Born in Camden, Maine, she was the daughter of Hazel and Albert Eaton, Sr. of Hope, ME and Clyde Smith and his late wife Barbara of Owls Head, ME. Kelley grew up in Camden and graduated from Camden Rockport High School with the Class of 1989. Soon after graduating high school Kelley enlisted in the Army where she served as an Air Defense Artillery Private from 1989

Celine loved her pets and we know she is now playing with her beloved Wilson and Hank as her other loves, Otis, Oliver, Amelia and Bubblelina are already missing her. A God fearing and praising woman, Celine was not afraid to speak about her faith. She attended church on a regular basis and talked about God for hours. We know that she ran into heaven, happy to be in the arms of her savior. Celine appreciated chances to have a good laugh, which you could overhear as she watched Madea movies and snacked on her chocolate candies. Keep laughing and enjoying those candies, you lived well. It is now time to take a well-earned rest. A Memorial Service will be held on Monday, July 3, 2023, at 1pm, at Alabama Full Gospel Fellowship, 5329 S. Gravel Road, Medina, NY. Jane Salisbury Nesbitt, 98, of Phoenix, Arizona passed peacefully on June 23, 2023, after a wonderful, long life. Jane, the daughter of the late Hilton and Edith Reynolds Salisbury (Townsend) leaves behind her son Charles (Kim) Nesbitt, daughter Sandi (Mark King), Daughter-in-law Kathy (Tom) Nesbitt, 12 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and numerous nephews and a niece. She was pre-deceased by her husband Harold C. Nesbitt in 1975, her great-grandson Nicolo Albanese in 1998, sister Carol Spanton in 2008, brother Bart Salisbury in 2011, niece Nancy Salisbury in 2012, son Tom in 2017 and nephew David Spanton in 2022. Jane was a 1943 graduate of Albion High School. She worked for many years for the New York Telephone Company, Nesbitt Motors and several other local organizations. She was active in community service, holding leadership positions in The Business and Professional Women, American Legion Auxiliary and as one of the earliest women to hold the position of Elder in the Barre Center Presbyterian Church. After moving to Arizona, she continued her patriotic service by performing the American Legion "Evolution of the Flag" program in many Phoenix area Jr. and Sr. High Schools over many years. Additionally, she supervised the distribution of tens of thousands of newsletters for both her church and her local recreation center where Jane also served as party organizer, photographer and a generous helping hand. She was an active swimmer, traveler and occasional golfer. Jane was the unquestioned matriarch of her family, ready to listen and dispense advice to any family member who asked. She provided a steady hand during family difficulties. The Gillette Road grandkids remember her cookie jar as always being there for them and her pool as a font of many family stories. Family and friends enjoyed the thousands of very special homemade cards (credited to "Plain Jane") she made and mailed to them commemorating nearly every important occasion. Refill with Randy

By Randy LeBaron

Good morning! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this week right... TOGETHER!!!

Growing up I would often hear my father talk about his time in the military. He originally joined the army in 1948 and was stationed in Germany during The Korean War. He described his time there as extremely difficult and often dehumanizing so, at the end of his enlistment, he transferred over to the Air Force where he was deployed to France and ran a carpentry shop in Paris. He said it was like night and day as he went from being made to march barefoot in the snow to being treated like a high class citizen. He loved his time there and would talk about getting espresso at the local cafés and even getting to meet Jimmy Stewart when he and his fellow airmen were used as extras during the landing scene in the movie The Spirit of St. Louis.

For as long as I can remember I had always wanted to go to Paris to experience it like my dad did. I was also interested in exploring my heritage since my father's family originally came from France. My last name, LeBaron, is French for "The Virtuous Man". It can also be translated as "The Macho Man" but I didn't want to be confused with a certain wrestler from the 1980s. Anyway, back in 2018 I got my chance to visit the City of Love. While leading a Missions' Team to work with The Roma in Bulgaria we had to catch a connecting flight in Paris so we decided to extend our layover by a couple of days before heading on to Kyustendil.

In many ways Paris was pretty much what I expected as far as the sights and sounds. We did the typical touristy things like visiting The Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame (so thankful to see before it burned), The Louve, and The Arc de Triumph. We also sampled a lot of the local fare such as street crepes filled with meat, fruit, or the French favorite Nutella.

My daughter Ashlyn was with me and tried the French Onion Soup and I think she would agree with me in saying that it didn't hold a candle to The Village House's. I did get to sip my espresso in a local café but realized that it was much cheaper to go to Starbucks (yes, you read that right) as a tiny espresso could run $8.00 or more while a Venti-sized cup at Starbucks was under $4.00.

A couple things that actually surprised me while staying there. The first was the heat, it was 104° and we had to walk everywhere, and the second was that escargot was nowhere near as gross as I would have expected. As you can see from the pics I struggled putting the snail in my mouth at first but, once I did, the texture resembled that of a portobello mushroom and I rather enjoyed it. My ultimate takeaway was that with was that with enough butter and garlic anything is edible.

It was a short stay but ultimately I was able to connect with my roots, reminisce about my dad's stay there, share some good memories with my daughter, eat some fantastic food, and check a major thing off of my bucket list. Ironically it still didn't compare to the time spent in Bulgaria but that's another story.

I hope this coming Tuesday, July 4th that you all have a great time celebrating the freedoms that so many fought, and continue to fight, for and stay safe. See you in 2 weeks!

See you in two weeks!
Pastor Randy

Fourth of July Cookie Cups

Makes 24

- 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 1/2 cup (1 stick) unsalted butter, softened
- 1 teaspoon cornstarch
- 3/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 large egg, at room temperature
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

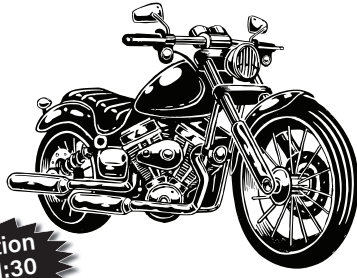

Red, white and blue sprinkles, for topping

Vanilla Buttercream Frosting

- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter, softened
- 1 tablespoon heavy whipping cream
- 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

1. Preheat the oven to 350 F. Spray mini muffin pan with nonstick cooking spray and set aside.
2. In a large mixing bowl, whisk together the flour, cornstarch, baking powder, and salt. Set aside.
3. In the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with the paddle attachment or in a large mixing bowl using a handheld mixer, beat the butter and granulated sugar together for 1 to 2 minutes, or until well combined.
4. Mix in the egg and vanilla extract until fully combined, making sure to stop and scrape down the sides of the bowl as needed.
5. Mix in the dry ingredients until just combined.
6. Evenly distribute the cookie dough among all 24 cups in the mini muffin pan, a little more than 1 tablespoon of cookie dough per cup. Press each ball of cookie dough into the cups and smooth it out.
7. Bake for 11 to 13 minutes, or until the edges of the cookie cups are lightly browned and the tops are set.
8. Remove from the oven, and make an indentation in each cookie using the back of a measuring spoon. Allow to cool in the muffin pan, then carefully remove from the pan and set aside.
9. To make the vanilla buttercream frosting: In the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with the paddle attachment or in a large mixing bowl using a handheld mixer, beat the butter for 1 to 2 minutes until smooth. Add the powdered sugar, 1/2 cup at a time, mixing in each addition until well combined.
10. Add the heavy whipping cream and vanilla extract, and continue mixing until fully combined, stopping to scrape down the sides of the bowl as needed. Pipe the frosting into the cooled cookie cups and top with the sprinkles.
12. Store the cookie cups in an airtight container at room temperature or in the refrigerator for up to 4 days.
