned in early childhood education, emergency medical services, and mechatronics.

Motlow's nursing program earned a best-in-the-state 100% pass rate. The mechatronics program has multiple partnerships with area industry and high schools and has received national recognition.

Through dual-joint enrollment program, high school juniors and seniors take courses while attending high school. Also, Motlow offers the Adult College Express (ACE) cohort program for busy adult learners.

The quality, flexibility and variety of programs offered at Motlow meet the needs of students, whether they are still in high school, recent high school graduates, returning to complete a degree, or seeking higher education for the first time as an adult.

THE PEN FOUNDATION

Partners in Educational Excellence is a local non-profit organization that provides educational opportunities for children to help them become more successful, productive, and fulfilled citizens.

The PEN Foundation was founded in 1998. They sponsor programs free of charge: field trips to local industries, parks, and historical sites as well as programs focusing on nutrition, safety, math, and science, and programs teaching responsibility and character development—all free of charge. They continue free programs at Decherd Elementary School during the summer.

The PEN Foundation has also worked with elementary and middle schools providing funding for anti-bullying programs. In 2017 they worked with the Franklin County Soil Conservation District and Local NRCS to plan a community garden where over 100 children participated, who were paired with local farmers selling their produce at the farmers market, so they could learn how food gets from garden to the table. In 2017 the PEN Foundation sponsored 2 middle school age students with full scholarships to the Huntsville Space and Rocket Center.

All members of the PEN Foundation are volunteers. The PEN Foundation is always looking for more adults interested in shaping responsible leaders for our future.

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH

Sewanee is home to one of the nation's top liberal arts colleges, a seminary of the Episcopal Church, and an innovative graduate program offering an MFA in creative writing. Since its founding, the University of the South has graduated 27 Rhodes Scholars, 53 Watson Fellows, dozens of Fulbright Scholars, and 35 NCAA Postgraduate Scholars, while the School of Theology counts numerous bishops among its alumni ranks.

Sewanee, as the University is familiarly known, is located atop the Cumberland Plateau between Nashville and Chattanooga, Tennessee. Sewanee's physical environment, which includes a 13,000-acre campus, provides an unparalleled place in which to study and reflect, and has, over its history, become a meeting place for some of America's most respected literary figures. In addition to its traditionally strong curriculum in the arts and humanities, Sewanee is also known for its science programs, including the unique interdisciplinary Sewanee integrated program in the Environment. The College of Arts and Sciences offers 37 majors and 42 minors.

An Honor Code and the Order of the Gown are cherished traditions among students and faculty. There are chapters of Phi Beta Kappa and Omicron Delta Kappa at the University, among other honor and service societies.

UNIVERSITY OF TENN. SPACE INSTITUTE

The University of Tennessee Space Institute (UTSI) is a graduate education and research institution located in Middle Tennessee adjacent to the USAF Arnold Engineering Development Complex in Tullahoma. UTSI has been internationally recognized for graduate study and research, currently offering degrees in mechanical, aerospace, and biomedical engineering. We also offer short courses on specialty topics and a distance education-based engineering management program.

Many students earn their degrees through funding provided by Graduate Research Assistantships made possible through research contracts, providing students with the opportunity for hands-on experience in the institute's laboratory research facilities. UTSI also offers a nine-week summer internship to undergraduate students who would like to pursue a graduate degree at UTSI. During the internship, students work along-side GRAs on real projects, gaining priceless experience working in the laboratories.

UTSI has rental facilities for meetings, workshop, conferences, weddings, parties, and more. Conference rooms are equipped with video conferencing audiovisual equipment, digital projector systems, and other features to accommodate your needs. UTSI also has a dining hall that offers a hot line, made to order sandwiches, and a salad bar that is open to the public, Monday – Fridays, 11:00am -to 1:30pm. To rent a room, take a tour, contact Meghan Morris Nelson at mmorris@utsi.edu or 931 393 7213.

