Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Stuntmen

A van carrying a dozen movie stuntmen on the way to a film location in the mountains spun out of control on the icy road, crashed through a guard-rail, rolled down a 90-foot embankment, turned over, and burst into flames. There were no injuries.

Piedmont Pets

May 4, 2023 By Paulette Dean

We used to sell t-shirts and tote bags that had a cute picture with the saying, "Animals are little people in fur coats." I can see why those items were popular, but I can also see how very incorrect the saying is. Why should we want animals to be human-like, rather than just accepting the wonderful characteristics of each species?

Dictionaries define "anthropomorphism" as "the attribution of human traits, emotions, or intentions to non-human entities." It is seen in religions that worship idols, but it is also very prominent in promoting the cause of animals.

If you spend any time at all on social media, you have realized there is an abundance of wonderful/cute/funny animal videos and pictures. I watch more of them than I should! However, there are some that cause me to cringe, even though they are "feel-good" ones.

For instance, there was a picture that circulated some time ago that showed a polar bear becoming friends with a dog on a chain. People thought the cross-species friendship was adorable and that it was nice that the polar bear felt empathy for the chained dog. It was revealed later that the polar bear actually killed a dog at the same sanctuary after the picture was taken.

There is another series of videos that promote the happiness on the faces of dogs the moment they realize they are being adopted. Do not misunderstand - I am happy that the adoptions took place. However, the dogs at the time could not understand about being adopted. Their happy faces are because they were happy to be taken for a walk out of the shelter, or riding in a car, or being with a kind person.

DAHS

Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

Animals do not think the way we do. Frankly, they do not need to! They were created to be wonderfully different from us. They have relationships and emotional ties independent of humans. We simply cannot know the depth of their happiness, grief, pain, contentment, etc.

Through my association with tens of thousands of animals, I know they have emotions and feelings and needs. The problem for them comes when we expect them to be "little people in fur coats." Anthropomorphism may be a cute, feel-good meme, picture, or video; however, it does not serve the animals well.

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Chelsea Porcelain

Since 1751, Royal Worcester has been known worldwide for its collections of porcelain goods. It remains one of the oldest producers of tableware and decorative items in England.

In the late 19th century, Royal Worcester designed unique pitchers and ewers with handles that were parts of animals or tree branches. Stag horns, dragons, winged creatures, bamboo branches and artwork popularized their style.

Painted Japonisme-style chrysanthemums and poppies with gold trim float on the ivory background of the body of this pitcher. The handle is shaped like a ram's head. It sold for $118 at William Bunch Auctions of Pennsylvania. It was marked with the date 1888. The ivory background color became very popular in the late 19th century but was discontinued in 1914.

Q: Our dining room table has been in the family for generations. It's sturdy but is very well-used and looks it. If we decide to sell it, is it a good idea to refinish it? Or does that lower the value?

A: Generally, refinishing a piece of furniture will not lower the value unless it is a museum-quality antique from the 18th or 19th centuries or associated with a famous owner, maker or designer. But if your table is meant to be used, rather than displayed as a work of art, refinishing an old, scratched surface will make it more appealing to potential buyers. Do you know your table's age or maker? Check it for labels or maker's marks. To guess its age based on family history, take your age and add 25 years for each generation after its original owner. (This will not give you an exact age, but can help you approximate it.) If you are still in doubt about whether or not to refinish your table, consult a professional refinisher or appraiser. You can find some listed on Kovels.com in the business directory.

Q. Whatever happened to the TV show "UnREAL," which was a parody of "The Bachelor"? I thought it was really good, and not overly silly. Is it coming back? —H.T.

A. "UnREAL" originally aired on the Lifetime network for three seasons before concluding with a short fourth and final season on Hulu. It starred Shiri Appleby ("Roswell") as a young producer of a "Bachelor"-style reality show titled "Everlasting." She was directed by an even more unscrupulous executive producer behind the monitors, played by Constance Zimmer. "UnREAL" was based on the short film "Sequin Raze," which was directed by Sarah Gertrude Shapiro, who once was a field producer on ABC's "The Bachelor." "UnREAL" ended up winning a Peabody Award "for illustrating how masterfully parody can work when it shines its light fearlessly and for smartly blending the dichotomy between high and low culture."

Hulu didn't order any new episodes after the fourth season in 2018, and a return doesn't seem to be in the works. Appleby recently had a role in the Reese Witherspoon rom-com "Your Place or Mine," but has been more busy directing than acting, having recently directed several episodes of the sitcoms "Young Sheldon" and "Grown-ish." Zimmer, too, had found herself drawn to leadership positions behind the lens. She's returning to Lifetime to direct her first feature-length film, "Boy in the Walls." She also was a regular on the ABC series "Big Sky," a show that remains in limbo as it hasn't been canceled or renewed.

Q. Is the beautiful New York City apartment building in the series "Only Murders in the Building" a real place, or is it a set? —C.C.

A. It's a combination of both. What is known as the Arconia on the series is a real residential building in Manhattan, located at 86th and Broadway, but it's called the Belnord. It earned recognition when it was listed on the National Register of Historic Places back in 1980, and currently, the apartments — which are being converted into condos — cost as high as $11 million. The Belnord is only used for exterior shots on the Hulu series, while the inside scenes where Steve Martin, Martin Short and Selena Gomez's characters live are actually filmed on a set in the Bronx.

