4. Which duo wrote and released "Little Latin Lupe Lu"?

Mixed Emotions

One youngster was explaining to another what "mixed emotions" meant.

"It's like watching the school burn down when your new catcher's mitt is in your desk," he said.

John 3:16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Answers

1. Harold Melvin & the Blue Notes, in 1972. The Recording Industry Association of America designated it a Song of the Century, ranking it up there with "The Tennessee Waltz" and "Tom Dooley."
2. The Beatles. Brian Epstein managed both groups. Lennon and McCartney even gave Kramer some of their songs to record when they weren't right for the Beatles.

3. Cornelius Brothers & Sister Rose, in 1972. The song was written by one of the brothers, Eddie, and topped the Cashbox chart.
4. The Righteous Brothers, in 1963.
5. "Stuck On You," by Elvis Presley in 1960. The song climbed charts around the globe and even took the top spot away from "Theme From a Summer Place," which had stayed at No. 1 for nine weeks.

Piedmont Pets
June 15, 2023 By Paulette Dean

Over the past 31 years, I have come into contact with tens of thousands of animals at the shelter and in the community; in fact, I am sure the number must be over 100,000. While I would love to be able to say I remember each one, I cannot. I can honestly say, though, that there are thousands of ones I vividly remember, simply because their stories are horrible.

A few years ago we went to a home on a complaint about a dog being treated in a cruel way. In fact, the caller told us that no dog in his house lived long. A white pit bull type dog came onto the porch with us. She wagged her tail and leaned against me. A man answered our knock. We showed him our identification and stated our reason for being there.

He came out on the porch and his demeanor, body language, and verbal abuse of us gave me reason to believe that the complaint was a valid one. However, it was the dog's reaction that let me know the true story. She was terrified of him. As soon as she saw him, she dropped to the porch and began urinating. He demanded that she come to him, and she trembled as she crawled to him. She just crouched in front of him.

Honestly, I did not know what to do. The thought came into my mind that if I mentioned her terrified reaction to him, she would pay the price after we left. I spoke with him about kind treatment of animals, how dogs think and learn differently than we do, and this was a wonderful dog that could be such a good friend of his. His wife assured us he loved his dog and was kind to her. We did not believe her for one second.

We had no solid evidence of cruel treatment that would hold up in court; the caller who had complained said that he would not be willing to testify in court. There was nothing else we could do. A follow-up call a couple of weeks later revealed the dog "disappeared." I hope that means she ran away.

Virginia has excellent standards of adequate care required for companion animals. The law can make you feed and water all of your animals. The law can make you provide shelter for them, and can even require veterinary care for them. The lack of adequate care can be proven in court.

There is no law, though, that can measure the love and gentle treatment provided to companion animals. Because of that, harsh treatment and emotional abuse happen in homes and can continue unless a human witness is willing to testify in court.

It is heartbreaking and one of the reasons that we still have a screening process in place for people who want to adopt our shelter animals. And yes, I still think of that poor, sweet, terrified dog.

Laidback Golf Tour - Crooked Tree

With area graduations, vacations and a very likely chance of a rain day; only fourteen members came out to participate in their tournament held at Crooked Tree Golf Club on Monday June 12th. The group that came was blessed with a beautiful mid eighties slightly overcast day on the very well conditioned course. The group was able to card ten birdies and one eagle with three players having rounds in the seventies. Only three flights were represented with all three flights being won by players who improved from their last year's performance here by at least seven strokes. Mike Asbury playing in the A Flight collected his third win of the season with his 77 finish. Robbie Revis also captured his third win of the season in B Flight with his round of 78. Last year Robbie had a 91 in his tournament here. Allen "Bubba" Revis; Robbie's son won his second tournament this season in the C Flight with his round of 83. Meanwhile Jody Myers who finished second in C Flight found the big payday with his birdie on number 18 which was the Honey Hole winning him $165.

The Tour's next scheduled tournament will be their 3rd Major of the season. It is scheduled for Monday June 26th at Olde Mill Golf Resort in Laurel Fork, VA ( Groundhog Mountain) beginning at 10am. Entry fee will be $80 cash for Tour members with memberships being $40 per year. Registration is request by June 19th with the cutoff deadline being noon on Saturday June 24th. * Use the measuring cups when adding detergent to the washer. It avoids using too much, which can get costly. And it will avoid residual soap left in the fabric.

* If you use air-conditioning, use a programmable thermostat. You can set it to a higher temperature overnight, when it's naturally cooler, and have it cool down the house right about the time you'll get home, so there's no wasted energy cooling a house with no one in it.

* When putting woody-stem flowers, such as roses, in a vase, cut the stem diagonally and whack with a small mallet. It will absorb water much better this way. -- A.R. in Mississippi

* Save small milk cartons and wash well. Fill with water and freeze. You can use these in your picnic basket for an easy cold pack to keep foods chilled.

* Too many suds in the sink? Try sprinkling them with salt. The foam will settle down quickly!

* Shower rings (the hooks that hold your shower curtain to the curtain bar) can be used for lots of things: I keep one in my sewing basket to hold safety pins. It's terrific, and the pins are orderly and easy to find. -- E.L. in Utah

Make Mashed Potatoes Ahead of Time

How do you mash your potatoes? Little did I realize until I casually asked around that there are as many techniques and add-ins as there are families who love eating them. Satisfying and delicious, mashed potatoes are one of the first dishes my kids learned to prepare. While my 10-year-old son took on the peeling and slicing, my 8-year-old daughter engaged her muscles 25 minutes later, mashing the tender chunks.

Whether you rice 'em, mash 'em or cream 'em with an electric mixer, let's face it — they do take time to prepare from scratch. That's where this make-ahead recipe fits into my schedule, especially during the busier months out of the year. Prep this large batch a day or two in advance, getting your kids in the "mash," and relax knowing they'll be ready to pop in the oven to serve when you need them.

MAKE-AHEAD MASHED POTATOES
Makes 10-12 servings
— 5 pounds russet or Yukon Gold potatoes
— 1 tablespoon salt
— 1/4 cup melted butter
— 1 8-ounce package cream cheese, room temperature and cut into chunks
— 1 cup sour cream, room temperature
— Salt and pepper to taste (I use white pepper)
— Garnishes such as paprika, chopped fresh chives or parsley (optional)
To prepare the potatoes: Quarter or halve the potatoes so that chunks are equal in size. This is a good job for your preteen. Place in a large pot with enough cold water to cover by 1 inch. Add 1 tablespoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, reduce to medium and cook for about 20-25 minutes until tender when pierced with a fork. Drain potatoes well in a colander.

Now it's time to mash them while they are hot, using your favorite family method. If you use a ricer, work together with your child to rice the potatoes into a large bowl. If you prefer a traditional hand potato masher, pour the potatoes in the bowl and mash. Or, use an electric mixer. With all methods, add butter as you go. Next, stir in cream cheese, sour cream, and salt and pepper to taste. Stir well until smooth.

Taste the mixture, adding more seasoning if you wish. Sometimes we add a few shakes of Lowry's seasoning.

To store: Pour the mixture into a 9-by-13-inch baking dish, smoothing the top. Cool, cover and put into the refrigerator for up to three days.

To bake: Heat oven to 350 F. Remove potatoes from refrigerator. Bake uncovered for 45 minutes. Add garnishes and serve.

Cook's note: To enhance with garlic flavor, peel and halve 2 garlic cloves. Cook and mash with potatoes.
