Susan Kate Bradley passed away unexpectedly Jan. 3, 2024 at Strong West in Brockport, NY. Born Aug. 21, 1957 in San Diego, California, she moved around with her family while her father was in the Navy. Susan earned her bachelor's degree in education and substitute taught at local schools before settling down to raise her family. Susan was an avid genealogy sleuth, able to repair and confirm genealogical lines back many generations, some tracing back to the Mayflower. She was also a wonderful cook who took pride in her own scratch-made bread and soups, even maintaining hydroponic vegetable and herb gardens in a dedicated room in their home. Susan loved being a grandmother and she was loved by all who knew her. She always put others before herself and she will be sorely and deeply missed. Susan is survived by her mother Barbara Kenyon; husband Raymond; children Joy Roberts, Andrew (Lydia) Bradley, Melody Bradley, and Benjamin (Danni) Bradley; grandchildren Aria and Andrew Bradley Jr.; and siblings Vernon (Rocky) Bartz, Judy Hiney, and Daniel Bartz, as well as several nieces and nephews. Home-Going and Thanksgiving service for the life and ministry of Rev. Wilfred Earold Moss. It was on the 2nd of May 1932, the sun shone on the Bahamas tranquil shores of True Blue Crooked Island. Ever brighter in the lives of William and Hetscema Beneby Moss, their 3rd son and child was born. They named him

Wilfred Earold Moss and was affectionally known as 'Errol' or 'Brother.' In his early years, he displayed a devotion to God, vision and foresight, and the gift of generosity. He attended, and graduated with honors from, The All Age School at True Blue. After working numerous jobs on the island, he set sail to America for a better life for himself and family, which he held in the highest regard. Against his father's advice, Errol arrived in Deerfield, Florida, in the 1950s, on the "contract," cultivating the land and harvesting fruits and vegetables. It was a very turbulent time in history. However, that did not deter him from pursuing his goals and ambitions, including becoming an American citizen. He labored diligently and faithfully sent earnings and much needed items home to help support the family. Later, he returned to the island to marry his bride: the beautiful and industrious Betty Moss of Caidgell, a settlement of Crooked Island. She affectionately called him just 'Moss.' They wed in 1966 and moved to the quaint village of Albion, New York, where they raised their 9 wonderful children. As a father, he instilled that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and to spare the rod was to spoil the child. As a devout husband of 55 years to the late Mother Moss, she would say that Moss was a good provider and father and cared for her deeply. Excellence, hard work, commitment, and integrity were the hallmark of his existence. During the 1970s, Rev. Moss was called into the gospel ministry. With his gregarious smile and enthusiasm, he shared the good news of Christ at local nursing homes, prisons, and churches. He attended and graduated from Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School in Rochester, New York. The congregations of Ferguson and Blackwell A.M.E. Zion Churches were blessed to have him as pastor, teacher, and beloved friend. Later, Rev. Moss served on the ministerial staff at Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church in Rochester, New York. Throughout his missionary journey, many souls were saved and faith renewed. Service to the general public was also of great importance to him. As an entrepreneur and astute businessman, Rev. Moss identified and sought to address many societal needs. Through the grace of God, in the 1970s, he became a licensed barber and established the first African American barber shop in Albion. Moss's Apartments were established for those in need of shelter. Along with his wife, they co-founded Moss's Fresh Fruits and Vegetables and sold their home grown produce at the Rochester Public Market for over 40 years. In conjunction to those endeavors, he held various employment. As unto the Lord, he worked for the Eastman Kodak Company for 20 years, and served as chaplain for the Orleans County Jail for 25 years. His hobbies included singing, farming, reading, spending time with family and friends, and sharing the good news of Jesus Christ. Even on his bed of affliction, we could hear dad ministering in his dreams. He was also a devoted Lion's Club member for over 30 years, whereby he led many meetings in prayer and deemed a "community leader." Loyalty was not limited to the immediate family but to the extended one as well. Brother never missed an opportunity to assist his siblings and their children, in some instances, contributing to making their dreams a reality. As the patriarch, Uncle Will made several trips to the Bahamas to ensure representation at significant events in the life of the family at large. Despite his quiet battle with failing health, dad made his final voyage to his beloved Bahama Land. From which, he slipped away peacefully to be with his Lord and Savior on Tue., Jan. 2, 2024, surrounded by a host of family. To encapsulate, Rev. Wilfred E. Moss brought life and joy everywhere he went and could light up a room by his mere presence. He made a monumental difference to his family and community. His sense of humor and quick wit will be missed. He touched so many hearts, changed lives, and leaves a prolific legacy. Now, he lives in eternity with Him forevermore. His family will be present at the Christopher Mitchell Funeral Home 21 West Ave. Albion, NY 14411 on Fri., Jan. 19 from 4-7pm. His homegoing service will be held Sat., Jan. 20 at the Memorial A.M.E Zion Church 549 Clarissa St, Rochester, NY 14608, at 11:00am with visitation held prior to the service from 9-10:45am. Interment will follow in Mt. Albion Cemetery in Albion where he'll be laid to rest next to his wife Betty. A repass will be held after the cemetery at the Albion Elks Lodge 428 West State St. Albion, NY 14411. To share as special memory of Rev. Wilfred Moss, please visit www.mitchellfamilyfuneralhomes.com.

