Award-winning OneRepublic artist Zach Filkins buying Karma Vista Winery

There's been a quiet buzz about a pending change at one of the well-known wineries in Michigan's Great Southwest. The news is now confirmed: Karma Vista Winery of Coloma will soon have new owners and a new name.

Karma Vista Winery will give way to Filkins Vineyards, with opening slated for May 1.

The Filkins name refers to Zach Filkins, the lead guitarist and co-founder of the pop rock band OneRepublic. Filkins and his wife Lindsay are buying Karma Vista from founders and long-time owners Joe and Sue Herman, who are calling it a career.

There's been no huge fanfare about the transaction, and though they confirmed it was happening, the Hermans declined our request to comment on the sale. Filkins, however, has already posted a new website previewing the name change and spotlighting the biographies of two key hires: Winemaker Jason Johnson and General Manager Melissa Feris.

Johnson's biography notes, "Jason started in the wine industry in 2000 at Beaulieu Vineyard in the cellar as harvest temporary labor and a musician in his free time. For the first two years he learned every aspect of cellar operations possible and worked his way up to leading the George DeLatour Reserve winery in 2008. Jason fell in love with the hands-on process of making wines which then turned into a passion for crafting luxury wines.

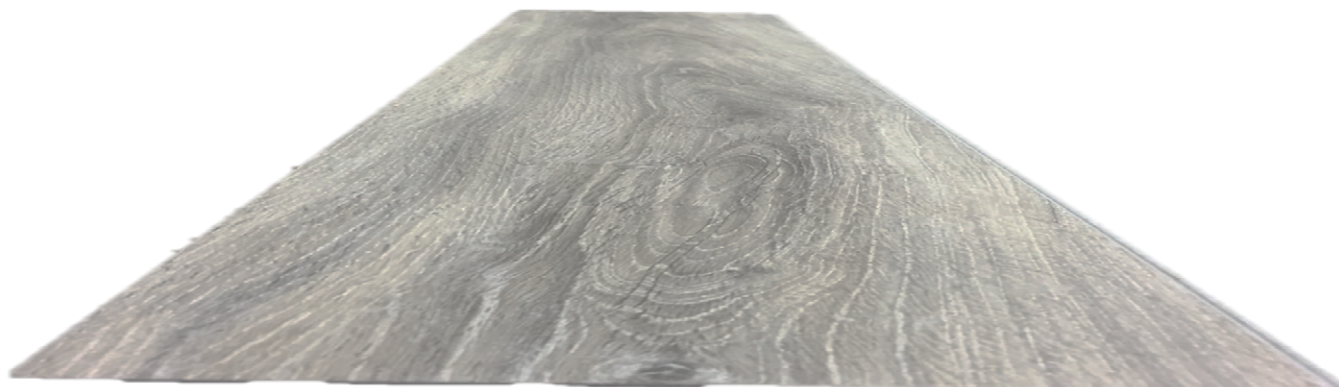

The biography notes that Johnson went to Provenance/ Hewitt Vineyards

This is a Baseball Column?!?

Hey sports lovers! If you cohabitate with a significant other and have ever experienced wee twinges of guilt for watching sports instead of doing something "productive," I have a way around that! The secret, which I reveal here and now to you at no charge is: Cohabitate with a significant other who has a knee injury! Because she/he sure isn't rambling around the house being productive either!

This is by way of explaining that I spent the chilly month of March doing something new (for me): I watched major league baseball spring training game!

Honestly, Spring training baseball is not terribly exciting, so you can basically just keep it in the background, stimulating yours dreams of summer. However, you do encounter eager young guys you've never heard of. Most you'll never hear of again, but you try to store away any interesting names they have for some future dopey column you intend to write. We've all been there, right?!

Well, this column isn't about those guys. This is about guys who DID make The Show. Most are average Joes who overcame the many obstacles faced by guys who don't have superstar talent. But the guys in this column overcame an especially challenging hurdle - their names.

Now I'm not gonna mock ANYONE's name! I presume these fellows are/were as proud as anyone of their heritage their names convey, and I respect that. But let's face it, there are names that bespeak the agility, equipoise, or panache we visualize when waxing rhapsodic about the Grand Old Game: Mark Grace, Bill Serena, Darcy Fast.

