Signs You Are In For A Long Sermon

10. There's a case of bottled water beside the pulpit in a cooler.

9. The pews have camper hookups.

8. You overhear the pastor telling the sound man to have a few (dozen!) extra tapes on hand to record today's sermon.

7. The preacher has brought a snack to the pulpit.

6. The preacher breaks for an intermission.

5. The bulletins have pizza delivery menus.

4. When the preacher asks the deacon to bring in his notes, he rolls in a filing cabinet.

3. The choir loft is furnished with La-Z-Boys.

2. Instead of taking off his watch and laying it on the pulpit, the preacher turns up a four-foot hour-glass.

And the number one sign you are in for a long sermon...

1. The minister says, "You'll be out in time to watch the super bowl" but it's only September!

Piedmont Pets

August 17, 2023 By Paulette Dean

Although the City of Danville does not have an ordinance that prohibits cats from roaming, and Pittsylvania does not have an ordinance that prohibits dogs from roaming, except in certain areas, there are ordinances that offer some degree of protection from behaviors that would affect the quality of life for humans.

Both the City and the County prohibit female dogs in heat to roam. In fact, the ordinances are very specific about how the female dogs must be confined. In Pittsylvania County, the tethering of a female dog in heat "not under the direct supervision and control of the owner or custodian shall not be considered adequate confinement." (Section 2-23) Dogs in heat must be safely confined in a building or secure enclosure that would prohibit them from roaming at large.

The City Code requires that "the owner of a female dog that is in heat shall securely confine such dog to his premises in such manner as to prevent any annoyance of the neighborhood." (Section 5-41)

Although cats should not be allowed to roam for safety reasons, it is not illegal for them to do so. However, in Pittsylvania County, cats must be vaccinated against rabies or they can be impounded. In Danville, cats, of course, must also be vaccinated against rabies, but the law specifically addresses nuisance cats. In other words, cats that are allowed to roam are still allowed

996 South Boston Rd.,
Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

to affect the quality of life in a neighborhood. They cannot "unreasonably annoy humans, endanger the life or health of other animals or persons, or substantially interfere with the rights of citizens, other than their owners, to enjoyment of life or property." (Section 5-37)

Female cats in heat cannot roam in Danville. This is an ordinance that could have far-reaching effects if owners obeyed the law.

Destructive and noisy animals are also prohibited in the Danville Code.

These little-known ordinances are in place to protect the quality of life for humans. Even people who love animals without question or bounds can get upset if other peoples' animals become a nuisance.

KOVELS Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Waste bowls

I saw a beautiful antique Chinese porcelain bowl at an auction. It was blue and white with painted dragons, and it had an unusual shape — rounded with a flared rim. The description called it a “zhadou,” but did not say what that meant.

A zhadou is a bowl for discarding used tea leaves and other table scraps. They usually have a globular body, shoulders, a flared rim and a short foot. The shape resembles a squat vase. They are often porcelain, but some are made from pottery or cloisonne. Some auctions may list them as spittoons. In the early 20th century, the word “zhadou” was translated into English as “leys jar” from a Dutch term. Now, it is usually translated as “waste bowl” or “slop jar,” but these are not the same thing.

European and American waste bowls, often part of 19th century silver or porcelain tea sets, are shaped like conventional bowls with straight sides and a round base. Some may be more elaborate, with features like a pedestal base, flared rim or side handles. Slop jars are not part of a table setting. They usually have handles and often have lids. They are used in a bathroom.

Q: Advertising for beer and other alcoholic drinks is everywhere. I have a lighted (it still works) Budweiser King of Beers sign with pheasants eating corn on the cob. It has a curved plastic cover. Is it valuable?

A: Breweriana is very popular these days, especially signs. While neon signs are the most popular and getting very high prices, yours is a popular brand, Budweiser, and is in working condition. It is worth between $190 and $225.

TIP: Use an old nylon stocking bunched into a ball to clean a rough-surfaced mirror frame, carved wooden piece, or other irregular surface.

A zhadou is a bowl for discarding table scraps. This one sold for $7,680 at Nadeau's Auction Gallery.

CAESARS VIRGINIA BRINGS IN OVER $21.4 MILLION IN JULY

Caesars Virginia in Danville brought in over $21.4 million in revenue during the month of July, according to a release from the Virginia Lottery. The casino made just under $15.9 million in slots and over $5.5 million from table games.

