It's a GO for the "Home Town" Series

By Linda Cranford
Choking back their emotions, Erin and Ben Napier announced Saturday, February 20, at the 5th Annual Magnolia State Bank Chili Cook Off in downtown Laurel that HGTV has ordered the series, "Home Town."
"Two point two million people viewed the premiere," exclaimed Erin. She added that this was highly unusual for a premier, and thanked everyone who watched.
Pam Weaver and Darron Wilson with the Mississippi Development Authority presented the Napiers with a Mississippi gift basket, to show their appreciation and support for the couple.
"This is great news," exclaimed Mayor Johnny Magee, who was also on hand for the Chili Cook Off and announcement.

Pitching key to Bobcats' sweep of Mineral Area (Missouri)

By Shawn Wansley, JCJC Sports Information Director

Through the early stages of the 2016 season, the Jones County Junior College offense has been receiving high marks and deservedly so.

But here Saturday afternoon at Community Bank Park, it was the Bobcat pitching staff that was front and center.

Calder Mikell and Mason Strickland combined on a 3-0 shutout over Mineral Area College (Missouri) in game one. In game two, JCJC took a shutout into the final inning before the Cardinals scored. But the Bobcats completed the sweep with an 8-4 victory.

The Bobcats have outscored their opponents 100-21 through eight contests.

JCJC is now 8-0 and will travel to Brewton, Alabama, to take on Jefferson Davis Community College in a noon doubleheader on Thursday.

Mineral Area, 2-6, will go to Pensacola, Florida, and play four games in a tournament on Friday-Saturday.

Bobcats 3, Cardinals 0

Mikell pitched out of jams in each of his four innings.

In the top of the first, Chase Urhahn and Ryan Bouse led off with singles, but Mikell then recorded three straight strikeouts.

In the second inning, Brad Freed and Logan Bax led off with singles. Alex Roy then grounded the ball to first baseman Erick Hoard, who fired to Dalton Skelton at second for one out and Skelton relayed the throw back to Hoard to complete the 3-6-3 double play. Mikell then struck out Kenton Crawford to end the inning.

In the third, Bouse and Conner Forsythe had one-out singles for the Cardinals, but Mikell retired Ben Teter on a ground ball and struck out Grant Dix to end the inning.

In the fourth with one out, Bax singled and Roy was hit by a pitch. Mikell then struck out Crawford, but walked Urhahn to load the bases with two outs.

He then struck out Bouse to end the inning.

The Bobcats broke through with two runs in the fourth inning.

Tanner Huddleston led off with a walk and advanced to second on a throwing error. John Alan Wall's ground ball was booted, allowing Huddleston to score. With two outs, Dalton Skelton tripled to the left-center gap to score Wall and give the Bobcats a 2-0 lead

JCJC added a run in the fifth when Shelton Wallace reached on an infield hit and advanced to second on an error. He then took third on another error and scored on Huddleston's sacrifice fly to right.

Mikell, 2-0, got the win. He scattered seven hits, struck out eight and walked one. Strickland went the final innings to earn the save. He gave up just one hit, walked none and struck out three.

Skelton had the triple, while Wallace, Mason Irby, Wall and Erick Hoard had singles.

Jeremy Rettig went the distance and took the loss for the Cardinals. He allowed three runs (none earned), five hits, walked one and struck out three.

Bax had three singles and Bouse had two singles for the Cardinals. Urhahn, Forsythe and Freed added singles.

Bobcats 8, Cardinals 4

Logan Robbins, 2-0, went the first four innings and posted the win.

He gave up no runs, two hits, walked one and struck out five. Tyler Spring then pitched two innings, allowed no runs, one hit and struck out one. Anthony Williams pitched the final inning and allowed four runs on four hits.

The Bobcats got on the board in the bottom of the first inning.

Clint Sasser led off with an infield hit and stole second. Wallace then doubled Sasser home. Wallace took third when the rightfielder misplayed the ball and scored on Irby's sacrifice fly to make it 2-0.

JCJC took a 3-0 lead in the third when Sasser singled, stole second and scored on Irby's double.

The Bobcats scored five runs on just one hit in the sixth inning, as they took advantage of four Mineral Area errors.

Chris Richardson reached on an error to start the inning and Skelton was hit by a pitch. Landon Nettles then reached on a fielder's choice when the catcher made a low throw trying to get Richardson at third base. Fred Franklin's sacrifice fly scored Richardson and Sasser's sacrifice fly scored Skelton to make it 5-0.

