Nahoula DAR to honor Vietnam veterans

Submitted

Nahoula chapter Daughters of the American Revolution in Laurel will join a national effort to thank and honor our Vietnam veterans and their families.

The Laurel event will take place from 3 to 5 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 17, at First Baptist Church of Laurel.

"We believe there are about 144 Vietnam veterans in Jones County," said Margie Hauenstein, chairman of Nahoula's event. "Invitations are being sent to those men and women."

She noted that all veterans and active service members will also be recognized. The general public is encouraged to attend.

"We are preparing for a very large crowd," she added.

The purpose of the local event is to "thank and honor veterans of the Vietnam War, including personnel who were held as prisoners of war or listed missing in action, for their service and sacrifice on behalf of the United States and to thank and honor the families of these veterans."

Different branches of the military will be recognized as the specific hymn from each branch is played. There will be reserved seating for the honored guests and their families.

There will also be a moment of silence for fallen servicemen.

Chaplain Capt. Stacey E. Pickering, USAF, will be the keynote speaker at the program.

A Jones County native, Pickering is a member of the Mississippi Air National Guard where he is assigned to the 286th Air Operations Group located at Key Field in Meridian. He was commissioned in 2011 and promoted to captain in 2013.

He is a graduate of Jones County Junior College and Samford University and received a master of divinity in marriage and family counseling at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

Chaplain Pickering has over 20 years of civilian pastoral ministry experience having worked as a youth director, adjunct professor and director of marriage and family counseling and ministry.

He and his wife, Whitney, have four children.

Others on the program include Dr. Randy Turner, invocation; Derrick Meador, music; Laurel High School ROTC, presentation of colors; Mayor Johnny Magee, pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America; LHS choral director, Krista McKenzie, the National Anthem; First Baptist Church music direc-

YWCO Annual Holiday Spectacular

By Linda Cranford

The Holiday season is upon us, and to kick it off, the YWCO held its annual Holiday Spectacular Thursday, November 5.

“Around the shop, I’m known as The Queen of Cram,” exclaimed Pam Ishee with Laurel Nursery and Garden (formerly Penland, and Horne Nursery) as she created a beautiful winter blooming mixed flower planter by arranging 11 plants in a 14 inch container.

On hand for the demonstration was Pam Edwards, who purchased the popular nursery in June with her husband, Chase. Edwards and Ishee spoke about how the nursery is preparing for the season and will host an Open House on Sunday, November 8.

“We have a new machine, and will be cracking, shelling, and blowing pecans again,” said Ishee. “We will have pecan halves and pecan pieces for sale, too.” Ishee said they are expecting the Poinsettias to arrive the week before Thanksgiving.

“Pam is the best,” exclaimed Beda Masters. “She will help select the plants, knows what you need, and will show you how to arrange them.”

Ishee has been working with the nursery for 14 years. “I do this because I love what I do,” exclaimed Ishee. She added that Lynn Thompson is still involved with the nursery, too, and is propagating and growing the plants.

The planter Ishee created was given away as a door prize, and the winner was new Laurel business owner Anna Edenfield with Home Instead Senior Care, located on Short 7th Street in Laurel.

Laurel Nursery and Garden is located at 3836 Highway 15 North in Laurel and offers a wide array of plants and flowers, landscaping services, and gift shop. Phone 601-428-5911.

Suzanne Anderson-Boyd, with Anderson Square, demonstrated how to make fun and interesting ceramic Christmas Ornaments. “We take the ordinary and make it look extraordinary,” exclaimed Boyd.

Anderson Square offers a jewelry and pottery shop with creations by owner Suzanne Anderson-Boyd, children’s bows and clothing by Kelly Lambert, art and craft making classes, paint-your-own pottery, a party room, and more. “The studio is always open for you to stop in and create your own hand-made pottery piece,” said Boyd. The store hours are Tuesday through Friday, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m., and at other times with appointment. She and her assistant, Wes Smith, are available to help you in your creations. For information visit Anderson Square Facebook page or call 601-340-3153.

After the demonstration, the guests were given the op-

“A Jingle Jazz Christmas” with Salvation Army’s Angel Tree at JCJC

By Teresa McCreery, JCJC Media-Public Relations Director

The Jones County Junior College Fine Arts Department is inviting the public to start the holidays with, “A Jingle Jazz Christmas,” featuring the JC Jazz and JC Voices. The evening of jazzy Christmas tunes will be Thursday, December 3, at 7 p.m. in the Bobby Shows Exhibit Hall in the Ronald E. Whitehead Advanced Technology Center, located in the Howard Technology Park in Ellisville. There’s one twist to this holiday gathering. The students and faculty of the JCJC Fine Arts Department request that you bring one new unwrapped toy for the Salvation Army’s “Angel Tree” program as your admission to the concert. Toys, including sports equipment, board games and plush animals will be given to a child in our area this Christmas.

