The Albion Elks Lodge #1006 conducted two Food Give Aways for families in need in Orleans County. Community Action and WIC were contacted to provide the lodge with families who could use some help during these hard times. 9/23/23 we held our first Give Away and helped 24 families provided to us by Community Action. Bags were provided to each family with enough food for 3 meals, recipes and dessert. 11/18/23 we held our second Food Give Away and helped 15 families provided to us by WIC. We provided a turkey and enough food for approximately 4 meals and dessert. Victor Vincent Derefinko, better known to all who knew and loved him as Vic, passed away peacefully after a life well lived at his home in Brockport, NY surrounded by family and friends on December 1, 2023. Vic was born in Buffalo, NY on November 9, 1939, to Joseph Derefinko and Olga Kiebala Derefinko. He spent his childhood in Medina, NY where he was part of a lively group of 9 cousins affectionately known as "Rings End." He graduated from Medina High School in 1956. His pursuit of higher education led him first to Erie County Technical Institute (now Erie Community College), then to Rochester Institute of Technology for a degree in Electrical Engineering and finally to the University of Virginia where he obtained a Master's Degree, also in Electrical Engineering. He found time along the way to honor his commitment to the US Army. He started his career at IBM in Endicott, NY and then moved to Kodak/Johnson & Johnson in Rochester, NY where he was employed as an engineer for over 30 years. In addition to his work as an engineer, he began teaching, first at the Rochester Institute of Technology and then at the University of Rochester where as an adjunct professor he taught generations of young people the joys of engineering over almost 40 years. Keeping abreast of the developing technology allowed him to fulfill a lifetime passion for learning. He was an inspiration to his students and in 1995 the undergraduates honored him with a special award they created for his excellence and caring manner of teaching. He was named Teacher of the Year for the School of Engineering and Applied Science at the University of Rochester in 1995. In 2006 he was honored by IEEE for "outstanding leadership, creativity, hard work and inspiration in the field of engineering for almost half a century". He was so inspired by his students, the engineers of the future, that he did not retire from teaching until he was just short of 80 and even then, he did so reluctantly. Vic was truly a jack of all trades and a master of many. He was an avid baker, famous for his pies and placek. He was a driving force behind the yearly Kiebala Family Reunion, leading the group in the nightly singalongs. With his daughters Donna and Karen, he shared a lifetime love of horses and he and Jeanne were devoted to the many dogs that shared their home over the years. He built his own barn and after his daughters grew up and left home, he opened his barn to a collection of boarders. The daily care of these animals brought him much pleasure. Vic was never happier than when he was hard at work on his land, bailing hay, treating youngsters to hay rides, feeding his flocks of birds, fixing fences or planting his quarter-acre garden with hundreds of leeks and the best tasting produce in the area. With tools in hand, Vic was always ready to help anyone with projects and could fix anything. Vic was predeceased by his first wife Mary Ann Nowak Derefinko, his brother Eugene Derefinko, his son-in-law Mark McGohon and his parents. He is survived by his wife of 34 years Jeanne Pierce Derefinko, daughters Donna Derefinko, Karen Derefinko (Matthew Isaacs), Lida (Tim) Ward and son Alex (Amy) Ryan. He also leaves behind beloved grandchildren Shea McGohon, Henrieta Isaacs, Charlotte, Caroline and Margaret Ward, Kat and Quincey Ryan, sisters Sonia Derefinko (Fred) Handt and Jenny Derefinko Abbott, brothers-in-law Paul (Pamela) Nowak, Joseph Pierce, sisters-in-laws Lida Pierce (Wayne) Small and Willa Pierce (Sandy) Falck, niece Nancy Handt (Robert) Whalen and nephew Eric (Jennifer) Handt as well as many loving cousins and their families and special longtime friends and neighbors Nelson and Helene Kibler and Bill and Pat Leonard. Vic's family invites you to learn more about his remarkable journey by viewing his testimonial on the Fowler Funeral Home website. In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation to the Michael J. Fox Foundation by visiting michaeljfox.org or by sending a check to Michael J. Fox Foundation, PO Box 4777, New York, NY 10163-4777. A memorial service in Vic's honor will be held at a later date

Did You Know?