Southern Tennessee Regional Health System

Making the grade in top-notch health care for your family

Story By: Amanda E. West

STRONGER TOGETHER: Southern Tennessee Medical Center in Winchester, Emerald Hodgson Hospital in Sewanee, Hillside Hospital in Pulaski, and Crockett Hospital in Lawrenceburg have combined to form the Southern Tennessee Regional Health System (STRHS). All four hospitals affiliated with Lifepoint Health of Brentwood joined forces to expand access to health care services in the Southern Middle Tennessee region. STRHS brings big-city health care options into rural communities because they believe quality, affordable health care should be available in everyone's neighborhood. The combined system has 382 licensed beds, more than 300 affiliated physicians, and 1,250 employees and serves more than 160,000 people in rural communities in the region.

STRHS WELCOMES ADAM MARTIN AS CEO: Martin was named chief executive officer of STRHS-Winchester and STRHS-Sewanee in August 2022. Martin relocated from STRHS-Lawrenceburg, where he has served as CEO since March 2019. Martin has also previously served at Wythe County Community Hospital in Wytheville, Virginia; Terre Haute Regional Hospital in Terre Haute, Indiana; and University Medical Center in Lebanon, Tennessee. He holds a Master of Business Administration degree, with an emphasis in health care administration, from Bethel

University in McKenzie, Tennessee; and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Evangel University in Springfield, Missouri. Martin's proven leadership, dedication to staff and patients, and integrity will guide the communities surrounding STRHS-Winchester and STRHS-Sewanee to a brighter, healthier tomorrow.

AWARDED 'A' IN SAFETY: In 2022, the nonprofit Leapfrog Group independently awarded STRHS an 'A' safety grade based on a rigorous 22-point checklist. From following critical handwashing procedures to handling medication mishaps to preventable deaths, The Leapfrog Group is a national watchdog organization that works with experts across the country to establish standards of care and create goals that each hospital must achieve. With a 10-year history of assigning grades to general hospitals in the United States, The Leapfrog Group commends STRHS for its strong commitment to patient safety. "Our team is committed to delivering safe, high-quality care to patients, families, and visitors and ensuring that everyone has a positive experience at our hospital. Our 'A' grade is a reflection of the culture we have here at STRHS-

Winchester and STRHS-Sewanee and our commitment to instilling best practices as daily habits," said Adam Martin, CEO. "We have ensured that high-quality care is a way of life for our team, and we have maintained this focus on our patients despite the challenges we have faced throughout the COVID-19 pandemic."

PRESENT & FUTURE: STRHS has added providers in neonatal care, pediatrics, OB/GYN, family medicine, sleep medicine, behavioral health, emergency care, urology, radiology, telehealth, and more. By continually investing in upgrades to their facilities, STRHS continues to meet the health care needs of their community while planning for the future. Recent investments include new laparoscopic operating room towers, OB and neonatal intensive care unit equipment, a central monitoring system for its emergency department, a new ultrasound, 22 new patient beds, new IV pumps, roof repairs, and more. With capable, proven leadership; a strong partnership of hospitals; an 'A' grade safety rating; and an environment that cares for staff and patients, STRHS makes the grade in health care.

SKILLED NURSING FACILITY

Skilled nursing care is a high level of medical care that is provided by trained individuals, such as registered nurses (RNs) and physical, speech, and occupational therapists. These services can be necessary over the short term for rehabilitation from an illness or injury. Our main goal for our patients entering our skilled care facilities at Southern Tennessee Regional Health System Winchester and Sewanee is to get them back to their home. The Skilled Nursing Facility at Southern Tennessee has been awarded a Five-Star Quality Rating from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). CMS created the Five-Star Quality Rating System to help consumers, their families, and caregivers compare skilled care facilities more easily and to help families and patients identify areas where they may have questions. For more information, call 931.967.8249.

CARDIOLOGY

Things To Do!

