South Jones Elementary named state finalist in the $2 million Samsung Solve for Tomorrow Contest

Submitted

South Jones Elementary announced that it has become a Mississippi state finalist in the Samsung Solve for Tomorrow contest. This contest is a nationwide competition to increase interest in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) by challenging teachers and students to take topics out of traditional classroom settings and into local communities.

During Phase I of the contest Mrs. Hicks won BrainPop for a year to use in her classroom, during Phase II (becoming 1 of 5 state finalists) she won two Samsung Galaxy Tab S2's and now has been announced the State Finalist in Phase III and has won over $20,000 worth of electronics for South Jones Elementary.

Melody Hicks, a Star Reach teacher at SJE, said "I learned about the contest at the Mississippi Association of Gifted Children conference held during the 1st week of October. I decided to give it a try. I almost forgot that I had entered until I received the email saying I was one of five winners in the state of Mississippi beating out over 4,100 other entries. I was shocked to say the least."

SJE moved on to the third round of the competition and recently found out that they won that too, for their interest in using STEM to address bus safety for children in Jones County. South Jones Elementary was one of five schools in Mississippi to become a state finalist in the Samsung Solve for Tomorrow contest. Mrs. Hicks received a phone call on December 9, from Mr. Mark Welker, Corporate Citizenship, from Samsung North America congratulating her on becoming the State winner. SJE is guaranteed $20,000 worth of electronics from Samsung for becoming a State Finalist and Mrs. Hicks will receive a laptop, video camera, and editing software to create a video showcasing how the STEM process is being used to solve the community problem outlined in her Action Plan/Lesson Plan. Mrs. Hicks and SJE are now one of 51 finalists competing to be named a National Finalist. Only 15 will be chosen from a field of 51 and will be awarded with over $40,000 of Samsung electronics and a trip to New York to present their project to judges from Samsung. The other four Star Reach teachers at SJE, Jennifer Allday, Carla Bounds, Kim Beech and Jacqueline Johnston will be assisting Mrs. Hicks as she pursues the fourth phase of the contest with their 6th grade Gifted students in Star Reach.

This is South Jones's first time competing and being named a state finalist in the Samsung Solve for Tomorrow contest. If you want to learn more about the contest, view past winners, and keep up with SJE please visit the Solve for Tomorrow website at: www.solvefortomorrow.com.

Several football Bobcats sign with senior colleges

By Shawn Wansley, JCJC Sports Information

Several Jones County Junior College Bobcats signed football scholarships with senior colleges on Dec. 16, the first day of the early signing period for mid-year transfers.

Linebacker Ty Hill and defensive back Jamal Blackwell signed with the University of West Alabama, while punter Patrick Ponder is headed to the University of Central Arkansas. Defensive back Al'dreecous Wilson signed with Jacksonville State University, linebacker Jahmaad Harrell signed with Mississippi College, defensive tackle Arie Anderson inked with the University of Idaho and offensive lineman Toriaun Samuels signed with Arkansas Tech.

Wide receiver Carlos Burse will sign with the University of West Georgia, long snapper Drew Edgar will continue his career at Louisiana Tech and defensive end Javarious Tanner is expected to sign with West Alabama.

Hill, a 6-foot, 210-pound player from Brookhaven, was named an NJCAA All-American second-team. As a sophomore, he led the MACJC and finished 19th nationally in total tackles with 96 stops – 10.7 tackles per game.

He was named the MACJC South Division's Most Valuable Defensive Back, All-MACJC first-team and All-Region 23. Hill also played in the MACJC All-Star Game.

Blackwell, a 5-foot-10, 170-pound product from Mize, had 24 tackles as a sophomore and 24 stops as a freshman. He had one pass break-up this season.

Ponder, a 6-foot-1, 180-pound player from Bay St. Louis, was named an NJCAA All-American first-team. He led the NJCAA and the MACJC in punting with a 43.1 yards per kick average on 54 punts. He had a season's best kick of 82 yards vs. East Central and had 14 punts that went inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He was also chosen to the All-MACJC first-team and All-Region 23 teams.

Wilson, a 5-foot-11, 185-pound player from Opelika, Alabama, played the 'Bobcat' safety position. He had 28 solo tackles, 17 assists, 45 total tackles, one tackle for loss and one pass breakup. He had two fumble recoveries and two interceptions, returning one of those picks 70 yards for a touchdown vs. Southwest Mississippi in a 27-14 Bobcat win on Sept. 10.

Harrell, a 6-foot-2, 215-pound player from McComb, was the second-leading tackler on the team. He had 42 solo tackles, 18 assists and 60 total stops.

He had three tackles-for-loss, one pass break-up and one forced fumble.

Anderson, a 6-foot-1, 300-pound player from Millbrook, Alabama, had 12 solo stops, 11 assists and 23 total tackles. He had one sack and one forced fumble.

Samuels, a 6-foot-2, 310-pound product from Hazlehurst, was a two-year starter for the Bobcats. He was chosen to play in the MACJC All-Star Game.

Edgar, a 5-foot-10, 230-pound player from Madison Central, was a two-year starter and is regarded as one of top players at his position in the nation.

Burse, a 6-foot-3, 210-pound product from Alpharetta,

Jamal Blackwell (22) returns a kickoff for the Bobcats this past season. Blackwell, a sophomore from Mize, signed a scholarship with the University of West Alabama. Photo/www.jucoweb.org

Georgia, had 47 receptions for 500 yards and two touchdowns on the season. His best game came in a 37-27 loss to Mississippi Gulf Coast where he had 12 receptions for 176 yards and two touchdowns. He was named the MACJC Offensive Player of the Week for that performance. Burse transferred to JCJC from Vanderbilt University.

Tanner, a 6-foot, 240-pound player from Hazlehurst, led the team in quarterback sacks with six. He had 29 solo tackles, 10 assists and 39 total tackles. He had one tackle-for-loss and one fumble recovery.

Several other Bobcats are expected to sign soon with senior colleges.

A talented cast of 35 students at Nora Davis Magnet School recently presented A Christmas Line - a North Pole Musical. The group of fourth and fifth graders sang and danced their way into the audience members' hearts with exciting numbers such as "Razzamatazz" and "The Candy Cane Twist." Although the music was not traditional Christmas carols, it certainly helped students and staff get in the Christmas spirit! There was even a special guest playing the role of Santa Claus - Laurel's very own, Rev. Jaymar Jackson. A Christmas Line was directed by Shelley Rivers, music by Karen Lanier, choreography by Brooke Baggett, and Student Tech Director fifth grader Zipporah Husband. Photo/submitted

JCJC music groups help Salvation Army's Angel Tree program

Submitted

Jones County Junior College students in the Fine Arts Department performing groups, JC Voices and JC Jazz were thrilled with the response of the second annual toy drive in conjunction with their, "A Jingle Jazz Christmas" concert. The public donated hundreds of toys as admission to the holiday concert at JCJC. The evening of jazzy Christmas tunes was spectacular, only topped off by the number of donated toys from the audience.

"We are very happy with the response to the toy drive as part of a new JCJC tradition in the Fine Arts Department. The generosity of so many people attending the JCJC Christmas concert will help a lot of kids in the area have a merry Christmas. Our students said they enjoyed being able to give back to the community as they showcased their talents," said Dr. Susan Smith, JCJC Fine Arts Department Chair.

The Angel Tree began in Lynchburg, Virginia in 1979 and provided a way for the local citizens to be personally involved in sharing with those less fortunate in their community. For more information, call the Fine Arts office at 601-477-4094 or follow JCJC Fine Arts on Facebook and Twitter.
