HOW TO HOST A YARD SALE

Hosting a yard sale doesn't have to be hard. Here are a few tips, tricks, and strategies to help you succeed.

From Neighbor.com

1 SELL THE RIGHT THINGS

Make sure you're selling quality items. No one wants to buy junk. Plus, only have a yard sale if you have enough to sale.

2 PICK THE RIGHT DAY & PLACE

Most yard sales happen on Saturday mornings. If you don't live in a central location, see if a friend or family member will let you use their yard.

3 CREATE THE BEST SIGNS

Your signs should only have the most critical information: yard sale, address, and time. Put signs on the main road and lead people to your house with more signs. Balloons and bright colors will help your sign stand out!

4 ADVERTISE ONLINE

Most yard sale shoppers will look online. Craigslist is still a popular place to post a yard sale, as is Facebook. check your local online classifieds to post your yard sale.

5 PRICE ITEMS CORRECTLY

Clothes: $1-5. Jewelry: $0.5-2. Shoes: $3-7. Books: $0.25-2. DVDs: $2-3. Toys: $2-5. Dishware: $0.5-2 a piece. $5-10 for sets. Small Appliances: $1-2. Big Appliances: $3-6. Decor: $3-7. Furniture: $10-$100.

6 MAKE A HAGGLE STRATEGY

Shoppers will try to haggle prices with you. Develop a strategy before hand and know its totally acceptable not to lower your prices. Set a low point and consider pricing your items higher.

7 ACCEPT ALL TYPES OF PAYMENT

Go to the bank and grab a handful of $10s, $5s, and $1s and some change. Most young shoppers will expect you to accept Venmo or a credit card. You can grab a free card reader at Square.com.

8 A FEW FINAL TIPS

- Put everything on tables, not sheets on the ground.
- Use stickers to price every item. This will save you from taking questions all morning.
- Put out a free box for the kids. A toy will keep them occupied while their parents shop.

Kendall Central School District

Melissa Strellick Named Kendall JSHS Principal

May 3, 2023, Kendall, NY - The Kendall Central School District (KCS D) Board of Education has approved Melissa Strellick as the next Junior/Senior High School Principal. She will begin her new position on July 1, 2023.

"It was apparent throughout the interview process and this past school year that Melissa's ability to lead instructionally, make connections with staff and students, and her 'all in' mentality made her a wonderful fit for the position," said Superintendent Nick Picardo. "I look forward to working with her in this new capacity."

Strellick is currently the Assistant Principal for Grades 7-12 and Athletic Director for the district, and she has served in both positions since July 2022. Prior to that, Strellick served as an administrator for three years in the Fort Mill School District and as a secondary science teacher for 16 years in the Webster Central School District.

"I am extremely humbled to be introduced as the new Principal of Kendall Junior/Senior High School," said Strellick. "I am excited to have the opportunity to honor the legacy of the school and contribute to the culture of excellence and care. I look forward to working collaboratively with all stakeholders to continue our strong tradition of respect, creativity and achievement at Kendall."

Refill with Randy

By Randy LeBaron

Good morning! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this week right... TOGETHER!!!

Today I would like to share a little about my friend Jonathan Doherty. To anyone who lived in the Albion area, was a part of ARC, or simply needed tickets sold to your next event, Jonathan was no stranger. He was known for his kind spirit and his servant's heart. It was one year ago that he passed and so I wanted to share something that I wrote at that time as a tribute to his memory today.

Call Jonathan... I can't tell you how many times I received a text or a DM with that message. And when I would call Jonathan back it was more often than not because he: wanted a ride somewhere, wanted me to bring him a coffee (a frequent request), wanted to remind me of an upcoming event, wanted to let me know how I could be praying for him or for someone else, wanted to encourage me (he did this more times than I could count), or wanted to let me know that The Bills were going to win. Sometimes I would laugh because his urgency for me to call him back was often the same whether he was hurt and wanting prayer or if he was at Tim Horton's wanting me to buy a ticket to the latest church dinner. No matter what the reason was though he always started off with, "Hey buddy" followed by a quick explanation for his call. I would love to get one of those messages again. I would love to hear his voice and his signature laugh. I would love to see him walking down the road and offer him a lift. I would love to grab him an X-Large Coffee w/ 4 Cream at Tim Horton's. I would love to get a reminder from him that we have coffee group coming up (we still meet at Tim Horton's every 2nd Monday and Tuesday of the month @10:45am if you want to join us).

Unfortunately those opportunities are no more but still present are the opportunities to honor Jonathan by living life to the fullest, exuding kindness, becoming an advocate for those who may not look or act the same as we do, supporting and promoting local organizations, and helping to facilitate fellowship between a broad spectrum of individuals. The next time you buy a ticket for a fundraiser, grab a coffee at Tim Horton's, or root for The Purple Eagles or The Bills, remember Jonathan. I know I will and I hope it continues to bring a smile to my face each and every time. Miss you buddy.

See you in two weeks!
Pastor Randy

Orleans County Sheriff's Office to honor County Corrections Division
During National Correctional Officers Week May 7-13, 2023

(PROCLAMATION 5187-It is appropriate that we honor the many contributions and accomplishments of these men and women who are a vital component of the field of corrections. In recognition of the contributions of correctional officers to our Nation, the Ante, p. 92. Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 132, has designated the week beginning May 6, 1984, as "National Correctional Officers Week," and authorized and requested the President to issue an appropriate proclamation. RONALD REAGAN)

As part of the Orleans County Sheriff's Office, the Orleans County Corrections Division is committed to meeting the standards of the community, striving to promote safety, security and provide opportunity for rehabilitation. Their core values include respect, responsibility, honesty and empathy.