Then there the names that don't. So, with sincere monumental respect for them - because I sure as heck never had ANYWHERE NEAR the skills to play in any ballgame except sandlot wiffleball - here are a few players that, if they were on your team, you'd hope DON'T play like their names:

Joe Panik; Joe Strain; James Outman ("James! Don't make an out, man!"); Tony Suck (I'm not making these up!); John Misse; Tripp Cromer.

These guys were/are pitchers: Bob Walk; Homer Bailey; Luke Walker; Walker Bueller; Kyle Hurt; Burke Badenhop; J.J. Putz.

You'd hope this pitcher had the stuff to pitch well, even though he's Ben Cantwell,

If he had a poor outing, I guess his manager would only give him his name: Slim Love. (Who was from a town called Love, Mississippi!)

You'd hope this teammate would sustain a rally, in opposition to his name: Shane Halter. And you'd want sure-handing fielding from Walt Dropo. And Shane and Walt would no doubt keep the upbeat infield chatter going so that their pitcher, (first name) Bailey, wouldn't (last name) Falter.

Batters don't want to swing and miss, including Steve Swisher, AND his son Nick. And pitchers don't want to hit batters, even Eric Plunk. Hitters want to swing smoothly and connect, even Stan Hack. And pitchers want to go all nine innings if they can, even Dylan Cease.

Many a baseball scribe or announcer must've tiptoed around humorous references to Mickey Klutts and Clyde Klutz. Ditto Tom Messit. And Herman Fink. And Elias Funk. And Cal Crum.

But of all the names that seem counter to the ineffable spirit of the National Pastime, this one might take the cake: It's "PLAY ball," man! - not (Brandon, Chuck, Hank, Harry) Workman!

Dave Says

You're a Great Big Brother

Dear Dave,
My mother died about a year and a half ago, and she left me and my younger sister $75,000 each. My sister is 16, and she plans on enlisting in the military after high school, then using the G.I. Bill to pay for college afterward. She won't receive the inheritance money until she's 18. What advice can I give her to ensure she makes good decisions with the money?

Davis
Dear Davis,
I'm truly sorry to hear about your mom. At the same time, I'm so proud of you for stepping up to help your little sister. You know, $75,000 sounds like a lot of money—especially to a teenager. But that kind of cash can disappear in a heartbeat if she's not careful. And then, all she'd have left where her inheritance is concerned is a lifetime of regret.

If she'll be smart with this money, and by that, I mean investing wisely and having a little bit of fun, she could end up a rich, little old lady one day. Not only that, but she can honor the memory of your mother and change her family tree forever. Her family will think differently, and be able to live differently, all because she had the maturity to not blow the money.

You said she'll get $75,000, right? Think about this. She could just have fun with $15,000 or so, and invest the rest in good, growth stock mutual funds. If the stock market continues to average what it has since its start, she'll be a multi-millionaire—and then some—by retirement. Even if I'm half-wrong on the math, the advice still stands. She'd have millions waiting for her. The point is that investing a big lump sum of money, and leaving it there for her golden years, is a great idea.

Now, I'm going to give you some homework, Davis. I want you to talk to a bunch of rich, old folks. Learn what they did to build wealth and hang onto it. Also, make sure the friends and family you both have around you are quality people—the kind who have your best interests at heart. Remember, the Bible says, "In the multitude of counsel there is safety."

Your sister is very lucky to have a big brother like you. Walk her through this advice. Be there for her. Look out for her. She needs you right now, and she'll need you in the years to come.

God bless you both!
—Dave

www.MailMaxOnline.com and on to the red wines, I remember thinking how wonderful each wine was. As Joe poured each wine into our tasting glass, he gave us detailed information on the winemaking process for all the wines. As he spoke, we could feel the passion and love he had for the winery. His knowledge and excitement were intoxicating as we stood there listening and soaking it all in as if we were children focusing during story time. I recall Suzie sharing her favorite wines with a big smile on her face as she cleaned the tasting glasses and her love for the tasting room was evident by the meticulous condition of the property.