The $21.4 million for the month of July is an increase of nearly $2.5 million from the month of June for the casino. The City of Danville will collect just under $1.3 million in taxes from the revenue. Since opening on May 15 the casino has brought in over $52 million.

History Matters

A feature courtesy of The Grateful American Book Prize

Showing our children that their past is prelude to their future.
By John Grimaldi and David Bruce Smith

August 16 to August 31

Roanoke Colony—just off the coast of North Carolina—was the first settlement in America. It was founded by Sir Walter Raleigh in 1585, but a year later, the newcomers were suffering so badly from “dwindling food supplies and Indian attacks” that they sailed back to England. History.com reports, “in 1587, Raleigh sent out another group of 100...under John White. [He sailed] to England to procure more supplies, but the war with Spain delayed his return...By the time [he] finally [re-appeared] in August 1590, everyone had vanished.” Even today, nobody knows why.

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 “was one of the most important pieces of legislation in American history, but it did not singlehandedly put a stop to discrimination in public education,” according to History.com. “Aside from the famous ‘Massive Resistance’ campaign against desegregation in the South, schools continued to fail racial minorities and students for whom English was not their first language.”

Because of that gap, the Equal Educational Opportunities Act (EEOA) was consummated on August 21, 1974. It categorically barred states from discriminating against students because of gender, race, color, or nationality—and--it obliged public schools to provide for students who did not speak English.

As a lawyer for the “little man,” as History.com puts it, Thurgood Marshall, was an extraordinary attorney. He attended Howard University Law School and graduated magna cum laude in 1933. A year later he was working for the Baltimore NAACP, and by the time he was 32---in 1940--Marshall was the organization’s chief counsel.

“Over the next two decades, Marshall distinguished himself as one of the country’s leading advocates for individual rights, winning 29 of the 32 cases he argued in front of the Supreme Court.” In 1954, he protested the landmark case of Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka before the Supreme Court upending the so-called “separate but equal” principal of “laws designed to achieve racial segregation by means of separate and equal public facilities and services for African Americans and whites.”

On August 30, 1967, Thurgood Marshall became the first African American confirmed as a Supreme Court justice.

1. Name the movie that included "Secret Surfin' Spot" and "Swingin' and Surfin'" in the musical lineup.
2. Who wrote the melody behind "Hello Mud-dah, Hello Fadduh"?
3. What do The Great Society, Jefferson Airplane, Jefferson Starship and Starship have in common?
4. Who wrote and released "Peppermint Twist"?
5. Name the song that contains these lyrics: "When she mentioned how her aunt bit off the spoon, She completely done me in."

Answers

1. "Beach Party," in 1963, starring Frankie Avalon and Annette Funicello. There were seven beach films over the years.
2. Allan Sherman's 1963 parody about a boy writing a letter home from camp was put to the music of Ponchielli's "Dance of the Hours," written in 1876. Several other works have also borrowed from that music, including Disney cartoons.
3. Grace Slick sang lead in all the groups.
4. Joey Dee and the Starlites in 1961. The early '60s saw dozens of "twist" songs, but this one topped the charts.
5. "On the Street Where You Live," by Jeremy Brett in the 1964 film "My Fair Lady," based on George Bernard Shaw's 1913 stage play "Pygmalion." Jeremy Brett's song was actually dubbed by Bill Shirley, as Brett couldn't sing.

- By Lucie Winborne
- * When African American soldiers began enlisting in the Civil War, they were paid $10, while white troops earned $13, and were also charged a monthly fee for their uniforms. In protest, they refused to accept their pay at all for 18 months, though they continued to fight.
  - * Throughout the average sofa's life, it will hold roughly 782 visitors.
  - * While it was believed for a long time that ancient Greek sculptures made of white marble were originally colorless, scientific studies confirmed the theory that they were actually painted in a wide range of shades that eventually wore away under the long-term effects of light and air.

Q. When is "Chicago Med" returning with new episodes? How much will the strikes in Hollywood delay it? — L.E.

A. All three "Chicago" dramas have been renewed another season, but won't be returning with new episodes until sometime in 2024. The ongoing WGA (Writer's Guild of America) and SAG (Screen Actors Guild) strikes have put a freeze on filming, and that includes season nine of "Chicago Med," season 12 of "Chicago Fire" and season 11 of "Chicago P.D."

Jesse L. Martin stars in "The Irrational" on NBC.

