Moody on The Market

Pat
Moody

We Honor the 'Best Places to Work' for 2023

Southwest Michigan showed up to nominate over two dozen great local businesses and non-profits in the Berrien, Cass, and Van Buren county region for the chance to be named one of Moody on the Market's Best Places to Work for 2023. The selection committee completed their work, the winners have been notified, and now we're excited to share with you on-air today on WSJM, 98.3 The Coast, and 103.7 COSY-FM all of these deserving winners!

First, thank you to our incredible sponsors that keep the awards series growing each year. They include our Presenting Sponsors the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber, Silver Beach Pizza, the Inn at Harbor Shores, and Life Vision Eyecare, with support from United Way of Southwest Michigan, Parrett Company, and Conserva Irrigation of Southwest Michigan.

And, we wouldn't be able to choose these winners without our 2023 independent committee of former Best Places to Work winners. The committee was chaired by Renee Borah of Affinity Salon & Spa (2020 winner), and had the assistance of past winners Jackie Huie of Johnson Rauhoff (2021 winner), Meagan Veldman of Moersch Hospitality (2020 winner), and Susan Matheny of Berrien Community Foundation (2022 winner). We also welcomed the insight of our own Pat Moody to the committee, as Pat is now retired from his work with the Moody on the Market award series.

Zack East, the new Awards Series Director for Moody on the Market, said the winners chosen by the committee represent a diverse range of industries and non-profits, from real estate, to great restaurants, professional services providers, a wedding venue, and more. More than 1,500 workers are represented in the businesses and organizations chosen from this year's nominees, which were taken in April of this year through MoodyontheMarket.com.

Open heart surgery isn't the only way.

If you have been diagnosed with a damaged heart valve, ask your doctor about TAVR to see if it's an option for you.

Transcatheter aortic valve replacement (TAVR) is a less invasive alternative to open-heart surgery. Less invasive means easier and more rapid recovery time, shorter length of stay and reduced surgical complications compared with traditional open-heart surgery.

Final May Happenings

Well, here we are again, over halfway through the month looking at the end of it which will be here in a blink of an eye. And we're asking ourselves, "what else can we squeeze in before June hits?" That is a fantastic question! Two of the last events the Chamber will be part of happen on Tuesday, May 30th in St. Joseph, and Bridgman/Lake Township respectively.

The first one is a special blood drive where the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber and St. Joseph Today are partnering with Versiti Blood Centers of Michigan for a Community Blood Drive. The blood drive happens on Tuesday the 30th from 1:30 - 6:00 p.m. at Shadowland on Silver Beach

(333 Broad St. St. Joseph). As we enter the summer months, the need for blood increases dramatically. This is due to multiple reasons, including kids being home from summer, the increase in tourists, additional motor vehicles on the roads, boats in the water... you get the idea! More people means more possibilities for accidents, which means more blood is needed.

To sweeten the deal of donating life-saving blood, Versiti has also partnered with the crew at Silver Beach Pizza, and everyone who donates will receive a special coupon and a $15 e-gift card for donating. Appointments are strongly encouraged; you can schedule yours by calling 866-642-5663.

Just a few miles down the road at 5:00 p.m. the Greater Bridgman Council for Growth & Advancement (CGA) will be hosting their Annual Meeting at Lake Township Park's Lake Pavilion (10801 Gast Rd. Bridgman). The meeting will be a celebration of accomplishments over the past year and will also share the exciting roadmap the CGA Board has put together for the remainder of 2023 and beyond.

Looking back over the past year, the CGA has made significant strides in advancing the organization's mission. Key achievements in 2022 include researching alternative funding options, attending vital economic development training, gaining a better understanding of available properties in the community, updating the CGA's name and marketing materials to reflect a new focus on economic development, and initiating many community engagement and placemaking initiatives.