"As we wrapped up our visit with a half case of wine and a head full of knowledge, I recollect walking to our car smiling and both of us saying aloud "Wow, Michigan wine is good!" Karma Vista was our gateway into Michigan wines and such a great winery to start the Michigan experience.

"Our passion for food and wine dates back many years. We both worked in the restaurant industry for many years which is where we first developed a love and understanding of wine. At that time food and wine pairings were having a serious impact in the restaurant scene so we soon found ourselves hosting pairing dinner parties with our friends and really enjoying it. Hospitality was a gift that both Zach and I shared which made it fun to dream together. Ever since our first winery visit on our honeymoon in California, we have dreamed of owning a winery where family and friends could come together. We are incredibly grateful and humbled by the opportunity to take the torch from the Hermans and are honored to own and operate the very first winery that attracted us to southwest Michigan wine country. Connection with one another is such a big part of who we are as humans so to be able to provide a location for couples, families and friends to come and connect brings us a lot of joy. We hope you stop by!"

Many in the community are already posting their support for the Filkins and it doesn't appear that the vineyard will slow down Zach's music career. OneRepublic has a Summer Tour that includes several stops in Japan. Perhaps Zach can use that as an opportunity to continue spreading the word about Michigan's Great Southwest!

The Pet Corner

There are some good things going on this weekend for the benefit of pets. On Saturday, April 20th, BOSS Services of Benton Harbor will host an animal adoption event at their business, 2188 M-139, from 11am to 2pm. Co-sponsor Honor Credit Union will cover all adoption fees. They have invited Berrien County Animal Control and the Humane Society of Southwestern Michigan to bring cats and dogs that are up for adoption. If you're thinking of adding a new pet to your family and already have other pets, you may bring them for a meet and greet, but please bring a crate for the new pet or two vehicles for the ride home, so they are not riding loose together. Thank you, BOSS Services and Honor Credit Union, for your commitment to rehoming the pets in our community who are without a family.

Sunday, April 21st, Berrien County Animal Control will hold a vaccine clinic at the Weesaw Township Fire Dept., 13518 State St., New Troy, from 10am to 2pm. Vaccines will be offered for the following prices:

- Rabies: 1 year - $20; 3 years - $25. Dis-temper - $25. Bordetella - $25
- Licenses and microchips will be available for purchase.
- Altered: 1 year - $12; 3 years - $27
- Unaltered: 1 year - $27; 3 years - $72
- Microchip: $25

As you can see, having your pet spayed or neutered reduces the cost of licensing. In view of how shelters are filling up with homeless pets, we need to pay attention and make sure we are not adding to the problem. If the new pet you are adopting is not old enough to be spayed or neutered yet, please make sure you check with your veterinarian as to when is the best age and have it done promptly. If you adopt an older pet, that for whatever reason was never fixed, do yourself and that pet a huge favor and have it done. Think about the number of pets we could keep out of shelters, if only more were spayed and/or neutered.

Speaking of all this, spring is the time of year for showers; kitten showers, that is. Shelters always experience a huge influx of kittens in the warmer weather. (Although, it seems the kitten population has exploded all year long lately.) I've always felt that cats are given short shrift in our society. As a whole, people don't value cats' lives as highly as they do dogs. Maybe because, www.MailMaxOnline.com for the most part, cats' lives don't revolve around pleasing us. And yet, given the opportunity, cats will give as much affection and comfort to their owner as a dog. It is up to us to treat them with the respect that an animal deserves and keep them from contributing to the problem of shelters filling up with cats and kittens.

April 10th was the 158th anniversary of the incorporation of the ASPCA, the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Begun in New York City in 1866, the ASPCA was founded on the belief that "animals are entitled to kind and respectful treatment at the hands of humans, and must be protected under the law." Over the years, there has been controversy about and investigations into fundraising efforts and how their funds were distributed, but the organization has endured and still raises awareness of the treatment of animals in our country, and advocates for better care. They are the oldest animal welfare organization in the U.S.

Regional Director,
SMR Chamber

Join us FORE a day on the Links!

It's that time of year again, where sun and fun combine and many of us find ourselves out on the golf course to relax, unwind, enjoy nature, and do a little business here and there. Looking ahead the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber has 2 fun opportunities for you to join us out on the links!

