Gardening Tips

by Jackie Kubiak #12

Essential Spring Gardening Tasks

April will bring good and bad weather to the Midwest, so do not miss out on getting your gardening tasks done on the good days.

- Finish spring cleaning the flower beds.
- Direct sow cool-season vegetables and flowers once you can work the soil easily.
- Start to harden off cool-season seedlings that you will transplant at the end of the month.
- Divide perennials as needed.

Plant your spring containers and borders.

Though most annual flowers need the soil to warm up a bit before planting, some cool weather loving plants like pansies, nemesia, and osteospermum daisies won’t mind if you plant them in the garden early. Fill your spring containers with sweet alyssum, lobelia and Supertunia petunias, too.

Be ready to take cover if freezing temperatures are in the forecast.

If you garden in an area where late spring frosts and freezes are a possibility, (YES THAT’S US) be prepared to cover up plants that have tender emerging buds or foliage if freezing temps are in the forecast. Old sheets and towels that are in your rag pile are a good option, and professional row cover is available for purchase, too. DO NOT cover tender plants with plastic sheeting or tarps. The foliage will magnify the cold’s effect, rather than mitigate it.

Here's what's Cookin'

By Phyllis Hays, #11 with Trixie

Pork Sliders

Makes 24

- 1 1 1/2-pound boneless pork loin roast, trimmed
- 1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- Cooking spray
- 1 cup water
- 1 cup fat-free, lower-sodium chicken broth
- 1/2 cup vertically sliced shallots (2 large)

- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh rosemary
- 4 garlic cloves, minced
- 3/4 cup canola mayonnaise
- 2 teaspoons prepared horseradish
- 24 wheat slider buns, split and toasted
- 2 cups arugula

1. Sprinkle pork with pepper. Heat a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add pork; cook 3 minutes on each side or until browned. Transfer pork to a 3-quart slow cooker coated with cooking spray. Add 1 cup water and next four ingredients to slow cooker. Cover and cook on low for 8 hours or until tender.
2. Remove pork from slow cooker; place in a bowl. Shred pork with 2 forks. Pour cooking liquid through a sieve into a bowl, reserving shallots and garlic. Add 3/4 cup of strained cooking liquid, shallots and garlic to pork; toss well. Discard remaining cooking liquid.
3. Combine mayonnaise and horseradish in a small bowl. Spoon about 2 tablespoons pork mixture on bottom half of each bun. Top evenly with arugula. Spread 1 1/2 teaspoons mayonnaise mixture on cut side of each bun top. Cover sliders with bun tops.

Fit & Healthy Family Guide

Ready to reap the benefits of walking? Here's how to get started — and stay motivated.

Can you really walk your way to fitness? Get started today.

Physical activity doesn't need to be complicated. Something as simple as a daily brisk walk can help you live a healthier life.

- Maintain a healthy weight and lose body fat
- Prevent or manage various conditions, including heart disease, stroke, high blood pressure, cancer and type 2 diabetes
- Improve cardiovascular fitness
- Strengthen your bones and muscles
- Improve muscle endurance
- Increase energy levels
- Improve your mood, cognition, memory and sleep
- Improve your balance and coordination
- Strengthen immune system
- Reduce stress and tension

Benefits of Walking!

Proper walking technique
Turning your normal walk into a fitness stride requires good posture and purposeful movements. Ideally, here's how you'll look when you're walking:

- Your head is up. You're looking forward, not at the ground.
- Your neck, shoulders and back are relaxed, not stiffly upright.
- You're swinging your arms freely with a slight bend in your elbows. A little pumping with your arms is OK.
- Your stomach muscles are slightly tightened and your back is straight, not arched forward or backward.
- You're walking smoothly, rolling your foot from heel to toe.