Our dedicated Corrections Officers have the responsibility to operate a safe and secure detention facility in compliance with the New York State Corrections Law and with regulations set forth by the New York State Commission of Corrections. # REAL ESTATE GUIDE

Signs a home exterior needs updating

Renovations are a great way for homeowners to reshape their homes. Some may aspire to renovate so their home is more reflective of their personal taste, while others may do so in an effort to make their homes better align with modern styles and sensibilities. Regardless of why a homeowner chooses to renovate, the need to do so is often evident to the naked eye, especially when the time comes to update home exteriors.

Curb appeal is often discussed in regard to the effects it can have when selling a home. But curb appeal is equally important for homeowners who aren't putting their homes on the market. A well-maintained, aesthetically appealing home is a source of pride, while a home with fading curb appeal can make homeowners feel a little sheepish. Homeowners who want their homes to maintain their curb appeal can look for signs that it's time to update their home exteriors.

- Curling shingles: The roof may not be the first thing people think of when pondering curb appeal, but a damaged roof can contribute to problems that ultimately affect the exterior and interior of the home. Multiple curling shingles indicate it's time to replace the roof. The sight of curling shingles is not pretty, but the larger issue in such instances is the potential for costly water damage when water gets in through the affected shingles.
- Dated entry door: Many home improvement experts insist they can determine when a home was built or most recently renovated simply by looking at the front door. Steel and glass doors are popular in modern homes, so homeowners with front doors with ornate designs and oval glass inserts can likely benefit from an upgrade to their entryway. A modern front door can make a statement and real estate experts note how popular updated front doors are among buyers.
- Unightly landscaping: It's not only the physical components of the home that may suggest an update is necessary. Homeowners without a green thumb may have exterior landscaping that has seen better days. If a spring or summer day spent tending to your landscaping is not your ideal weekend pastime, then consider replacing unsightly landscaping with low-maintenance plants or hardscaping. These alternatives to more needy plants can create curb appeal without requiring any extra work for homeowners.
- Cracked driveways/walkways: If the driveway looks like a busy road at the end of snow plowing season, chances are that's adversely affecting the impression people have of your home. In addition, cracked walkways indicate a need for renovations, as these areas are front and center when welcoming guests.

Updating a home's exterior can restore curb appeal and help homeowners feel better about their properties.

How to master modern job hunting

Quitting a job might never seem like the best option for established professionals, but it's a route that was taken by an incredibly high number of workers in recent years. According to the Job Openings and Labor Turnover Survey from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 50.5 million people quit their jobs in 2022. Improved job prospects undoubtedly contributed to that high turnover, but professionals who left their jobs without another one already lined up may need some help finding their next gig.

Significant layoffs in the early months of 2023 coupled with tens of millions of individuals leaving their jobs voluntarily in 2022 could potentially make the competition for new jobs more competitive. Professionals confronting that situation can consider these tips as they seek to master the art of modern job hunting.

- Use LinkedIn to your advantage. The professional social media platform LinkedIn is an invaluable resource, especially for professionals looking for a new job. Even professionals who are still working but hoping to land a new job can utilize LinkedIn to their advantage, as many recruiters embrace the strategy of passive recruiting, which involves scouring LinkedIn for professionals who are not actively looking for a new job but might be interested if the right opportunity presents itself. Professionals who aren't already on LinkedIn should join and create a profile that highlights their experience and skills. Workers who are already on LinkedIn can periodically update their profiles and use the platform to stay up-to-date on the latest trends in their industries.
- Create a portfolio of your work. Landing an interview may be the first goal, but professionals also must be ready to master that interview should the opportunity arise. A portfolio that showcases past work and accomplishments can help candidates present themselves in the best light possible. Utilize a free or inexpensive service like WordPress that hiring managers and others can visit quickly and easily to see your work.
- Identify who you want to work for. Experienced professionals who are still working may have the luxury of patience when beginning their job search. That luxury ensures professionals can wait for opportunities at companies they want to work for. Targeting specific companies can take some of the frustration out of modern job hunting, which often requires scouring a seemingly endless string of job openings. Out-of-work professionals can still target specific firms, but they also can utilize down time to research other organizations in an effort to widen and expedite their search.
- Work with a recruitment agency. Much like job seekers grow frustrated at sifting through job postings, organizations may not have the will or the resources to devote to finding worthy candidates for their openings. That's why organizations often turn to recruitment professionals, who do the leg work when companies are looking to hire new people. Recruitment professionals earn their money from the companies doing the hiring, not the person getting hired. So there's no downside to utilizing recruiting professionals in your search.

Modern job hunting can be difficult. But various strategies can help talented professionals land rewarding jobs.

NEW YORK HUNTERS HARVEST 10% MORE DEER IN ORLEANS COUNTY, STATEWIDE IN 2022

The number of deer harvested in New York State increased 10% in 2022 to an estimated 231,961, the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation reported.

The deer harvested in Orleans County followed the statewide trend with Orleans seeing a 9.7% increase, from 4,103 in 2021 to 4,503 in 2022, according to DEC data.

The harvest numbers among nearby counties for 2022 includes:

- Orleans, 4,503
- Erie, 6,182
- Livingston, 7,378
- Niagara, 3,430
- Genesee, 5,769
- Monroe, 5,157
- Wyoming, 5,295

"DEC established several new deer hunting opportunities in 2021 and hunters took greater advantage of these opportunities during the 2022 season, including another safe, successful youth hunt," said DEC Commissioner Basil Seggos. "Increased hunter success combined with recovering deer populations contributed to an overall increase in total deer harvest."
