Message From Green Orleans

Green Orleans is a small grassroots organization open to Orleans County citizens. We are committed to encouraging community members to incorporate actions on a day-to-day basis that will help preserve our environment.

Plastics have been a convenience for years but we are now becoming increasingly aware of the dangers they pose to us and our environment. Micro-plastics are polluting our food, water, our bodies and the bodies of other living creatures. This is costly to our health and our environment. While we may not be able to immediately eliminate the dangers posed by micro-plastics, we can reduce our reliance on plastic products.

Here are some tips:

- Avoid single-use plastics such as drinking straws and cutlery. Always use silverware at home.
- Drink your coffee (or other "go to" drink) from a reusable cup.
- When you go shopping, remember to take a cloth bag(s) into the store.
- Buy more bulk food and fewer packaged products. When possible, shop at farmer's markets - where food generally isn't wrapped in plastic.
- Replace plastic storage containers with glass or steel containers.
- Avoid using cosmetics that use micro-plastics and wear natural fabrics.
- Choose to reuse. Give some of the product packaging a new purpose i.e. food containers can be cleaned and used to store other food.
- Become a "papertarian". Opt for paper-based packaging. (Paper and cardboard boxes can be recycled and made into new products up to seven times.)

If you are interested in becoming part of Green Orleans or would like to just help out on a project occasionally, contact Sr. Dolores O'Dowd at 589-1405 or Kim Remley at 589-5053 (leave a message).

Did You Know?

Improved performance and reliability has increased the life expectancy of many vehicles. As a result, many drivers are keeping their cars and trucks in excess of 10 years. According to an IHS Markit study, the average age of vehicles in the United States is a record 11.6 years, with the average length of ownership at 79.3 months, or nearly seven years. Even after an owner has relinquished his or her new vehicle, that used car or truck can go on to provide many more years of utility for its next owner. Certain models top the charts among the longest kept vehicles, according to iSeeCars, an automotive industry group. These include the Toyota 4Runner, Chevrolet Corvette, Mercedes-Benz SLK, Porsche Boxster, and the Toyota Land Cruiser, which is the longest kept vehicle and also is the automaker's longest-running SUV. This vehicle is held onto for an average 10.6 years after being bought new. To hold on to their vehicles as long as possible, drivers should follow maintenance schedules, keep their cars and trucks clean and make repairs promptly. When it comes time to get a new vehicle, upkeep can go a long way toward improving resale value or getting back more on trade-ins.

He is a profound embarrassment. His capacity as "By-Proxy Speaker" of our house. His bobble-headed response "A LA" Mike Pence to President Joe's comments, left no doubt he will try to sit in the V.P. Chair next November.

Now Mister Magoo (ish), takes his wrecking ball talents hovering above the office of the F.B.I., our office of National Security and defense operations budget. That's his get-even message for the Justice Department.

The Mister Magoo glasses combined, with a half-blind person leaves us with an impression of some strange Alien "A.I. Creation", A robotic mime of America's worst threat to democracy at home and around the world. A political version of what we used to call "a cheap date".

Neva's Album

Weaver
Wedding,
Part 1

A traditional wedding is an all-day affair for the wedding party and close family. From getting dressed in the morning, to the ceremony, and then to the reception, it's a long day. Neva Murray took photos of Emily and Murray Weaver's nuptials in 1948. One must guess she was close to the bride's family, as she documented all the highlights of the day, from morning to evening.

The first set of photos is of the bride, Emily Herman, and her maids getting ready. There were three bridesmaids in all, plus a flower girl. This first photo shows Emily most likely zipping up a dress. There are a few incidentals in this photograph worth pointing out. The bride is wearing a kerchief, which she probably slept in, to keep her hair curlers in place and prevent frizzy hair. Behind her, we see a improvised dressing table; a small stand covered with a large floral fabric (which appears to match the curtains in the next photo) and a low hung circular mirror. Above the mirror is a wall sconce, but the shade is missing, and there seems to be some sort of rigged electrical wiring leading up to an overhead fixture.

The next photo shows the flower girl watching as rouge (or blush as we now call it) is being applied. The bobby pins holding the flower girl's hair ribbon in place are clearly seen. As with several other brides in this album, Emily is wearing a string of pearls. It's easy to imagine the excited, nervous chatter of getting ready and making sure dresses, hair, makeup, and other details are just right.

Our last photo shows the bride slipping on her wedding garter. Between the last photo and this one, it appears that they were getting ready in a small bedroom. An iron bed frame is seen to the left, with a folded patchwork quilt on top of the coverlet. The floor is covered with a patterned linoleum, which was extremely popular to install in kitchens, as well as entire second floors of homes in the 1940's, due to its durability and easiness to clean.

Despite the seventy six years that have passed since these photos were taken, they capture the timeless essence of preparing to say, "I do." More photos of the Weaver's wedding day will appear in future articles.

As Presidents go, He beats his predecessor as a role model!

Capt. William F. Ashmore of Kent, NY passed away just one week shy of his 87th birthday, joining his wife Clarissa "Sissy" Ashmore. He is survived by his daughter Debbie Ashmore, son-in-law Pete Matuskevich, son Matthew Ashmore, daughter-in-law Chris Ashmore, son Ricky Ashmore, and only granddaughter Amanda Matuskevich. Arrangements were entrusted to the Bogan & Tuttle Funeral Home, 226 Pearl St. Medina, NY 14103. Please light a candle or share a memory of Capt. William at www.bogantuttlefunerals.com
