The Genesee Valley Council

on the Arts is thrilled to announce the opening of Helen Bishop-Santelli's exhibition, "Nature's Gifts." The opening reception will take place on February 22nd from 5pm to 7pm with refreshments available for all visitors.

The artwork Santelli presents in this exhibition highlights their individual mission to become a visual activist. By presenting a range of sculptures, along with landscapes and floral paintings, Santelli is highlighting the current political and physical climate changes, which invites viewers to feel empathy for the world and fellow human beings while presenting the beauty of nature. Her work also has a didactic undertone, which implores all visitors to learn from nature and our social surroundings to enact change.

"Nature's Gifts" will be open to the public from February 22 to March 15. For more information about the event and other happenings at GVCA, please visit <https://gvartscouncil.org/>.

About GVCA: The Genesee Valley Council on the Arts is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the arts and culture within Livingston and Monroe counties. Through grants, programs, and community outreach, we strive to enrich the lives of residents and visitors, fostering a vibrant cultural scene in our area.
