Mason Park Christmas Lights come on December 5

By Linda Cranford

The twinkle of hundreds of lighted ornaments will begin to shine in Mason Park beginning December 5, and continuing through December 31. The Committee to Light Mason Park, with the help of volunteers from Hellfighters and Mission at the Cross, has been working weekends since the first weekend in October to hang lighted stars, snowflakes, and angels in the trees of

In 1996, a small group of dedicated citizens took it upon themselves to collect lighted ornaments and decorate a portion of Mason Park for Christmas. In 1998, their small collection more than doubled when J.V. Pool, of Ellisville, donated a majority of his own lighted ornament collection to the group. Over the past 19 years the collection has grown, and today visitors to the park will see over 300 lighted ornaments strategically placed high up in the trees throughout the park, which makes them appear to be suspended in the night sky.

By the first Saturday in November, most of the hanging ornaments are in place, and the committee and volunteers begin placing the ground displays throughout the park. The committee maintains the lights and displays during the Christmas season making needed repairs, and patrolling the park each

Doll collection donated to Powers Volunteer Fire & Rescue

Submitted

A unique donation of collectible dolls to Powers Volunteer Fire & Rescue is being hailed as "incredible" by volunteer firefighters and medical first responders with the department.

The family of Mrs. Bobbie Thompson, who passed away on August 8, 2015, contacted Powers Volunteer Fire & Rescue about making a donation of collectible dolls to the department in October. Over the past thirty plus years, Mrs. Thompson had collected mainly porcelain dolls which she displayed in the family home in the Powers Community. Powers Medical First Responders had responded to medical calls at the home where she and her husband Charles lived and developed a friendship with the Thompson's during those medical re-

The Thompson's daughter, Kim Buklew, said the family wanted to make the donation of collectible dolls to Powers with the intent that they be sold to help generate funds for the purchase of needed medical equipment for the department. The collection of over 150 collectible dolls, many with original certificates of authenticity, have been set up on display and are for sale at Peddlers' Junktion located at 604 Carroll Gartin Blvd. in Laurel.

The owner of Peddlers' Junktion, Elana Lawson, felt that the dolls would be a huge hit in the iconic store which features over twenty-five vendors. "We were quite simply amazed at the vastness of the doll collection that Mrs. Thompson amassed and the incredible condition they are in," notes Lawson. She adds, "The collection includes dolls by Lee Middleton, Turner Dolls, Phyllis Parkins and the Welden Musuem of Fine Collectibles among others. These dolls are sure to be a hit and big seller especially as Christmas approaches."

Elana Lawson who is the owner of Peddlers' Junktion and store employee Mckenzie Carmi-

Powers Volunteer Fire & Rescue Fire Chief Joey Davis commented, "This is certainly the most unique donation we have ever received and one that obviously meant a great deal to Mrs. Thompson and her family." He continues, "Our department is exceedingly grateful to the Thompson family for this donation and the proceeds from the sale of the doll collection will be used to purchase supplies and equipment needed by our medical first responders who respond to medical emergencies in the Powers Community."

Powers Medical First Responders Dwayne Walters and Lance Chancellor were among the emergency personnel who responded to the Thompson home the day that Ms. Thompson passed away. "It is always a very emotional time when someone passes away that you have attended to in the past and this response to the Thompson home was no different since we had become friends with the family," noted Walters. Chancellor adds, "We really can't say thanks enough to the Thompson family for this awesome donation. The equipment we purchase with the proceeds from the sale of the collection will be used in future medical responses and may even save a life one day. For certain, it will expand our complement of medical supplies and equipment we respond with and that is always a good thing."

Peddlers' Junktion is open Tuesday through Friday from 10:00AM until 6:00PM and on Saturday from 10:00AM until 3:00PM. Anyone interested in purchasing some, part or all of the doll collection is encouraged to go by Peddlers' Junktion or call the store at 601-342-2278.

Sure wish I could see your face. I know it would be as handsome as the day I met you. You were aging so gracefully at 66.

I know you are so glad to be in Heaven, all the pain you had is all gone, but we sure do miss you and Marion Jr. so much!

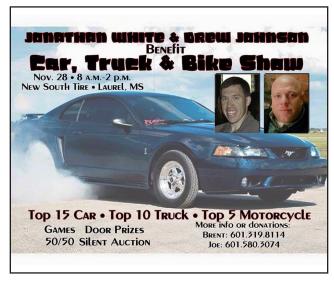

Time cannot heal some things. You just have to know you will be with the ones you love again. What a glorious day that will be!

Still love you so much. We have wonderful children and spoiled wonderful grand and great grand-children!

God bless us everyday, more that I deserve, but that is God's way!

Love, your wife, Jenny, Ruby, Hylma, Georgia, Gil and Janice

Laurel QB, Keon Howard (2), looks for some space Friday night. The Tornadoes will host division foe Wayne County Friday night in the South State championship.

