OUR MISSION

To provide the youth of Erie County the opportunity to showcase their achievements and reach their fullest potential within a supportive environment. To offer all citizens of Erie County a venue to participate in a wide variety of open class competitions in the spirit of good fellowship. To recognize and honor special members of our community who have contributed endless hours of service and provided us a heritage of which we can be proud. To provide the residents of Erie County the opportunity to gather as one family regardless of race, age, sex or religious beliefs, for one week each year to celebrate our community.
