It saddens me that someone, whether it be a child or an adult, can steal from our cemetery. I placed this memorial on my parent's resting place and two days later it was gone. It is of no use to anyone with my parents' wedding picture of the two of them and the dates of their passing. How can anyone feel good about themselves after doing something like this? If anyone finds this, can you please return it to the police department, no questions asked? It's not about the price, but rather the principal of the matter. The church, diocese and local police have been made aware of thefts happening at St. Patrick's Cemetery. I hope whoever did this has a conscience and returns it whether they took it or just found it.
