5 HERBS TO PLANT IN IN EARLY SPRING

1. Cilantro

We grow quite a bit of cilantro from seed. To be honest, it is allowed to escape and reseed in a specific area. That way, we get the earliest cilantro, AND the latest cilantro that the season offers. This takes the guesswork out of it for us. Be sure to start your seeds straight into the ground now. The seeds will tolerate even a light covering of snow, and the minute it is warm enough, they will germinate!

2. Lemon Balm

Lemon Balm is part of the hardy mint family. It's no surprise that this yummy herb can tolerate the crazy days of early spring weather. When you plant it, remember that planting it in a container that is sunk into the ground, might be a smart move. Lemon balm will escape and grow everywhere if given the opportunity. Plant our seeds now, and enjoy the best this lemony plant has to offer, before the heat of summer puts too much stress on it.

3. Borage

Plant borage seeds right now! This beautiful herb deserves a place of honor in the garden. It will grow quite large, so plant it where you want it to remain forever. Borage will escape and reseed vigorously. Borage leaves are used in salads, when they are tiny, of course the flowers are always edible, and once the sun starts to scorch the earth in the latter part of summer, this cool-loving herb will try to go to seed and die back. Be sure to peek under the large mother plant, for small seedlings to add to your salads all summer long. What a fun addition to the early spring garden!

4. Dill

Who doesn't love dill? It grows lightning fast in the cool spring soil, and offers a bright sunny flavor to your dishes in no time. Dill likes to reseed itself once it has been trimmed back numerous times, so planting now and continuing to plant at weekly intervals, will provide you with plenty of dill. It dries and freezes perfectly, so build up a stash while you can! I freeze my dill whole, blossoms, stems and leaves. Then I have just what parts I need for pickling time.

5. Basil

As much as you hear about basil loving the heat (which is very true), it may surprise you that basil does really well if started as seeds indoors (right about now) and then transplanted outside when the weather permits. It also grows extremely well indoors. There is no reason you couldn't start seeds inside and keep them in a sunny window to harvest as they become large enough. It is a great way to keep you from planting anything tender out in the garden. Don't be fooled! Spring is here, but frost dates still remain.

Step into Spring!

Message From James Vacca NYC Councilman 13th District

NEXT STEP FOR HOMEOWNER TAX REBATE

I am pleased to report that the New York City Council has included a $250 rebate for 1, 2, and 3 family homeowners as a part of its response to the Mayor's proposed budget. My original proposal calls for a $500 rebate which I still support. Getting any rebate on the table is a victory for struggling families. I will continue the fight!

CALL FOR MORE OFFICERS

The New York City Council also included funding for an additional 1,000 police officers in its response to the Mayor's proposed budget. For some years now, I have been calling for more officers in the New York City Police Department in order to provide the force with the personnel it needs to carry out its duties effectively. I am glad the Council recognizes the importance of this public safety issue.

NYC RENT FREEZE PROGRAMS

New York offers two programs for tenants who have limited means: the Senior Citizen Rent Increase Exemption (SCRIE) program for seniors (aged 62 or over) and the Disability Rent Increase Exemption (DRIE) for those with qualifying federal disabilities. SCRIE benefits are attached to their leases. So if a SCRIE tenant fails to renew their lease, then their SCRIE benefit will lapse as well. Call 311 to check application statuses for the SCRIE and DRIE programs or to get access to enrollment assistance.

IMMIGRANT HERITAGE WEEK

Explore the influence of Spain and Latin America on the guitar and music with classic guitarist Don Witter Jr. Mr. Witter will perform various works to showcase the musical range of the classical guitar. The performance will be held at the Allerton Branch of the New York Public Library on 2740 Barnes Avenue at 2:30 p.m., Monday, April 20th. For more information, visit nypl.org or call 718.881.4240.

THE BRONX OF YESTERYEAR

Walk down memory lane with Stephen Samtur in a 90-minute retrospective of the Bronx during the 1940s, 1950s and 1960s. This presentation will take place on Tuesday, April 21st at the Allerton Branch of the New York Public Library on 2740 Barnes Avenue and will begin at 2:30 p.m. The presentation includes 500 never before seen photos. For more information, visit nypl.org or call 718.881.4240.