NBC's Wednesday night schedule for the upcoming fall season will start off with a rerun of one of the "Chicago" series, perhaps on a rotating basis, followed by new episodes of both "Quantum Leap" at 9 p.m. ET and "Magnum P.I." at 10 p.m. ET starting on Oct. 4.

The competitive singing show "The Voice" will return for its new season on Sept. 25, while "America's Got Talent" airs its season finale on Sept. 27. While the strike presumably goes on, NBC has two brand-new drama series that are ready to air. "The Irrational" premieres on Sept. 25, and "Found" will debut on Oct. 3.

According to People magazine, "The Irrational" stars Jesse L. Martin ("The Flash") as a "world-renowned professor of behavioral science" who lends his expertise on government and corporate cases. "Found" stars Shanola Hampton ("Shameless") as a "public relations specialist" who has a "chilling secret" to hide while looking out for the "forgotten who have gone missing."

Be sure to check back with NBC.com for updates on when your favorite shows will resume.

Q. Will Marvel ever make a vampire movie with Count Dracula and his daughter, Lilith? — R.S.

A. While there doesn't appear to be a movie in the works yet about Dracula and his daughter, Lilith, the latter of the pair is rumored to be a character in the upcoming "Blade" remake. You may remember Wesley Snipes played the title role in the "Blade" trilogy of films beginning in 1998. Marvel is rebooting the vampire slayer in a new film featuring Oscar-winning actor Mahershala Ali ("Green Book") in Snipes' role, which is scheduled to hit theaters in February 2025. It will be the final film in the fifth phase of the Marvel Cinematic Universe.

Mia Goth ("Pearl") has also been cast for "Blade," in what is rumored to be the role of Lilith, daughter of the infamous Dracula; however, the identity of her character hasn't been officially announced.

Q. Is the "Real Housewives of Salt Lake City" going to return now that Jen Shah is in federal prison? Who will replace her? — K.K.

A. Jen Shah is currently in a federal prison in Texas until 2028, but "The Real Housewives of Salt Lake City" are gearing up for a new season without her. Returning cast members include the entire set of squabbling moms from season three, plus the return of Mary Cosby, who left the show after two seasons. She was the one at the center of the drama when Shah wasn't, so she will likely make up for Shah's absence in the years to come.

* Glitter cleanup can be a hassle. Here's my tip for getting it up quickly with no mess left behind: Use play dough. Just press it into the stray glitter and it will pick it right up. Then you've created glitter dough! Oh, your kids will be impressed. Here are some more kid tips. -- JoAnn * Can't seem to part with those baby blankets now that the kids are not babies anymore? Don't! Sew them into floor pillow covers and watch the kids get a few more years out of them.

* My daughter is old enough to play on our street with her friends, but not necessarily old enough for a cellphone. Instead, we repurposed a set of walkie talkies. Her boundary is in walkie talkie range, and we can communicate. Plus, it's just fun! -- T.F. in Maryland

* Our friends who live in an apartment have a great storable sandbox solution. They use a plastic under-the-bed storage bin filled with sand and toys. It has a lid and can be stored easily on their balcony. The kids still get to play in the sand even on rainy days. -- W. in Kentucky

* I saw this idea in a magazine somewhere, and now I make them for other moms and dads, as they are cute and functional: Make a cell number beaded bracelet your kids can wear when you go out. Little kids may not remember Mommy's cellphone number, but they can bring the bracelet to a store employee and ask him or her to call the number on the bracelet. Use elastic thread and colorful number beads. -- P.S. in Oregon

* If you use a 1/4-inch hole punch, which you can get at a hardware store for cheap, you easily can make a straw hole in the plastic tops of kids' single serving drinks, like milk and water bottles. Less chance of a spill.

Send your tips to Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

Cheesy Yellow Squash Casserole

INGREDIENTS

- 5 to 6 medium squash sliced
- 2 tablespoon butter
- salt and pepper to taste
- ¼ cup sweet or Vidalia Onion diced
- 3 cups cheddar cheese shredded, divided
- 1 large egg beaten
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 sleeve Ritz crackers crumbled

INSTRUCTIONS

- Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Butter a 3 quart or 9 X 13 dish.
- Over medium-high heat, melt butter in a skillet. Add sliced squash, onion, salt, and pepper and saute, stirring often until tender (about 10 minutes). Drain.
- In a bowl, mix egg, sour cream, and 1 cup cheese. Fold in cooked squash.
- Pour into baking dish. Top with crushed crackers and remaining 2 cups of shredded cheese.
- Bake for 20 to 30 minutes or until golden and bubbly.
