THE TRAVELING AGGIES

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Jennifer Bohac took Aggies all over the world during the twenty years she was the travel director of Texas A & M's Alumni Association. She always packed two special items: patience and flexibility. When she finished her three degrees at A & M she took a job at the University of Minnesota. Although she grew up in the Houston area and didn't see much snow or ice, she decided to take up ice skating in the cold northern state.

"They were shocked to find out that someone my age didn't know how to skate. Up there they start skating about the time they start walking," says Jennifer. One February she got a call from A & M and was offered a job.

"The Traveling Aggies were looking for a director because the previous director was retiring. At the time it was below freezing in Minnesota and it was 82 degrees in College Station. I said I would come down and interview for the job." She got the job in 2001, not a good travel year.

"Here I was brand new starting the program and had to deal with the effects of the September 11th attack on New York's World Trade Center buildings. It took about a year to recover."

When she took over, the Traveling Aggies were going on about ten trips a year. When she left that position a couple of years ago there were ninety trips a year.

"I was on the road probably 240 days a year and traveled to nearly 100 countries. My house is filled with all kinds of things from my trips. You get on a plane and end up on a river cruise or on a safari in Africa and by the end of that trip people are new lifelong friends. They end up going to each other's houses, then going on another trip together. Many members of the TAs have been on several overseas jaunts."

When she took Aggies through the Panama Canal, one of the favorite tours, she and her group got special treatment because an A & M grad was in charge of getting ships through the canal. After all those countries and all that travel including 26 safaris, Jennifer has some favorite places.

"I think the place that probably stole my heart is East Africa."

She always carried an Aggie flag on her trips. It's been on every continent. Jennifer says the travelers sang the Aggie War Hymn all over the world.

"I think the most memorable Aggie War Hymn story I have is when we were on a golf trip to Scotland and there was an Aggie couple that owned the pub there at Saint Andrews where we were having a big Aggie celebration. The owner of the pub Jack Willolby decided for our party he would have a bagpiper learn the Aggie War Hymn, something that's very hard to do on bagpipes. It took him a few weeks, we understand. So we were having this great party and in comes this bagpiper and literally played the Aggie War Hymn on a set of bagpipes much to the delight of the happy Aggies."

Dr. Jennifer Bohac now works with the A & M Foundation.

COLLEEN HOOVER

Time Magazine's 100 Most Influential People!

If you're paying attention you will see Colleen Hoover's books everywhere you look, and more specifically, young people devouring them. Colleen has mastered emotionally fraught narratives—and women are paying attention. Whether you count yourself a Colleen Hoover fan or not, her influence on the publishing industry is undeniable. There are more than 20 million copies of her 24 books in circulation. In 2022, she outsold the Bible. At one point last year, six of her titles simultaneously held top-10 spots on the New York Times paperback fiction best-seller list.

And thanks to her rise on #BookTok, she has motivated an entire generation of readers back to bookstores and libraries. But Colleen—who is a Texan—hailing from small town Sulphur Springs, has not forgotten her home. She is also paying it forward with her nonprofit bookstore, the Bookworm Box, on Main Street and a literary festival Book Bonanza in Texas for up-and-coming writers.

Need New Business Cards?

Stand out from the crowd!!

Come in and let us show you the new Trifecta card! It is triple layered paper and comes with green, red, black and blue edges.

Clyde "Nick" Nichols

Memorial services for Clyde "Nick" Nichols of Sulphur Springs, Texas were held at 11:00 A.M. on Monday, April 24, 2023, at League Street Church of Christ with Jerry Savage and Buddy Wiggins officiating. A visitation was held one hour prior to the service. Mr. Nichols passed to his Lord on April 16, 2023, at Christus Mother Frances – Tyler.

Nick was born on January 20, 1936, in Dallas, Texas to Clyde R. Nichols, Sr. and Lillian Mae (Cook) Nichols. He married Dorothy Wranosky on May 14, 1966, in Corpus Christi, Texas. Because his father's career was in the oil business, Nick grew up in various locations in Texas where the petroleum industry was significant. He attended Sundown High School. He was an outstanding athlete excelling in football, track and basketball. After graduating from high school in 1954, he spent a short time at Paris Junior College and then transferred to Texas Tech where he earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and education. He began his career in the Corpus Christi area schools and spent most of that stint teaching and coaching at Flour Bluff High School. It was there he met Dorothy who was a senior at Texas A&I College in Kingsville, Texas. (Now known as Texas A&M-Kingsville) They were married on May 14, 1966, and three years later decided to relocate to Sulphur Springs where they have lived for 53 years. In Sulphur Springs he taught physical education, health, physical science, history, driver's education and coached his first four years. Nick and Dorothy decided that to assure their being able to continue living in Sulphur Springs, Nick would resign from coaching and become a full-time classroom teacher. He spent the rest of his 37-year career teaching U.S. History and driver's education. He was the History Department chair and director of Driver's Education. Nick enjoyed gardening, cooking and spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife Dorothy; sons, Corey Nichols and Kyle Nichols; grandchildren Camden Nichols, Peyt Nichols, Ryan Johnston and Madison Goodwin.