Circle E Guest Ranch

Sometimes you just need to travel off the beaten path, and there's no better way to do that than on horseback at the Circle E Guest Ranch. Nestled in the Cumberland Mountains, Circle E has over 120 miles of horse/ATV trails that wind through lush forests, rolling hills, waterfalls, and breathtaking lookouts. The ranch offers log cabin and campsite rentals, horseback and ATV day riding, plus events, archery, and lodge rentals for events. It'll be your family's favorite getaway.

SEWANEE: The UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH

Sewanee: The University of the South, commonly known as Sewanee, is a private Episcopal liberal arts college in Sewanee, Tennessee. Sewanee offers 38 majors, 44 minors, three certificates, and pre-professional programs in business, health/medicine, engineering, and law. The area is a must-see campus. The landscape and architecture solidifies the University as a beacon in the county.

Montana Drive-In

There are only 13 drive-in movie theaters still operating in the state of Tennessee and Estill Springs is home to one of the finest. The Montana Drive-In, opened in 2004, shows a variety of new movies all year long and offers a full restaurant menu—trade in your popcorn for a cheeseburger and deep-fried oreos! The three-screen theater is open seven days a week during the summer and Thursday-Sunday during winter. Admission is $8 for adults and $7 for kids age 11 and under.

Oldham Theatre

Winchester’s historic Oldham Theatre will take you back to a simpler time—a time when seeing a movie was an exciting opportunity to dress up and celebrate cinema, not the unglamorous task of choosing between Netflix® new movie releases from your couch. The Oldham opened in 1950 and has held onto its original grandeur for over 70 years. Grab some popcorn and catch a new movie at this iconic, old theatre.

Small Town, Big Fun - The Downtown Square

The city of Winchester is bursting with life, and the downtown area is proof. The area recently underwent a few renovations, all of which are aiding in preserving the history and exciting the surrounding community. There are a wide variety of activities that can be found within the city’s square. While walking around, you will bear witness to beautifully painted murals, unique shops, locally-owned restaurants—and if you’re lucky, you may even get to attend one of the many community events hosted annually. The downtown area centers around the Franklin County courthouse built in the Art Deco style of the early 1900s. The downtown area is full of interesting things, whether it is watching the newest movie at the theatre, eating a meal at one of the many amazing restaurants, or shopping for a unique item, you are guaranteed to have an amazing time.

Branchwater Distillery

Branchwater Distillery was founded years ago by Dave Johnson. It is believed you need three things in order to be a successful moonshiner: ingenuity, patience, and luck. Dave had all three, so he launched a business. The characteristic of ingenuity was put into action when the threat of law officials finding out his operations seemed nearby. Dave devised a plan where he would use a strong branch and pulley system to keep the equipment suspended high above everyone else. This is how the name Branchwater was born. Since then, the business has been passed down and is currently owned and operated by Bud Kelly. The tradition of the past is still alive and well. At Branchwater, all of the cooking is done in the old copper still which is now fittingly named Dave after his grandfather. The goal of Branchwater is to not only create a good product, but to also create an experience along with it. They hope that with every sip, the feeling of the past flutters back in.

THE CROSS AT SEWANEE

On your way to visit this eye-opening cross at Sewanee, you’ll see it appear right in front of you as you approach. Either day or night, and in every season of the year, the area is beautiful and provides a once-in-a-lifetime experience right here in Franklin County. The loop around the cross lets you drive all the way around the memorial.

