Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Seeing the silly side of some really ridiculous situations helps give the Lamb a new perspective on how to handle them. Some important contacts can be made this weekend.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Try to complete your outstanding tasks by midweek. This leaves you free to take advantage of new possibilities -- both professional and personal -- opening up by week's end.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) With both your creative side and energy levels rising this week, you should be able to tackle that too-long-neglected project again. A family member might have important news.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) An explanation you requested seems to be more confusing than enlightening. You should insist on clarifications now, rather than dealing with problems that might arise later.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your energy levels might be ebbing a bit. But that's no excuse for taking catnaps when you could be working on those unfinished tasks. There'll be time to curl up and relax by week's end.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) It's a good time to get those ideas out of your head and into a readable format if you hope to turn them into something doable. In other news, a good friend is ready with worthwhile advice.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Careful -- you might be stepping into dangerous territory if you decide to exaggerate the facts too much. Remember: The truth speaks for itself and needs no embellishment.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Although your workplace successes have earned you many admirers, there are some colleagues who are not among them. Be careful how you proceed with your new project.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You might have to go into great detail to explain why you're currently reluctant to make changes to an already prepared plan. Be sure you have all the facts to back yourself up.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Travel plans might still be uncertain. But instead of getting upset about the delay, open yourself up to other possibilities and begin checking out some alternative destinations.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Changing conditions might require you to alter some of your plans. While you might be agreeable to this, be prepared with explanations for those who do not want changes made.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Although you might have to deal with some detractors who aren't too kind in their critiques, you gain points in your favor when you're willing to stand up and defend your work.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for creating a warm and loving environment between yourself and others.

The Golf Bag

About four or five years ago I was standing in a ticket line at LAX, and a fellow in a line parallel to mine had a golf bag slung over his shoulder. Since the line was long and airline ticketing is a slow process at best, we struck up a conversation. He brightened when I admired his golf bag, and he proudly stated that he was on the PGA Tour. Then he turned to me and asked the question all golfers ask: "Do you play?"

I shook my head, "I used to, but I quit because I wasn't very good. I shot consistently in the lower seventies."

There was a long, low in-take of breath, then "The lower seventies?"

"Yes," I admitted.

"Consistently?" he queried admiringly.

"Every hole," I confessed.

A woman came home, screeching her car into the driveway, and ran into the house. She slammed the door and shouted excitedly, "Honey, pack your bags. I won the lottery!" The husband said, "Oh my God! What should I pack, beach stuff or mountain stuff?" "Doesn't matter," she said, "Just get out."

So I saw an old dude with a fishing rod outside my local bar fishing in a puddle. He looked so cold! I said to him: "Come in for a drink and get warm". As we sipped our double whiskeys, I thought I would humour him. I asked him: "How many have you caught today?" He replied: "You are the 8th!"

Piedmont Pets
 March 2, 2023 By Paulette Dean

We are very pleased to let you know that our spay/neuter rebate amounts have increased, beginning March 1st and ending June 30th. The amount for Danville residents will be $100 and the amount for Pittsylvania County residents will be $75.

Since our organization in 1975, we have preached spaying and neutering and have had many different programs to assist with the cost of the surgery. Since 1993 the generosity of The E. Stuart James Grant Charitable Trust has enabled us to help with having 40,000 animals spayed or neutered.

A rebate certificate must be picked up from the shelter at least the day before the animal is taken to the veterinary clinic for the surgery.

The general guidelines remain the same and are:

1. The money is to be used for residents of Danville and Pittsylvania County. The pets must live with them.
2. No money can be used to facilitate the adoption of any animal from any other rescue group or shelter.
3. No money can be used for any animal being fostered for another group or for an animal that is going to be released to another group.
4. The money cannot be used for general trap/neuter/release programs. The exception would be if an individual will take legal responsibility of the feral cat's lifetime care, including providing food, water, shelter, and veterinary care and the cats are released on the person's personal property.

996 South Boston Rd., Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

We send money to veterinary clinics to help clients most in need of help. In addition, if you have a problem with outside cats that you are taking care of, please call us. We can offer help beyond the rebate amounts.

The real math is this: Every minute in the United States, 50 dogs, 50 cats, and 8 humans are born. That means that a family of four must have 25 pets in order for there to be no homeless dogs and cats.

Spaying and neutering is the right thing to do and provides many physical benefits for dogs and cats.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

* Think money doesn't grow on trees? Try telling that to a certain dog in Colombia. After seeing students pass money to a food stall attendant, the enterprising pooch began a regular practice of "paying" for dog biscuits with tree leaves.

* In a few American cities, Halloween was originally called "Cabbage Night." The name came from a Scottish fortune-telling game in which girls would use cabbage stumps to predict the identity of their future husband.