Q. Is the police drama "The Rookie" with Nathan Fillion connected in any way to "The Recruit"? My friend told me they were created by the same person. —A.P.

A. It's true that producer Alexi Hawley created both ABC's "The Rookie" and Netflix's "The Recruit," but they are not a shared "universe," according to PopCultureReferences.com. "The Recruit" stars Noah Centineo as an attorney who finds himself in the midst of some international drama involving the CIA, while "The Rookie" stars Nathan Fillion ("Castle") as a member of the LAPD.

"The Rookie" does, however, have a spinoff series on ABC titled "The Rookie: Feds," which stars Niecy Nash-Betts ("Dahmer — Monster: The Jeffrey Dahmer Story"). It stands a good chance of lasting as long as its predecessor, which was recently renewed for a sixth season.

* My dogs stay outside most of the day now, while the weather is so nice. We bring them indoors when it gets too hot, but for a treat, we will freeze a plastic cup of ice and then chuck the giant "ice block" on the porch. They lick at it and play with it. It's like a little doggie waterpark when they are done. -- M.E. in Ohio

* Finding a summer camp for your kids can be a chore. Check with your child's school and school friends for recommendations. Also, see if your city's recreation department is holding any camps. Some county extension offices (agriculture department) offer camps. Many of these are reasonably priced. Check into them now.

* I have a tip for you. When pouring water in your coffee pot, use a 4-inch funnel by placing it in the tank. Helps not spill water. Pour slowly! -- P.T. in Illinois

* To keep the kitchen garbage can from smelling, put meat, vegetables, fruit and peelings in a bread bag, and put it in the freezer until you take it outside for the garbage collector. -- E.L. in Virginia

* Keep fast-food coupons in your car's glove compartment. They will be there if you need to go to a drive-through, and will be handy for picking up dinner on the way home. If you need them at home, chances are your car is there anyway! -- E.D. in Alabama

* Got paper recycling? More and more schools are using paper recycling as a means to fundraise. Don't have a kid in school? Drive by and look for a dumpster or bin that's labeled. Odds are good you might find one. If you don't, ask!

Send your tips to Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

An 85 years old lady was waiting for her husband at the bar in Harpoon Harry's. Suddenly, a very handsome man enters and sits down a few seats away. The man is so attractive, she cannot keep her eyes off him. After a short time, the man notices her staring and approaches her. Before the lady has time to apologize, the man looks deep into her eyes and says in a sultry tone, "I'll do anything you'd like. Anything you can imagine in your wildest dreams. I doesn't matter how extreme or unusual it is, I will do it, for this I want $100 cash. And there's another condition." Completely stunned by this turn of events, the lady asks him what the condition is. "You have to tell me what you want me to do in just three words." The man said. The lady takes a moment to consider the offer from the handsome man, she reaches into her handbag and puts $100 in his hands. She then smiles, looks him square in the eyes and slowly but clearly says, "paint my house"

THANK YOU FOR VOTING US #1

1. Name Bread's first No. 1 song.
2. Which group released "Have You Seen Her"?
3. Who topped the charts with "So Emotional"?
4. Which artist wrote and released "Fire Lake"?

5. Name the song that contains these lyrics: "I find myself in a strange situation and I don't know how, What seemed to be an infatuation is so different now."

Answers

1. "Make It With You," in 1970. The song ranked as No. 13 of all songs that year. The group's name was created when they were stuck in traffic behind a bread truck.
2. The Chi-Lites, in 1971. Narration begins and ends the song as the speaker tells his tale of lost love, but radio stations deleted the spoken parts when the song was played.
3. Whitney Houston, in 1987. It was Houston's sixth No. 1 song in a row, which put her in a tie with the Bee Gees and the Beatles for most consecutive No. 1 songs. The next year she broke her own record and netted No. 7 with "Where Do Broken Hearts Go?"
4. Bob Seger, in 1980.
5. "I Don't Want to Live Without You," by Foreigner in 1988 on their "Inside Information" album. As a single, the song climbed to No. 5 on the Hot 100 chart.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

* Competitive swimmer Tim Duncan grew up in the U.S. Virgin Islands, where he trained for the 1992 Olympics, until Hurricane Hugo destroyed his island's only Olympic-size pool. Since the only alternative was to swim in the ocean, and he was afraid of sharks, he decided to play basketball instead.

* Red Bull was developed in Thailand as an energy drink for truck drivers.

* Georg Gartner, a German POW, escaped his American prison camp near the end of World War II and lived in America for 40 years under a fake name before finally confessing his true identity on "The Today Show."

* History's longest prison sentence, a whopping 384,912 years, was given to a mailman -- for not delivering the mail.

* Johnny Depp dropped out of high school to become a rock musician. When he attempted to return two weeks later, the principal told him to follow his dream of being a musician.

* A shopping center in Zimbabwe uses an air conditioning system inspired by African termite hills. Ventilated and cooled by natural means, it uses less than 10% of the energy of a conventional building its size.

* The largest-known bird nest belonged to a pair of bald eagles and measured 9 feet wide by 20 feet deep, with an estimated weight of 4,400 pounds.

* Colorblind people tend to have better night vision and can sometimes see a luminosity of colors that normal-sighted people can't. As a result, the U.S. Army discovered that they could perceive camouflage colors that are difficult for those with normal color vision to see, giving them the unique ability to better make out hidden enemies at night.

Thought for the Day: "If you are working on something that you really care about, you don't have to be pushed. The vision pulls you." -- Steve Jobs
