Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Aspects favor new romances for unpaired Ewes and Rams. Already-paired Arian twosomes experience renewed harmony in their relationships. Money matters also take a bright turn.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Use that strong Bovine determination to help you keep the faith with your convictions while you move through a period of uncertainty. Things begin to ease by the week's end.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Pay attention to your intuition. It could be alerting you to be more careful about accepting a "statement of fact" simply on trust. Don't be shy about asking for more proof.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Concern for the well-being of someone in need is admirable, but don't forget to take care of yourself as well. Ask a family member, close friend or colleague to help you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's OK to focus on the demands of your career, but try to avoid misunderstandings by also reaching out to family and friends. Your sharp intuitive sense kicks in by midweek.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Keep a rein on that green-eyed monster. Jealousy is counterproductive. Instead of resenting a colleague's good points, concentrate on developing your own abilities.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Spending time on a creative project during this high-energy week can pay off both in emotional satisfaction and in impressing someone who is glad to see this side of you.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Now is a good time to start planning that trip you've put off because of the demands on your time. Be sure to choose a destination that is new and exciting.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) That upbeat mood in the first part of the week makes you eager to take on new ventures. A more serious note sets in later to help you assess an upcoming decision.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A high energy level gives the Goat the get-up-and-go to finish outstanding tasks before deadline, leaving time for well-earned fun and games with friends and family.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Dealing with disappointment is never easy, but the wise Aquarian will use it as a vital lesson and be the better for it. On another note, a close friend has something important to say.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your best bet is not to get involved in an argument between colleagues until you know more about who started it and why. Even then, appearances could be deceiving. Be alert.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have creative gifts that inspire those who get to see this sometimes hidden side of you.

Decided I need to eat something healthy so I made a delicious omelet this morning! I seasoned the eggs with sugar, oil, chocolate, and threw in a little flour for texture. Here is the end result!

While sitting at a counter having doughnuts and coffee at a 'quick stop' service station, two brothers were startled to see a man step up to the cashier, holding a gun and demanding all his money. Not being satisfied with that, he made all the customers line up and proceeded to take all their valuables: watches, billfolds, etc.

As he made his way from person to person in the line, the two brothers stood waiting at the end of the line. One brother carefully reached into his pocket, pulling out some cash and slipping it into his brother's hand.

"What's that?" his brother whispered.

"That's the $20 I owe you." he replied.

My cat, Danny, was adopted from the shelter and is a completely inside cat. Years ago, my mother had a screened-in porch built for me, and Danny loves to go out on it.

I am an early riser and Danny loves to greet the morning by going into the porch while I'm getting ready. He does come in a couple of times to check on my progress; he is making sure his breakfast will not be late.

On Monday, July 24th, we proceeded as we usually do. However, about an hour after I first opened the door, I realized Danny had not come inside the house. I went to the door and my heart actually stopped when I saw that, somehow, a small part of the screen had come loose and Danny was not on the porch. I quickly walked around the yard, looking for him. There was no sign. I called April, the shelter manager, in a panic and she came to look for him.

Eventually, I had to leave to attend a presentation at the police department. I posted a picture of Danny on my Facebook page and offered a $1,000 reward. I wanted to make sure people knew about him!

What an awful day. I was terrified for Danny; I know all too well the dangers that outside cats face.

Shortly after my post, I received a call from a young woman who said she was on her way to my house to look She was a voice from the past.

Her name is Crystal Matherly. It is amazing how our paths crossed again. I first met her in 2008 when she was a student at Galileo Magnet School. She was the founder and president of the Rotary Interact Club and they did volunteer events for us.

She went on to graduate from Virginia Tech with a degree in biological sciences. While in college, she adopted a toy poodle mix from the Montgomery County animal shelter. Lulu was Crystal's faithful companion for over 11 years; Lulu died a short while ago.

Crystal walked around the neighborhood and called with news that gave me hope - she had seen Danny in the wooded area behind my house and go underneath the mobile home.

Thankfully, April crawled halfway under the home and was able to eventually grab Danny.