South State 5A Championship game tickets will be available Friday, Nov. 27, beginning at 8 a.m. in the Laurel High School gymnasium ticket booth located on the 12th Street side of the school, facing the stadium. Tickets are $8. No reserve seating and the only passes accepted will be MHSAA State Passes. Gates will open at 5:30 p.m. Friday. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. between the bricks as Laurel hosts Wayne County.

"Jones County is home," Adam Trest, local artist, stated when asked why he chose to start a family in his hometown. Adam and his wife, Lily, their two year old daughter, Fincher, and two dogs reside in Ellisville. "We have lived away, but there is no other place that we want to raise our daughter. Our families are so deeply rooted here and we want to share Fincher's childhood with family and friends."

Adam and Lily, both raised in Jones County, moved away during college and began careers in other states. However, when they began dating, decided to be married and start a family, they were led back home.

When Adam and Lily learned they were expecting a baby, they immediately knew they wanted to experience their daughter's arrival with familiar faces and the comfort of home.

"My daughter was delivered at South Central Regional Medical Center by Dr. Michael Weber. We had such a great experience. We loved the facility. The room was so comfortable it reminded us of home. The meals were always delicious and fresh," said Adam. "That day, which was also our first wedding anniversary, was a happy day. So much excitement and nervousness and we were happy to share it with caregivers who actually care."

Adam says one of the best parts of being a dad is hearing his daughter call him daddy. "You do not know how much a word can affect you until a little short person calls you that," says Adam. "Fincher knows exactly what she wants. I love to see her grow and learn new things every day. It really makes life good."

There's no place like home.

Kim's "No Bull" Dealerships Sponsoring Stuff-A-Truck for ZAC House and Mission At The Cross

Kim's Toyota-Chrysler-Dodge-Jeep and Kim's Chevrolet-Nissan are sponsoring a Stuff-A-Truck Food Drive for Dying To Live Ministries-ZAC House and Mission At The Cross beginning Moday, November 23rd thru Wednesday, December 23rd. Kim and Bob Hobbs will have a pickup truck in the showroom of each their two Laurel vehicle dealerships for donors to drop off non-perishable food supplies to help support the two Laurel area Christisan, substance abuse recovery centers. "We are excited to have the opportunity to help these two incredible faith-based ministries who assist individuals overcome issues they have with substance abuse, "notes Kim Hobbs. She adds, "Dying To Live Ministries-ZAC House provides recovery services for women and Mission At The Cross provides recovery services for men and they both are at or near capacity right now and are in need of food donations especially during this holiday

Pastor Adam Patrick with Dying To Live Ministries-ZAC House advises, "We are very excited about this First Annual Stuff-A-Truck Food Drive being hosted by Kim's which will greatly benefit the residents at ZAC House whom we work with to overcome issues related to substance abuse. We can house up to twelve women at ZAC House and currently have five women also residing at our half-way house named Goshen for women who have completed the six month residential recovery program at ZAC House. Mike Shirley, Director of Mission At The Cross adds, "We currently have twenty-two men residing at the Mission which translates into preparing and serving sixty-six meals each and every day. We can't say thanks enough to Kim and Bob Hobbs for sponsoring this Stuff-A-Truck Food Drive which will help benefit both Mission At The Cross as we go about the work of helping restore lives and families torn apart by substance abuse."

Anyone desiring to drop off non-perishable food donations may do so at Kim's "No Bull" dealerships located at 1030 Hwy. 15 North or 2516 Hwy. 15 North in Laurel from 9:00am until 7:00pm Monday through Friday and 9:00am until 6:00pm on Saturday. Both ministries will share the food donations equally and are very appreciative of the donors who will help make the Kim's Stuff-A-Truck Food Drive a success. "Both ministries have touched hundreds of lives, both those who have come in with addictions and their families, and the change that is brought forth when these men and women come to know Christ is just amazing," advises Pastor Jade Patrick with Dying To Live Ministries-ZAC House. She concludes, "We are already praising God for what will be received and want everyone to know just how thankful we are for each and every food item that will be donated!"

not have gotten it done without their help this year, and last year.'

The City of Laurel works in cooperation with The Committee to Light Mason Park, however, without the committee there would be no Mason Park Christmas Lights. It is through the dedication of these men and women that people throughout the Laurel/Jones County and surrounding areas are able to enjoy the lights each year. The lights can be seen each day from 5 p.m. until 10 p.m., December 5, through December 31. There is no charge for the display and you can driver or walk through the park.

Through donations from the community, the committee raises their own money for the project, which the committee members say is their ministry to the people of Laurel and Jones County. For more information and to help out contact Barbara at 601-283-5174 or email her at btillery@wmcarey.edu. Donations may be sent to Light the Park, P.O. Box 2053, Laurel, MS 39442.