Falls Mill

Falls Mill

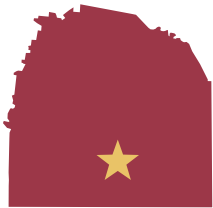

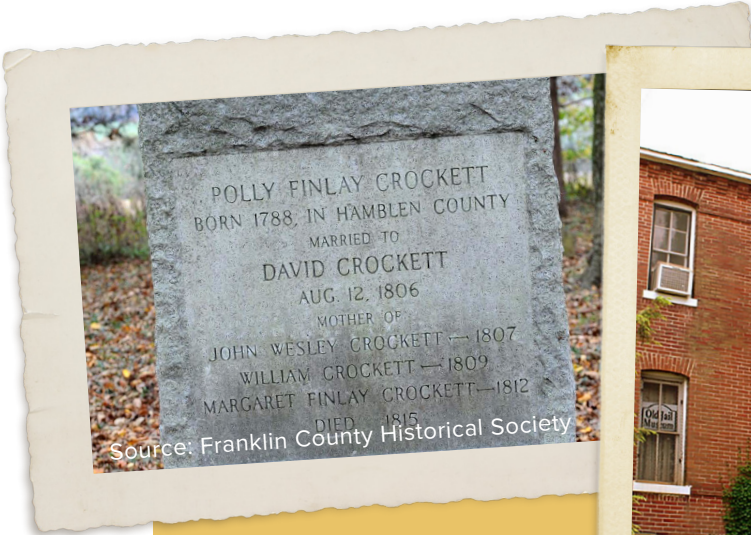

A towering sentinel of the past, powered by the rushing waters of Factory Creek, Falls Mill is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. It's home to a museum as well as a country store. Falls Mill began serving its community in 1873, and has been a thread, cotton, woolen, and grist mill. A printing press and a variety of weaving looms, spinning wheels, and wool carding machines are exhibited in the Museum of Power and Industry. Visitors may want to consider an overnight stay to enjoy bed and breakfast accommodation in the 1895 log cabin on the grounds. Falls Mill is located in Belvidere.

Cowan Railroad Museum

Cowan's railroad history started in the mid-1800s and proudly prevails in this museum, which is housed in a 1904 depot building and surrounded by a landscaped park area. Outside exhibits include a caboose, a 1920 steam locomotive, and a General Electric Diesel switch engine. Around 1,000 artifacts are on display, many of which have been donated or loaned from individual collections. Visitors can glean intriguing information about Cowan's railroad history, and can view scale model trains (a number of which are richly detailed and created by hand); maps; tools; photographs; and even hear modern freight trains rumbling close by. A gift shop offers railroad-related items for sale.

Polly Crockett's Grave Site

Born in Hamblen County in 1788, Polly Finlay wed David “Davy” Crockett in August 1806 at her parents’ home. They lived in that area while their two sons were born. The Crockett family then moved to Middle Tennessee to “Kentuck,” a homestead they established near Belvidere around 1813, where they had a daughter, Margaret. After Davy returned from the Creek War, Polly died in 1815. She was laid to rest in a small cemetery overlooking Beans Creek. Davy later became known as a legendary frontiersman and remarried. The Tennessee Historical Commission erected a historical marker along U.S. 64 in Belvidere and placed a large stone monument at Polly’s grave.

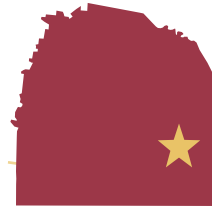

Old Jail Museum

Winchester is home to the Franklin County Old Jail Museum, which is one of the Tennessee Civil War Trails sites, as well as being listed on the National Register of Historic Places. This brick jail dates back to 1897 and was in use until the early 1970s. There are eight rooms in the jail, which include a restored jail cell, and displays including handcuffs; leg irons; Civil War and Native American artifacts; weapons; and farming implements. Other exhibits portray information regarding World War I and II, and about the famous singer and actress Dinah Shore, who was born in Winchester in 1917.

Hundred Oaks Castle

One of very few American castles, Hundred Oaks in Winchester is imbued with a rich and romantic history. Its construction as a plantation-style farmhouse began in 1830 for railroad tycoon Benjamin Dechard. Then it was acquired in 1860 by Albert Marks, who later became the 21st governor of Tennessee. For more than half a century, the castle was a monastery for Paulist Fathers, and in more recent times, the castle served as an Adult Activity Center. Lovingly restored by the Kent Bramlett Foundation, Inc. after a horrendous fire in 1990, Hundred Oaks Castle's splendor is reflected by elegant furnishings and paintings, and neatly-manicured gardens.

