“Dress Up Style Show” at the Y

By Linda Cranford

Ladies from all over Jones County gathered at the YWCO in downtown Laurel, Tuesday morning, September 29, for a glimpse at a variety of fashion style choices for the 2015 Fall Season, presented by Pam Rasberry with Dress Up Fashions, Inc. The first model of the “Dress Up Style Show,” Jessica Rushing, entertained the guests by singing the beautiful song, “Forever.” The models included women of all ages and sizes. One of the models, Mrs. Bernadine Johnston, will celebrate her 91st birthday on Friday, October 2. Each outfit was accentuated with handmade scarfs and/or jewelry accessories from Brighton, Mariana, and Twenty-nine eleven.

Dress Up Fashions, Inc. celebrated their first year in business on September 22. “Our motto is ‘Beauty Comes From Within,’” said Rasberry. She added that at Dress Up Fashions you’re sure to get a style very few others will have because she never orders the same style of tops twice. She keeps a fair supply of pants in different sizes, but she only orders one of each size in the tops in the same color. “This keeps things unique for our customers, and not everyone in town is wearing the same thing,” said Rasberry.

Dress Up Fashions, Inc. is located next to Quinn Pharmacy in the North Laurel Shopping Center, 3164 Audubon Drive, in Laurel; phone 601-428-4111. Store hours are Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Saturday, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

After the program the guests were invited to stay for lunch, and enjoy a delicious home cooked meal at the Y’s regular weekly Tuesday Luncheon. There are a variety of activities happening at the YWCO year round, with lunches served every Tuesday, classes taught in art, music, and skills, and fitness activities, such as square dancing, swordsmanship, yoga, and Karate. Special programs, such as the Dress Up Style Show, are scheduled each month at the Y. On Tuesday, October 6, Suzanne Boyd with Anderson Square will present a "Harvest Jewelry Workshop." Board President Mary Allred said the holiday season is right around the corner, and preparations are already underway for the two most popular programs of the year – the "Holiday Spectacular," scheduled for Thursday November 5, at 10 a.m., and the "Victorian Christmas Tea," which is scheduled for Thursday, December 3, from 3:30 p.m. until 5 p.m. Both events require reservations. For more information contact YWCO Director Sonya Manass-Turner at 601-428-5694, or visit their Facebook page.

2015 Loblolly Festival

Photos by Linda Cranford

Hundreds packed the streets of downtown Laurel for the annual Main Street Loblolly Festival, Saturday, October 3.

Award winning Chainsaw artist, Dayton Scoggins, demonstrated his art and creates a Deer out of a large piece of wood.

Loblolly Lumberjack, Ben Napier, with 3-year old Elizabeth Collins.

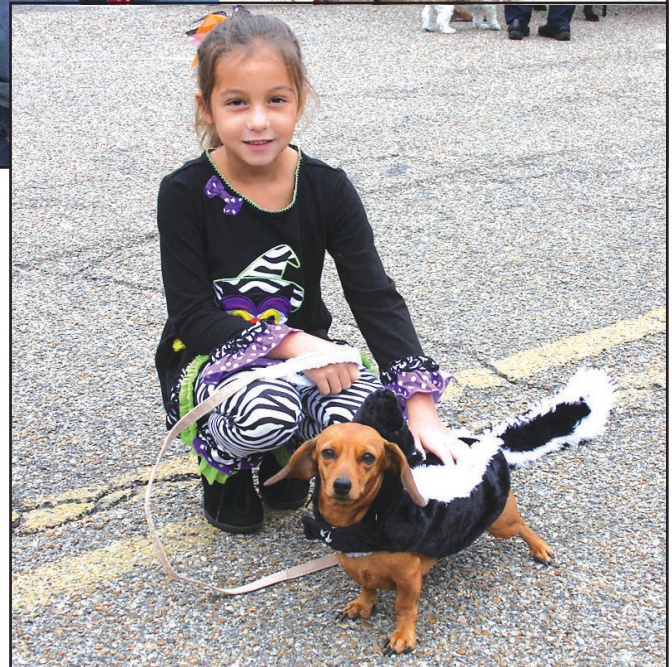

Like father, like son! Dayton Scoggins' son, Kenny, is also a chainsaw artist and carves a large bass.

Above, Faulkner, a Standard Poodle, eyes the corndog, and waits for the okay from his mom, Cynthia Welborn, before taking a bite.

Right, Pooches on Parade was cancelled this year, but Marley Jefcoat and her little Skunk, Harley, a 3-year old Dachshund, surely would have taken the best in costume.

Keeping my musical thoughts to myself

By Mitchell Williams

Got a question: Has anybody ever told you that you were too old to learn? Or maybe you have said to yourself, "I've seen just about everything." Well, the word "about" is pretty much on point. I'm totally convinced that we never stop learning . . . no matter how old you are. Recently my youngest son asked about taking he and a few of his friends somewhere. I had just got home off the road but relished an opportunity to bond with these teenagers for a little bit. Thought it would be pretty interesting to catch up and see what they thought was

"cool" and what . . . wasn't. I learned a lot. A whole lot.

The drive to our location was just awesome! We talked about a lot of stuff. But what I loved to hear -- their hope for the future. High aspirations without limits. Just awesome to hear! But how to get to their goals is a little different. Explain? Well, know the climate our children in which they are growing is much different than that of our past. Much different. While sitting outside in the car and watching our young peo-

South Jones at Natchez

South Jones got its first win over West Jones in 14 years last Friday night. The Braves are 6-1 and 2-0 as they head to Natchez. I look for the Braves to be 7-1 after this week as well.