“We are thrilled to partner with the local branch of the Salvation Army to support the Angel Tree Program. Many of our students are on scholarship and they look forward to performances like this one where they can give back to the community and showcase their talent,” said Dr. Susan Smith, JCJC Fine Arts Department Chair.

In return for your donation, Jones music students will provide an evening of beautiful holiday favorites like, “O Holy Night,” “Hark the Herald Angels Sing,” and big band Christmas favorites performed by JC Jazz, under the direction of Jeff Cannon. The audience will also be serenaded by the JCJC select vocal ensemble, JC Voices, under the direction of Dr. Susan Smith and accompanied by Dr. Victoria Johnson. JC Voices will sing several selections with JC Jazz, including “Gettin’ in the Mood for Christmas,” and the classic, “We Need a Little Christmas.” The ensemble will also share popular tunes like “The Christmas Song,” “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas,” “Jingle Bells,” and several cherished sacred selections.

The Angel Tree began in Lynchburg, Virginia in 1979 and provided a way for the local citizens to be personally involved in sharing with those less fortunate in their community. The Jones County Junior College Fine Arts Department is pleased to partner with the Salvation Army this year in providing a bit of Christmas cheer for “angels” in the Pine Belt. Join us for an evening of jazz and giving on December 3, 2015 at 7 p.m. For more information, call the Fine Arts office at 601-477-4094 or follow JCJC Fine Arts on Facebook and Twitter.

portunity to paint their own ornament to take home with them.

The guests were treated to a Holiday Spectacular Brunch catered by Roderick Hollins, his assistant, pastry chef Diane White, and served by the YWCO Y-Teens. The guests enjoyed a biscuit bar, cobb salad, honey mustard and apple pork tenderloin, breakfast potato casserole, New Orleans style pralines, parfaits, homemade chocolate peanut candy, and brunch punch. Hollins demonstrated how to make a special Cajun gravy for the biscuits which included cherry tomatoes, different color bell pepper, purple onion, margarine, sausage, canned tomatoes or Rotel, ham, flour, milk and Old Bay Cajun seasoning.

Hollins, former Cullinary Arts Instructor at Laurel High School, has started his own business, Lighthouse Enterprises, and offers consulting services to local restaurants, Serve Safe classes, at home catering, and is a fulltime Youth Minister. "I thank God for the opportunity to do this," exclaimed Hollins. Contact Hollins by calling 601-738-0025.

Bounds awarded JA's Golden Crown Award

Submitted

The Junior Auxiliary of Laurel recently awarded Kaki Hart Bounds with their prestigious Golden Crown Award during their fall social event at the house of Adam and Casey Sauls. Originally from Newton, Mississippi, Kaki attended the University of Mississippi and graduated with a degree in pharmacy. She moved to Laurel with her husband Bo and they have three children and her and pride and joy - five grandchildren.

As a member of Junior Auxiliary of Laurel, Kaki Hart Bounds was actively involved in many service projects directly benefiting the children of Laurel and Jones County- especially making the Crowning Moments Event held during JA week several years ago a success. She also continues to volunteer at Very Special Arts Festival. In the last year, she and her family supported JA's first ever 5k and the current project called Secret Meals. The Golden Crown recipient is not only actively volunteering with Junior Auxiliary when she can, but she also supports the Arts League and is a member of the Town and Country Garden Club. She has found herself trea-

WJHS AP Chemistry tours Laurel's wastewater treatment plant

United Water recently hosted West Jones High School's AP Chemistry class and provided a tour of the City of Laurel's Massey wastewater treatment plant that United Water operates. The students are designing devices to remove polymer microbeads from household wastewater in an effort to reduce the number of microbeads that end up in the oceans, a growing environmental concern. Polymer microbeads are commonly contained in personal care products such as facial cleansers, toothpastes, and soaps. The microbeads absorb toxic chemicals in the oceans and are then ingested by marine life, mistaking the beads for food. Mike Moore and his staff explained and demonstrated scientific processes used at the wastewater plant that can be adapted for use in the students' projects. Submitted
