COLLECTS CARS AND BUILDINGS

Tumbleweed Smith

Dan Markman worked on his high school newspaper in Meridian.

"We're the Yellow Jackets here in Meridian," says Dan. "And I was on the Jacket Jabber staff."

His father had a feed store in Meridian. The family car was a 1951 Kaiser.

"That was my first car in high school, a Tumbleweed Smith hand me down family 51 Kaiser."

Years later he bought a 1951 Kaiser. "After I started my family I remarked that if I ever had the chance to buy a 51 Kaiser I'd buy it. One day my 13-year-old son told me he found one in the newspaper and not only was it a Kaiser but it was a 51 Kaiser. We immediately went out and bought it and we still have that car. We've had it 35 years."

Dan has other cars.

"We have eighteen or nineteen cars. Our preference is what are called orphans. The manufacturer shut down and the models are non-existent. So we like Kaisers, we like Packards, we like Studebakers, we like Hudsons. So we've got four Kaisers, a Fraser, couple of Packards, a Studebaker. Right now I'm looking for an AMC Pacer and a Gremlin and Hudson Hornet. They're basically post war vehicles."

His cars are in two barns on his sheep farm in Meridian.

"I see us as preserving a bit of automotive history because we like the orphans."

One of his cars is truly collectible.

"It's a 1954 Kaiser Darrin. It's a sports car. They only made 287 of them. At auction it's bringing upwards of two hundred thousand dollars. That's our piece de resistance." Dan's farm is a popular place for car lovers.

"In the last year we've had the state Rolls Royce club meet here for lunch. We had 77 cars here. We have 2 Rolls Royces, a 57 and a 76. The Bentley club from the Gulf Coast also came here. We own a 2019 Bentley. Last week we had the Ford Club out of the Dallas-Fort Worth area. We really enjoy hosting the owners of these beautiful vehicles and they enjoy getting out and driving around the countryside."

Dan moved to Houston and got into the insurance business, but he returns to his hometown every month.

"I kind of have a new project. About four years ago I started buying buildings around the courthouse. I own nine of them. I'm trying to rejuvenate downtown Meridian."

Johnny Melton, Sr. June 17, 1951 — July 22, 2023

Johnny Melton, Sr., was a man that didn't waste words. Everyone instinctively knew when his iconic and soothing voice was heard you should listen for when he spoke there was a reason and a purpose. He had the skill to figure out what was going on with individuals and the innate ability to provide a story or the advice needed to guide you, teach you, direct your way, or deliver the perfect joke to lift your spirit. He was the BEST gag gift giver and it seemed that he never ran out of ideas for how he would "get you next time". Providing for and fiercely loving his family filled his heart and soul with joy.

Johnny Wayne Melton, Sr., age 72, passed away peacefully at home on July 22, 2023, after courageously battling cancer. Johnny fought cancer for the loves of his life, his wife, his son, and his grandson, Daniel. Johnny beat cancer in the way he lived and the manner in which he lived it. He is rejoicing today with Our Lord and Savior in Heaven. He was reassured of this complete promise of healing, again, when the Lord spoke to him in a dream during his last hospital stay.

Johnny Wayne Melton, Sr., is survived by his adoring wife Sue Melton of Emory, loving son Johnny Wayne Melton, Jr., and wife Jennifer of Emory, grandson Daniel Melton of Emory, and countless loving family and precious friends. All of these he loved and treasured.