It is because of Crystal's information that Danny was able to be captured. She declined the reward, telling she wanted to do it in memory of her beloved Lulu.

I was impressed with Crystal when she was a teenager and I will be forever grateful that her love for animals remained with her as she grew up.

Antique Signs

With its simple shapes, copper frame and red glass panels, this might look like a hanging sculpture in a modern abstract style. It's really an optician's trade sign from the late 19th century.

Antique signs, advertising and medical paraphernalia are popular collectibles. Some collectors seek them out for their historical significance or subject matter. Others consider them works of art. Signs that sell as folk art tend to bring higher prices at auction.

This one sold for $1,625 at Cowan's Auctions for more than twice the estimated value! The buyer might have had an interest in optometry or simply liked the look of the piece.

Q: My husband and I were employees of the Borden Milk plant in Youngstown, Ohio, in the 1970s. We have an 8-ounce drinking cup with the "Elsie the Cow" logo on the cup. The cup is white, and the lettering is blue. We also have a 12-ounce drinking glass and eight 8-ounce glasses with the Elsie logo. Are these collectible? What are they worth?

A. The Borden company has been in business for more than 160 years. Gail Borden and his partner started the company after Borden was granted a patent for his process for condensing milk in 1856. The company was named the New York Condensed Milk Company until 1919, when it became the Borden Company. It was the world's largest dairy operator by the late 1980s. Income fell in the '90s, and the company was sold in 1995. It was sold again in 2009, and the name became Borden Dairy. Elsie the Cow first appeared in ads in 1936. Her image was also used on milk bottle caps. The first live cow dubbed "Elsie" appeared in Borden's exhibit at the 1939 World's Fair. She outdrew every other exhibit at the Fair. Elsie's image has appeared on bottles, glasses, cups, clocks, lamps, figurines, playing cards and many other items. Glasses and cups sell for about $7 to Antique trade signs are especially desirable when they double as folk art. This optician's sign, shaped like a pair of red lenses in a metal frame, could be an interesting, if expensive, decoration.

$10. You will find cups offered for sale at higher asking prices, but they often sell for $10 or less.

TIP: Do not drip-dry your glasses. The water evaporates and leaves minerals behind on the glass. Eventually a film forms.

Laidback Golf Tour holds it's 4th Major of the Season At Forest Oaks Country Club

On Tuesday July 25 the Laidback Golf Tour held its 4th Major of the 2023 season at Forest Oaks Country Club in Greensboro. Forest Oaks which opened in 1962 and was slightly redesigned by Davis Love III in 2002 was the location of the Wyndham and Greater Greensboro Open from 1977-2007. It has been rated by Golf World Magazine as 4.7 out of a possible 5. The group of 23 participants found the course to be every bit as good as it's rating. The course gave up four rounds in the seventies while allowing one eagle and sixteen birdies.

Eighty-three year old David Wilson led all scorers with his round of 77. It was the third win of the season for Wilson. Meanwhile playing in his first Laidback Tour event Tim Shelton finished a close second with his round of 78. Shelton made the turn at two under par before injuring his wrist hitting out of a greenside bunker on #10. Shelton carded an eagle 3 on the honey hole and also recorded two birdies during his round. Mark Dill and Gary Taylor both turned in rounds of 79 in the A Flight also. Phillip Wells claimed his second win in three starts in the B Flight with his score of 80. Eric Minter and Tony Henderson also got their first season wins in the C and D Flights. The Tour is looking forward to returning to Forest Oaks again this season on Monday September 25th.

The Tours next scheduled tournament is Monday August 7th at Goodyear Golf Club beginning at 10am. Entry fee for Tour members will be $75 Cash or $50 if playing as a guest. Half season memberships are now available for $20. Register by emailing golftripman@yahoo.com by July 31st.

River District Association celebrates recent staff professional development accomplishments.

DANVILLE VA – The River District Association (RDA) celebrates the recent professional development accomplishments of three of its staff members.

Office Manager Alyssa Turner completed the local leadership program run by the Danville Pittsylvania County Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Southside.