Natural Bridge

In the midst of lush hardwoods and moss-covered boulders, a 25-foot tall and 50-foot wide sandstone arch is the namesake of the three-acre Natural Bridge area. Located within the larger South Cumberland Recreation Area south of Sewanee, the bridge was owned at one time by the University of the South, which donated it to the Tennessee Conservation Department. This amazing formation, shaped by Mother Nature's tireless elemental forces, is operated by Tennessee Parks. It's a short hike from the parking area to the Natural Bridge, and those inclined to venture across the top of the bridge can see Lost Cove.

Local Parks

Tims Ford State Park

Sprawling over more than 3,500 acres in the midst of the nearly 11,000-acre Tims Ford Reservoir, those who thrive in the great outdoors can enjoy a wide variety of activities available at this park, including: fishing, boating, biking and hiking, camping, and swimming. The marina has boat rentals and supplies; there are cabins for rent; a conference center; and those who enjoy a picnic outing will find more than 40 tables and grills available. Daily family activities are offered during the summer season, and the 18-hole Bear Trace Golf Course is a popular venue. The vast lake was formed when the Tims Ford Dam was built on the Elk River.

BlueCross Healthy Place at Huntland City Park Huntland City's town center boasts a community park which features a basketball court and bleachers, fitness equipment and a walking track, and a playground with seating. Of special note is the fact that the playground equipment (such as the merry-go-round and see-saws) may accommodate children of all needs and abilities. Picnic tables, grills, and water fountains are in the park as well as a pavilion. This thoughtfully-designed and well-equipped park is primarily funded by a $936,000 grant from BlueCross and BlueShield of Tennessee Foundation. Popular among local residents, this welcoming outdoor area has served as a community gathering place since 2019.

Winchester City Park

Occupying 100 acres and adjacent to Tims Ford Lake, this park offers a variety of recreational opportunities. Winchester residents may enjoy a nearly 2-mile trail that loops through a woodland setting; playing disc golf on a dedicated course; utilizing an indoor/outdoor swimming complex; baseball facilities and little league fields; softball fields; and tennis courts. Public pavilions are available, and a boat launch ramp and fishing piers facilitate access to the lake. Additionally, Independence Day activities and outdoor performances such as live music are held at the park; as well as an annual Kansas City Bar-B-Q cook off; and fishing tournaments.

Taylor Creek Greenway

This interesting recreational property near Estill Springs encompasses 54 rambling acres which include a variety of natural environments. Hiking/walking paths with bridges lead visitors through an open area bordering Tims Ford Lake; a wetlands area ecosystem; a woodland area through which two spring-fed creeks run, and a hilly area which is accessible by more primitive trails. Along the way, covered swings and benches provide places to rest and reflect upon natural beautiful surroundings. An historical marker placed within the forested creekside portion highlights native Tennessean Miss Will Allen Dromgoole, whose appreciation of this peaceful area was memorialized in her poetry.

Harvey's Garden

This floral garden near Winchester offers a soothing and relaxing environment for all to enjoy a colorful, blossoming respite from the hectic pace of life. Named for Harvey Templeton, who wanted to establish and share a flourishing garden with the public, it was his son and daughter-in-law, Handy and Becky Templeton, who began creating the garden in 2003 as a memorial to Harvey. Work is ongoing, and more than 30 acres feature meandering grassy pathways bordered by stones. While strolling along, visitors are treated to the delightful sights and scents of a wide variety of blooming perennials, bushes, and trees.

