He retired in 2001. Jack was a parishioner of Holy Trinity Parish, St. Stephen's Church in Middleport and also St. Mary's Church in Medina. He enjoyed golfing and was a member the Shelridge Country Club. Jack also enjoyed woodworking, playing softball and other sports and was known to be a devoted spectator at his grandchildren's sporting events. Left to cherish his memory are his beloved wife of 55 years, Becky Fike; two children, Lisa (Jason) Smith and John (Tracey) Fike; six grandchildren, Jake, Allie and Adam Smith, Zachary, Miriam and Camden Fike; his sister, Mary "Sandy" (John) Mitchell; sisters-in-law, Suzanne (David) Landers, Marcy Peasland and Kerry Peasland; also several nieces and nephews. Travel Thoughts By Kim

Let's go on an adventure together...to the Houston area of Texas!

One section of a city block called "Graffiti Park" devoted to murals showcasing the history and culture of Houston.

So...I did a thing last week.....I went on my first major adventure of 2023! I went to Texas! I've been to Texas before and was able to check it off the "Visit All 50 States" bucket list item. Although it "technically" met the criteria to be considered for that check mark, I felt like I didn't really do it justice and have wanted to return to see more ever since. So, I did just that last week!

This trip to Texas resulted in putting 653 miles on my rental car, visiting five different cities, a wonderful visit with family, scratching off three more items on the banners on my Adventure Wall in my den, and lots of amazing memories....all in FIVE DAYS!!! I left early Monday morning the 17th and returned mid-day on Saturday the 22nd. It was an amazing adventure and I have so much to share with you all. I'll split out the parts over a few articles - the first will cover days one and two when I was in the Houston area.

This trip was one of my "start with a plan and see where it takes me" kind of trips. I flew into Houston, rented a car, and started to explore. The plan was to start out by spending some time with my cousin who lives in Conroe - about 40 miles north of Houston. From there, I went to Galveston and then to San Antonio with a side trip to Austin. I flew back home out of San Antonio early Saturday morning.

When I landed in Houston about 11:15 am, I picked up my rental car and drove downtown to catch a city bus tour. I do love a good city bus tour - it is a great way to see a good portion of a city and get a taste of what it has to offer. In this case, I really didn't plan to spend much time in Houston - the main goal of starting my adventure in the Houston area was to spend significant time visiting with my cousin. But, I did want to get a glimpse of Houston since I was there. So - I got on an open top double decker bus and had a lovely narrated ride around the city for about an hour in the bright, warm sun. I'll admit I am not a big fan of large cities - I'm a country girl - but I can say I was actually quite impressed by Houston.

A very large sculpture in Houston commemorating the symphony - I believe it is called "Maestro".

Houston is the most populous city in Texas and in the southern US. It is the fourth most populous city in the United States after New York City, Los Angeles, and Chicago and the sixth most populous city in North America. Our tour guide told us about all the Forbes lists that include Houston in the top 5 or 6 ranking cities. He had a lot of impressive things to say about Houston. But, what impressed me more than any of those statistics and facts was all the art throughout the city. There were murals and statues everywhere. The guide told us that the city encourages local artists to be creative and make the city more beautiful. I was also impressed with all the deliberate green space - parks, walking trails, and trees. It really was an attractive city. Our guide also talked about how the theater district is second only to New York City in area and number of seats. It appears that culture is important to Houston.

The one thing I personally think the city is most famous for is the NASA Space Center. I considered taking some time to see it, but it really isn't my "thing" and I kinda only wanted to go there so I could post a selfie on Facebook with the caption "Houston, we have a problem!" Hahaha.....not worth the time it would have taken away from my family visit.

As planned, I spent the late afternoon and dinner in Conroe with my cousin, Gary. I was running out of steam by then, so I excused myself after we caught up a bit over a delicious steak dinner to go get settled in at my hotel. Then, the next day I spent the entire day just relaxing with Gary and enjoying his company and our conversations.

I spent two nights at the Holiday Inn Conroe I-45 N --- if you're ever in Conroe, I highly recommend it. It is a very nice hotel - comfortable and clean. I also recommend the restaurant we had lunch at - Rudy's BBQ! Can't go to Texas without eating some BBQ - right? The food was delicious and the atmosphere was casual and relaxing.

My two days in the Houston area may not sound very exciting to you, but it was exactly what I wanted and needed. I got to see Houston and spend quality time with family I rarely get to see - can't beat that with a stick! The sight-seeing came after I left Conroe early on the third morning. There is still a LOT more to see in Texas, so I may have to go back, someday. But, for now, I am very happy with what I did get to see and do on this adventure - I did Texas right, this time!

Check out my blog post about the first two days of my Texas Adventure: <https://thoughtsbykim.com/2023/04/24/2023-texas-adventure-houston-and-conroe/>. My next article in two weeks will focus on Galveston - I LOVED Galveston and I can't wait to share it with you.

Happy Adventuring, Kim Pritt

The first of several open top double decker bus tours I took in each of the cities I visited on my Texas Adventure. The weather was absolutely perfect for a relaxing, narrated tour of the city of Houston..

MOTHER'S DAY BUFFET
Eggs Benedict, ham, home fries, scrambled eggs, dessert, plus more!

Happy Mother's Day!

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20
Aries, even though you have been making great progress, you have some more work ahead of you this week. Overcome any distractions that get in your way.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21
Taurus, you may want to avoid crowds this week. Use this opportunity to enjoy some quiet, alone time to recharge. There will be time for socialization in the weeks ahead.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21
You may be called in as a mediator this week, Gemini. It may be challenging to remain impartial, as you are friendly with both people involved. Tread carefully.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, there are a few decisions that you will need to make in the days to come and they are not to be taken lightly. Give each ample time and consider all angles.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23
An opportunity all but falls into your lap, Leo. Make sure you jump on this because opportunity may not knock again. The benefits are too big to pass up.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
There is not much more help you can lend to a situation, Virgo. This week you may have to accept that you have simply done all that you could do. Move on and focus on the future.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
Expect some strange things to happen to you this week, Libra. The unexpected could be the breath of fresh air you need, especially if your schedule has been stagnant.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
Scorpio, assist a loved one as much as you can this week. You may need to be a devoted caregiver or a listening ear. Whatever the case, handle it with undivided attention.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarius, a deep focus on health may compel you to get around to making some changes you've been planning. Embrace this newfound resolve.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, allow others to take the lead when a project ends up coming across your desk. You could learn something from the expertise of others if you emulate their actions.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
Aquarius, you have left no stone unturned in a situation that involves relocation. Now it is just a matter of wait and see. Give it a few weeks, then move on.

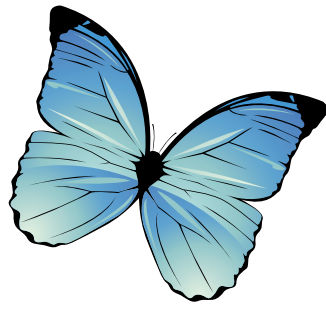

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20
Pisces, others have very positive things to say about you, especially during the course of the next few days. Relish in their attention.