South Jones 24, Natchez 16

Wayne County at West Jones

This is one of those rivalries where you can throw records and stats out the door. There should be a big crowd in Soso Friday night for this showdown. The Mustangs will fight hard and give it all they've got, but Wayne County is just too good.

Wayne County, 34 West Jones 18

Laurel at Wingfield

Looks as if the Tornadoes have the train back on its tracks. Wingfield is outgunned in this game.

LHS 42, Wingfield 7

Thursday Oct. 8th Heidelberg at Bay Springs

This is a good rivalry game for both schools. I believe the team that wins this game will set themselves up for a long playoff run. I think Bay Springs might have more firepower and will come out on top.

Bay Springs 21, Heidelberg 10

Other games of interest:

Mize 21, Taylorsville 28
 Sylva-Bay Academy 28, Heidelberg Academy 10

ple today, some things are just so apparent. And we don't see anything changing soon. Consider these things:

- *Our kids have hair which can be either blue, purple, gold, maroon....or any color. And it's no big deal.
- *Our kids are colorless, meaning they have many friends which cross every cultural category. No longer a big deal.
- *Our kids don't write handwritten notes anymore. Text, instagram, twitter, and email are here to stay. Big deal? Might be.
- *Our kids are often early fathers and mothers. Kids with kids is no longer seldom. Most don't think it's a big deal. But it is.
- *Our kids have little patience for chaos. They appear to want authentic love and affection. Big deal? Yep, you know it is.

The drive back home wasn't as interesting as the earlier drive. But I did learn two more things. Our kids are not quick judges. There is such diversity around them that they find a way often to accept those who may be a little different than they are. It's beautiful to see. And, I also learned this: Anybody over 40 years of age is considered . . . "really old." It's true. I asked the boys had they ever heard of the group, "Earth, Wind and Fire." "Who?" "How about the Doobie Brothers?" "Never heard of 'em. Mr. Williams, you are so out of touch. When were you born?" My reply, "None of your business, boy!"

I'll know next time, huh? I will certainly keep my musical group thoughts to myself. See you at a game soon.

Southern Miss football report

Record
3-2, 1-0 C-USA

Last Week
W, 49-14, vs. North Texas* (Carlisle-Faulkner Field at M.M. Roberts Stadium/Hattiesburg, Miss./26,430)

This Week
Friday, Oct. 9, at Marshall*, 6 p.m. CT (Joan C. Edwards Stadium/Huntington, W.Va./38,224, TV – CBS Sports Network, John Sadak, play-by-play; Randy Cross, analysis; Rashan Ali, sidelines)

Offensive Player of the Week Nomination
Junior QB Nick Mullens (6-1, 196, Hoover, Ala.): The Golden Eagle quarterback led Southern Miss with four touchdown passes while running for another in a 49-14 Conference USA-opening victory at home against North Texas. Mullens finished the contest 27-of-36 passing for 325 yards and no interceptions. The 75-percent completion rate was the highest of any of his starts in which he threw at least 10 passes. It was his seventh-straight game of throwing a touchdown pass and the third consecutive contest that he has collected at least 300 yards in the air. Mullens now has nineteen 200-plus passing yard games in 21 career starts and has thrown for over 300 yards eight times, including four games this season. He had six passes of 20-plus yards against the Mean Green, including a season-long 62-yard touchdown pass to Mike Thomas on a flea flicker, which gives him 29 for the season. It was one of three TD passes to the senior wide receiver. Mullens also tallied a TD run of four yards and collected his longest rush of the season of 17 yards.

Defensive Player of the Week Nomination
Junior DL Dylan Bradley (6-1, 265, Macon, Miss.): The defensive lineman collected seven tackles (three solo) which included a sack for six yards in the contest. Bradley leads the team in tackles for loss with seven to go along with a team-best four sacks for 27 yards. It was the third time this season he has captured at least four tackles in a game as he leads all defensive lineman on the squad in stops with 23. Bradley helped keep the Mean Green out of the end zone for the first three quarters as Southern Miss limited North Texas to just 5 of 17 on third-down conversions.

Notes

- Southern Miss opened its C-USA season over the weekend with a victory for the first time since 2010 in a 49-14 win over North Texas.
- The Golden Eagles rushed for 248 yards in the contest, giving them three games of at least 200 rushing yards this season. Under Todd Monken, Southern Miss is 5-0 when they go over the 200 rushing yards mark.
- Southern Miss finished the game with 573 yards of total offense, giving them at least 500 yards in three games in 2015. It is the most times that they have accomplished this feat since the 2011 squad did it five times.
- Senior Mike Thomas established career highs for receiving yards (155) and touchdown catches (three) in a game to go along with a season-high seven catches against North Texas. Thomas now has 100-yard receiving contests in consecutive games and has totaled four in his Golden Eagle career.

- Senior WR Casey Martin caught a touchdown pass from the third-straight game against the Mean Green. He leads the team in catches (29), receiving yards (339) and TD receptions (5).

- Sophomore RB Ito Smith collected his third game of at least 180 yards of all-purpose yards in 2015 against North Texas with 84 rushing yards, 85 receiving and 14 kickoff return. He leads the team in all-purpose yards this season with a 782. He notched a career-best seven catches in the contest.

- The defense collected five sacks against the Mean Green, marking the most by the Golden Eagles since they registered that number against UAB on Nov. 30, 2013.

- Senior Michael Smith, who tallied three tackles against North Texas, including 1.5 sacks, needs just one stop to register No. 100 for his career.

- Sophomore Cornell Armstrong recorded his first career interception in the contest.

- Southern Miss travels to Marshall this week for a Friday night contest. It will be the first non-Saturday contest for the Golden Eagles since playing a Thursday night encounter at UTSA (Nov. 13) last season.