Retail sales during the 2022 holiday season inched ever closer to crossing the trillion dollar mark. Though total retail sales during the November-December holiday season fell short of National Retail Federation forecasts, the group still reported that sales totaled $936.3 billion in that period in 2022. Though a host of variables, including inflation, affect how much consumers spend during a given holiday season, it's not outside the realm of possibility that 2023 could be the year shoppers cross the trillion dollar threshold. That would require an increase of a little less than $64 billion in spending compared to 2022. Such an increase is not unheard of, even in a single year, as NRF calculations based on data from the U.S. Census Bureau indicate holiday season spending between 2020 and 2021 increased by just under $106 billion.

Electricity/Electronics Teacher Passes the Baton to Former Student (LtoR) Bill Leggett (Retired Electricity/Electronics Teacher) and Isaac Dauphin.

When 2016 Electricity/Electronics graduate Isaac Dauphin ran into his former Orleans Career and Technical Education Center (OCTEC) teacher Bill Leggett at a Buffalo Bills game, he never suspected that the outcome would be a change in career. "We were talking and I told him how much I admired all the years he spent teaching and I was thinking of potentially becoming a teacher myself," says Dauphin. "He mentioned that they were looking to hire someone at the Niagara Career and Technical Education Center (NCTEC) for the Electricity/Electronics program and I should apply. So I did."

After graduating from Royalton-Hartland High School, Dauphin went on to Alfred State College to continue his studies in Applied Technology. While there he became very actively involved in philanthropy work and community outreach through his fraternity Gamma Theta Gamma such as Relay for Life and working with the suicide prevention center on campus. "I did over 60 hours of community service and it is something I really enjoy - giving back to the community."

After he graduated he worked as an Electrical Assistant, an Electrician and moved up to being an Electrical Foreman. He will now be one of the two Electricity/Electronics teachers at the NCTEC along with Logan Spain. "I am really looking forward to working with the students and the staff here," he says. "I have had so many staff members approach me and tell me if I need anything at all they are here for me, which has been great. I am hoping to teach my students real world applications in class by incorporating my own experiences in the field and at Alfred State with the goal of preparing them for success in the workforce or in continuing their education. I will make sure they are well-equipped for life after graduation."

Mr. Leggett says he is very proud of Isaac. "He was a great student and a great person. There is no doubt that he will be a great teacher. I know he will be a real asset at Orleans/Niagara BOCES."

Refill with Randy

By Randy LeBaron

Good morning! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this week right... TOGETHER!!!

Long before becoming a Christian, or a pastor for that matter, I still looked forward to celebrating Christmas with great anticipation as most young children do. I found that my family's traditions enhanced the time leading up to December 25th and added to my excitement for the day. I look back now with nostalgia at that time of my life even as I realize that Christmas has taken on a new meaning for me now. One thing that has stayed the same though is the elation I experience every year at this time.

Growing up I would say that my primary focus, as far as Christmas was concerned, was on getting gifts. I didn't know a lot about Jesus back then but you had better believe that I was on good terms with Old Saint Nick. He was making a list and checking it twice and I was doing my best to be on my best behavior and not fight with my sister. I knew he was real because every year, all through the month of December, my parents would wrap presents and place them under the tree but then, come Christmas morning, we would always find new gifts with the familiar tag, "From Santa".

It was fun picking up and shaking all of the packages that had been laid out beforehand, in an attempt to guess what they could be, but the "Santa" presents were special because they always seemed to be bigger or better than the others—something that I had really wanted. I mean it was fine if my folks wanted to give me socks or some generic version of a toy, like when I asked for a transformer and instead I got a Gobot, but when it came to Santa (aka my Grandparents as I found out when I was older) my expectations were much higher because year in and year out these always turned out to be the most amazing gifts. I remember receiving things like my first BMX Bike, a tape recorder (you know the one—it was a black rectangle that laid flat and chewed up every other cassette that you placed in it), and even my very own TV. Sure, it was B&W with only a 13" inch screen but it was mine!

Every year I was like the boy from the movie "A Christmas Story" who, after believing he had already unwrapped all of his presents, was surprised to find out that his father had saved the best for last—his very own Red Rider, carbine action, 200-shot, range model air rifle. Now fast forward forty plus years and, after finding out that Santa wasn't real (I learned the hard way when one year there simply were no extra gifts hiding around the corner after everything else had been opened), learning the true meaning of Christmas (It's all about Jesus!), and forming new traditions with my own family, and things have changed. The emphasis I had always placed on "getting" gifts has now been replaced with the joy of "giving" them. Some things are still the same though.

