6 Ways to Keep Your Fur ball Active & Cool this Summer.

Cool Cat

Meat broth ice cubes

Help your cat stay cool and entertained with these easy-to-make meat broth ice cubes. Start from scratch and cook your own broth, because commercial broths are flavored with sodium, garlic, spices, and other ingredients toxic to cats. You need only two ingredients: raw meat and fresh water. Place your cat's favorite meal, along with the bones, into a large pot, cover with water, and boil. Cooking time varies, depending on the meat and the amount of water. Do not add anything to the mix — just meat and water.

After making the broth, skim the fat off and pour the broth into ice cube trays. Broth cubes are more enticing when a piece of meal is added to each cube before they are placed in the freezer. After they are frozen, put a couple of cubes into a wide shallow bowl for your cat. Each kitty in the household deserves her own bowl with two frozen meat cubes. Cats enjoy sampling the melting broth while going for the meat "prize."

Water toys

Water can be made more appealing with toys. Float plastic hollow balls and other water-safe toys in bowls, fountains, and sinks. Your cat will enjoy baffling and trying to catch the elusive objects. Make sure the toys are safe — that they can't be swallowed or have pieces that can be bitten off.

Water games

Many cats love drinking and swatting at running water. Gift you and your feline companions with motion-sensitive water faucets that easily attach to kitchen and bathroom faucets. Although designed for humans, most cats quickly figure out how to activate them with head movements and paw swipes.

Floor toys

Cats are individuals — each has her own toy preferences. Many love ball-and-tract toys, while others enjoy spending time fishing toys and treats out of puzzle boxes, feeders, and toys. Some opt to carry favorite toys in their mouths or chase them around on the floor, and some prefer stalking, pouncing, and catching toys being dragged by their people.

Vertical territory

If cats could write, they'd put tall cat trees and condos high on their must-have lists. They would also ask you to place them near screened windows. These are perfect locations for watching the goings-on in the neighborhood while enjoying a cross breeze and napping after a play session. Also incorporate the vertical territory into your cat's play sessions by dragging pole toys, leathers, and ribbons over them for your kitty to chase.

Hiding places

Most kitties enjoy napping, playing, and hiding under furniture and in bags, boxes, and tunnels. Bags need to be safe — use only paper bags without handles. Make these places more enjoyable by angling them to catch a cross breeze. Encourage your cat to use them for more than hiding and napping by tossing favorite toys and rolling treats into them.

Message From James Vacca
NYC Councilman 13th District

"FILL UP THE FOOD BANKS" IN HONOR OF MOTHER TERESA

In observance of Mother Teresa's 105rd birthday, I along with Assemblyman Mark Gjonaj, are asking area residents to bring donations of nonperishable food (pasta, sauce, soup, canned fruit and vegetables, cereal, etc.) to the corner of Lydig and Holland Avenues, beneath the street sign reading "Mother Teresa Way," at 11 AM on Tuesday, August 25. We will be there, along with volunteers, to collect the food and deliver the donations to the Jewish Community Council of Pelham Parkway food pantry. If you are not available for the drop-off on the 25th, you can also drop off food at my office, 3040 East Tremont Avenue, prior to August 24rd; Monday through Friday between 9 AM and 5 PM. Food donations will also be accepted at Assemblyman Mark Gjonaj's office located at 1126 Pelham Parkway South. The food drive has become a very successful tradition that started five years ago in honor of Mother Teresa's 100th birthday. Residents interested in volunteering to collect and deliver food can call my office at 718-931-1721 and ask for Matthew.

UPCOMING MOVIES UNDER THE STARS

All summer I will be showing free movies in our parks, which I sponsor through the Neighborhood Initiative Development Corporation (NIDC). On Friday, August 7th, I will sponsor the next installment of the program with a showing of "HOME" in Colucci Park at Wilkinson Ave. The following installment will be held on Friday, August 14th, in Loreto Park at Morris Park & Haight Avenues, also with a showing of "HOME." Both movies will begin at 8:00 PM. If there is severe rain, the movie will be cancelled, but in the event of light rain, the show will go on. Call my office at 718-931-1721 for more information.

SUMMER CONCERT IN PELHAM BAY PARK

Every year I partner with the Bronx Arts Ensemble to sponsor a summer concert series in Pelham Bay Park. The second performance in the concert series will be held on Friday, August 14th at 6 pm. The stage will be set up near the Middletown Road and Stadium Ave entrance. Odane Whilby and his band will be performing "A Golden Oldies Summer Celebration". In case of heavy rain, an indoors location will be announced. If you have any questions or need to verify the location due to rain please call the Bronx Arts Ensemble at 718-601-7399 or my office at 718-931-1721.
