Piedmont Pets

October 5, 2023 By Paulette Dean

We receive calls asking about how many dogs or cats a person is allowed to have in Danville or Pittsylvania County. The answer is a simple one—there is no legal limit, as long as the animals are being taken care of. The question is a valid one, especially since this area has experienced many hoarding cases.

Animal hoarding is a complicated issue and has no easy answers. Tufts University's Hoarding of Animals Research Consortium (HARC) defines a hoarder as an individual who: Accumulates a large number of animals;

Fails to provide minimal nutrition, sanitation, and veterinary care;

Fails to act on the deteriorating condition of the animals (including disease, starvation, and even death, or the environment (severely overcrowded and unsanitary conditions); and

Fails to act on or recognize the negative impact of the collection on their own health and wellbeing.

The stereotypical animal hoarders are usually female, with 46% being 60 years of age or older. Most are unmarried and live alone. Animal feces and urine is accumulated in living areas in most of the cases, and in 25% of the cases, the owner's bed was soiled.

PETA adds that about 25% of the new cases involve rescue groups or sanctuaries.

It has been our experience that the people who hoard animals believe they are helping the animals; it is apparent that they have lost the ability to see the condition of the animals or the sub-standard environment in which they live.

How, then, do you know if a friend or family member has crossed a line from owner to hoarder? There are some signs to look for, although not every sign may be apparent. There may be a problem if there are numerous animals and the owner does not know the total number of animals. Is the condition of the home deteriorating (extreme clutter, dirty windows, filthy floors, etc.)? In most hoarding cases, there is a strong smell of ammonia, and the floors are covered with dried feces, urine, vomit, etc. Are fleas and other bugs present?

If you suspect a relative, friend, or neighbor is a hoarder, it is always better to call the authorities. The cases are difficult ones to deal with; however, we would much rather be called and possibly help the animals.

Laidback Golf Tour Holds it's 6th Major of the 2023 Season at Crooked Tree

On Monday September 25th seventeen members of the Laidback Golf Tour competed in the Tours sixth Major of the year at Crooked Tree Golf Club in Brown Summit, NC. They were originally scheduled to play this event at Forest Oaks Country Club but had to relocate due to some course maintenance going on at Forest Oaks. The Tour had played Crooked Tree back in June and as expected found the course in great condition. In their June outing their group of fourteen players recorded three rounds in the seventies while making ten birdies and one eagle. In this event the group had four rounds in the seventies with twenty-three birdies being made. Also using their handicaps all seventeen players had net scores under par. Fran Hensley led all scorers with her one under par performance of 71 for her fourth win of the season. Also Ricky Myers collected his second win in B Flight with his 78 finish. Meanwhile Bryan Martin and David McNichols each claimed their first Tour win in the C and D Flights with scores of 85 and 89. Jody Myers ; the Tours current money winning leader added on to his winnings by birding the eighteenth hole. The long par four is the courses number one handicap hole and was the Tour's "Honey Hole " having a cash payout of $120 for the day. Myers also won back in June here by making birdie on this same hole for $165 then. We decided to call this the "Jody" hole. The Tours next scheduled tournament will be Monday October 9th at Country Hills Golf Club in Gibsonville, NC. It will start at 10am with entry fee being $65 for Tour members. Registration is required by Monday October 2nd. Register by emailing : golftripman@yahoo.com.

* Cellphones get dirty, especially touch-screen phones. Be sure to wipe the surface of your phone daily during cold and flu season. Use an approved antiseptic wipe for electronics.

* I used to hate planning our family's weekly meals. Now we decide together at dinner on Friday night. We agree on meals for the week, and I can get a shopping list together in time for weekend shopping. It's made for less groans at mealtime, and the kids have been surprisingly creative and flexible about trying new things now that they are part of the choosing process. -- T.L. in Minnesota

* To keep things running smoothly in the morning, all four of my children must be dressed, with shoes, and seated for breakfast before any television can come on. There's suddenly a lot of peer pressure to get up and dressed, and much more helpfulness in my morning routine. -- A.M. via email

* I have found myself with an abundance of peppers from my garden, so I cleaned and chopped them, then froze them. I am able to take out what I need, and they won't spoil. -- C.E. in Florida

* Creative uses for kids' artwork: Tape to cardstock for a homemade greeting card for any occasion. Hang from the bathroom mirror. Laminate and use as placemats. Large pieces can be used as wrapping paper. Frame and donate to local senior centers.