Dennis Parm Panter Park

This small town park in Estill Springs has picnic pavilions with benches, tables, and grills, which are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Some playground equipment is in the park, as well as baseball fields, which are used at times by the local little league. Occasionally, events such as horse shows may be held at the small track. Flanked by a railroad track on one side and Tims Ford Lake on the other side, visitors may fish from the shoreline. A few primitive camp sites exist. The park was named as a memorial tribute to teenager Dennis Parm Panter.

A wooden boardwalk bridge with railings spans across a stream in a lush forest. The bridge deck is covered with fallen autumn leaves in various shades of brown, orange, and yellow. The surrounding trees are dense and green, with some showing early signs of autumn color. The scene is captured from a low angle, looking down the length of the bridge.

Sewanee Perimeter Trail

The Sewanee Perimeter Trail is a private mixed-use mountain top trail of 20 miles owned and maintained by the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. Open year-round, the trail difficulty is easy to moderate and includes Thumping Dick Cove, Sewanee War Memorial Cross, Green's View, and Morgan's Steep.

The trail follows the perimeter of the Cumberland Plateau bluff line and encircles the campus of the University and will take you to scenic overlooks, waterfalls, and bluffs. Open for use by students, faculty, and alumni of the University as well as local Sewanee residents, the trail includes mixed-use sections suited to hiking, running, horseback riding, and mountain biking.

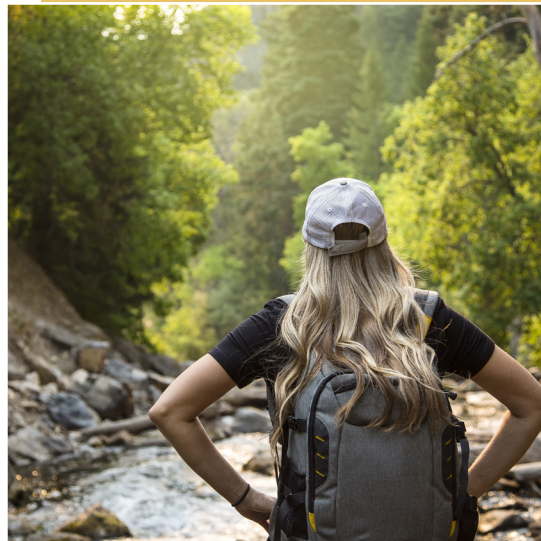

There are 10 designated trails, and access points are found at the Memorial Cross, Lake Cheston, Green's View, and the University Gates, with signs noting hiking and camping policies of the property at the access points.

Tims Ford State Park

The 3,546-acre Tims Ford State Park sits in the shadows of the Cumberland Plateau in south central Tennessee. Its lake is considered one of the most picturesque in the state and regarded as one of the top bass fishing and recreational lakes in the Southeast.

Cabins; boat rentals; campgrounds; The Bear Trace at Tims Ford, a Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course; marinas; dining; birding; hiking trails; biking; picnic pavilions; and playgrounds invite visitors to experience nature and the beauty of the seasons. Hunting is allowed by permit on Tims Ford's huntable lands.

The multiple lodging opportunities include completely equipped cabins, two campgrounds for tent or RV campers, and tent campers may camp on any of the six islands on the lake or at Turkey Creek area.

Tims Ford State Park Fairview Camp Store or the State Park's Visitors' Center Gift Shop offer gear, snacks, accessories, and something special to remember your trip to the park.

Walls of Jericho

The Walls of Jericho Trailhead is a 7.5-mile out-and-back trail located near Belvidere, Tennessee, on the border of Tennessee and Alabama.

"Walls of Jericho" refers to narrow canyons, about a half-mile long, with 200-foot-high vertical limestone bluffs on each side. The hike culminates in the impressive geological feature that forms a large bowl-shaped amphitheater with unique water features from which water drips and spouts. Turkey Creek drains through the Walls and has been an active geological force in creating the amphitheater.

An itinerant preacher performing baptisms there gave the Walls their biblical name in the late 1800s.