I still read Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol every year without fail. I still love watching all of the movies and television specials dedicated to this season like: A Charlie Brown Christmas, Elf, The Muppets Christmas Carol, Home Alone, The Santa Claus, Die Hard, and It's a Wonderful Life. I still love belting out classics carols, like Jingle Bells or Christmas in Hollis, whether I am in the shower, my car, or even just walking down the aisle at Walmart. And I still believe that the best things come when we least expect it.

To that end, over 2,000 years ago there were shepherds in a field watching over their flocks when all of a sudden an angel appeared to them and proclaimed these words, later made famous by Linus Van Pelt, "for behold, I bring unto you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord." Better than a BB Gun, the latest form of technology, or anything else this world has to offer—when they least expected it they were given the greatest gift.

I hope that you will be just as surprised and blessed this Christmas!

See you in two weeks!
Pastor Randy

Cast of 90 Medina fifth-, sixth-graders entertain with 'Jungle Book'

Students performed for full houses at Clifford Wise Intermediate School

By Tom Rivers, Editor Posted 11 December 2023 at 5:48 pm

MEDINA – Jacob Foley starred as Mowgli last week during performances of “The Jungle Book Kids” at Clifford Wise Intermediate School. Mowgli was lost and abandoned as a baby boy and was raised by wolves.

A cast of 90 fifth- and sixth-graders put on the show during four performances for about 1,300 people total. Anna Ferlito served as musical director. They worked since September to prepare for last week’s shows.

Last year, Clifford Wise performed Aladdin Jr. in the spring in the school’s first musical led by Ferlito. This year the show shifted to the fall so Ferlito can co-direct the high school musical in the spring.

Vincent Hosmer plays the role of Shere Khan, a tiger that decides that Mowgli is no longer welcome in the jungle. Shere Khan intimidates many of the other animals.

Harlow Rhim plays the role of Kaa, a snake that lulls Mowgli to sleep while Kaa sings “Trust in Me.” The snake coils include William Mojeski, Melody Pawlaczyk, Arik Papaj, Cadence Truesdell, Jace Campisano, Violet Trilizio, Emily Smith Flatley and Bethany Chavez.

Kole Jones is the wiley King Louie, left center, and Amonte Mortenson-Chamblee is Baloo, a bear disguised as a very big monkey. They are singing, “I Wan’na Be Like You.”

Students created the artistic elements to turn the stage into a jungle scene.

Jill Vader is Colonel Hathi doing an inspection of the Elephant Army.

Shanti is played by Amber O’Kussick. Shanti is a girl from the Man Village. When Mowgli sees her, he is enchanted by her and decides to leave the jungle to live amongst humans in the village.

Bagheera, a panther played by Avery Twitchell, and Baloo, a giant fun-loving bear played by Amonte Mortenson-Chamblee, sing “The Bare Necessities.” Bagheera tries to keep Mowgli safe from predators, including Shere Kahn.

11 kids shop with a cop at Albion Walmart

By Tom Rivers, Editor Posted 9 December 2023 at 4:11 pm

ALBION – David Horn, 7, of Medina and his mother Lynn look for a toy police car as part of this morning's "Shop with a Cop" at the Albion Walmart. Rob Riemer, a chief deputy with the Orleans County Sheriff's Office, joined the mother and son while they shopped.

This was the fifth time Walmart hosted "Shop with a Cop" in the Albion store. Walmart contributed a $4,000 grant to the Sheriff's Office for the program that paired Sheriff's employees with children and their families. The kids pick out items to help their families or be given as gifts for a family member.

Some of the kids made it their first priority to get a gift for a sibling or a parent. Each kid had about $350 to work with.

Chief Deputy Rob Riemer and David Horn pose for a photo in the store. Riemer said David was very excited and happy to be able to get the gifts for his family.

David's mother has been out of work with a medical condition. She said she appreciates the gifts for the family's holiday celebration.

Lt. Steve Fox goes shopping with 10-year-old Brandon Kalpin of Albion.
