Dale Cody Adamo, 33, of Leadville, Colorado and formerly of Albion, New York, passed away May 24, 2023 peacefully in his sleep. Cody was born June 11, 1989 in San Diego, California to Shirley (Belmont) and Dale Adamo. In 1990, the family moved to Albion, NY where Cody grew up and went to school. He was a graduate of Albion Central School, Class of 2007. He was actively involved in Boys Scouts and earned the honor of being an Eagle Scout. Cody loved music, the outdoors, skiing, and most of all, he loved helping others. Dale Cody Adamo was an ambassador of light and love. His heart and spirit touched people all across the country. Cody is survived by his parents Dale and Shirley Adamo, brother Dylan (Beth) Adamo, and Sister Carley Adamo; Grandmothers Karen Johnston and Marge Belmont; several Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins; his beloved dog Nesha; and his many, many friends. There will be a Celebration of Life held June 17, 2023 from 1-4 p.m. at 2775 Eagle Harbor-Wtpt. Road in Albion, NY.

Arnold Arthur D'Amico of Leesburg, VA, January 7, 2023. Beloved Husband of 58 years to Elenna Monacelli D'Amico; dear father of Arnold (Ana Maria) and Michael (Eileen); loving PopPop of Nicholas, Jonathan and Angelena D'Amico. Devoted Brother-in-Law of Elizabeth Passarell, Philbert Monacelli and the late Richard Monacelli and Larry Passarell. Cherished Uncle, Cousin and good friend to many. Arnold passed away peacefully, in God's hands, with his family at his side. Arnold was born in Albion, NY, in 1939, to Arthur and Minnie (Nenni) D'Amico with a beautiful, warm smile he wore his entire life. He graduated from Albion Central High School in 1956 and Niagara University in 1961. While serving in the US Army (Capt.), he and his dearly loved Elenna married, and Arnold embarked on a career in public accounting and real estate project management with John Portman and Associates, including the Bonaventure Hotel in Los Angeles. After open-heart surgery, Arnold managed his heart disease for over 40 years, showing others the example of discipline and hard work concerning cardiac health. He was an active parishioner of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish (Decatur, GA), Sts. Felicitas and Perpetua Church (San Marino, CA) and St. Anne's Church (Smithfield, NC), and was an advocate of St. Francis High School (La Canada, CA) and Niagara University. Arnold was also an avid Notre Dame, New York Yankees and Buffalo Bills fan! Arnold was a very kind, gentle, generous and unassuming man, who was loved by all who knew him. He made new friends, and kept up with old ones, throughout his life. He especially enjoyed traveling to family and school reunions, and recounting stories with friends of their antics from days past. He was active in charitable causes for veterans and children's health, and continued his involvement with tax preparation services for seniors into recent years. His greatest achievement is his family, as evidenced by the amount of love he poured into each member and his enjoyment of life's moments, big and small, with them. His family is eternally grateful for the blessing of their husband, father, grandfather, and the gift of his love. Arnold followed God, practiced his Catholic faith, relished his family and celebrated our great country. Faith. Family. Country. He will be missed by all. Mass of Christian Burial at Holy Family Parish - St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, 106 South Main St., Albion, NY on Saturday, June 17, 2023 at 10:00 am. Medina Sandstone Society seeks nominations for 10th anniversary Hall of Fame class

By Tom Rivers, Editor Posted 7 June 2023 at 1:11 pm

MEDINA - The Medina Sandstone Society is accepting nominations for its Hall of Fame, seeking to recognize prominent buildings made of Medina Sandstone that are well-maintained and architecturally significant.

Since the Medina Sandstone Hall of Fame was created in 2013, the society has inducted churches, public structures, private buildings and other civic sites, such as the Civil War Memorial at Mount Albion Cemetery. There have now been 35 inductees.

The inductees last year included the Erie Canal Culvert in the Town of Ridgeway, St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Albion (including the parish's lyceum and cemetery chapel), and the Ryan Quarry home owned by Robert and Maureen Christian on South Holley Road in Clarendon.

This year's class could include nominations from previous years not already selected, and any new nominations received by June 30.

