ARS Arts & Culture Center: Helping Kids Find a Voice, Through Art

“How important is it? It’s life changing.”
That’s how Anna Russo-Sieber, Founder and Executive Director of ARS Gallery Arts & Culture Center in Benton Harbor, describes the work her organization does through its youth programs.

Russo-Sieber started offering summer youth programs in the early 2000s at The Box Factory in St. Joseph. But, by 2010, she was looking for a new, albeit temporary location to continue her work. She chose an industrial space in the Benton Harbor Arts District. After starting what was supposed to be a two-week rental, Russo-Sieber is still in the same location today at Territorial Road and 5th Street.

“The goal to come to Benton Harbor was to reach out to the underserved youth in Benton Harbor. Right away we had 28 youth in that first camp that we sponsored. I wasn’t a not-for-profit yet. We just found ways to raise funds and support the teachers and the art supplies and just everything involved.”

Soon after starting the youth camps, Russo-Sieber established ARS Arts & Culture Center as a 501 (c)(3) not for profit organization.

Its stated purpose is “providing a local community art center to promote, develop, and implement cultural, visual fine arts, and arts education to the community, with a focus on at-risk youth in Benton Harbor and surrounding communities.”

Russo-Sieber told us, “We have seen well over 1,300 underserved youth alone. They’re never charged, we never even have them put a nickel in. I just don’t believe in it. I believe that they really are under-

Twin City Players announces the second production of its 2023-2024 91st Mainstage Season, the feisty dramatic comedy of The Revolutionists, by Lauren Gunderson. The production begins Friday, October 20, and runs through Sunday, November 5. Opening night will feature complimentary wine from Lemon Creek Winery. Four feisty, courageous women lose their heads in this irreverent comedy set during the French Revolution's Reign of Terror. Playwright Olympe de Gouges, assassin Charlotte Corday, Marie-Antoinette, and Haitian rebel Marianne Angelle hang out and try to beat back the extremist insanity in 1793 Paris while they grapple with their legacy, their life's purpose, and their surprising friendships.

Experience two epic live performances in one night on Sunday, October 22 at 4:00 p.m. at the Howard Performing Arts Center. Opening the concert is Coleman's Seven O'Clock Shout, a tribute to the heartwarming ritual of evening serenades that brought people together amidst isolation to celebrate life during the Covid-19 pandemic, followed by Beethoven's famous Ninth Symphony. The SMSO will perform these landmark works alongside the Southwest Michigan Symphony Chorus, and other special guests. This will truly be a musical journey for the heart and mind - a night you won't want to miss! Come early to listen to the SMSO's Maestro, Matthew Aubin, at the pre-concert conversation where he will discuss the history and his passion for the pieces to be performed.

The Ramsey Show

Dave Says
What's Fair to Everyone Concerned?

Dear Dave,

About a year ago, my husband and I offered an empty house we own to a young man at our church, who had lost his home and everything he owned in a fire. He has taken good care of the place, but has made no effort to pay rent. We don't need the money, because we're in good shape financially, and we were thinking about selling the other house, anyway. I'd like to simply write it off, and gift the home and title to this young man, but my husband feels he owes us something for putting a roof over his head all this time. What are your thoughts?

Penny

Dear Penny,

I think you and your husband have good hearts. I also think you handled this situation poorly.

From the sound of things, you put him there originally on a charity basis, and now your husband wants to change the deal. You didn't set up any kind of rental agreement, but your husband feels you two are owed something? I'm sorry, but no. That's on you.

At this point, you have some big decisions to make. Were you providing free housing to someone who was struggling, or were you providing a free house to someone who was struggling? I understand this young man experienced a terrible tragedy. But at the same time, I'm not hearing lots of evidence that he's putting his life back together. If after this long the guy's not back on his feet and out on his own, you may be enabling bad behavior on his part.

Now, if you want to gift him the house, that's your decision. If you want to approach him with a rental agreement or sale proposal to which all parties are amicable, that's okay, too. If neither of these ideas are in the cards, I'd make sure to sit down with this young man and have a gentle—but firm—talk. I'd let him know I had been happy to help him over the last several months, but that he needs to start moving forward with his life. I'd set a very reasonable and patient timeline for a move-out date, and let him know once that time is up, I'll be selling the house.