For the balance of 2023, the CGA is committed to further bolstering the economic strength of the Greater Bridgman Area. The organizational goals for the year include establishing the CGA as the go-to economic development resource for the Greater Bridgman Area, strengthening and diversifying the local economy for year-round stability, reinforcing Bridgman as an outstanding place to live, work, and play, and becoming financially resilient through a variety of funding options.

The meeting is open to the public, and refreshments will be served. Please RSVP by May 23 at tinyurl.com/CGA23AnnualMeeting or contact me at sspoonholtz@smrchamber.com or 269-932-4040. The CGA looks forward to sharing its work, hearing from the community, and together, shaping a bright and prosperous future for the Greater Bridgman Area.

If you're looking to find something to do sooner or later than the 30th, simply head to our website at smrchamber.com and click on the "Events" tab. From there you'll see a wide variety of events from plays, art competitions and exhibitions, health & wellness classes, sales & specials at local merchants, and so much more that our amazing members are putting on! I promise, there is always something to do here that will fit your interest if you take a few moments to look around.

May is wrapping up strong, and June is poised to start with an equally impressive bang... two things I can say many of us are very happy about!

You can find all the details on these events and more by visiting smrchamber.com or emailing me at sspoonholtz@smrchamber.com. Looking forward to seeing you around Southwest Michigan!

Dave Ramsey

Financial Expert
The Ramsey Show

Dave Says

A Lot of Red Flags Here

I live in Dallas, Texas, and I'm wondering if I should sell my condo in order to pay off debt. I owe $120,000 on it, and it's worth around $260,000. Plus, the homeowners association fee used to be $450 a month and has gone up $100 each year for the last two years, so now we're paying $650. No one has ever told us why the fee went up so much. There haven't been any major improvements to the complex in the last five years, so I don't know what to think. Can you give me some advice?

Daniella
Dear Daniella,

As a homeowner, I'd want some answers by the end of day as to why the HOA fees are so high. I mean, for a $260,000 condo, the fee you mentioned is ridiculous unless the building owners are doing a major renovation, like replacing the parking lot or updating the community's clubhouse. Even then, it's crazy! On top of all that, it devalues your condo. Nobody wants to buy a $260,000 condo with a $650 HOA fee every month, especially when the fee has gone up that much for no apparent reason.

There's always the possibility the company is building up a war chest for improvements in the next year or so. But you have a right to know exactly where the money you pay in HOA fees is going. Ask to see a copy of their financials, and if they won't do that—or explain why the fee is so high and where the money's going—you need to sell the place because it's being poorly managed.

You've got to get an explanation. You're owed one. And, if you try to sell the place, you're going to have to tell prospective buyers why the HOA fee is so high. Maybe there's a good reason for it buried somewhere. But without knowing more, as a buyer, there's no way I'd take this thing off your hands.

There are a lot of red flags fluttering around the situation, Daniella. Even in a place like Dallas, this HOA fee is about double what it should be for a $260,000 condo. I'm not saying this just because I don't like HOAs, which I don't. And that's mainly because I don't like paying money for something, and then being told by someone else what I can or can't do with it. But you need some answers for your own information, peace of mind and to give potential buyers an honest answer when they ask why the fees are insanely high. Lose the headache. Sell it.

A Column
Brought by the Stork!

Saturday, May 20, is World Whiskey Day. Except in Ireland and the U.S.A., where it's World Whiskey Day. Yes, one has an "e" and one doesn't, and the reason is really very simple: One thing can quite correctly be spelled two different ways, for example, "toilet" and "loo."

Anyway, this column isn't about consuming whiskey. It's about a place where drams of whiskey were once consumed in significant quantities, even when it was illegal! I recently read about it in a book exploring the decade-plus period of alcohol prohibition in the U.S. (It's by Daniel Okrent, and I found it a good read, as well as an excellent coaster for what my dad used to call his drams of "un-cola.")

The place was the Stork Club, in New York city. It was opened by Sherman Billingsley, a former bootlegger, in 1929, during Prohibition. Before Prohibition was repealed, it survived multiple "closures" by simply relocating to new digs. It stayed in business until 1965.

