Stress-Proof Your Business: During The Holiday Season

The holiday season is a time for celebration, gratitude, and relaxation. However, it can often be a source of stress and anxiety for business owners and entrepreneurs. Balancing the demands of your business with the desire to enjoy quality time with family and friends can be daunting. But fear not; as a business coach, I'm here to share some valuable tips on how many of our clients enjoy a stress-free holiday season in their business.

1. Plan Ahead

The key to a stress-free holiday season in your business is meticulous planning. Start early by creating a holiday schedule that outlines important dates, such as when you'll close for the holidays, when employees will take time off, and when any holiday promotions or marketing campaigns will launch. Planning ahead will help you avoid last-minute chaos and ensure everyone is on the same page.

2. Delegate Responsibilities:

You don't have to do it all yourself. Delegate tasks to your team and empower them to take ownership of their responsibilities during the holiday season. After delegating appropriately, trusting your team to handle their roles will free up your time and reduce stress. Your team also wants to enjoy time with their families during holiday day time. Remember to consider their desires.

3. Automate Where Possible:

Take advantage of innovations and technology to automate routine tasks. Use scheduling tools for social media posts and emails. Implement e-commerce solutions that seamlessly handle orders and customer inquiries, even when you're not in the office.

4. Set Clear Boundaries:

Establish boundaries between work and personal life. Communicate your availability to clients and customers, and let them know when you'll be out of the office. Encourage employees to do the same. This way, everyone can enjoy the holiday season without feeling guilty about taking time off.

5. Manage Cash Flow:

Cash flow can be a major source of stress during the holidays, especially if you rely on seasonal sales. Plan your budget wisely, taking into account increased expenses and potential dips in revenue. Consider offering pre-holiday promotions to boost cash flow before the end of the year.

6. Take Care of Yourself:

Remember, your well-being is crucial to the success of your business. Prioritize self-care by getting enough rest, eating well, and staying active. Men, self-care is for you also. Whenever I'm exhausted and overwhelmed, Self-care helps me re-energize and focus. This is especially needed for business owners during the busy holiday season.

7. Reflect and Celebrate:

Take time to reflect on your business's accomplishments throughout the year. Celebrate your successes and express gratitude to your team and clients. A positive and appreciative mindset can help reduce stress and foster a sense of fulfillment.

A stress-free holiday season in your business is entirely possible with proper planning, delegation, and self-care. Following these few steps allows you to enjoy the festivities with loved ones and set your business up for a prosperous new year. Remember that a well-rested and stress-free entrepreneur is better equipped to make sound decisions and drive their business to new heights in the coming year. Cheers to a joyful and prosperous holiday season!

At the base of the system, it is important that we allow a gap for the water to exit the system. This can be accomplished by installing a double weep screed detail. Timeless Luxury: Psalms Fine Homes - Building Dreams That Last

By Mary Lynn Mabray, ASID

In a little over a decade, Jeff Suh, owner of Psalms Fine Homes has built a start-up business into a luxury brand that is not only sought after but a home that incorporates the hopes and dreams of the various owners. People hire Jeff and his team because they deliver on their promises. The team manages the entire design/build of a home and partners with award residential designers and Rice Residential architectural firms.

Each home is a unique piece of art from the exterior throughout the interior, graced with superior workmanship, luxury finishes, innovation, and always a sense of timelessness. Psalm Fine Homs specializes in high-end residential construction and timeless design.

What makes a home timeless? Classic design creates a classic look that will be as beautiful, functional, and impressive twenty years from now as it was when the final nail was driven. Along with a classic style comes symmetry and balance so that rooms are always pleasant and the traffic flow remains easy.

Classic homes generally have a single focal point that continues in feeling throughout the main rooms. Classic patterns are used, not bold and trendy looks that fade with the passage of time and make the homeowner reflect, “what was I thinking”? It is much better to stay away from trends than it is to emphasize them. Trendy looks require constant updating, which means a change in paint, flooring, fabrics, and furnishings. Classic homes have innovation and technology hidden.

This creates a smooth look for the eye so that other areas of the home can be enjoyed. Finally, a classic home is only built with top-of-the-line quality materials.

Once a potential buyer meets with Jeff and his team, it is easy to recognize that they only think in terms of classic design. It comes second nature to them. Whether they are designing and building architectural styles such as Traditional, Transitional, Modern, Arcadian Southern, Craftsman, Tudor, Mediterranean, Mission, French Manor, or Farmhouse, Jeff and his team know the ins and outs of every single style and will deliver a home that is not only impressive; but practical.

Psalms Fine Homes has thought of everything to make life pleasant and easier for the homeowner, from custom iron staircases, marble floors, two-story his or her closets, and wine cellars to comfortable home theaters, resort-style pools, and spa features, five-car garages, innovative and antique-styled lighting, wood-paneled libraries, large primary bedrooms with his and her tubs and showers, and facilities, along with multiple showerheads and cutting-edge sinks with touch faucets.

Kitchens and public family rooms are significant, as are custom cabinets outfitted with every remarkable kitchen and state-of-the-art appliances and storage, from the all-important mud room to unique yet sensible butler pantries. The vast majority of Psalms Fine Homes have open-concept kitchens that evolve into the family areas. More so than perhaps ever before, families need to come together, eat together, and hear about one another's days.

Psalms Fine Homes build in exclusive in-town areas such as River Oaks, Memorial, Tanglewood, West University, Bellaire, Sugarland, Fort Bend, and ranch-style estates.