Refill with Randy
By Randy LeBaron

Good morning! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this NEW YEAR right... TOGETHER!!!

Last Saturday I joined other volunteers helping out with the Hands 4 Hope Street Ministry. On this particularly cold morning it felt like my hands were frozen after only a few minutes as I wrote down people's information before praying with them. At one point I commented about how cold I was to a guy who had come by for the first time only to learn that he was homeless. There I was complaining about having to deal with the cold for only a couple hours when this young man, and a number of others who ended up stopping by, had to deal with the cold non-stop and would probably be grateful for even a couple hours of warm reprieve. It was a humbling realization to be sure.

It reminded me of when I first moved to the area nearly 20 years ago. I had posted a newspaper article by Tom Rivers on a bulletin board in my church. The article focused on the homeless in our community and I overheard people talking about it and not believing that it could be true. Thankfully though, not only have many others become aware of just how real the homelessness situation is in Orleans County but have also been prompted to do something about it. The Hoag Library is open and warm throughout most days, Christ Church in Albion is a designated Warming Center whenever the temperature drops below 32° (COLD BLUE), and other organizations are finding ways to make an impact on a more individual level. One that has been focused on feeding those in need is the Risen Café in Albion.

In October 2022 God's Voice Ministries out of Lockport planted a church in the old Club 469 on E. State St. in Albion. In March of 2023 Pastor Terry Bryant, Assistant Pastor Sarah Ferguson, and Head Chef John Angelucci, along with other volunteers from the church, opened Risen Café with the tagline "Sharing Christ 1 Cup of Coffee at a Time". Some things that stuck out right away were that their meals were delicious, affordable, included taxes in the pricing, and they did not accept tips. You heard that right, a decision was made early on that tips for servers would not be accepted but instead if anyone wanted to give a little extra they could support the "Ministry of the Month". In 2023 a little over $10,000 was collected and distributed to such ministries as: Care-Net of Orleans, Hands 4 Hope Street Ministries, Hospice of Orleans, Trade 180, and Koinonia Kitchen. Throughout January 2024 they are collecting for Community Action.

In a similar vein, there was a fund set up by the church which allowed for someone who may be having a bad day or was simply in need of some encouragement to receive their meal for free. By summertime this had evolved into providing free meals for a number of homeless individuals who had started to frequent both the Café and the church. In August alone almost $2,000 worth of meals were given away. After realizing that they did not have the funds to keep giving away meals at that rate, while not wanting anyone to have to go without, the idea of the "Pay It Forward" ministry was formed. Now customers at the Café can purchase specific meals which are then hung up for anyone in need to take down and to turn in for whatever food or drink the card says. The "used" meal cards are then left out as a visual to let supporters the fruit of their generosity.