The Ebony Jewelwing – Streamside Beauty

Dragonflies and damselflies are common sights along the shorelines of streams, rivers, lakes, ponds and other bodies of water. Most of them are very colorful and downright beautiful, and the Ebony Jewelwing Damselfly is no exception. Found throughout most of eastern North America, males of this stunning member of the damselfly family have a shiny metallic blue-green body and jet black wings. It is a sight you won't soon forget.

Although the male ebony jewelwing has the distinctive black wings and iridescent blue-green bodies, the females are not quite as bright and have more of a metallic greenish-bronze body. Their wings are mostly brown rather than black, too. The females also have a white spot near the tip of each wing. There are four other species of jewelwings in North America, but none of the others have totally black wings like the males of this species. Not surprisingly, these are also called the black-winged damselfly.

Ebony jewelwings are delicate little fliers, usually found fluttering around the shady, wooded edges of streams and rivers. They typically don't fly very fast like most dragonflies; they tend to meander and flutter from place to place as they hunt tiny insects like gnats and mosquitoes. They also eat many other small insects like aphids, flies and beetles, keeping those populations in check, as well.

The ebony jewelwing is one of our most beautiful flying insects. Their scientific name is Calopteryx maculate, and Calopteryx means “beautiful wing” which is fitting, indeed!

Fit & Healthy Family Guide

Benefits of Walking!

As you start your walking routine, remember to: Get the right gear. Choose shoes with proper arch support, a firm heel and thick flexible soles to cushion your feet and absorb shock.

Wear comfortable, loose-fitting clothes and gear appropriate for all types of weather, such as layers in cooler weather. Aim to wear moisture-wicking fabrics, which will keep you more comfortable. If you walk outdoors when it's dark, wear bright colors or reflective tape for visibility. Wear sunscreen, a hat and sunglasses if you're going out during the day.

Some people choose to use an activity tracker, app or pedometer. These can be helpful to track your time, distance, heart rate and calories.

- Choose your course carefully. If you'll be walking outdoors, avoid paths with cracked sidewalks, potholes, low-hanging limbs or uneven turf.
- If the weather isn't appropriate for walking, consider walking in a shopping mall that offers open times for walkers.
- Warm up. Walk slowly for five to 10 minutes to warm up your muscles and prepare your body for exercise.
- Cool down. At the end of your walk, walk slowly for five to 10 minutes to help your muscles cool down.
- Stretch. After you cool down, gently stretch your muscles. If you'd rather stretch before you walk, remember to warm up first.

The 2024 film "Road House," available on Amazon Prime, is a remake of the original by the same name starring Patrick Swayze. An ex-MMA fighter played by Jake Gyllenhaal is hired by a bar owner in the Florida Keys to protect the bar from a group of thugs that terrorize its customers. You have seen or read versions of this story countless times. They even poke fun of it in the film as a girl who runs a local bookstore tells the stranger she has a book all about him. She pulls from the shelf the story of a gunslinger who rides into town to clean up corruption. Still, I wanted to see lots of action and this film does not disappoint. It is not simply a remake of the older version. The story is slightly different and being set in the Keys is a big plus. It is a fun movie until the very end. If you want to relax, be entertained, and not have to think hard, this is a wonderful choice.

On my scale as to what I would pay to see this film, "Road House" gets $7.

The format of one man fighting for justice reminded me of a favorite film I loved back in college. "Romero," available on Youtube, tells the true story of Oscar Romero, a priest who is appointed Archbishop of San Salvador in El Salvador in 1977. It is a time of civil unrest as the military dictatorship that rules the country uses death squads to torture and kill anyone who speaks out against the government. The Church feels Romero is a safe choice and that he will maintain the status quo. Oscar even admonishes a priest friend for being too radical. The friend asks Oscar if Jesus would be on the side of the poor or those who oppress the poor? Over the course of the film, and in real life, Oscar transforms from someone who is most comfortable on the sidelines to someone who will risk his life to protect the innocent. The film will have you evaluating your own faith and your willingness to act upon it. If you are looking for a film to challenge and inspire you, "Romero" is a must. On my scale, "Romero" receives $10.
