Playing By Ear

Tumbleweed Smith

Luann Neely of Marshall says music is her life.

“You know, music does make you smarter. It really does make your brain work better. I still love doing it and will keep on doing it until I can’t.”

Luann taught choir to junior high and high school students in Marshall, then retired to travel the world.

Tumbleweed Smith

“On our first trip, my husband wanted to teach me how to travel light, so we traveled for weeks in Costa Rica with just a back pack. We traveled for about ten years to around 15 different countries, then I returned to Marshall High School and junior high coaching kids as the compete in singing competitions. We have a good thing going.”

Many of her students have been in the all-state choir. Luann is not a singer. She plays piano. “I didn’t learn. We did not have a piano in my house growing up. I was at a family friend’s house who was baby-sitting me while my mother went to do errands. The woman was in the kitchen and I sat down at the piano and played Sentimental Journey. She came in there and asked me if the radio was on. I said no and she asked me if I played that song on the piano. I said yes and she made me play it again. I’ve been playing ever since. I was barely 3 years old when that happened. I could play anything I could hear. And I still can.”

When I visited with Luann she had just returned from a cruise that took her from Lisbon, Portugal to Barcelona, Spain.

“My son had won this cruise. He had donated money to a charity through a raffle and he won this cruise. I was down visiting him in Florida when he told me about this cruise he had won. He said, ‘I don’t know who I’m going to take with me.’ I said well here I stand. He said, ‘oh, Mom I didn’t even think of you. Of course we can go.’ So off we went.”

They traveled on the upscale cruise line, Silver Sea. “We had our own suite with our own butler so it was quite something. I never dreamed I would get to experience something like that.”

She ended up entertaining passengers.

“My son and I were in one of the lounges having an after dinner drink when a jazz guitarist and singer from Portugal came in to entertain. They were going to be playing a song I knew so I asked if I could play with them. We ended up playing the whole evening. Some of the songs I had never heard before but I was able to follow along with them. They loved it. They said ‘where have you been?’ It was really fun.”

Luann has a master’s degree in piano and did learn to read music. She says playing by ear is a gift from God.

Mae Dean Epting Sims

Mrs. Mae Dean Epting Sims was born on March 31, 1942, in Sulphur Springs, Texas, to the parentage of Jerry Preston Odell and Jessie Mae (Lewis) Epting. She was the fourth of seven children. Sis. Sims gracefully gained her wings and reunited with her heavenly family on Thursday, May 11, 2023, in the comfort of her home. She was 81 years old and a beautiful person inside and out. She was known as "Grandmother" to many. Her stunning smile would light up any room. She cared so deeply for the people around her. She was so kind and made an impact on many lives. Mae was a magnificent cook. She was famous for dishes such as chicken and dumplings and homemade pies. She will forever be missed.

Sis. Sims gave her life to the Lord at an early age. She united with Cherry Grove Baptist Church where she served faithfully on the Mission and Usher Boards. As an usher, she greeted everyone at the door with her beautiful smile of welcome. She was a true servant who worked faithfully until her health failed, and she was unable to continue her calling.

She attended Douglas High School where she played basketball. Sis Sims loved sports, especially baseball. She and her twin sister, Faye are avid Rangers fans. They spent many evenings together cheering on the Rangers. She was a sports mom who was always at her daughters' sporting events from softball games at very early ages to volleyball, basketball, and track meets throughout high school and college. Her dedication did not stop there as she continued to rally around her grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren who continued the sporting legacy of the family.

Sis Sims entered the workforce at a young age. She worked for the following companies: Pratt's Packing, H.D. Lee, Rockwell International, and lastly, Hopkins County Memorial Hospital in the Dietary Department, from which she retired after more than 27 years of service. She was a very hard worker and the epitome of a dedicated, devoted, and loyal employee which are the same values she instilled in her daughters.

On January 2, 1980, she married Bobby Joe Sims, who proceeds her in death. Mae is also preceded in death by her parents Preston and Jessie Epting, and her sister Pearlne Neal.

She was a loving mother who leaves four generations to cherish her memories: Three daughters Doris Jeanette Palmer, Monica Michelle Goodson, Sheila Reshon Sims. Five grandchildren: Tameshia Palmer, Shayla Crawford, Kwaesi (Amber) Palmer, Adarius (Amber) Palmer, and Ian Scott. Great-grandchildren: Kwadarius "Sharard" Timmons, Kwasia Timmons, Dajia Mcbrayer, Branden Smith Jr., Azia Palmer, Kaesi Palmer, McKenzie Palmer, Berko Palmer, Asia Garner, Camari Garner, Jordan Garner, and Marley Jones. She is survived by siblings Walter Epting, her twin sister, Faye Moore, Narene Vaden, Joyce (Dave) Young, Darial (Cheryle) Epting. Sister-in-laws: Peggy White, Arlene Williams, and brother-in-law, Carter Sims.