JCJC to hold Blood Drive in support of student

Submitted

Jones County Junior College will hold a holiday blood drive Wednesday, Dec. 2 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. in the P.E. Building. The drive is being held in support of JCJC freshman Reece Stringer, who was recently diagnosed with a form of cancer called T-cell Acute Lymphoblastic Lymphoma.

Beverly Clark, senior donor representative for United Blood Services, emphasized the importance of the drive.

"It's the largest one before the holidays," she said. "We're really going to rely on the blood collected at JCJC to get us through the holidays."

Donors will receive a free hunting tshirt while supplies last, and the Jones County Cattlemen will grill hamburgers for all who donate.

To keep from waiting in line, donors can make an appointment to donate by either going online at www.bloodhero.com (sponsor code: JCJC) or call a designated blood drive committee member at JCJC to book an appointment. They are Fawn Blackledge (477-4245), Donna Bass (477-4066) or Deborah Cheeks (477-2416).

Blue Crab Grill holds Grand

By Linda Cranford

Surrounded by family, friends, Chamber ambassadors, and local officials, Blue Crab Grill owners, Shane and Andrea Thornton, celebrated the Grand Opening of their new seafood restaurant in Laurel, Tuesday morning, November 17. The Blue Crab Grill is located in the former North Laurel Pizza Hut building at the corner of Highway 15 North and Bush Dairy Road.

"Ever since I was in High School, I've wanted to own my own restaurant," exclaimed Shane. "Back then, I wanted to own a Waffle House." He said that he later became interested in the seafood business. One day at church, he told the lady that owned Parker Seafood Mart in Waynesboro that she needed to sell him the business. He was pleasantly surprised when she said that as a matter of fact she had been thinking about selling it. "So, my wife and I bought it, and that was three and a half years ago."

The Thorntons decided to bring their seafood business to Laurel, and focus mainly on cooking. Their signature dish is the Blue Crab Creole that is topped with a crawfish Julie sauce. They also have other specialty sauces they use with their menu items such as a firecracker sauce and a house sauce that is like a seafood rémoulade. Other Chef Special seafood dishes include Shrimp and Grits, Shrimp Alfredo, Catfish Creole, and Soft Shell Crab.

In addition to seafood, the Blue Crab Grill also offers hand cut Stockyard Angus beef steaks, and hand patted hamburgers made from Black Angus beef. "Everything is hand prepared and hand battered," exclaimed Andrea.

"If you order fried okra, you will get hand prepared cornmeal battered okra."

Andrea, who is a nurse during the day for Dr. David Roy at Pine Belt Dermatology in Petal, said that Shane handles all the cooking and the kitchen area and she runs the dining room area.

Right now the Blue Crab Grill is open Monday thru Saturday from 4 p.m. until 9 a.m. They hope to begin opening for lunch in the very near future.

"We've been working on our party room, which can seat from 30 to 35 people, and it should be ready by the first of December," added Shane.

As Emma threw out the first pitch, her dad, who is deployed overseas serving and protecting our country, was able to watch via his wife's Ipad tablet.

Throughout the day, seven teams competed for the championship title. Many people from the community came out to support the event, bought raffle tickets, and placed bids on the several silent auction items. Raising Canes setup their prize wheel, corn hole game, and several other things for the kids, and Kona Ice offered snow cones. The first place winner of the tournament was team "Stacked," second place went to team "Bomb Squad," and taking home third place was team "Pitch Slap."

The benefit tournament was an idea of Parker's, and Garick stated, "We plan on making this a yearly event considering the outcome, and how well this event took off this year, for the first time."

With the money raised during the event, a child from each grade, K-6, at West

Jones Elementary will be chosen to experience a shopping trip of a lifetime with a firefighter from the Calhoun Fire Department, and make their Christmas this year one that they will never forget. "There were so many people that took on many responsibilities to make this possible," said Parker. "Without the help from the fire department, Chief Lee Garick and his wife Becky, all of the children, Alyssa and Abbey Garick and Bailee Polk, and the players and sponsors, this wouldn't have even been possible. I cannot thank them enough," exclaimed Parker.

For all of your farm, ranch, and gardening needs

A steady stream of folks from all over Mississippi as well as Alabama enjoyed feeding the Alpacas and learning about how their fleece is made into yarn, while visiting the booths of over 40 vendors on Saturday, November 21, at the Stringer Alpaca Farm Fall Festival.

The kids enjoyed the large jump houses provided by Holly's Party Jumps, and everyone enjoyed the food from the several food vendors.

Four-year old Jewelee Spinelli enjoyed petting Daisy, a Pigmy goat.

Right, Jayden Runnels is petting Scottie, a four-month old Scottish Highland Cow, the newest addition to the Stringer Alpaca Farm.