In addition to "Pay it Forward" Risen Café also has a small food pantry and the church, which has a celebration service every Sunday morning @11am, hosts Redeemed Recovery, a faith-based meeting for anyone with troubles, on Sunday evenings @6pm. The members of God's Voice Ministries also picks one day a month to support and serve at another community-minded organization. And, for anyone afraid that they might go in for a meal and get the Bible shoved down their throat instead, I personally guarantee you have nothing to worry about. If you have something that you want to talk or pray about you can certainly find someone willing spend time with you but if all you want is great burger served with a smile then that is what you will get. And of course, if you want to buy an extra meal and pay it forward, you too can be part of something special.

See you in two weeks!
Pastor Randy

The Basics of Estate Sales

Between online retailers, secondary sites like Facebook Marketplace and, of course, traditional brick-and-mortar stores, consumers have no shortage of options when looking for furnishings for their homes. One often overlooked option can be a great place to find classic furnishings at bargain prices.

Estate sales are a great way to offer the contents of a home for sale all at once. Many estate sales are conducted by families when a loved one passes away, though some may be organized when individuals are leaving their home and want to sell most, if not all, of their belongings. Buyers can find just about everything people typically have in their homes for sale during an estate sale. That includes big ticket items like dining sets to small items like coffee mugs and cooking utensils.

How are estate sales conducted?

Many estate sales are conducted in person. In person estate sales are typically conducted at private residences and items will be marked with price tags. Buyers at estate sales typically walk through the home at their leisure. Sellers may be willing to negotiate sale prices, though buyers should not count on that. The sheer volume of items available for purchase at estate sales means sellers typically don't have the time or energy to haggle over prices for individual items, so buyers who love to negotiate may not get the opportunity to do so at estate sales.

Are estate sales and estate auctions the same?

Estate sales and estate auctions differ in various ways. Estate auctions may be conducted in person, though many are now conducted via a third party website. In person estate auctions may be managed by an auctioneer, and items will ultimately go to the highest bidder once the item goes up for sale. Web-based estate auctions ask prospective buyers to create an account via their website, and potential participants may be asked to enter their credit card information prior to bidding. Users then submit bids and the auction will continue for a predetermined period of time. The responsibility of inspecting and picking up items typically rests with the buyers.

First-come, first-serve is how many estate sales are conducted. In such instances, the first person to meet the seller's asking prices gets the item. Newspaper classified sections are great resources for people looking for local estate sales. Buyers who want high-quality items should try to arrive at the estate sale when it begins, if not earlier.

How long do estate sales last?

Many estate sales are conducted over a full weekend. Sales may begin on Saturday morning and then end on Sunday afternoon. Early birds might find the most high-quality items, but those simply looking for bargains may find great deals in the final hours of the estate sale when sellers are simply looking to unload items.

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20: Aries, if resolutions seem slow-going, give it time to get into a groove and become part of your routine. You can handle anything when you put your mind to it.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23: Health issues may have you taking inventory of your habits, Libra. It's a new year and the perfect time to start to make changes for the better. Ask for help if you need guidance.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21: Taurus, there is a lot going on in your life at the moment, and you may need to accept that you can't do it all alone. Start farming out tasks to people you trust.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22: You're not one for being bashful about things, Scorpio. But something could occur this week that leaves you a little red in the face and perhaps wanting to hide in the shadows.

GEMINI - May 22/Jun 21: How will you know if you can do something unless you give it a try, Gemini? Be adventurous this week, whether it is enjoying a new ethnic cuisine or trying a new activity.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21: Someone new in your life is causing all types of changes to your schedule, Sagittarius. You're not quite sure if you enjoy it or not right now. Stay the course and wait to see.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22: Cancer, you may have a few plans on the horizon but aren't sure how to get started. Just like walking, take it one step at a time and soon you'll find that you're on your way.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20: Capricorn, you will not make inroads with family or friends if you continue to play the victim. You must own up to any mistakes you've made and start making amends this week.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23: Leo, you may think you're being humble and putting others' needs before your own this week. But if you look a little deeper, you may discover you have room to improve.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18: Sometimes the best defense is remaining quiet and letting others dig themselves into a deeper hole, Aquarius. Others will see your positive efforts for all they are.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22: Virgo, if you commit to something, follow through this week. Others are counting on you for your portion of the work and letting them down now is not an option.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20: Think about planning a getaway in the next month or so, Pisces. It doesn't have to be a grand voyage. Even a weekend retreat can be a way to rest and recharge right now.