People can nominate a site by filling out a form: www.sandstonesociety.org/hof-nominations.

Criteria for consideration shall include age, beauty, longevity, structural soundness, and architectural uniqueness. If possible nomination information should have full background and documentation, and, at the very least, should give a name and phone number to be contacted for further information or a website.

Stream & Lake Map of New York

The STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK resembles another map-known to Pennsylvania anglers as the "Lost Stream Map." It was completed in 1965 after a 30 year effort by Howard Higbee, a former Penn State Professor. Professor Higbee painstakingly plotted by hand, the location of 45,000 miles of streams onto the map. It sold extremely well - until the printer declared bankruptcy and hauled Higbee's work to the landfill. But reprints were impossible because the maps were printed in non-photographic blue. Higbee was even offered $400 for one of his last maps. And state agencies were forced to keep their copies under lock and key. Then, at the age of 91, Howard Higbee's dream came true. Computers made it possible to reprint the map. Then the STREAM & LAKE MAP OF NEW YORK was created.

Why every angler and boater needs this map
Professor Higbee's Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

BONUS #1 GUIDEBOOK: Pinpoint the best fishing in New York with this valuable guide. Easily locate over 3,000 streams and 1,200 lakes shown on the "Stream & Lake Map." Your map guide will take you to the top 1,123 select water for 19 species of gamefish.

BONUS #2 REPORT: Finding Secret Fishing Spots
47 tips, tactics and tools you can use to find your own secret spot and catch more fish.

BONUS #3 REPORT: How Anglers Stalk and Catch Record Fish
The average big fish has evaded capture for over 10 years. Find out which instincts set them apart from smaller fish. Stalking and catching a trophy requires knowledge of their unique habits and those special times when their guard is down. Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report--you could be in for the fight of your life.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."
—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."
—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

Travel Thoughts By Kim
Let's go on an adventure together....to Austin, TX!

The Texas State Capital building in Austin is a stunning example of architecture that can be seen from quite a distance.

The fourth and final part from my recent Texas Adventure covers the second half of day five in Austin. That morning, I spent some time at The Alamo in San Antonio - I wrote about that two weeks ago. I decided to add on a side trip to Austin for the afternoon. Austin, about 80 miles north of San Antonio, is a country music mecca and the capital city of Texas. Their motto is "Keep Austin Weird"! Originally called Waterloo, Austin became a key crossroads for trade between Santa Fe and Galveston Bay. It is currently the largest city in Travis County, TX, the fourth most populous city in Texas, the 11th most populous city in the United States, and the second most populous state capital city. Visiting Austin wasn't in my original plan for the trip. The plan was Houston/Conroe, Galveston, and San Antonio. But, when I looked on the map and saw how close Austin was to San Antonio and that I could fit it in, I decided to add it as a side-trip. I'm so glad I did! I LOVED Austin! Since I only had a few hours in Austin, I wanted to see as much as I could in that small time. So...yep, you guessed it.I went to the Welcome Center and got a ticket on a double decker city bus tour. It was perfect! I sat right in the front seat on the top level of the open top bus and had the BEST view of the city! The guide was amazing and it was an awesome hour or so loop full of cool things to see and interesting commentary. Austin is a fun and colorful city. I was impressed by the architecture, brightness, and general cleanliness of the city. The perfect mix of eclectic and modern. We rode down Sixth Street - a street full of clubs, music, restaurants, food, and drinks. As we drove along the street, music blared from just about every building we passed. It looked like a fun place to be. The Texas State Capital building is stunning and a very prominent sight that can be seen from quite a distance. Food trucks are a BIG attraction in Austin - we saw several "food truck parks" along our journey. Our guide told us several folk lore stories about the old days in Austin - like this story about a dark December night in 1842 when Sam Houston tried to take the Texas archives out of Austin, thereby eliminating it as a possible capital city of the Republic. A middle aged woman named Angelina Eberly saw what was going on downtown and fired a cannon at the thieves. They failed their mission and Austin became the capital city. In 2004, the city erected a bronze statue of Angelina firing her cannon at the spot where she stood on Congress Ave between 6th and 7th streets. After the tour ended, I asked about a nearby place where I could get dinner before heading back to San Antonio. I was told with no hesitation about Moonshine Grill right across the street from the Welcome Center. It was amazing!!! They brought a bucket of popcorn lightly seasoned with a wonderful kick to munch on while I waited for my meal. I had chicken and waffles - again, with a slight kick that delighted my taste buds - and sweet tea. It was all soooooo good!!! If you're ever in Austin, be sure to include a meal at Moonshine Grill - you won't regret it. It is the oldest building in Austin and specializes in comfort food with a Texas twist. I made it back to my hotel in San Antonio in time to pack up and get to bed fairly early to rest up for my VERY early morning flight back home. My trip was done.....my time in Texas had ended.....it was a wonderful trip and I feel I did Texas right this time. The first time I was in Texas, it technically met all the criteria to check it off the "visit all 50 states" bucket list item, but I really felt like I cheated and wanted to go back and see more. And, now I have! I put 653 miles on my rental car, visited five different cities, had a wonderful visit with my cousin in Conroe, scratched off three more items on the banners on my Adventure Wall, and made lots of amazing memories - all in five days!!!

