A GRATEFUL HEART: On Saturday, December 8th, my daughter Melissa and I went to Pennycook Cemetery to place a wreath on my mother's grave. Needless to say, I knew it would be difficult for me to be at the cemetery since the Statue of the Blessed Mother is still not on my brother's (Michael Biesik) grave, from where it was stolen earlier this year. However, some caring, kind and thoughtful person has placed a wreath on his grave. We are extremely thankful and grateful to whoever did such a kind act. It is heartwarming and it has made it easier for us during this Christmas Season and reaffirms that there are thoughtful people who care for others. May you have a blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Sue Smith, Melissa Smith, Deborah Biesik

Age 72, died at his home on December 13, 2023 in Goodland, FL.

He was born in Warsaw, NY, resided in Portageville and Pike, NY, and has been a resident of Florida since 1976.

Billy was predeceased by his parents, Bill and Vicki Oliver and sister, Rosemary Oliver.

Surviving are his sister, Terry (Kent) Cartwright, nephew Jeromy (Carolann) Cartwright and Jeromy's children, Eli and Zane, and his very best friend, Sandy (Jared) Bryson.

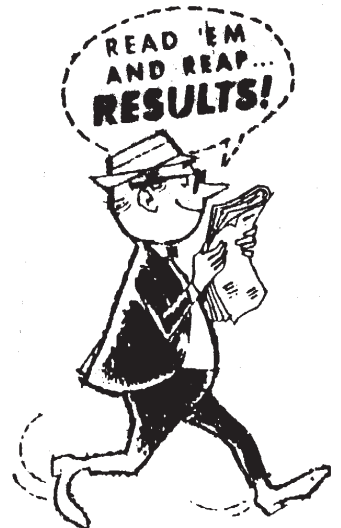

He graduated from Fillmore Central School and was a communications major at Geneseo College. He played guitar and sang for the band "Friends" in NY and the "Mullet Brothers" in Florida. He was a bartender at the "Little Bar" in Goodland for many years, then had a business taking tourists through the wildlife habitat of the Everglades.

He won a National trial for Skeet shooting, was an avid fisherman, turkey and deer hunter. There was no bigger Buffalo Bills fan. Billy was good natured and had a big heart.