* Best-selling author Maya Angelou was San Francisco's first Black streetcar conductor.

* Sea sponges, like humans, sneeze to clear their internal filter systems. Unlike humans, such sneezes last about half an hour.

* In the 18th century, some wealthy folks with gardens decorated their plots with "ornamental hermits" -- actual people whom they paid to dress like a Druid (however they took that to look) and wander around their estates.

* America's eighth president, Martin Van Buren, tried to keep a pair of tiger cubs given to him by the Sultan of Oman, but Congress made him send them to the zoo.

* The space between the bottom of a cabinet and the floor is called the toe kick.

* "Chess boxing" is a sport in which opponents alternate between rounds of chess and boxing until either competitor is checkmated or knocked out.

* In 2004, Alice Pike tried to use a fake $1 million bill to purchase $1,675 worth of merchandise at Walmart, expecting to receive change from the undoubtedly startled cashier. Well, she did think the bill was genuine ... as she remarked (from jail), "You can't keep up with the U.S. Treasury."

* The WD-40 Company never patented the WD-40 formula in order to avoid having to publicly disclose its trade-secret ingredients.

Q. Whatever happened to Patricia Heaton? She had two very successful sitcoms, but I haven't seen her in anything since. Is she retiring from acting? — L.A.

A. The talented Patricia Heaton has been blessed to star in not only one but two hit sitcoms in her life. She played exhausted wives on both "Everybody Loves Raymond" and "The Middle" for nine seasons each and then starred in "Carol's Second Act," but it was canceled after just one season.

Now she's bouncing back with another sitcom, which is yet to be named, with veteran comedy writers Carol Leifer ("Seinfeld") and Andy Gordon ("Modern Family"). According to Deadline.com, Heaton will play "the host of an upscale lifestyle show sent to prison for embezzlement and tax evasion. She gets out after two years, forgotten and broke, and moves to Tennessee to live with her estranged sister."

The show will be filmed in Nashville, where Heaton has a residence, and will air on Fox. The only thing stopping it is the potential of a writers strike if negotiations with the Writers Guild of America come to a halt when their contract is up for renewal in May.

While there aren't as many network sitcoms as there used to be, the few that have premiered in recent years have generated quite a loyal audience. "Abbott Elementary," "Ghosts" and "Night Court" all have already been renewed for another season before their current one has been completed.

Q. I remember when Chrishell Stause was a soap opera actress, but now she's on a reality show. Is she ever going to act again? — N.S.

A. Chrishell Stause, who hails from Kentucky, made her acting debut on the ABC soap "All My Children" back in 2005. She went on to play Jordan on "Days of Our Lives" and Bethany on "The Young and the Restless," the latter soap in which she starred with her husband at the time, Justin Hartley. She supplemented her acting revenue by getting her real estate license and joined the Oppenheim Group, selling mansions in

Patricia Heaton ("The Middle" and "Everybody Loves Raymond")

Hollywood and being featured on Netflix's "Selling Sunset."

Justin Hartley became a household name with the hit drama "This Is Us," but he broke Stause's heart when he left her for another former "Y&R" star, Sofia Pernas. Stause was chosen to compete on "Dancing With the Stars" and its five seasons into "Selling Sunset," but she hasn't given up acting — she recently starred in the Lifetime movie "A Rose for her Grave: The Randy Roth Story."

Q. Is it true that "Titanic" is returning to theaters? Is it a remake? Who will play the leads? — S.M.

A. No remake is on the horizon, but the original "Titanic" has been remastered and made its way to theaters this February. James Cameron, director of the Oscar-nominated blockbuster "Avatar: The Way of Water," has re-delivered "Titanic" to the big screen for its 25th anniversary with stars Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet. The running time is 3 hours and 15 minutes, which was an anomaly back in 1997.

* If you have a plastic-bristle broom that is starting to get really ragged and it's time to replace it, don't get rid of it. Turn it into a scrub broom. Trim the bristles down to about an inch. You can even cut them at an angle. Then you can use this broom to scrub stubborn spots. The bristles are nice and tight when they are so short.

* Check your windshield wiper blades. Are they smeary? Before you replace them, use a paper towel and rubbing alcohol to clean the blades. They might have life left in them yet!

* Still fire season in your neck of the woods? Most of us know not to burn magazine inserts or anything plastic, but did you know that you CAN add some spice to your fire? Save the peel from your citrus fruits (oranges, tangerines, grapefruit -- even lemons and limes) to add to your fire. They burn well, and they smell great!