The Leadership Southside program aims to develop participants' leadership skills to strengthen their role as an individual, professional, and community member.

"Before Leadership Southside, I was always under the assumption that you needed the title to TRULY be considered a leader: CEO, Owner, Director, etc." Said Turner, "But I've learned that titles are irrelevant; you can be leader regardless of your position, and not only at your job! You can be a leader anywhere in your community."

Programs and Services Director Lashawn Farmer completed the Virginia Natural Resources Leadership Institute, a professional development program for leaders confronted with Virginia's most pressing natural resource issues who seek new skills in conflict resolution and collaborative problem solving.

"Now, because of VNRLI I can have a deeper appreciation for the environment and myself. VNRLI gave a greater sense of purpose and belonging." Said Farmer, "I am a leader and influencer and it is important to use my voice to advocate for the things that I believe in when it comes to my environment and community. Being a leader is more than a title or position, it is the person in the community that the people trust and someone who is constantly working on themselves as well as the issues. It is important to self-motivate and encourage.

Sometimes the answers are discovered in silence, between each breath and during the times of peace, love and truth."

Programs and Services Manager Will Mackaman completed the Reinventing Impact: Collaboration Lab program, organized by the Danville Regional Foundation, Healthy Places by Design, and the Tamarack Institute. The Collaboration Lab is designed to help participants build local relationships, enhance collaborative leadership skills, and learn strategies for sustaining local organizational collaboration.

Mackaman said, "Collaboration Lab is an excellent leadership and relationship building program in our region.

We learned that many of our community's hardest problems can only be solved when we collaborate, communicate well, and understand the problem to begin with before jumping to the solution. The goal is to eventually change the larger system for the better."

"The culture at RDA is very supportive and encourages ongoing personal and professional development opportunities" said Diana Schwartz, CEO of the River District Association. "Our goal is for our entire team to be equipped to do anything they are passionate about. Supporting learning opportunities to ensure our team consists of well-rounded individuals makes for a stronger organization and, ultimately, a stronger community."

RDA is excited to see how staff members use their new skills and knowledge to further enhance RDA's work to continue the transformation of Danville's River District as a welcoming and lively place for all, while inspiring and influencing social and economic development for the great Dan River Region.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Barry Lee Tuck

September 25, 1965 ~ July 27, 2023 (age 57)

Barry Lee Tuck, age 57, of Danville, VA, passed away on Thursday, July 27, 2023, at his residence.

Mr. Tuck was born on September 25, 1965, in Danville, VA, a son of Curtis Grover Tuck and the late Dorothy Sandridge Tuck.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his brother, Curtis Tuck, II (Ginger); and sister, Vicki Quail.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday August 1, 2023, at 10 AM at Swicegood Funeral Home with Reverend Leon Burchett officiating. Interment will follow in Danville Memorial Gardens.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Tuck family.

Alice (Aherron) Teague

November 18, 1928 ~ July 27, 2023 (age 94)

Alice Alease Aherron Teague passed away peacefully on July 27th, 2023 at the age of 94 with her family by her side.

She was born on Sunday, November 18th, 1928 to the late Isaiah Profitt and Mamie Conner Aherron in Birch Creek, VA. Alice was the 8th of 11 children. Her family was always her priority and that became even more evident when she became a mother. First in 1946 with the arrival of her daughter, Christine and again in 1959, when she gave birth to her son, Roy Jr. She wed Roy Teague Sr on April 18th, 1952 and they shared 41 years of marriage together before his passing in 1993 at the age of 72.

Alice retired after more than 30 years as a seamstress at Dan River Mills. She often enjoyed gardening, sewing and baking, but most of all she loved spending time with those closest to her, especially her beloved dogs. Alice was a loving and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She lived a long and beautiful life and will be truly missed.

