Born in Buffalo, NY, to Genevieve (Piskorowski) and Edmund Shubbuck, Tom spent his early years in Medina tinkering with mechanical things. He put skills into action when he joined the U.S. Coast Guard as an Electronics Technician and was based all over the world, including Japan, Thailand, and Vietnam. Tom climbed the ranks and became a Chief Warrant Officer (CWO4). After retiring from the service, Tom worked as Director of Engineering at various hospitals in Connecticut. He also earned a BS in Engineering from Roger Williams and an MS in Organizational Management from Central CT State. Tom shared his best years with his wife Karen. They had two sons, Thomas and Michael (Tara). They enjoyed traveling all over the USA as the boys were growing up, and briefly lived in New Mexico before settling in Las Vegas, NV. There Tom taught computers in the Clark County School district. Tom and Karen continued to travel the world and sailed on many cruises, with Tom glad not to have "the duty" while on board. Sadly, Tom's only brother, Ronnie, was killed during the Vietnam War and buried in Arlington National Cemetery. It is there that Tom will also be laid to rest, leaving behind a legacy of service to his country, belly full of laughter and much love. Anyone wanting to honor his life may donate to Coast Guard Mutual Assistance.

Georgia M. (Van Dee) Wymyczak, of Medina, NY, departed this life on September 8, 2023 at the age of 91. She was born in Cuyler, New York on June 16, 1932 to George and Esther Van Dee. She retired from Fisher Price Toys in 1993 after over 20 years of employment.

She is survived by three daughters, Kathleen Fairchild of Cortland, NY, Penny Wymyczak White (Randy) of The Woodlands, TX and Robin (Jeff) Sweigart of El Dorado Hills, CA. She is also survived by three sons, Scott (Sherry) Wymyczak of Lockport, NY, Kent (Pam) Wymyczak of League City, TX and Douglas Wymyczak of Medina, NY. Also left to cherish her memory are her grandchildren, Shauna, Jessie, Ryan, Nick, Georgia (Georgie), Randi, Brent, Cody, Matthew, Kara, Patty, Gabriel, Carissa and Dillon; great-grandchildren, Liam, Emily, Otto, Ellis, Weston, Lily, Colleen, James, AJ, Ava, Colton and Kade. Georgia is also survived by her loving brother, Ron (Wilma) Van Dee. Georgia was predeceased by her parents, George and Esther Van Dee; her son, William George Wymyczak; daughter, Debra Lynn Wymyczak; and grandson, Joshua David Wymyczak. As a mother, Georgia was the best her children could have ever asked for. She showed them how to be kind, but also to stand up for themselves; how to be gentle, but to remain strong; and to never give up on their dreams. She loved being a mother and her extended family. Georgia loved her church, Medina (Grove) United Methodist Church. She loved baking and going to the Country Club Restaurant (The Greeks) to have coffee with friends. She enjoyed the senior citizens center, but did not join the club until late in life because she thought it was for old people. We will always remember her strong will; the strong will that beat colon cancer, COVID, and a massive stroke. Mom was the guiding light in our lives and we will be forever grateful. "You are gone, but the passion and your zest for life will live on in our hearts. Eternity is forever." The family would like to personally thank the amazing staff of doctors and nurses at Millard Fillmore Hospital in Williamsville, for the care they provided for Georgia during her stay. We would also like to thank everyone for their thoughts and prayers. Funeral Services for Georgia will be privately held by the family. Interment will be in Boxwood Cemetery, Medina. Arrangements are in the care of Cooper Funeral Home, 215 W. Center St., Medina. Share condolences at www.cooperfuneralhome.com

Travel Thoughts By Kim
 Let's go on an adventure together....to Coast Starlight Train!

My private sleeper roomette - the seats convert to a bed to sleep overnight.

My 2017 West Coast Adventure started out as a cruise and when I decided to expand it to spend more time in the San Francisco area and also somehow include Oregon and Washington State with extra time in Seattle, I had to find a way to get from San Francisco to Seattle. I thought about flying, but that would eliminate seeing any of Oregon and most of Washington. I considered renting a car in San Francisco and driving to Seattle, but found out that is a very long drive - one I wasn't sure I was willing to do by myself. The option of taking a bus was rejected quickly - I couldn't imagine being cramped in a seat all that way. I was just about to give up on the expanded portion of the trip when the idea of taking the train came to me in the middle of the night. I got out of bed at 2:00 am and went down to the computer to see if that was a possibility. I found that Amtrak has a Coast Starlight Train that travels from Los Angeles to Seattle and that it has a stop in San Francisco. As I read about it, I knew that was what I wanted to do. The entire Coast Starlight trip runs mostly along the coast of California between Los Angeles and the border of Oregon then travels inland through Oregon and Washington to Seattle. For this trip, I got on the train in San Francisco. Someday, I hope to do the entire route to get the full experience and see the amazing ocean views while traveling comfortably through California.

