Obituaries

Theodore "Ted" Russell Farwell, 39, flew to his eternal home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on August 12, 2023. He was always full of joy and lived his entire 39 years with a desire to serve his Lord and others. He was a dedicated father, devoted husband, loving son, brother, uncle, grandson, nephew, cousin, neighbor, and best friend to many. Ted was born in Medina, NY to his amazing parents, Richard D. Farwell and Linda Pam (Dudley) Farwell. He grew up in a large, loving, close-knit family. He spent most of his younger days working on the dairy farm, learning to fly, and riding horses. He made friends with everyone he met, and his soul truly radiated the love of the Holy Spirit. He loved to sing and worship His Lord. His life, without a doubt, inspired many. He considered his most meaningful accomplishment in his life to be having a loving family that loves God. On a perfect day in May 2015, two lives became one when Ted married the love of his life, Jessica "Jessie" (Metcalf) Farwell. They built a life together on the Firm Foundation and welcomed 3 beautiful children into their family. They expect their 4th blessing in January. Along with his parents and wife, Ted is survived by his four children: Daniel Wade, Katherine "Katie" Brooke, Laura Jane, and one on the way. His maternal grandparents, Hugh & Eleni Dudley, have left a lasting legacy in Ted's life. He was also greatly loved by his 5 siblings: Amanda A. Robbins (Alva) of Belmont, NY; Joseph E. Farwell (Rebecca "Becky") of Benton, PA; William "Will" B. Farwell (Alisa "Ali") of Benton, PA; Hannah M. Gailey (Clint) of Protem, MO; and Jesse R. Farwell (Andrea) of Albion, NY. Ted had many nieces and nephews that looked up to him; Alyssandra & Amelia Robbins; Leni, Tim, Chris, Ellie, Russell, & Joanna Farwell; Ben, Heidi & Brody Farwell; Holly, Lisa & Marshall Farwell; and Drew Chorbha. He also leaves behind his in-laws who adored him, Brad & Susie Metcalf and brother and sister-in-law, Andrew & Shelby Chorbha. There are also many cousins, aunts, uncles, friends, and neighbors that meant so much to Ted and are too numerous to name. Ted was welcomed into Heaven by his paternal grandparents, Richard D. & Anne M. Farwell and an infant brother. Family and friends will be received from 4-8PM on Friday, August 18th at Stillwater Christian Church (39 McMichael Street, Stillwater, PA). A Celebration of Life will be held at Stillwater Christian Church on Saturday, August 19th at 10:30AM with a meal to follow. Ted would have loved for all to join in the fellowship that will be had. In lieu of flowers, contributions for Ted's wife and children may be sent to the Stillwater Christian Church, 39 McMichael Street, Stillwater, PA 17878. (Please include: "Farwell Fund" on the memo line of the check.) We are better to have known Ted for the short time that we did, than not know him at all. The McMichael Funeral Home, Inc., of Benton is honored to serve the Farwell Family. He had an accomplished career in the HVAC industry and held positions with Lennox, Johnson Controls, Honeywell, CJ Brown, and Siemens. He had a personal commitment to excellence in his career and was a Senior Project Manager for renewable energy, energy efficiency and similar construction projects. Jeff made meaningful contributions to his industry and created lifelong friendships along the way. Jeff loved people, which is where he thrived and invested his time. He did this over his years in many ways including coaching Little League Baseball and leading Boy Scouts in Farmington. Jeff was strongly committed to Farmington United Methodist Church, where he taught Sunday School, served on several committees, was a member of the drama team, led in the Youth Group, and organized youth events including Kingdom Bound and mountain hiking trips to the Adirondacks. He volunteered with Rochester's Flower City Work Camp as a sidewalk club leader for many years. Jeff grew very close to several ministry friends made through a small group Bible Study and a men's breakfast Bible Study. Jeff lived out his life in many intentional and purposeful ways serving God and community. Jeff enjoyed being in nature and on the water. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed hunting with his brothers, family and friends. Most summer weekends, Jeff could be found boating on Canandaigua Lake and trying to convince his grandchildren to kiss his latest catch. Jeff always had music playing and recently took up playing the ukelele. Jeff had favorite sports teams in every state he lived in including The Ohio State Buckeyes, Syracuse Orange and Denver Broncos. Jeff is survived by his adoring wife Mary Ann Wachob. Their marriage is a testimony of love and faith. They raised two boys into strong men, Lucas Wachob and Eric Wachob and welcomed their wives into the family as their own. Lucas and Rebekah have children Abigail, Allen and Anna. Eric and Megan have a son, Tucker. Jeff has left a beautiful legacy through all of them. He loved chasing his grandbabies around, looking for an opportunity to be funny and silly. In his wit, Jeff always brought humor to any situation with a good joke and always had a silly comment at the ready; leaving us with so many cherished memories. Please join us in celebrating Jeff's life and legacy with a memorial service at Farmington Community Church (formerly Farmington United Methodist Church) 5925 Co. Rd. 41 Farmington NY 14425 on Saturday, September 9th at 11am. The service will be followed by a light reception. In lieu of flowers, Memorial Contributions to support Youth Ministry and Missions can be made to Farmington United Methodist Church.