That's fair to everyone concerned.

— Dave

October Events!

There are two things that immediately come to mind when I think of the fall months. One being football, and the other being our local grape harvest. Both topics are directly connected to this week's article.

First up, we hope you can join us for our October Business After Hours at the Tabor Hill Private Event Tent on Thursday, October 26th from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. With colder temperatures arriving, this will be one of the final events inside of the event tent for the season. So, if you've been wanting to see not only the tent itself or the location of it (or simply looking for an excuse to take in the breathtaking views of Tabor Hill's property) you won't want to miss this!

Tabor Hill Winery & Restaurant joined the Moersch Hospitality Group (MHG) family in 2017 and celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2020. As one of the only wineries in Michigan to offer a dining experience in the heart of the vineyard, this picturesque setting is the perfect destination to come and enjoy award winning wines and fine cuisine with friends and family. To further embrace the beauty of Southwest Michigan, MHG added the estate tent in the vineyards for larger groups. The tent gives folks a truly unique vineyard experience for their private events, weddings, corporate events, or fundraisers.

MHG properties include Round Barn Winery & Estate, Round Barn Brewery &

Public House, Free Run Cellars, Tabor Hill Winery & Restaurant, The Beer Garden @ Public House, Tabor Hill Bridgman Tasting Room, and Round Barn Union Pier Tasting Room.

Last fall, we had such a great response to the Detroit Lions Chamber Day, that they decided to do it again and invite us to join the fun once again! In August they offered up a pre-season opportunity which really set the stage for what has become an incredible season for the Lions so far. Coming off their wins against the Green Bay Packers, Carolina Panthers, Kansas City Chiefs, and the Atlanta Falcons the Detroit Lions are pleased to offer all members of the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber special savings for Monday Night Football as they take on the Las Vegas Raiders on October 30th. Each ticket will include pre-game access to the Lions Den, a networking event hosted by the Jackson Chamber of Commerce, and a badge reel. Inside the Lions Den is where you'll have the opportunity to connect with fellow businesses from all over the state!

Be sure to share the offer with friends and family once you purchase your tickets! Please note that if you would like to sit together all tickets must be purchased through one transaction. You will be assigned the best available seats within the section you choose at time of purchase. Space is limited so purchase your tickets as soon as possible! After your purchase, you will be able to see your seat number in the Detroit Lions App. For mobile ticket help, please visit detroitlions.com/tickets/digital-ticketing. If you have any questions or would like assistance purchasing your tickets, please contact Brian Nordstrom at 313-262-2213 or brian.nordstrom@Lions.nfl.net.

Once again, this year we've seen a wide mix of members purchasing the tickets as a staff thank you, for their families as an early Christmas gift, and as a die hard Lions fans who are just excited to attend a game. No matter how you plan on using them, this is a fantastic opportunity to watch the Lions play and hopefully cheer them on for yet another victory!

Lions Disclaimer: Offer is for a limited time only, subject to availability, has no cash value, is not valid on previously purchased tickets and is not good in conjunction with any other promotional offer. All sales are final and there are no refunds or cancellations. The Detroit Lions reserve the right to restrict or cancel orders. Please note that tickets purchased through this offer are restricted from resale.

Russo-Sieber appeared as excited about helping area young people as she was about displaying artworks. Russo-Sieber shared a story: "About six years ago, I took a group of about 20 kids to a high school play. It was good but I felt like I didn't do enough. It wasn't enough. I took them (to pizza) afterwards, and I felt like I wanted to do more for them. And the principal said to me, "You know, the fact that you made them important and did anything, anything at all was life changing for them. So, it's how you make [the young people] feel important."

About the work her Culture Center is doing, Russo-Sieber said it's about making a difference at the right time.

"I would be dramatic to say it's lifesaving, but you don't know. I believe it IS lifesaving because it's between the most critical hours after school, between school and home," Russo-Sieber said. "Children, even if they're abused, really find ways to speak through their artwork. You can say more through art than words alone."

Anna strives every day to give kids that voice, through art.

Be Willing to Say Hard Things

'Son of man, say to the Israelites, 'This is what you are saying: "Our offenses and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of them. How then can we live?"' Say to them, 'As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! Why will you die, people of Israel?''
Ezekiel 33:10,11

Are you willing to say hard things when someone is in danger? Raising your voice to warn and reprimand a child about to dart out into traffic is not pleasant but necessary.