The segment I traveled from San Francisco to Seattle took 22 hours and I loved every minute of it (the entire route from LA takes 36 hours). I boarded the train and began my adventure at 9:30 pm from the Emeryville, CA station not far from San Francisco. I reviewed all the options for tickets - the least expensive would be the coach seats, but given it was an overnight trip, I would have to sleep sitting up. There are a few different options for sleeper fares, each with pricing according to the accommodation - a roomette which includes a private room with two seats that convert to a bed and also has an upper pull down bed, a bedroom suite is where two bedrooms connect and open up into one larger room, and a family bedroom which is a roomette with two extra sleeping options to accommodate two adults and two children. While reviewing the options, I also found out that sleeper fares include all meals in the dining cars and some additional perks that coach seat fares don't have access to. I chose the roomette. I found that with three meals included and the extra perks, it would not be much more expensive in the long run than a coach seat and it would be more comfortable. I also felt that for one night, I could use the bathroom down the hall, which actually ended up being right across from my room, so a larger room at a higher price wasn't important to me in this case. The room was very comfortable with two seats and a large window and the seats converted to a bed that was surprisingly comfortable. The sleeper cars also have conductors who are there to set up and break down the beds, be available if we need anything, and make our dining car reservations.

Observation lounge car available for travelers who book sleeper accommodations

Comfortable swivel chairs and large windows in the observation lounge car are perfect for watching the beauty of America go by.

One of the perks of having a sleeper room is access to the exclusive observation lounge car. This car has tables, conversation areas, and swivel chairs all with large observation windows with unobstructed views of the scenery. There is also a bar with a variety of non-alcoholic beverages and snacks all included or alcoholic beverages at an additional cost. They also hosted a wine tasting event late afternoon for a small additional fee that offered tastings of some wonderful Oregon and Washington State wines. The food in the dining car was exceptional with a nice selection of options on the menu. For breakfast, I had scrambled eggs, bacon, potatoes, toast, juice and tea. For lunch I had a steak burger, fries, and a coke. And, for dinner, I had a ribeye steak, baked potato, fresh veggie medley, rolls, and a glass of wine. All included and all cooked beautifully and very delicious. The whole experience was very comfortable and made me feel like a celebrity in an old-time movie when traveling by luxury train was more common. I got to move around, take in the amazing views, sit in different places - including time in my own private roomette, and during the night, I slept like a baby.

As for those amazing views: I woke up just before sunrise and we were in the final miles of California and crossed over into Oregon just about sunrise. The parts of Oregon we traveled through were breathtaking! Dense woods, streams, waterfalls, little lakes, very small rural communities and tunnel after tunnel after tunnel. At some points, we were so far up on the top of the mountains in the middle of nowhere that my ears kept popping and we didn't have cell/internet service...and it was amazing. When we got back down out of the mountains, we saw a different kind of beauty to look at - farm land as far as the eye can see and all the little communities we passed through had "Elk Crossing" signs. I didn't see any elk, though...must be they chose to cross somewhere else. It is difficult to get good photos from a moving train - I took a lot and you can see many of them on my blog, but for the most part, the views are all in my memories and I love bringing them up in my mind from time to time.

When I arrived in Seattle, I spent a few days there and then flew home to end two amazing weeks all along the west coast of our great country and one of the major highlights of the trip was this train ride (which is saying something, cause the entire trip is right up there among one of my favorite trips). I highly recommend taking the Amtrak Coast Starlight Train - the whole route from LA to Seattle, if you can. You can add it on an already planned west coast trip or just fly out there to do this one adventure and come back home. Whatever you decide works for you, do it, if you ever get the chance - you won't regret it! I see more long distance train trips in my future, too...perhaps I'll do a cross country train ride, someday.

Visit my Coast Starlight Train blog post at <https://thoughtsbykim.com/2017/05/27/coastal-starlight-train-adventure/> for more photos from this wonderful adventure.

Orleans/Niagara BOCES Names Its Employees of the Year

The Orleans/Niagara BOCES recently named its employees of the year for the 2022-2023 school year. Employees are nominated by their peers and a committee selects an awardee in each of these categories: Administrator, Clerical, Continuing Education, Custodial/Maintenance, Staff Specialist, Substitute, Teacher Aide and Teacher.