There are two trailheads hikers can take to the Walls: from Alabama Highway 79/Tennessee Highway 16, one on each side of the state line and about 2.25 miles apart. The hike from the Tennessee trailhead is less steep than the Alabama Trail. Either way involves an approximately 1,000-foot descent in and climb out.

The Bear Trace at Tims Ford

Located on a peninsula in Tims Ford State Park, you won't find a more tranquil or beautiful golf course than The Bear Trace. Play 18-holes designed by legendary golfer Jack Nicklaus on Champion Bermuda greens and 419 Bermuda fairways. After that, visit the driving range or hit up the snack bar at the clubhouse. If you want to stay awhile (you will), rent one of their cabins, equipped with appliances and all of the essentials, a gas fireplace and an outdoor balcony to overlook the park's wooded hills and waterways.

The Course at Sewanee

When famed architect Gil Hanse, named Golf Magazine's 2009 Architect of the Year, redesigned The Course at Sewanee in 2013, he gave golfers a unique opportunity to enjoy the beauty of the Cumberland Plateau while playing a complex and challenging course. The Sewanee Inn sits at the edge of the course and offers a beautiful golf lodge and bar; southern comfort food at its in-house restaurants; gorgeous views; and luxury amenities—so, you can stay and play! Both the inn and golf course are located on the sprawling campus of The University of the South.

Franklin County Country Club

For those looking for a resort-caliber golf course with family-friendly amenities, the Franklin County Country Club is the place to be. Golfers navigate well-maintained, tree-lined Zoysia fairways; water hazards; earth berms; and bunkers on the 18-hole, 6,600-yard course. And the rest of the family can enjoy the facility's pro shop; swimming pool (equipped with umbrellas and lounge chairs); clubhouse; restaurant; and banquet space for events and gatherings. Opened over 100 years ago, the Franklin County Country Club has become a community staple.

Scenic View Golf Course

Family-owned and operated in Winchester, Scenic View Golf Course offers a great golfing experience for all skill levels. After spending some time practicing at putting and chipping, you'll be able to take on Scenic View's Bermuda fairways and Bent Grass greens. Get your clubs repaired or take golf lessons with a PGA professional on-site. And if you've got a competitive streak, the Scenic View Golf Course hosts a variety of scrambles and events for all ages. It is open to the public for open play seven days a week, weather permitting. But membership options are available.

Filo's Tavern

Filo's Tavern Winchester

Filo's Tavern opened in November 2022. With 60 years of combined experience, chef Jim Filaroski previously worked for Bueno Vista Palace at Disney and Hillstones Restaurant. He and his wife, Heather, also worked for the iconic J. Alexander's Corporation. "We absolutely adore and love our new community," said Filaroski. "The support has been overwhelming and humbling. Franklin County is an incredible community to be a part of. We recently learned we've been nominated by the Herald-Chronicle Ballot for Finest in Burgers, Steak, Seafood, and Fine Dining. We are truly so humbled and proud of our amazing team for this nomination in under two months of being open."

Filo's Tavern may be the new kid on the block, but its roots run deep in family, friendships, community, and hand-crafted furnishings. "Each of our tables was handmade from 100-year-old Maple trees we lost in a storm. A neighbor offered to mill the wood. Chef Jim, a close family friend, and one of our sons built each by hand. They truly represent so much to us."

"We take such pride in our quality and portions and our from-scratch style that everything stands out on our menu. Chef absolutely loves to shine with our daily features. All of our meat is cut in-house. Our salads are fresh and served on frozen dishes. Our seafood is delivered fresh and never frozen. The local ingredients we have are outstanding. Plus, we're honored to work with the Huntland High School STEM program; They provide our microgreens and lettuce for our awesome cuisine."