* To keep windshield wipers clean between replacement periods, dampen a soft cloth with rubbing alcohol and wipe the length of the blade.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Project Imagine honors latest class of graduates

Project Imagine honors seven graduates at ceremony
 Seven teenagers were honored last week for completing life skills training and goal-setting exercises through Project Imagine, which is a community violence intervention collaborative to steer youths away from gang activity. Graduating were Chase Hannah, Ollie Jeffries, Kemariee Johnson, Kennedy Morrison, Da'von Pounds, Teyon Torain, and Ziquan Watkins. Robert David, violence prevention manager for Project Imagine, commended the graduates for taking the time to go through the program. David said that he and his staff understand that youths often endure many things that prevent them from seeing the possibilities for a positive future. "With Project Imagine, as you know, we give you resources and opportunities to be something that you want to be, and in an atmosphere where you can be yourself on your way to achieving your dreams," David said. "We thank you for taking the initiative to move forward." The program steers youths away from gang activity by developing and maintaining relationships with mentors, and by focusing on goals such as having no contact with law enforcement, improving their grades, completing school, and becoming employed. As part of the program, the youths receive strength-based assessments using the Casey Life Skills and Clifton Strengths tools. These tools are used to place youths on a path toward developing healthy, productive lives. Also, a Project Imagine outreach worker is assigned to mentor each youth for a minimum of one year. Project Imagine staff tag the phrase "your new aunts and uncles," meaning that they will serve as a support system for the youths. Deputy City Manager Earl Reynolds encouraged the youths to pursue knowledge and excellence.

"The more knowledge you have, the more powerful you are," Reynolds said. "Why? It's because you can do more things. ... Life does not pay you to sit on the bench. Life pays you to get in the game. How do you get in the game? It's with knowledge." Reynolds continued, saying, "We all have different interests, but whatever you do, do it excellently – not just well, but excellently. Gain more knowledge. Gain more understanding. Become excellent at it. The world will open up for you." Since the program's inception, 20 classes, totaling more than 100 teens, have graduated. Project Imagine is based on the evidence-based theory of Cognitive Behavior Therapy in that if the youth can implement new information and standards, then he or she can change their behavior. The idea is that the program creates a positive "image" in the mind of a youth so that they he or she can "imagine" a life without gangs or crime. The teens in Project Imagine are chosen from referrals from the police department, courts, schools, and parents. Project Imagine has received national recognition. In 2020, Robert David, violence prevention manager, was named a winner of the Frederic Milton Thrasher Award by the National Gang Crime Research Center. The award recognizes his accomplishments in gang prevention and intervention. The program also received the President's Award from the Virginia Municipal League in October 2019.

July 28, 1953 ~ September 26, 2023 (age 70)

Charles Leonard Davis, affectionately known as Charlie, walked peacefully into the arms of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Tuesday, September 26, 2023. Born on July 28, 1953, in Danville, VA, Charlie was the son of the late Dorothy Evans Hundley and the late Clark Lee Davis.

Charlie is survived by his dedicated wife, Jeanie Davis, and his loving daughter, Jessica Lauren Long. He was a proud grandfather to five beautiful grandchildren: Ethan, Caroline, Jonah, Finnley, and Daphne. According to his grandson Finnley, “He was the best grandpa in the whole wide world!”

Additionally, he was dearly loved by his stepdaughter Christina Mason and son-in-law Carl Mason, along with their children Samara, Samiyah, and Carl Jr. Also celebrating the life of Charlie, his stepson Gerald and daughter-in-law May Pleasants and their children Christa, Kadean, Gerald Jr. (JP) and Mattaya (Maddie).

Besides his immediate family, Charlie will be dearly missed by his sisters Shirley Crumpton, Valerie Phelps, and Theresa Mitchell. He was preceded in death by his siblings Louise Pruitt, Sue Allen, Janice McCormick, Margie Thomas, Wayne Davis, Ronnie Davis, Gary Davis, Lee Davis, and Tommy Davis.

Charlie’s life was filled with passion and love for his country. He was not only a devoted grandfather but also an avid book reader, nature watcher, and thrift store/antique shopper. For over 30 years, his artistry as a brick mason adorned the streets of Danville, where he was heralded as the top brick mason in the area. Charlie found solace in deep-sea fishing, delighted in the sounds of rock and roll from the 60s, and passionately cheered for the Washington Redskins and the Atlanta Braves.