Daniel Connolly is the Administrator of the Year. Dan is the Director of Facilities and has worked at ONBOCES for seven years. Connolly said his favorite part of his job is that every day is different. "I kind of like the chaos and the challenge that every day brings. I think it keeps me young and active," he says. "I really am lucky that I work with so many great people. I was shocked when I was named the administrator of the year. It was a real honor."

Cindy Hurt is the Clerical Person of the Year. She has worked at BOCES for 42 years and counting at the Orleans Career and Technical Education Center. She is the secretary to the District Superintendent and the District Clerk. "I am blessed to work with a lot of great people and I am grateful for being recognized as an employee of the year," she says.

Carmen Montgomery is the Continuing Education Employee of the Year. She has worked as an Adult Literacy teacher for five years. "I felt very humbled to receive this honor, because we have so many absolutely amazing teachers in the Adult Literacy unit. My favorite part of my job is seeing our students succeed, and being part of a team that is truly dedicated to making that happen."

John Watson is the Custodian/Maintenance Person of the Year. He has been a custodian worker at the Niagara Career and Technical Education Center since August 2019. "My favorite thing about my job is working on different tasks and learning new things. I was totally surprised to receive this award. I was not expecting it. I am very happy to be working with a great group of people."

Anita Muzzi is the Staff Specialist of the Year. She has been a part of the Public Relations Department for almost nine years. "My favorite part of my job is interacting with the component districts that I cover," she says. "Going into a classroom, where students are working on projects, or a school where an event is taking place and seeing the students engaged in what they are learning is second to none. I really love going to the district buildings around the holiday times, especially when Santa Claus makes a visit! Additionally, I find seeing the connection between students and local charities/organizations at all grade levels throughout the year heartwarming." She says she was surprised and honored at being named Staff Specialist of the year. "Getting an award for something you love doing every day is priceless!"

Dianne Hosmer was named the Substitute of the Year. Dianne worked as a teacher aide at the Niagara Academy for many years. Luckily for Orleans/Niagara BOCES she still continues to work for us in the capacity of a substitute.

Kathy Haseley is the Teacher Aide of the Year. She has worked at the Niagara Career and Technical Education Center for 25 years. "My favorite part of my job is of course the students! I feel very fortunate as I have been able to be involved in many of our programs over the years. It is fun to see the students learn their trade and become excited about their accomplishments," she says. "The staff at the Niagara Career and Technical Education Center are the best! All these wonderful people make coming to work easy! I feel very honored to receive this award and I was certainly surprised. It made my day!"

Ashley Austin is the Teacher of the Year. Ashley has worked as a special education teacher for almost six years at the North Tonawanda Learning Center. "My favorite part of my job are the students and seeing their successes and helping them succeed. I love that "aha look" on a student's face when something finally clicks or they do good." She says she was shocked and surprised when she was announced opening day as the teacher of the year.

“To Believe One’s Community May Become the Best of Communities”

Quote from The Home Bureau Creed by Ruby Green Smith

By Adrienne Kirby,
Gaines Town Historian

One of the first items I came across in the historian’s office was a delightful scrapbook titled, “History of Eagle Harbor Home Bureau, 1953.” Home Bureau was a club for housewives to socialize, and to learn or fine tune skills so that they might improve their homes and communities. The scrapbook contains membership lists and documents meetings held from the fall of 1952 to the spring of 1954. There are Cornell Extension Bulletins, sample projects, newspaper clippings, newsletters, and programs from various events. According to a newspaper clipping inside, each Home Bureau unit was encouraged to produce a “Historical Record Book” of their activities for the year. Eagle Harbor was awarded third place for their record book that year. The two winning unit books were sent to the District meeting of the Federation of Home Bureaus at Hornell, along with the County Historical Book, which according to the article was “so complete and perfect that it received special mention from the judges.”

While the Home Bureau Federation still exists in New York State, it has been decades since there were any

Home Bureau was not funded by Cornell Extension, but relied heavily on the services it offered. Each member of a Home Bureau unit would learn a particular skill from a Home Demonstration Agent from Cornell, and then in turn would present that information at meetings that were held twice a month. Presentations generally focused on homemaking, but parenting and citizenship were addressed as well. Topics in 1953 included “Food for the Family Menu,” “Advanced Decorative Stitchery,” “Cupboard Arrangement,” “Cooperation in the Family,” and “Trends in Federal Government.”

Gaines had six Home Bureau units in 1953: West Gaines, Gaines, Childs, East Gaines, Eagle Harbor and Gaines Basin. In Eagle Harbor, meetings and activities took place either at members’ homes, or at the Methodist church. Below is a photo from the album, showing a craft show in the Methodist Church dining room.

Because apple season is already here, and an article about Home Bureau will be more complete with a recipe, here is a dessert from a menu in the scrapbook for “Three Generations at One Table.”