Wallace then walked and Irby followed with an RBI single to right. The ball rolled under the rightfielder's glove and went all the way to the wall. Wallace scored on the error and Irby was able to circle the bases when another error was made on the throw back to home plate.

The Cardinals would get singles from Freed, Dix and Trevor Lewis to load the bases with no outs in the seventh. Bax's ground ball out scored Freed and Tim Fox followed with a two-run triple. Bryer Nash's groundout scored Fox with the final run.

Wallace doubled twice and Irby doubled and singled for the Bobcats. Sasser and Richardson had two singles each and Hoard and Franklin added singles.

Fox tripled and singled and Dix singled twice for the Cardinals. Bouse, Freed and Lewis added singles.

Alex Hanft started, went the first five innings and took the loss. He gave up three runs (two earned), nine hits, walked one and struck out two. Brett Mann pitched the sixth inning, allowed five runs (none earned), one hit, walked one and struck out one.

In a release sent out Saturday afternoon from Laurel Main Street, Ben is quoted as saying, "I think, in an era of 'big-city living', 'Home Town' reminds folks of the value in going back to their home towns and doing what they can to be a part of them."

The show features the Napiers guiding home buyers through the process of choosing and renovating a home in a small, southern town. The design and implementation process relies heavily on the knowledge and assistance of local architects, craftsmen and business owners.

"Ben and I are incredibly excited for the opportunity to introduce the world to our precious town and the hardworking people in it," said Erin. "It's those people who demonstrate day-in and day-out that you don't have to leave your small town to make a really big difference."

Pre-production and casting for the show has started, though filming will not likely begin until this summer. People in the process of buying a home in Laurel in need of substantial renovation who would like to be considered should contact hometowncasting@trmedia.com.

LLT's production "Dearly Departed," opens March 3

Submitted

Laurel Little Theatre continues its "Fifty-Fifth & Fabulous" Season with the drop-dead-funny redneck comedy "Dearly Departed" directed by Frankie Bennett.

Performances are at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, March 3, 4, and 5, and the Sunday matinee on March 6, at 2 p.m.

The LLT reservation line opens February 25, and answers 24 hours a day all of show week at 601-428-0140. You can see more info on the entire LLT season at the theatre's website LaurelLittleTheatre.com.

"Dearly Departed" is LLT's annual Southern comedy, and it's sure to be a hoot! Not since "Steel Magnolias" has a more colorful and dysfunctional group of Southern eccentrics gathered below the Mason-Dixon Line.

In the backwoods of the Bible Belt, the Turpin family struggles to all come together to bury the despicable daddy of the family. One son drinks too much, another one is doin' time in prison, the third son is pretty much a deadbeat, the daughter is a junk-food-junkie, and his not-so-grieving widow wants to engrave "He Was Mean And Surly" on the tombstone!

The stage play of "Dearly Departed" was later adapted into a movie screenplay and retitled "Kingdom Come."

Over 40 folks from all over the Pine Belt area have worked on this production, with cast and crew not only from Laurel, but also Bay Springs, Ellisville, Hattiesburg, Hot Coffee, Ovett, Raleigh, Seminary and Waynesboro, as well as Fruitdale, Alabama.

The cast includes seasoned LLT alumni Rick Bennett, Erin Brady, Debbie Brewer, Laura Cooley, Will Hodges, Anne LaBelle, Marian Latimer, Herb Murray, Paula Pierce, Missy Sanderson, Dustin Sullivan and Angela Watkins.

New to the stage and making their LLT debuts are cast members Kaci Beasley, Virginia Brown, Doug McMullen, Cameron Moesta, Stacy Ruth, Eddie Walker, and Jan Walker.

Director Bennett has helmed many LLT productions including "The Addams Family", "9 to 5 - The Musical," "The Dixie Swim Club," "Visions of Broadway," and "Daddy's Dyin'."

Working on the tech crew on sound and lights, sets and props, costumes and make-up, and behind the scenes, are Joe Blackledge, Edward Boone, Cherie Boone, Sandra Boutwell, Tim Flanagan, Steve Guy, Adam Hodges, Brent Holifield, Wess Hughes, Meredith Jordan, Doug McMullan, Paula Pierce, Missy Sanderson, Coty Shoemake, Alison Vanderslice, Jason Vanderslice, Lauralee Watts, Maddie Watts, R.K. Wilson and Rick Youngblood.

Both single tickets and season ticket sales are handled at the door - all's that's needed in advance is a reservation to the particular performance. For any questions, you can also drop a line to LLTLaurelMS@aol.com. Don't miss this one - you'll DIE laughing!