It was long considered the "most celebrated nightclub in the world," because it was frequented by so many celebrities, socialites, athletes, politicians, and myriad other people famous for being well-known.

Here are some Stork Club anecdotes to tell your friends on World Whiskey Day (but a word of advice! -- don't have so many drams that you start repeating anecdotes!).

- Just how famous were the famous people who visited the club? Hang on, younger readers, it's "Stars From Days Gone By" time!: Lucille Ball, Charlie Chaplin, Bing Crosby, Judy Garland, Ernest Hemingway, Grace Kelly, Marilyn Monroe, Frank Sinatra, and Elizabeth Taylor, just for starters.

- The also super-famous, legendary Hope Diamond deserves mention here. It was owned for more than 30 years by an heiress named Evalyn Walsh McLean. She often wore the thing when she was out and about heiressing people. One evening, she lost it -- under a table at the Stork Club.

- Billingsley had a long relationship with singer and actress Ethel Merman. Ethel had several waiters "assigned" to her; one guy's only job was to light her cigarettes.

- This anecdote features a "Star You've Heard Of" and a guy from the, um, other segment. Comedian and actor Jack Benny once invited his pal Goodman Ace, an actor and writer himself, to lunch at the Stork. Ace arrived at the club first. Unfortunately, nobody on the staff knew he was a luminary, and he couldn't get a table. When Benny arrived and asked for Ace, he was told that Ace had left.

Well, somebody apparently fussed about this, because Ace began to get mail from the Stork; and being a good sport, he would write back. Once the Stork suggested he come back to experience the club's "wonderful air conditioning." Ace replied that he was "well aware of the climate, having received quite the cold shoulder."

Billingsley kept trying to make amends. He sent Ace some Stork Club bow ties. Ace thanked him, and requested some matching socks, "so I might be in style when I am turned away again."

Boring end to the saga: Ace and his wife eventually became happy regulars at the Stork. Especially after that night when they found the Hope Diamond under their table.

Southwest Michigan Steelheaders to host annual Trolling with the Troops June 23rd and 24th, 2023

Each year, the Southwest Michigan Steelheaders assembles local charter boat Captains and local veterans for a day of fishing and camaraderie on Lake Michigan. The annual event is called Trolling with the Troops. The two-day event is kicked off with a special Veteran's Dinner on June 23rd. It's a fun night filled with prizes, hats, t-shirts, good food and fun. On the 24th they launch in the St. Joseph River and make their way out to Lake Michigan. Each boat is filled with snacks and smiles.

Calling All Captains. Although all the veteran positions are full for this year, the group is still looking for Captains to sign up, which can be done online at www.trollingwiththetroops.com.

Your help. If you're not a charter boat Captain but you love to show support for our veterans, there are a couple ways you can help. The Buck is holding a Give-Back Day this Thursday, May 26th and donating 20% of the day's sales to the cause.

"This is such an amazing event for local veterans," Ken Kozminski, owner of The Buck explained. "This Thursday, we'll have an all-you-can-eat fish fry for only $20, however we are donating 20% of the entire day's sales, not just the fish fry!"

If you would like to donate money or items for the event, please email the Trolling with the Troops Board at twttswmi@gmail.com.

Many people line the piers each year and cheer on our heroes as they return from the excursion.

The Southwest Michigan Steelheaders group is this area's chapter of the Michigan Steelheaders & Salmon Fisherman's Association. The association's purpose is to protect and promote the sportfishery of the Great Lakes, tributaries and inland waters.

Pastor

Perishable Things

It was not with perishable things . . . that you were redeemed.

1 Peter 1:18

In the corner of a museum in Springfield, Illinois, there is a special room where people enter quietly. In that room is a clear glass case. The case has special lighting. The interior of the case keeps a specific temperature and level of humidity. All of this technology is necessary because of what the case contains. Inside that case is Abraham Lincoln's stovepipe hat.

As you view this hat, there are two features that may jump out at you. One is that, on the hat's brim, you can see wear marks from the first two fingers of Mr. Lincoln's right hand from all the times he tipped his hat in greeting or held it steady in a stiff wind.

