Baptist and the Bible

Jesus made it very clear that He wants His believers to be one as He and the Father are one (John 17:20-23). Paul said that believers are to speak the same thing and be perfectly joined together in the same mind and judgment (1 Corinthians 1: 10). Two cannot walk together unless they are agreed (Amos 3:3). Since this is God's will, for the sake of love and truth, I beg those who adhere to the doctrines of the Baptist denomination to take seriously the following discrepancies:

(1) Distinguishing Name of Members: the Baptist teaches "Baptist"; the Bible teaches "Christians, saints, brethren, etc." (1 Pet. 4:16; Colossians 1: 2). Solution: Drop the name "Baptist" (as a member and as a denomination) and wear Biblical names only;

(2) Overseers of Local Church: the Baptist teaches "Pastor (singular, preacher) and Board of Deacons"; the Bible teaches "Bishops" (plural, Latin term for "overseers"; "pastors" is also a Latin term for "shepherds"; both terms refer to "elders"), Acts 20: 17, 28; Philippians 1: 1; 1 Timothy 3: 1-7; Titus 1 :5-9 (evangelists/preachers and pastors/elders are two different functions, Ephesians 4: 11). Solution: No longer call the preacher "pastor" or allow him or the deacons to oversee the church AND immediately appoint elders (plural) according to the qualifications of 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1;

(3) Plan of Salvation (getting in touch with Jesus' saving blood): the traditional Baptist teaches "repent and believe", the contemporary Baptist teaches "faith only/sinner's prayer"; the Bible teaches "Hear the gospel, believe in Jesus, repent of sins, confess Jesus and be baptized into Christ to be saved" (Acts 2:38; 17:30; 18:8; 22: 16; Romans 6:3-6; 10:9-10, 17). The Baptist teaches, "He who believes and is saved will be baptized"; the Bible teaches, "He who believes and is baptized will be saved" (Mark 16:16). Solution: Obey the gospel (2 Thessalonians 1:7-9) including being baptized for the right reason, that is, having faith that Jesus is washing away your sins while you are being baptized scripturally (not like when you were baptized to show you were already saved or in order to join the Baptist Church; Acts 19:1-5; 22:16; Colossians 2:11-12).