John and Shirley Allegretti of Ellisville recently celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. They were married in Redwood City, California on November 4th, 1950. They moved to Jones County in April, 2007.

John is a retired nuclear engineer/manager, having worked for several companies in Silicon Valley. He is a graduate of the University of San Francisco. In addition to his regular work, John was a professional musician. While in the army he served as maestro of the army dance band in the Panama Canal Zone, was leader of his own band for many years, and was a trombonist with the San Jose Symphony Orchestra. Although John's parents are from San Jose, California, his four grandparents, all natives of Sicily, originally settled in New Orleans before moving to San Jose.

Shirley has spent her life as a housewife, mother, and caregiver to extended family. She is an eight generation Californian; her ancestors being original settlers, colonial officials, and ranchers. Both are life members of the California Pioneers and former members of the San Jose Country Club.

Their three children are: John Allegretti, Jr. of Jones County, Edward Allegretti of Jones County, and Mrs. Harvey (Karen) Parke of Redding, California. They have numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Local boys step into the National Youth Rodeo scene

By Linda Cranford

Two West Jones Elementary students, Kross Smith, 9, and Lane Landrum, 10, are taking their rodeo talents to the next level, and will be competing on the national scene this year with the Southeastern Mini Bareback Riding World Championship Qualifiers series.

Last year the two took home top honors in the 2015 Great Southern Youth Rodeo Association series, competing against 30 other boys and girls in the finals. Smith was the GSYRA series Champion calf rider and bareback rider in the seven to nine year old category, and finished fourth in the All-Around Cowboy competition. Landrum was the GSYRA series Champion in the seven to nine year old category in the Goat Throw competition, and finished eighth in the All-Around Cowboy competition. Additionally Landrum was the overall Goat Throw Champion at the second day Rodeo finals.

Landrum and Smith are the children of Doug and Kelli Landrum of Soso, and are both honor students at West Jones Elementary School. In addition to their pursuing their rodeo aspirations, the boys enjoy volunteering at Horses for Handicapped and Camp Sunshine for Individuals with Disabilities, and are active members of Open Door Baptist Church.

Kelli, said the entire family is involved in the rodeo scene in one way or another. Their dad, Doug, is the Wagon Master for a Dixie National Wagon Train, and she teaches horseback riding and spends a lot of time with teaching the handicap to ride. In her younger days she competed in horseback barrel racing, and carried the flag on horseback for Harper Morgan Rodeo Classic and Dixie Nationals. Even their 16 month old daughter, Kylee, received her first belt buckle last year for being the 2015 Youngest Cowgirl.

"She looks at it all the time, and carries it around with her," exclaimed Kelli. "She loves her pony, too. We have to wait for her to literally fall asleep before we can get her off. Otherwise, she would be screaming to get back on. I think we're in trouble with her, too."

Kelli said the decision to enter the national scene were the boys' idea. "We were watching the National Rodeo Finals on TV last year, and they started out with the Mini Bareback Rider World Championship competition," explained Kelli. "Kross looked at me and said, 'I want to do that.' But, son, I said, that is on a whole different level. He said he didn't care that he wanted to do that. Lane was all for it, too. So, here we go. This year we will be traveling to Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Arkansas. And, hopefully, we will be in Las Vegas in December for the World Championship." She added that the boys will also be attending a couple of professionally taught rodeo schools throughout the year.

"It's going to be a lot of traveling, and a lot of hard work," exclaimed Kelli. "And the boys have to maintain an A average in school, or we don't rodeo." She added that the boys spend a lot of time training and working out. "They have to work on balance training, and strength training. They have to exercise, and work out just like other athletes."

More than 150 contestants, ages 18 and under, from all over the Southeast entered in the Great Southern Youth Rodeo Series last year. "I have to say, that those involved in the sport of Rodeo are the nicest group of parents and kids. They are all so supportive of each other, even though they are in competition with one another. You can watch the older boys helping out the younger ones, and they all cheer for each other. It's amazing how well they all get along. It's a great positive experience for all of us."

Kross started off the 2016 rodeo season taking first place in Mini Bareback Pony competition in Poplarville, and Lane toughed out the competition with a broken finger.

If you are interested in sponsoring these two young cowboys for the 2016 rodeo season you may contact Kelli Landrum at aklandrum@jones.k12.ms.us. Your name or business could appear in Las Vegas in December.

