LLT's "Arsenic and Old Lace" Opens Thursday, December 10

Submitted

Laurel Little Theatre continues its "Fifty-Fifth & Fabulous" Season with the classic comedy chiller "Arsenic and Old Lace" directed by Lacy Cockrell. Performances are at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, December 10, 11, and 12, and on December 13, a Sunday matinee at 2 p.m. The LLT reservation line is now open, and answers 24 hours a day at 601-428-0140. You can see more info on the entire LLT season at the theatre's website LaurelLittleTheatre.com. "Arsenic" is the 1941 Broadway hit that ran in New York City for over three years, and opened with one reviewer saying "it was so funny that none of us will ever forget it." Two dotty old-maid spinster aunts have decided that they'll just go on and put the lonely old single men (that come by looking for a room to rent) out of their misery. They've already murdered a dozen of them, and buried the bodies in the basement. And, how did they knock them off so easily? Easy - just get them to drink some of their home-brewed elderberry wine that they've laced with arsenic, strychnine and "just a pinch of cyanide." A lethal concoction to be sure. But don't worry, LLT promises they won't be serving it at intermission! The 1944 film version starring Cary Grant and Peter Lorre was a huge hit, and is still one of the most successful comedies of that era. The New York Times called it "great macabre fun." It's a classic chiller comedy that will keep your laughing as you see just what those two crazy ol' ladies get up to next! The cast is a mix of LLT alumni and newcomers to the Arabian stage. Playing the two crazy ol' aunts, Abby and Martha Brewster, are LLT faves Gail Chancellor and Missy Sanderson. Chancellor sang in LLT productions of "Aida," "The Wizard of Oz," and "The Addams Family." She was Miss Hannigan in "Annie," and Aunt March in "Little Women." She teaches English at Northeast Jones Middle School. Sanderson has been involved with

LLT since the 1970s. A long time LLT board member and actor, she was most recently seen as Marmee in “Little Women,” but everyone in the Pine Belt mostly remembers her sterling performances as Patsy in the many productions of “Always...Patsy Cline” at both LLT and HCLO .

Playing the ladies’ nephews, Teddy, Mortimer, and Jonathan Brewster, are three more LLT alumni, Shane Cockrell, Will Hodges, and Mark Sellers.

Cockrell teaches at West Jones High School where he leads the choir and show choirs. He’s been music director for LLT productions of “Annie,” “Aida,” “Seussical,” and “Little Women,” and was in the casts of “The Wizard of Oz,” “1776,” and “Joseph.”

Hodges is a graduate of South Jones High School and is now attending JCJC. He was in LLT productions of “The Addams Family,” “Aida” and “Jekyll & Hyde.”

Sellers is repeating the role of Teddy that he once played in a production at Northeast Jones High School, where he’s been a science teacher for the last 23 years. He made his LLT debut in “1776.”

The Peter Lorre role of Dr. Einstein is cast with Herb Murray. He’s been in LLT productions of “9 to 5-The Musical,” “The Addams Family,” “Dracula,” and “Jekyll & Hyde.” Herb is a new member of the LLT board of directors.

The supporting cast is rounded out with Daniel Easley, Becca Green, Laken Jones, Carter Poister, Jacob Rogers, Anthony Shoemake, and Coty Shoemake.

Director Lacy Cockrell has been doing shows at LLT since 2005, acting, singing, painting sets and serving on the board of directors. She played Maggie in “Cat on a Hot Tin Roof,” Mary in “The Women,” and directed “Hairspray,” “The Wizard of Oz,” “Annie,” and “Little Women.” Cockrell is an art teacher at West Jones High School, where she’s also directed “Joseph & The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Grease.”

Stage Manager Laura Cooley has worked on every production of LLT’s last three seasons, including the role of Laura in “The Glass Menagerie.” She’s a new LLT board member as the head of house and teaches at Wayne County High School.

Assistant Stage Manager Lucy Taylor is a student at JCJC, where she is active in the concert choir, the student government association and the Radonian newspaper. At West Jones High School she was in “Steel Magnolias,” and in the show choirs Revolution and Imagination.

Tech crew running sound and lights and doing sets, props, costumes and tickets are Edward Boone, Cherie Boone, Sandra Boutwell, Katelyn Bryant, Steve Guy, Adam Hodges, Brent Holifield, Wess Hughes, George Jackson, B.B. Mangum-Dear, Susan Mangum, Paula Pierce, Lauralee Watts, Maddie Watts, Rick Youngblood, Alison Vanderslice, Jason Vanderslice and R.K. Wilson.

The reservation line is open 24 hours a day at 601-428-0140. For any questions, you can also drop a line to LLTLaurelMS@aol.com.

Green is the color of Christmas

By Kay Scarborough

Don’t look now, but December blew in right on the heels of Thanksgiving! Thank goodness for the rain; now our trees, lawns and shrubbery can go dormant “dressed” for the cold. Which, by the way is later than usual.

As gardeners, we are always thinking about ways to “go green”. Have you considered an environmentally friendly Christmas this year?

Think natural, reusable and recyclable. Eco-friendly and affordable decorations, gifts, wrapping paper, ribbons and greeting cards are available in stores.

Consumers have several resources to choose from in selecting a green gift. The receiver may appreciate tickets to an event, membership to a gym or spa, or a donation to a charity in honor of a loved one.

