COLUMBUS DAY PARADE

Each year the great Columbus Day parade on Morris Park Ave gets bigger and bigger. This year was no different with the sidewalks packed. Hats off to the parade Chairman Tony Signorile and to the Morris Park Community Association. I was pleased to have provided a City Council grant of $10,000 to support this great event.

STREET MARKINGS MISSING

Have you noticed how many yellow lines down the center of the street or white lines dividing lanes of traffic are missing or faded? I have! On the Hutchinson River Parkway and the Brucker Expressway this is a major issue. Last week I saw how Country Club road was impacted as the center yellow lines were missing and cars were ending up in lanes they did not belong in. Last week at a hearing of the NYC Council Transportation Committee, I raised this issue publicly with Department of Transportation Commissioner Polly Trottenberg and asked her to give this safety aspect of traffic a higher priority.

VEHICLE THEFT PREVENTION TIPS FROM THE NYPD

It's no secret that car thefts are up in the 45th and 49th precincts. Honda Accords are specifically being targeted. Here are some tips from the NYPD to help protect your vehicle:

- Never leave your vehicle running unattended
- Completely close all windows
- Always lock ALL the doors
- Install wheel locks to prevent the theft of rims & hub caps
- Park in well-lit locations – avoid isolated areas
- Install a steering wheel locking device
- Install an alarm system
- Have the vehicle's VIN number etched onto the windows

Dollar Store Craft: DIY Upcycled Skulls

What you need:

- Hollow, plastic, skulls (I found mine at Dollar Tree)
- A good pair of scissors, craft knife, or a razor blade that can cut through thin plastic
- Spray paint

1. First, cut a hole in the skulls you plan to use as vases or holders. You'll want to cut them before you spray paint them or else you will ruin your paint job trying to hack through that plastic.
2. Next, paint! I used three kinds of spray paint for my skulls, a glossy white, a gold metallic, and a chalkboard black. I found all of my spray paints at Walmart.
3. Once your skulls are painted there is so much you can do with them! Fill them with candy! Sit them all around your house on pedestals! Or you can do what I did:

Skull Vases: First, I filled a couple with fresh flowers! All I had to do for this was fill in a small hole at the bottom of the skull with a little hot glue so that they could hold water. Then I was able to easily fill them with water and put in the flowers.

Chalkboard Skulls: With these skulls I chose not to cut holes in the top and just display them as is. I also picked up two glass candle sticks from the dollar store, spray painted them the same color, and glue gunned them together! So fun to draw on and spooky!

Gold Candle Holder: Lastly, I cut a hole big enough for a large candle that I also picked up from the dollar store! This one could not have been easier. Cut hole, put in candle. BAM. Halloween glam.