If you value a timeless design yielding a classic aesthetic that remains equally captivating, practical, and impressive two decades down the road, contact Psalms Fine Homes. Check out their excellent website at www.psalmsfinehomes.com and photos of current and past projects where you may fill out a form and submit it to be contacted directly or Psalm directly at P. O. Ranier Custom Homes - Versatile Builders

By Mary Lynn Mabray, ASID

Ron Koury, founder of Ranier Custom Homes had no idea while he was climbing Mt. Ranier in his twenties, that one day he would name his company after the iconic volcanic mountain. After working in the private sector, Ron decided to build homes rather than sell them in 1976. In 2010, He could think of no better partner to work with than his son, Kevin. Together, they are an unbeatable team. Kevin brought his energy and knowledge of home building having worked for a national building company, and a custom home builder in the Memorial area.

While Ron may be the driving force behind Ranier Custom Homes, Kevin is a detail guy who makes certain, as an example that air vents are installed in the most advantageous locations to maximize proper air flow. Ron is in charge of logistics for the company while Kevin handles everything in the field from foundation all the way through to the final framing.

In a Ranier Custom Home, homeowners can be certain all aspects of the “guts” of a home are in perfect working order from the plumbing runs and installation to the “no dark spot” lighting, to the AC duct run flow and electrical installations. Kevin is an expert in all areas of the mechanics that make a house run properly.

They can and will build any style of home that the homeowner prefers, from traditional French and English to modern/contemporary style townhomes. Of late, they are building in the Garden Oak Forest areas because these are already established neighborhoods within a sought-after school district and Oak Forest Elementary.

Younger families love this area while older couples enjoy the sense of community that is established in the Garden Oaks area. Ranier Custom Homes has been building many Farmhouse style homes as they are perfect for an active family life-style.

I asked Kevin what he felt the most important rooms were in a home. He said Ranier focuses on high end custom kitchens with many built-in and cabinet variables.

Thermador appliances throughout the kitchen that involves the family area. Mud rooms and butler pantries are also high on the list. Cabinet tops are anything from the French wood look to porcelain, quartz, quartzite, marble or granite.

Secondly, the primary ensuite. The requests are open, airy, spa-like bathrooms with his and her closets and bathing areas. Single free-standing tubs, multiple shower head options are also high on the request list.

What sets Ron and Kevin apart is their deep understanding of every aspect of custom home construction. They take pride in offering the best advice and dedicating their personal time to ensure each client is delighted with the final result.

As trends evolve, Kevin has noticed a shift away from formal dining rooms in favor of more relaxed, family-friendly spaces with multiple dining options. Additionally, there's a growing demand for electrical charging stations within spacious garages, with Ranier Custom Homes offering both 220 and 110-volt chargers to accommodate

Brian Phillips - Cayson Graye/Alair Homes

As a custom home builder, we have specific needs when it comes to appliances for our projects. Jeff and his team offer not only the selection we need for our clients, but also the expertise, competitive pricing and professional installs. Baths of America is a vendor with whom we are very proud to partner.

Courtney C - Client

After having a horrible experience at another appliance dealer, we stopped into Baths of America on a whim and were paired with Vincent. We told him about our situation and the terrible experience we had been having with the other company, and he was able to get us our appliances in a reasonable time. Not only was he upfront with us, but he was in constant communication with us throughout the whole process. We had some issues with installation on our end due to our contractor's mistake, and Vincent was even able to help us remedy the situation. Thank you, Vincent for helping us 100% through the whole process and always being in constant communication. True customer service!

Coraline Wheeler - Designer Details

Love! Love! Love this place. You will be pleasantly surprised to enter a beautifully designed showroom with a lot of exciting eye candy!! Every time without fail, the customer service has been excellent. Their knowledge and quick turnaround with quotes are always impressive, especially given the current environment. The range of products is a visual delight as well as impressive to take clients to when sourcing appliances, faucets, hardware etc. A must-visit! You won't be disappointed.

we create in 2D and 3D perspective has been a great tool in showing the final desired design for their spaces. Another change has been how we can interact with our clients locally and out of state through Zoom meetings, job site walks, and text and emails. The expectations and the overall knowledge of our clients have increased. We love when they come to us with many of the key concepts they want to integrate into the design of their home. They expect us to make their dream space come to life, and we accept and enjoy that challenge.

MWG INNOVATIONS: How can an experienced interior designer help a custom home builder or a remodeling contractor with their building or remodeling projects?

Melissa Snow: A custom home builder or remodeling contractor's partnership with the interior designer is key. We create a functional design space representing the beauty the client wants to see and work with the builder or remodeler to build the home or area for them. We can assist them in suggesting items to the client or builder that are within the budget allotted by the builder/remodeler. Also, an interior designer can keep the project on track to meet the set deadlines for the necessary selections. All of these are just the start of how an interior designer can assist them in a project.

MWG INNOVATIONS: What sets you apart from other designers?

Melissa Snow: Melissa Snow Designs is set apart from other designers in many ways, but one key characteristic is our attention to the client. A key characteristic that sets good customer service apart is not just hearing but instead listening to what the client needs, wants, and desires for their space. It is essential to have a functional and beautiful space at the same time. The client should make the final decision since they will spend the most time in the designed space. The client indeed leads the process in the way we approach each aspect. Our company is very flexible in the process when working with a client. They may desire to work hand in hand with Melissa Snow Designs or allow our company to select and then bring options for them to view. Sometimes we completely design a space and then show the client the final design with 3D renderings. It is all up to the client what they desire and prefer.

MWG INNOVATIONS: Speaking about staying current, how do you keep yourself up to date with all the design trends happening in the industry today?