The oldest building in Austin is now the Moonshine Grill restaurant - a must add to any trip to Austin!

A view of part of Sixth Street in Austin - an eclectic strip of restaurants, clubs, and shops bursting with music and fun.

One last thrill to share about this adventure..... it was the perfect cap to the trip! I was at the gate during my layover in Baltimore-Washington International Airport and saw a guy dressed in a colonial uniform with a bell and a line of military men - most were Army, one was a sailor - all in uniform. What I soon realized was that there were preparing to deboard an Honor Flight plane filled with war veterans headed to Washington DC to tour the monuments. With each set of veterans, the colonial guy would ring the bell and another man would announce their arrival - they represented WWII, Korean War, and Vietnam War. All the passengers waiting in the terminal stood and cheered....the veterans passed by with smiles and waves and shook the hands of the military soldiers greeting them. It was an AMAZING and very emotional experience. And.....I and not ashamed to admit that I shamelessly flirted with the young sailor that was standing beside me waiting for the veterans to arrive....there's something about a sailor in a white uniform! Hehehe

Happy Adventuring,

Albion High School band director named 'Educator of the Year'

By Tom Rivers, Editor Posted 8 June 2023 at 8:16 am
Mike Thaine praised for rapport with students, setting high expectations

ALBION - The school district has honored Mike Thaine as Albion's "Educator of the Year" for the 2022-23 school year.

Thaine was praised for leading the high school band, marching band, jazz band and for conducting the high school pit orchestra for the musical.

"He has incredible rapport with students, in and out of the classroom," said Jennifer Ashbery, the high school principal.

Her daughters are both in the band program led by Thaine.

Clara Bolton, a senior in the band, was among the nominees for Thaine to receive the award.

"Mr. Thaine is an adult everyone can trust," she wrote.

He encourages the students to work hard and excel, she said.

The award is typically presented just before the Board of Education meeting in June, when the district also recognizes retiring teachers and other staff. Thaine was unable to attend Monday's recognition program because he was with students at a New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) solo competition in Brockport.

Mike Thaine introduces the next piece of music during Wednesday's concert. The jazz band and concert band together performed 10 songs during Wednesday's concert.

Karen Conn, a music teacher in the high school, said Thaine is highly respected by his colleagues.

"He is a calming presence and an excellent confidante," she said.

Thaine graduated from Albion in 1986. After working at the Prattsburgh school district for eight years, Thaine came back to Albion and was an elementary music teacher from 1998 until moving to the high school in 2006.

He has been part of a music program in Albion that has won national recognition the past 16 years from the NAMM Foundation for "Best Communities for Music Education."

Thaine told the crowd at Albion that he loves his job, working with 80 students in the high school band program.

"These guys make it so nice to come to work," Thaine said about the students. "Kids, I love you and I tell you that all the time and I mean it."

Thaine has worked more than three decades as a music teacher and he said he is enjoying the job now more than ever.

"I'm blessed with the nicest group of kids I've ever had," he said after Wednesday's concert.