The second feature is more sobering. It is the simple fact that the hat looks old. For all the efforts to preserve the hat's condition, the passage of time has still made its impact. With age has come deterioration. As time goes on, the deterioration will continue.

Deterioration does not just strike famous hats of former presidents, of course. Everything in this sinful, fallen world deteriorates. Everything wears out. Everything is perishable.

And so when God chose to buy us back from the curse of our sin, the payment price could not be something perishable. It could not be something of fleeting, temporary value. That's why God sent his Son.

As a result, God's forgiveness of your sins will not deteriorate. The peace you possess in Christ will not expire. The Lord's promises to you will never perish. Not because of a museum's preservation technology but because of the perfect life, death, and resurrection of the Son of God.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, because of Jesus, your promises to me will never perish. In troubled times, comfort me with this truth. Amen.

3rd Annual Berrien Springs Pickle Festival Set For July 4th

Berrien Springs, MI – The Village of Berrien Springs, the Berrien County Historical Association (BCHA), and the Berrien Springs Community Library invite you to join them for the 3rd Annual Pickle Festival on Tuesday, July 4th and its auxiliary events in June.

The three weeks of Pickle Festival activities kicks off the weekend of June 17th with the Pickle Fest Preview Weekend beginning with the crowing of the 2023 Pickle Festival Royalty. The coronation ceremony will be held at The History Center at Courthouse Square on Saturday, June 17 at 6:00 p.m. where a new Miss, Princess, and Prince will be crowned. Pageant registration opens May 1st and will be available on the Berrien County Historical Association's website berrienhistory.org. For more information about the pageant, including contestant requirements, please email Rhiannon Cizon at rcizon@berrienhistory.org.

On Sunday, June 18, runners, walkers, and joggers will enjoy the beauty of the Andrews University campus as they head to the finish line for the return of the In a Pickle 5K Run and Walk. Early bird registration is now open at runsignup.com. All registrations receive a t-shirt and a finisher's medal. Questions regarding the 5K should be directed to Kelly Ewalt at the Berrien Springs Village Hall. Early bird pricing ends on May 13th and pre-registration ends on June 16th. Day of registration will be available. Registration can be found directly at: www.runsignup.com/Race/MI/BerrienSprings/InaPickle5K.

Leading up to the 3rd Annual Festival will be the wildly popular Pickle Fest Scavenger Hunt June 26 – July 1st. All week, pickle fans are invited to visit participating businesses to search for a series of hidden pickle logos. Participants can pick up their scavenger hunt sheet at the Berrien Springs Village Hall, the History Center at Courthouse Square, and the Berrien Springs Community Library starting June 20th. Completed forms must be returned to any of those three locations by 4:00 p.m. Saturday, July 1st. All completed and correct forms will be entered to win a special Pickle Festival prize and will be announced during the Pickle Festival.

The 3rd Annual Pickle Festival will once again be held at the History Center at Courthouse Square and the Berrien Springs Community Library in Berrien Springs on July 4th beginning at 11:00 a.m. This year's event will see the return of Vendor Alley, the Pickle Fling, the Big Wheel races, old fashioned pickle games, the pickle decorating contest, and the Pickled Piper Tasting Room. New this year will be a sweet relish eating contest and a dunk tank with proceeds going to Backpacks 4 Berrien. The schedule of events and further details will be made available the beginning of June.

The Pickle Festival committee continues to look for sponsors and vendors for the event. Crafts, food (especially pickles!), and artisan vendors are all welcome to apply. Interested parties should reach out to Kelly Ewalt at the Village of Berrien Springs.

For additional details, including an updated schedule of events visit the Berrien Springs Pickle Festival's Facebook page (@BerrienSpringsPickleFestival) and the BCHA website (berrienhistory.org).