To honor Charlie’s memory, a viewing and visitation service will be held at Swicegood Funeral Home in Danville, VA, from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m., on Sunday, October 1st. In lieu of flowers, Charlie’s giving spirit encourages all to consider making a donation to a charity of their choice, as he himself was a dedicated philanthropist.

Charlie touched the lives of countless people with his humor, artistry, and patriotism. He will be remembered as a truly remarkable individual who made an impact on those around him. May his soul find eternal peace, and may his memory forever warm our hearts.

Swicegood Funeral Service is respectfully serving the Davis family.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Although practical situations continue to dominate this week, there's time for the Lamb to indulge in the fun things in life, like maybe taking a special someone out for a great evening.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) This week favors relationships. Take time to renew old ones and make time to go where new friends can be found. On a more practical note, expect news about a business deal.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You should be seeing some progress on that new workplace situation. Meanwhile, family matters might demand more attention, and you'll want to set aside time to deal with them.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A relationship might suddenly present some challenges you never expected. After talking things out, you might want to consider taking some time to assess what you've learned.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A disappointing response to a request might dampen the Lion's spirits, but you might want to ask the reasons behind it. What you learn can be of great importance in a future undertaking.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A once-volatile situation should be settled by now, giving you a chance to refocus on a project you've been planning for. Look for an interested party to rally for support.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A business matter that unexpectedly turns into a personal situation could create complications. Best to resolve the matter now before too much harm can be done.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Emotions can run high when they involve personal matters no one really wants to talk about. But this could be a good time to create the means to a workable outcome.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A positive response to a workplace request could lead the way to other long-sought changes. Congratulations. A personal situation also takes a welcome turn.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Patience pays off, as that once-overwhelming work situation continues to become easier to handle on a one-by-one basis. Look for positive news from a colleague.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) It might be a good idea to take more time and reassess your next move in working out a complex situation. You could benefit from a new perspective on the matter.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might want to consider making time to discuss a change of plans with everyone concerned. Be prepared to explain your actions. Also be prepared to listen to alternatives.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a strong sense of what is right, and you try to work from that foundation. Friends see you as reliable.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

* The small dots on strawberries are known as “drupelets” and are not seeds, as often thought, but do contain seeds.

* A dog named Chickie seemed like anything but man’s best friend when she chewed up her owner’s passport just days before his wedding in Italy. Fortunately, with a little help from local lawmakers as well as the community, a new one was issued in time for the nuptials to take place. As for Chickie, she was later given a mock “pupster passport”!

* Culinary icon Ina Garten, aka the “Barefoot Contessa,” was a nuclear policy analyst for the White House before embarking on a career in cookery.

* A roll-on deodorant ball was the inspiration for Apple’s first mouse prototype.

* Despite their widely different climates, Alaska and Hawaii share a highest recorded temperature of 100 F.

* Popular video game character Super Mario’s original name was Jumpman. He was rechristened in honor of Mario Segale, Nintendo of America’s landlord.

* A 2016 study by Yale University found that people over the age of 50 who read books for more than three and a half hours per week had a 20% lower mortality risk over a 12-year period than nonbook readers.

* Lachanophobia refers to the irrational fear of vegetables.

* All the nearly 6,000 residents of Suloszowa village in Poland live along one 9-kilometer street.

* While it’s difficult to imagine anyone but Bruce Willis in the role of “Die Hard” hero John McClane, the part was originally offered to crooner Frank Sinatra, due to the film’s technically being a sequel to “The Detective,” in which Sinatra had played the lead.

* To own a rabbit in Queensland, Australia, you must first prove you’ll display it for an acceptable purpose.

Recipes

Mountain Dew Apple Dumplings

INGREDIENTS

- 2 large Granny Smith apples
- 2 cans refrigerated crescent rolls 8 ounce each
- 1 cup plus 2 Tablespoons unsalted butter divided
- 1 ½ cups granulated sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 cup Mountain Dew

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Butter 13x9-inch baking dish with 2 Tbsp butter. Set aside. Peel and core granny smith apples. Cut each apple into 8 slices. Roll one apple slice in one crescent roll. Place in the buttered baking dish. In a small saucepan, melt 1 cup butter with sugar. Barely stirring, remove from heat when butter is melted. Remove from heat and add vanilla extract. Pour over crescent rolls. Then pour the 1 cup of Mountain Dew around the edges of the pan ONLY. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Bake for 40-45 minutes, until the top is golden brown and the rolls are completely cooked. Serve warm with ice cream (be sure to spoon some of the sauce from the pan over the top)!