WJHS Peer Council - "Too Good For Drugs"

West Jones High School Peer Council recently taught "Too Good For Drugs" to the 7th graders on campus. Students learned that positive communication methods (words, tone of voice, and body language) are necessary in having conversations without misunderstandings. Council members played games and interactive activities with the students to promote healthy drug free lives. Pictured are 8th grade Peer Council members---Kolbi Holifield, Madalyn Stringer, and Chelsey Dry. Submitted

WCU representatives attend Mississippi Philological Association meeting

William Carey University was represented at the Feb. 12-13 annual meeting of the Mississippi Philological Association by (from left) Dr. Allison Chestnut, professor of language and literature; Shelby Gresham of Taylorsville, a Carey graduate student; Dr. Lorie Watkins Massey, associate professor of language and literature; and Autumn and Nancy Barnard of Laurel, graduate students. Submitted

The Department of Language and Literature represented William Carey University at the 2016 meeting of the Mississippi Philological Association from Feb. 12-13 on the campus of the Mississippi University for Women in Columbus.

Dr. Allison Chestnut, professor of language and literature, read her essay, "Ice, Ice Baby: A Look at Imagery in Moira Crone's The Ice Garden" and Dr. Lorie Watkins Massey, associate professor of language and literature, read her essay, "Everybody Knows About Mississippi?"

Joining the professors were three Carey graduate students. Autumn Barnard of Laurel read "Aphra Behn's Oronoko: A Celebration of Tragedy." Nancy Barnard of Laurel read "The Powerful Presence of Absence: Addie Bundren's Desire for 'Doing' Fulfilled in Cormac McCarthy's The Road," and Shelby Gresham of Taylorsville read "The Indestructible Nature of the Sublime: Era Embodiment in Edgar Allan Poe's Ligeia."

In addition to presenting at the meeting, Massey also edits the philological association's academic journal, POMPA, which publishes select conference papers each year.

Where do you spend your time

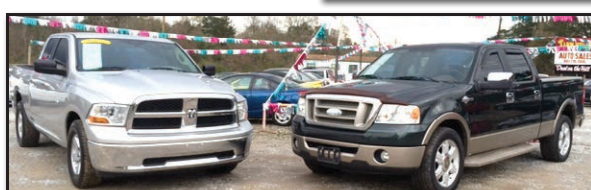

I have a request. Before we get too far into 2016, I would love for all of us make a list of what we value. What's important to us? I believe most of us would write . . . God, faith, family, friends, etc. And while those are all good starters, for the first time in my 53 years on this earth, we will not write down those words. God, faith, family, friends, etc. We will write down one word. Just one: Relationships. Yep, just one word. Relationships.

Personally we value our relationship vertically in Him, and we value those given to us horizontally by Him. We value them very much. Just a request. Take a minute and write what you value on a piece of paper. And then after you write them down, right by it, put down the amount of time you spend with all of them. I suggest there you will find what is most valuable and what is not. Just a thought. See you at a game soon.

LMS show choir shines in competitions

Submitted

The Laurel Middle School show choir, INSYNC, is nearing completion of a successful competition season. Over the past several weeks, the group has competed in various contests around the state and brought home a host of awards.

At both the South Jones Invitational and Mississippi Show Choir Contest the Laurel Middle School show choir was named first runner-up in the Small Middle School Division. For their routine, the group performs choreography and sings a variety of songs including, "We Ain't Got Nothin' Yet," "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," "Ain't No Other Man," "Ain't No Woman Like the One I've Got" and "Ain't Nothing Wrong with That" to round out the selections for their theme of "You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet."

In addition to being named first runner-up at the Mississippi Show Choir Contest, hosted by Pearl River Community College, the entire group of male performers received the Best Male Performer trophy, which is traditionally given to an individual performer.

"We were so surprised to find out the judges wanted all of our men to receive the Best Male Performer award," said INSYNC Director Shelley Rivers. "It could have gone to any male in any middle school show choir, not just our division. The judges agreed that our men were just too good to choose only one."

To round out their awards received at the Mississippi Show Choir Contest at Pearl River Community College, INSYNC was awarded the River Road Award for good character, outstanding conduct and positive attitudes.

"Of all the awards received, this was our proudest moment," Rivers said. "It is fantastic to be recognized for singing and dancing, but it is phenomenal to be recognized for being good kids. I am very proud of our students."

INSYNC will conclude their competition season at the West Jones Invitational on February 19.

The Laurel Middle School show choir, INSYNC, recently brought home the title of first runner-up at both the Mississippi Show Choir Contest and the South Jones Invitational.