Holiday plants such as poinsettias, rosemary topiaries and Christmas cacti are welcome gifts that fit into nearly any budget plan. Adult children might enjoy a special tree or a pretty rosebush. You may need to pitch in and help with planting it. Big plus, you get a little exercise and get to spend extra time with your busy adult offspring.

For children, look for durable, energy-efficient gifts that use wind-up power or rechargeable batteries. We need to get these kids out of the house and moving! People also appreciate gifts from the kitchen, such as breads, cookies, dried fruits, drink mixes or roasted nuts. These gifts can be packaged in reusable tins, baskets or jars. Check out honey from our local beekeepers, or a painting by a local artist.

Make your green gifts even more earth-friendly, by using old Christmas cards for tags, wrap in reusable gift bags or recycled paper, and hand-deliver whenever possible to save energy. One year, I wrapped all my gifts in the Sunday comics. I had fun matching the comics to the recipient. Yes, they noticed.

When hosting holiday get-togethers, make the event festive by making punch and serving in your prettiest bowls and pitchers rather than using beverages in cans or plastic bottles. It requires a little more work but it can reduce the amount of paper and trash you have to throw out later.

Don’t forget the birds, they would love a tree decorated with a cranberry and/or popcorn garland and pine cones rolled in peanut butter and birdseed. Young children love to make these and it gets them thinking about caring for nature. Besides, it looks pretty!

Green is the color of Christmas. Go green and we all win!

WE SUPPORT OUR WAR EAGLES WAYNE COUNTY

2015 5A STATE CHAMPIONS

The Wayne County War Eagles took a drive up to Oxford and returned home State Champions over the weekend. In the first quarter the War Eagles jumped out on top when Reggie Stewart connected with Freddy Jordan on a 74-yard touchdown pass. Not to be outdone, Oxford responded with a score of their own to knot the contest. Wayne County's kicker, Brett Reynolds, sent a 29-yard kick through the uprights giving the War Eagles a 10-7 advantage. Oxford would get on the board twice more before the end of the quarter jumping out to a 28-10 lead. The War Eagles would cut that lead in the first on a 20 yard Chris Cooley touchdown run. The Wayne County score would end it for the first half and a 28-17 Oxford lead.

Opening the third quarter, the War Eagles came storming back posting two unanswered touchdowns. The first was a 27-yard Stewart to Jordan connection, the second was another 5-yard Cooley run. But it wouldn't be enough to take the lead as Oxford added a touchdown of their own to maintain a 35-31 lead over Wayne County.

The fourth quarter looked like it would be all Oxford when the Chargers scored early extending their lead 41-31. But it would be the end of the Oxford romp, because the War Eagles took the momentum scoring on a 39 yard Stewart to Jordan pass with just over 6 minutes left in the contest then again with 1:17 on the clock, the War Eagles' Benito Jones reeled in a 9 yard pass for a War Eagle 45-41 lead. The Chargers were able to put together a 12 play, 62 yard drive at the end of the game, but the War Eagle defense stood strong and stopped DK Metcalf on the one yard line to clinch the win.

When Larkin Simpson envisioned how he would raise his children, he always wanted it to be similar to his childhood. Larkin, a native of north Mississippi, believed it was important to raise well rounded children - weekends filled with sporting activities and fishing, summer days spent at the local libraries and enjoying the outdoors, while not too far away from the attributes of city life. So, when his family moved to Jones County five years ago, he knew this would be a place he calls home.

Two years ago, the Simpsons welcomed a new addition to their family, Noah. Noah Simpson, a healthy and happy baby boy, was born at South Central Regional Medical Center. "With Noah being our first child born in Laurel at South Central, we were not sure what to expect," says Larkin. "The nursing staff was very attentive and answered any and all questions before Rebekah's delivery. We were able to tour The Women's Place maternity floor and knew exactly what to expect the days following Noah's birth."

From the time they entered the hospital until the day they were discharged with Noah, the Simpsons felt as if they were at home. "The rooms were spacious and comfortable. The staff was able to provide any necessity we needed. The doctors and nurses exceeded our expectations," said Larkin.

"We really enjoyed the hotel-style dining at South Central. Being able to order food when we were hungry and able to eat a fresh meal was great. "South Central is the first hospital in the state of Mississippi to offer hotel-style room service, a service where the patients have the option to call for food when desired, rather than being given a standard tray at a standard time.

There is so much more to South Central Regional Medical Center than you think at first," states Larkin. "The hospital is like an extension of your family. The healthcare providers care for you and your children at every stage of life and they genuinely care about your family's overall health. We are not only patients, we are friends."

There's no place like home.

Our Home. Our Hospital.

33rd Annual Sertoma Laurel Christmas Parade ————— Photos/Linda Cranford

Hundreds lined the streets of downtown Laurel for the 33rd Annual Sertoma Laurel Christmas Parade Saturday, December 5. This year's theme was "Christ, the Perfect Gift"

At 10 a.m., the "Boom" from the cannon, provided by The Cannon Man, echoed through downtown to signal the start of the parade.

Miss Mississippi Hannah Roberts was this year's Grand Marshall.

First Place - Church of God from Moss with their "There are many kinds of gifts" float.

Second Place – Immaculate Conception Catholic Church Hispanic Ministry with their "Christmas and Culture" float.
