HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

"Fighting For A Better Community"

JAMES VACCA NYC Councilman 13th District

Message From James Vacca NYC Councilman 13th District

NOT TO LOWER STANDARDS

That's my answer to those who would water down admission criteria for our specialized high schools such as Bronx High School of Science and the High School of American Studies at Lehman College. City Council Resolution 442-2014 which is now pending with 13 co-sponsors, would urge the state to scrap the standardized admission test for specialized high schools, and in the process lower academic standards for our best schools.

We must certainly increase the pool of students eligible to take and pass the specialized high school test. But doing so must involve getting our middle schools to perform better by enhancing tutoring and creating a more intensive academic program. Many may remember social promotion which promoted students from grade to grade even though they could not academically pass that grade. It was eliminated several years ago. It hurt our kids. In fact, in the 1990's, City University was turned around when they allowed remedial courses only in the community colleges and required higher standards for those seeking to attend four year colleges.

When it comes to our specialized high schools, we should learn from history. We should keep the bar high and never water down excellence.

TAX REBATE PLAN

Many homeowners and condo/co-op owners may have received their property assessments by now. You maybe surprised to discover that even though tax rates have not changed, that assessments have gone up. Again! Higher assessments will take more money from the pockets of property owners and translate into higher rents for some tenants.

As a member of the City Council's budget negotiation team, I have proposed that we restore a tax rebate program that will return $500 to property owners for the coming year. Rising property taxes and water rates, hits hard our seniors and others who are least able to pay for the increase. Fortunately, our city faces a budget surplus; we can afford to return this money back to taxpayers. We have certainly taken enough!

I will be fighting for this tax relief in the days ahead.

HELP WITH YOUR ENERGY BILL

I want to remind everyone that homeowners and tenants alike can now apply for grants under the Home Energy Assistance program (HEAP). This program helps qualifying applicants by providing a once a year grant toward their Con Ed energy bill. Income requirements are based on family size. Tenants who do not get a Con Ed bill but pay it as part of their rent are also eligible to apply. To get an application, call my district office at 718.931.1721 and ask for Arial.

MEATBALL PARMIGIANA SLIDERS

Meatballs coated in marinara sauce, smothered with cheese, and sandwiched in brioche rolls are a party-perfect nibble. For tender meatballs, combine the ingredients gently and don't pack the meat too tightly.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 slice(s) white or sandwich bread, torn into 1-inch pieces
- 1/2 cup(s) whole milk • 4 ounce(s) ground veal
- 8 ounce(s) ground beef (85 percent lean) • 8 ounce(s) ground pork
- 1 cup(s) (1 ounce) grated Pecorino Romano or Parmesan cheese, divided
- 3 tablespoon(s) coarsely chopped fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 1 clove(s) garlic, minced • 1 large egg • Coarse salt • Marinara sauce
- 24 brioche rolls, split • small Basil leaves
- 1 1/2 cup(s) (5 ounces) coarsely grated mozzarella cheese
- 1/2 cup(s) (1 ounce) finely grated Pecorino Romano or Parmesan cheese

SLIDER DIRECTIONS

1. Make the meatballs: Soak bread in milk for 5 minutes. Gently mix bread and milk with meats, 1/2 cup Pecorino Romano, parsley, garlic, egg, and 1 teaspoon salt. Refrigerate for at least 30 minutes.
2. Roll mixture into 24 one-ounce balls (each about the size of a golf ball).
3. Heat sauce in a large heavy pot over medium heat. Drop meatballs into sauce, and bring to a gentle simmer. Cook, partially covered, until meatballs are cooked through, 20 to 25 minutes.
4. Make the sandwiches: Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Working in batches, arrange rolls, cut side up, on a baking sheet. Place 1 meatball, a spoonful of sauce, 1 tablespoon mozzarella, and 1 teaspoon pecorino Romano on bottom halves. Bake until cheese melts, about 3 minutes. Top with basil and close sandwich.

CHILI MAC-N-CHEDDAR SOUP

Everything a cold-weather meal should be: cheesy, beefy, and dotted with tender pasta.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 tablespoon(s) olive oil • 1 large onion, diced
- 3/4 pound(s) lean ground beef
- 1 tablespoon(s) hot Mexican chili powder
- 1 1/2 teaspoon(s) ground cumin • 2 1/2 cup(s) milk
- 1 can(s) (14 1/2-ounce) reduced-sodium chicken broth
- 1 can(s) (10 3/4-ounce) condensed cheddar-cheese soup
- 1 1/2 cup(s) uncooked elbow pasta
- 1 1/2 cup(s) shredded sharp cheddar cheese
- Diced tomato, for garnish • Tortilla chips, for garnish
- Minced jalapeño chile, for garnish

SOUP DIRECTIONS

1. Heat oil in a 5-quart soup pot over medium-high heat; add onion and sauté 4 minutes, until translucent. Crumble beef into pot and cook, stirring for 4 minutes or until no longer pink. Stir in chili powder and cumin; cook, stirring, for 2 minutes.
2. Add milk and broth, then stir in condensed soup until dissolved; bring to a boil, reduce heat to low, cover, and simmer 3 minutes. Stir in pasta; continue to cook, covered, 5 minutes. Stir in cheese until melted and smooth. Remove from heat; let stand 5 minutes or until pasta is fully cooked.
3. Ladle soup into bowls and garnish with diced tomato, tortilla chips, and minced chile.