In addition to her parents, Alice is predeceased by her husband Roy Teague Sr; her brothers Percy, Willie, Hurley, Buck, Jim and Jack; her sisters Hester, Helen, Eva and Jeanette; and her children Christine Martin and Roy Teague Jr. She is survived by her daughter-in-law Kris Teague of Kernersville, NC; her grandchildren Tim Goforth (Lorna) of Secorra, NM and Crystal Hunt (Jody) of Archdale, NC; and her great-grandchildren McKayla Teague and Dylan Crumbley of Kernersville, NC.

Her funeral will be held at Swicegood Funeral Home 564 W Main St, Danville, VA 24541 on Sunday, August 6th at 2:00pm with a graveside memorial immediately following the service. The family will be accepting visitors for one hour prior to the service at the funeral home.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Teague family.

These free obituaries are sponsored by Swicegood-Barker Funeral Services as a service to their clients/families and Piedmont Shopper readers. Please let them know we appreciate their continued support.

Q. Whatever happened to actor Jamie Foxx? I read that he was in a coma, but came out of it. Is he OK? — P.F.

Deposiphotos
Jamie Foxx

A. Jamie Foxx was rushed to the hospital back in April after reportedly suffering some kind of medical emergency before heading to the set of his movie "Back in Action," with Cameron Diaz. There were rumors that he was near death, in a coma, possibly having suffered a stroke. While he hasn't given details about what caused his collapse, he recently emerged in video form on social media looking very much alive and well. He issued a statement thanking everyone who prayed for him and sent him messages. He further stated, "I cannot even begin to tell you how far it took me and how it brought me back. I went through something that I thought I would never, ever go through."

Foxx says he remained silent for so long because he didn't want fans to see him with "tubes running out" of him, and thanked his sister and his daughter for protecting him from the media. He denied reports that he lost his vision or was paralyzed. It's uncertain when he'll finish shooting "Back in Action."

Q. Is "Ted Lasso" returning for a new season or some kind of spin-off? It's hard to believe that it's done after just three seasons. — K.I.

Q. Didn't the director of the new "Barbie" movie start out as an actress? I think I saw her in an indie movie years ago. When did she make the transition to directing? — L.L.

A. The series finale of the Emmy-Award-winning comedy "Ted Lasso" aired in May, with what many fans felt like was a perfect ending. But they're still wanting more, even though star Jason Sudeikis told Entertainment Weekly back in 2021 that he envisioned the series as a three-season arc. However, in March, Brendan Hunt, who played Coach Beard, hinted the third season would bring closure, but that it was "not necessarily the end." Do with that statement what you will.

A. Greta Gerwig has earned the multi-hyphenate title of actress-writer-director, but started out acting in independent films. She first gained the attention of critics when she starred opposite Ben Stiller in the indie film "Greenberg," and later for "Frances Ha." Both films were directed by her now longtime partner in love, Noah Baumbach. The two have partnered together in writing screenplays, including the current big-budget Hollywood pic "Barbie," starring Margot Robbie.

Gerwig first added the title of director to her resume in 2008 with the film "Night's and Weekends," in which she also starred. In 2017, she earned an Oscar nomination for Best Director and Best Original Screenplay for her film

* My father taught me all I know about working the grill -- even though it was his job! One tip that's served me best is this simple beauty: Let the meat sear before you move it. Give it a chance to cook on one side well enough that it lifts away from the grill. If it's sticking, you probably need to leave it alone! Happy grilling.

* "Kitchen stores sell grill brushes, but they can be expensive. I use a good-quality paintbrush from the hardware store for grilling only, and replace it a couple of times throughout grilling season. I find it to be a better brush, and less expensive to boot!" -- B.F. in Illinois

* Your grilled meats will be more moist and taste better if you let them rest for a few minutes after you take them off the grill. It allows the meat to redistribute the natural juices. If you are worried about temperature, just cover the meat with foil.

* "It's best to clean a grill just after cooking, but if you weren't able to, that's OK. When faced with a messy grill surface, just preheat, then clean. The heat will burn off drippings and make it easier to scrub." -- R.T. in Florida

* You should never use a cooking spray on your grill. Instead, soak a paper towel in oil and use your tongs to oil the grill surface.