The Pet Corner

With spring in full bloom (finally!), it's time to keep a watchful eye out for the many wild babies that may be starting to venture out into the world. From bunnies in the yard, fledglings leaving the nest, to fawns following their moms out of the woods, wild babies will soon begin to make their appearance. Before mowing, maybe take a quick look around your yard to make sure no mama rabbit has decided to raise her young there. If you travel a wooded area where deer are known to cross, slow down and scan the roadside for them, especially early morning and evening when they are most likely to be about. I've learned that where deer are concerned, where you see one you are apt to see more. It is always sad to see a young life cut short when a bit of caution could have given them a chance. Also, it's best to leave young wild animals alone, unless you know for certain the mother has died. Fawns are often left alone in hiding while the mother feeds, and disturbing them can have dire consequences. What should you do if you are certain the mother isn't coming back? The humanesociety.org website has a lot of information on how to handle the situation for different animals and is worth checking out.

How often have you seen on social media a photo of a dog or cat with the caption "Have You Seen Me?" Pets can go missing for a wide variety of reasons, sometimes not of our own making. It's a well-known truth that some cats and dogs just like to wander and will do so any chance they are given. The best way to keep that from happening is not to let them start in the first place. Sooner or later, allowing a pet to wander freely without supervision will not end well for them. Besides the danger of getting hit by cars and contracting disease, there are predators that are only happy to bring your smaller pet home for a tasty dinner for their families. Cats are especially at risk and can get caught in live traps set to remove wildlife. And course, pets can become predators themselves. Nobody likes to see a cat stalking birds at a feeder.

I heard a comment recently about dogs not staying in their yards but running out to investigate people who are walking nearby. The problem is you don't know how a dog will react. Will someone be bitten? If the walker has a dog, will a fight ensue? Common courtesy, not to mention most municipal ordinances, require dog owners to have their dogs under control at all times when outside their home, whether by leash, a fence, or your strict attention. Be kind to your neighbors by not allowing your dog to interfere with their walk.

Here are some upcoming events to watch for.

Animal Aid will hold a Summer Bash at Babe's Lounge and Restaurant in Benton Harbor, on Saturday, June 10, 6pm-12. Cover charge is $10 with 100% of that going to Animal Aid. Check their Facebook page for more information.

The Humane Society of Southwest Michigan is having a Black dog Adoption Event from now until June 1. Any black dog may be adopted for $30, with an added $25 charge if not yet spayed or neutered. Black dogs make great pets the same as any other color, so not sure why there is hesitancy to adopt one. Check out the website at humanesocietyswm.org and call the shelter 927-3303 to set up a meet and greet.

Outskirts Press Announces the Release of New Memoir by Alexander Rassogianis: *Growing Up Greek in Chicago
The Ups and Down of an Ethnic Identity

Outskirts Press—the fastest-growing, full-service self-publishing and book marketing company—is pleased to announce the release of a new memoir by American author Alexander Rassogianis, the child of Greek immigrants. Growing Up Greek in Chicago – The Ups and Down of an Ethnic Identity is a beautifully crafted, nostalgic snapshot of the author's childhood, filled with humor and insight.

Alexander Rassogianis celebrates his Greek ethnicity, his extended Greek family, and the joy of having two cultures from which to draw enrichment in his new memoir—a collection of poignant vignettes from Alexander's childhood that will entertain and amuse. From creating a new nickname, Al, in elementary school (what could be more American than that?), ditching Greek school to play Ping-Pong at Columbus Park, and finding his mother's Greek pastry after she spent hours trying to hide it, Alexander eloquently shares what it was like to grow up Greek in Chicago.

Before towing, confirm your vehicle and trailer are compatible, hooked up and loaded properly and that you have any necessary additional equipment. The maximum you can tow depends on base curb weight plus the total weight of any cargo, occupants, and added vehicle equipment. *Added vehicle equipment includes additional standard/optional equipment and accessories added by the manufacturer, dealer and/or vehicle owners. The only way to be certain of your vehicle's exact curb weight is to weigh your vehicle without passengers or cargo. 3. Tundra Full-Size Pickup Class.