Western Sirloin Decherd

“Western Sirloin Steak House opened in 1979. The Steak House, according to us locals, will never let you down! My favorite part is it always tastes the same! Every time you order your favorite dish, you don’t have to worry about it being different from before. Consistency is key! Taso and his crew understand that and always work hard to provide the best service and meals to residents, newcomers, tourists, and even American Idol Producers — Huntergirl brought them to town. If you’re looking for pasta, pizza, steak, salads, burgers, grilled chicken, or more, give Western Sirloin a try because they have it all!” said Kayla Doney, Chamber Executive Director.

Western Sirloin will exceed your expectations with fine ingredients and a welcoming community spirit. Begin with a crisp Greek, Caesar, or House salad. Spoil yourself with one of their numerous appetizers, such as Loaded Kettle Chips, Fried Pickles, or Fiesta Corn Dip. Bite into a juicy, perfectly seasoned, hand-cut 16 oz. Ribeye; Beef Kabob; 12 oz. NY Strip; or the Delmonico. Order a specialty pizza or a wrap, such as Buffalo or Barbecue Chicken. Try their Grilled Chicken Souvlaki, Honey Salmon, or Grilled Shrimp. Indulge yourself with a slice of Chess Pie, Lava Cake, or Hummingbird Cake. Catering is also available for your next special event or party.

LuLu's Cafe Estill Springs

“LuLu is the sweetest Southern belle you’ll ever meet; never mind her outstanding Southern cooking skills! My family and I enjoy going there after church on Sundays for a filling and delicious meal. Breakfast is served all day, and they also have a daily meat-and-three lunch special that is to die for. If you’re looking for a home-cooked meal, whether breakfast or lunch, just head down the road to Estill Springs and tell LuLu we sent you! You won’t be disappointed!” said Kayla Doney, Chamber Executive Director.

In 2018, Cindy “LuLu” Powers greased up her iron skillet, followed her dreams, and opened a café featuring the best Southern comfort favorites. “We are a mom-and-pop, small-town restaurant trying to put a smile on everyone’s face,” said LuLu. “All of our food is made in-house. I love seeing everyone full and happy.” Although they’re closed on Wednesday, LuLu’s opens bright and early each day at 6 a.m. while the rooster is still crowing and closes after the lunch rush at 2 p.m. On Sunday mornings, they unlatch their doors at 7 a.m. Order your eggs over easy, a slab of country ham, fried taters, or their locally famous broasted chicken, meatloaf, or country-fried steak smothered in brown gravy. For dessert, try a wedge of LuLu’s Possum, Chess, or Chocolate pie, or a slice of her decadent Texas sheet cake or Sun Drop cake.

Fiesta Grill

Fiesta Grill Cowan

“Fiesta Grill has been operating in Cowan since 2010! They have a large variety of burritos; I’ve tried several, and all of them have been delicious! My favorite dish is the Fiesta Burrito, filled with steak, chicken, shrimp, and vegetables and covered in an amazing cheese and chorizo sauce. If you have a taste for Mexican, I suggest you drive on over to Cowan and give Fiesta a try! You’ll be glad you did!” – Kayla Doney, Chamber Executive Director Fiesta Grill mixes a unique blend of authentic flavors from Mexican cuisine and culture, intertwining them with the welcoming historic railroad town of Cowan. Focusing on high-quality fresh ingredients, they believe strongly in their motto of “good service, great food, and modest prices.” Start your family’s fiesta feast with one of their delectable appetizers, such as shrimp nachos supreme, crazy chicken, or a piping hot bowl of tortilla soup. They offer a wide variety of lunch specials for dine-in or to-go that fit every hectic schedule. If you crave something with an extra spicy kick, give the diablo chicken, shrimp, or burrito a try. With an extensive a la carte menu, dozens of chef specialties, and a diverse children’s menu, everyone at your table will find exactly what they are searching for. For dessert, try their mexican flan, deep-fried ice cream, chocolate chimichangas, cheesecake burritos, and sopapillas. They are open seven days a week.