Ezekiel was a prophet who was tasked with a hard message. Hard, but necessary. A vast majority of God's people in the nation of Judah had turned away from the Lord, darting right out into grave spiritual danger. They abandoned God's promises and God's commands, and in doing so, were in danger of perishing eternally.

We often shy away from saying things that are hard for others to hear, but when the stakes are that high, we are willing to say what it takes to turn someone away from danger. It's not just about turning away from danger but turning back to the one place where that soul finds peace and security.

Picture that child who was just turned back in a safe direction, away from oncoming traffic. The strong warning startles him and makes him cry, but it makes him run right back into his father's arms, where he is loved and safe. When we say hard things but necessary things to someone running right into spiritual danger, away from God, the Lord's desire is always that they run back into his loving arms.

Jesus, our Savior, put himself in the path of God's impending wrath against sin when he died on the cross. He was willing to say hard things as he called people to turn to him and live. Even more, he was willing to lay down his life to save yours. Always turn to him and live.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for saying hard things to me so that I might turn to you and live. Give me the courage to say hard things to those in spiritual danger so they might turn to you and live as well. Amen.

These Are a Few of My Famous-est "Friends"

Last Christmas, my kids gifted me with a subscription to "Storyworth," a service that gives the subscriber a one-year-long opportunity to answer questions about his or her experiences for the edification of the generations to come.

The kids so far have avoided tough questions like "Were you a dork in high school?," and presented more benign queries, such as, "Who was the most famous person you ever met?"

Well, I actually have "met" several people who are/were famous, some in-person, some over the phone. The number of life-long connections that resulted? - uhhhhh, let's call it zero.

Nevertheless, when I worked in the appliance industry, I engaged with notable people on kitchen remodels, culinary events, and cooking/lifestyle entertainment projects. Now, I had colleagues who were smart, charming and had better culinary/cooking/lifestyle bona fides than I did - yes, you Brian Maynard! - and they can tell you way better stories about knowing these folks than I can. Nevertheless, I can legitimately name-drop meeting and conversing with: "The French Chef" herself, Julia Child; chef Jacques Pepin; screen legend Debbie Reynolds; TV star and singer (and mother of Robin Thicke) Gloria Loring; Nicole Johnson, Miss America 1999. The only famous person who - with an ENORMOUS AMOUNT of reminding/refreshing - might actually recall me, or at least convincingly pretend he does, is the restaurateur and TV chef Bobby Flay. I once helped him outfit a kitchen in

I had phone conversations with: Former President Jimmy Carter, and then with his daughter Amy; acting legend Lauren Bacall; film director Ivan Reitman; actor Andrew Shue ("Melrose Place"). (OK, maybe Shue strrrrrtttttches the definition of "famous," but still.)

In the early 1980s, I once drove a "radio car" provided by my company, South Central Bell, for the benefit of the press traveling with President Reagan. They deplaned in Louisville (where I worked) and piled into the various cars, which were equipped with Jurassic-era telecommunications devices they could use to report or file stories. We drivers were NOT to speak to anyone, unless spoken to. My passengers were Lesley Stahl, Chris Wallace, and the late, great Helen Thomas. Lesley Stahl did speak to me, sort of; she plopped into her seat and hollered, "Where's the (sandpaper-word) air-conditioning!" It was (sandpaper-word) hot that day in Louisville.

My favorite celebrity encounters are with athletes:

When I worked for Bell, a colleague invited me to attend a mayoral inauguration. When we arrived at the event, Muhammad Ali, a supporter of the mayor, was greeting people at the entrance. It was a perfunctory moment -- we were introduced and shook hands. I'm tellin' ya, I've NEVER met anyone with such GIGANTIC hands - it was like being grabbed by an 3XXXL catcher's mitt!

My favorite famous-person encounter!: I met and briefly spoke with Mr. Cub and Hall-of-Famer Ernie Banks at a trade show where he was representing a competing appliance company. I went to that booth before the show opened one morning, and he was very friendly and accommodating - he autographed a ball for me and posed for a photo. But he was there to earn his keep! Our conversation was practically all about how I should buy these appliances! In honor of Ernie's favorite saying, "Let's play two!," I bought a couple!