* "We had a piece of linoleum left over when we replaced the kitchen flooring. It was almost a perfect size to put over our picnic table. We use it for crafts and whenever we don't want anything to fall through the boards. It stores neatly against the wall behind our outdoor shelves when we aren't using it!" -- R. in Minnesota

* If you have a light bulb that has broken off in the socket and you need to get it out to replace it, use needle-nose pliers to grab the metal ring and unscrew it. Be sure to turn the light off first! If that doesn't work, you might be able to use a bar of soap to grab any glass shards sticking out, and unscrew it that way.

* "When I put on my stockings, I put on my dish gloves first. It sounds silly, but I do not have any snags in my stockings, and the grip of the gloves makes them easy to pull up and adjust for a perfect fit." -- W.M. in New York

Shrinkflation: Beating Them at Their Own Game

“Shrinkflation.” That’s a word that’s been in the news lately, and one that we need to pay attention to.

We know prices are increasing on our groceries. We see it every time we look at the price tags on the shelves when we shop, and certainly at the checkout. But shrinkflation is a different thing and can be harder to spot. Shrinkflation is sneaky price increases.

In shrinkflation, the prices don’t go up, but what we get comes down. This is impacting most things across grocery stores, including dairy, shampoo, meats, frozen foods, toilet paper, pet food, pastries, candy bars, laundry detergent, sliced cheese, tea bags ... well, everything.

Example: The price of a can of beans stays the same, but we get fewer ounces. Example: The price of a loaf of bread stays the same, but it’s smaller. Same with cereal, which you’ll have noticed when the box sizes changed.

In my case, one particular item (frozen meatballs) at my local store dropped from 64 meatballs to 56 ... fewer for the same money.

Keep an eye on the unit pricing on the tag on the grocery store shelf. Yes, it’s in tiny print (which is one reason to carry a small magnifying glass at all times), but the numbers will tell you the unit price per fluid ounce, pound or count. Over time you’ll be able to see if you’re getting less for your money.

Look at generics to save money (and, in many cases, get a better product) or just change brands. Buy more than one if the price is good, but watch the expiration dates.

Lastly, consider signing up for a store’s loyalty card if you get cash benefits for doing so, and sign up for the emailed weekly sales flyer to shop from.

By shopping carefully, we can beat them at their own game.

Sally's Pumpkin Muffins

I’ve had this recipe for at least 25 years. All the while I thought it was two different recipes: one from my mother-in-law and the other from my dear friend, Claire. Recently upon looking at them side by side ... they were both exactly the same! Two wonderful recipes from two very special ladies!

- 4 eggs
 - 1½ cups oil
 - 1 can (14 oz.) pumpkin
 - 2 cups sugar
 - 3 cups flour
 - 2 tsp. baking soda
 - 2 tsp. baking powder
 - 2 tsp. cinnamon
 - ½ tsp. salt
- Chopped dates, raisins, chopped nuts (optional)

Preheat oven to 400° F.

In a large bowl mix eggs, oil, pumpkin, and sugar.

In another bowl mix flour, baking soda, baking powder, cinnamon, and salt.

Add dry ingredients to pumpkin mixture and blend just until moistened.

Add a bit of raisins, dates, or chopped nuts, if desired.

Fill muffin papers placed in muffin pan full. Bake for 15 minutes. Makes 2½ dozen muffins.

Tip: This recipe can easily be halved, which makes about 15 nice muffins.

Yeah... It's that Easy!!!

Honor Flights 2023

By the time you read this, the first Honor Flights of the year will be taking place.

Honor Flights are free trips to Washington, D.C., for veterans, a day of visiting the memorials and monuments dedicated to their service. The trips leave from one of 124 hubs around the country, with all details managed by a crew of volunteers. In 2022, there were 21,800 veterans who made the Honor Flights and 18,709 guardians with them. Since starting in 2005, Honor Flights have escorted over a quarter of a million veterans on these trips.

Because of the ages of elderly veterans, flights are currently restricted to veterans from the World War II, Korean War and Vietnam War eras.

For those not near a hub, or for those in the five states without hubs, there is the Lone Eagle program (loneagle.honorflight.org). Any veteran is eligible, but priority is given to veterans from the World War II, Korean War and Vietnam eras. Each veteran needs to have a guardian along on the trip. Children or grandchildren are eligible, but they must be 18 years or older.

For veterans who are seriously ill (and who have less than one year to live), there is the TLC program. TLC in this case is taken to mean Their Last Chance -- veterans who might not have time in the future to make a regular Honor Flight. Each TLC veteran needs to have one guardian, a trained caregiver who will manage all the required medical care for that veteran. The costs are picked up by a donor. For specific info, contact Bobbie Bradley at 937-521-2400 ext 104.

To see the 2023 schedule and learn more about Honor Flights, go to www.honorflight.org.