THE DOG DAYS OF SUMMER!

Travel Thoughts By Kim
 Let's go on an adventure together...to Chicago!

Looking down on Wrigley Field and the Chicago skyline from the press box level - play ball!

I am not a fan of big cities. But, there are a few that I've always had an interest in visiting. Chicago was one of them - it was actually on my bucket list. Well, I got to go the week of July 26-31. Some friends were going to visit a family member who lives there and they let me tag along. It was a great experience and one I happily checked off my list. We crammed a lot into the six day trip - it was rough on these old bones of mine, but we did it and saw as much of the city and key points of interest as we could.

Three of us stayed in an Airbnb condo and one stayed with the family member we were visiting. This was my first time using Airbnb. At first it was a bit frustrating - the first place we booked was through Vrbo and it was canceled on us. So, we started our search, again, and found an Airbnb. Unfortunately, that, too, was canceled on us. Both times, we got all our money back, but it still made us cautious about trying again. Third time was the charm, though - we found a condo a block from Wrigley Field in the neighborhood of Wrigleyville and just a few blocks from where our family member's apartment was with a bus stop right at the corner of the block - perfect location! Even with the cancelations, I'd do Airbnb/Vrbo again if the situation was right for it.

Getting around Chicago was easy. We didn't get a rental car and I would absolutely recommend you not bother with one for this city. The public transportation and availability of Ubers made anything we wanted to do easily accessible. We got a 7-day pass for the city transit system (buses) - $20 for unlimited use - and used Ubers when warranted. We also booked a 48 hour hop-on-hop-off tour, so we used that for our transportation for some of the main downtown sights. With all that at our beck and call, why pay for a car rental and all the city parking hassles and fees?

As for sightseeing, I think we did good! We saw the city from the top of a double decker open top bus - the architecture was spectacular! Most big cities all look the same to me, but Chicago definitely has a unique feel and the building designs varied greatly - definitely not a "cookie cutter" city! We ate at some good restaurants - I had a Chicago hotdog and really liked it even with all the odd stuff they put on it!

Chicago's architecture is spectacular. We were amazed by all the different designs of the buildings - definitely not a "cookie cutter" city!

We hopped off at the marker for the start of historic Route 66, Millennium Park, Grant Park, the castle-like structures of the historic water tower and pumping station built in 1869, and saw great views of Lake Michigan, the Chicago River, and the city of Chicago in general.

The Chicago River is an integral part of the City of Chicago with a River Walk and boat tours. A "must do" if you're in Chicago is the Chicago River Architecture Cruise!

We booked a river cruise - one that focused on the architecture and history of the city. It was a 90-minute cruise down all three branches of the beautiful Chicago River while a wonderful docent talked about all of the buildings and their history. It was incredible and a "must do" if you find yourself in Chicago with time to do something like that. I highly recommend it - if you can only do one thing, do that!

I had hoped that the Cubs would be in town so I could go to a game, but they were away. So, we did the next best thing that actually ended up being even better than just going to a game - we took a guided tour of Wrigley Field. WOW! Just being in a major league ball park is a thrill - especially one this historic. We got to learn all about the history of the ball park and the Cubs. The tour took us into the stands, down on the sidelines of the field, a photo op with the famous ivy wall, up to the press box, and into the visitor's clubhouse and dugout (there was a camp there that weekend and they were using the Cub's clubhouse and dugout, so we couldn't go in there). It was one of my highlights of the trip - if you have a chance to do this tour, do it! (But...don't worry, I'm still a Yankees fan, even though the tour guide said we were all now honorary Cubs fans - haha)

We visited the famous "bean" - a sculpture that is actually called "Cloud Gate" in Millennium Park. That was cool! We also spent some time at the Navy Pier. While the others were inside shopping, I went out to ride the Centennial Wheel - a huge ferris wheel that overlooks Lake Michigan and the city. That was fun and the views from up there were awesome. And, we went to the top of Willis Tower - formerly known as Sears Tower - the tallest building in Chicago. I stepped out onto the "Ledge" - a glass enclosed balcony of sorts that sticks out from the 103rd floor with a glass floor looking down something like 1400 feet! I had to force myself to step out onto that glass floor, but I did it and I'm so glad I did! The sun was setting and the views were incredible!

My favorite place to eat was a fabulous super trendy upscale food court called "Time Out Market - Chicago" located in the Fulton Market. It is a huge place with communal seating and lots of different "kitchens" all around the perimeter. The food was awesome and the atmosphere was fun. I absolutely recommend you go there if in Chicago - you won't regret it!

It was a great trip with dear friends and loads of wonderful memories made. To read the full story and see all the photos, visit my blog post: <https://thoughtsbykim.com/2023/08/04/2023-chicago-adventure/>

Happy Adventuring,
Kim Pritt