Before we get started on our outings, I would be remiss if I didn't mention the 2024 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship's return to the Jack Nicklaus Signature course, Harbor Shores for a record sixth and final time May 23-26. The KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship is the most prestigious Major Championship in Men's Senior Golf drawing tens of thousands of attendees and making an estimated $8 million economic impact to Southwest Michigan. While incredibly bittersweet to be its final year at Harbor Shores, everyone involved is determined to make this the best Championship week ever! The impact that this program has made on all Southwest Michigan is immeasurable and far exceeds the initial purpose for bringing it here. Thank you to every sponsor, volunteer, golfer, and spectator for helping to push Southwest Michigan forward not just during Championship week, but every day in between. For more information including to purchase tickets please visit SRPGA.com.

Turning to our outings, they kick off with the 2nd Annual Wine & 9 ladies exclusive golf outing on Friday, May 31st! We had SO much fun last year that we knew we needed to bring it back to Pipestone Creek Golf for 2024! Brothers Dustin & Adam Lester and their awesome team have been fantastic to work with once again this year and we are looking forward to seeing 76 ladies out on the course!

Unfortunately, golf teams are sold out, HOWEVER, if your business wants to be involved and get some quality time in front of these female decision makers, we do have sponsorship opportunities open! Feel free to reach out to Jasmine Hansen or myself regarding available sponsorships and we will get you looped in! Current sponsors include Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, Lake Michigan College, Lake Michigan Vintners, Starks Family Funeral Homes & Cremation Services, Kruggel Lawton CPAs, Sturgis Bank & Trust - St. Joseph Banking Center, The Wood Fitness Park, Whiteford Wealth Management, Schroeder Furniture, Renaissance Athletic Club, and Clark Insurance Agency.

Our next outing is the 64th Annual Chamber Golf Outing on Monday, July 15th at Lake Michigan Hills Golf Club presented by Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, Four Winds Casinos, Indiana Michigan Power an AEP Company, Sturgis Bank - St. Joseph Banking Center, and the Southwest Michigan Tourist Council. This event is a best ball scramble with a shotgun start at 9:00 a.m. and is always a huge favorite for players and sponsors alike!

We are currently accepting golfer registrations as well as additional hole sponsors. This is a great opportunity to showcase your business as a sponsor, treat your staff and/or clients to a day on the course, network with some of the area's senior level executives, and support your Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber.

Prizes will be awarded for the top foursome of the day, plus chances to win at game holes include the Fastest Hole with the South Bend International Airport, Longest Drives, Closest to the Pin, and a Putting Contest with United Federal Credit Union!

Again, we couldn't host such a successful event without our sponsors including Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, Four Winds Casinos, Indiana Michigan Power an AEP Company, Sturgis Bank - St. Joseph Banking Center, Southwest Michigan Tourist Council, Honor Credit Union, Lakeland Care Network, Hungerford CPAs + Advisors, The Northern Indiana Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA), The Inn at Harbor Shores, United Federal Credit Union, South Bend International Airport, Berrien Dental, BOSS Services, Kruggel Lawton CPA, Five Star Heating & Air Conditioning, Meridian Title, Chuck Heit for Sheriff, Ravitron, Oak Title Services, Rose Street Advisors, The Woods Fitness Park, and Clark Insurance Agency.

To get more information visit our website at smrchamber.com. You can also connect with me directly at sspoonholtz@smrchamber.com or 269-932-4040. I look forward to seeing you around Southwest Michigan!

VA HANDICAP

"I did not read the VA letters entirely."

I served off the coast of Vietnam aboard the USS KIRK, and have a long history with the Berrien County Veteran Service office.

I began working with them in 2012 after my previous claims from 2007 were denied. They assisted me in finding a lawyer for my Board of Veteran Appeals claim.

As a civilian, I worked as a Barber and a shoulder injury not related to my service prevented me from making a living. I turned to the Veteran Service Office to find help and learned that as a war era vet, that met the eligibility threshold, I qualified for a Non-Service Connected Pension.

When you deal with the VA you get A LOT of mail, and for years I would take a quick look and file it. The VA got my attention however when one day I got a debt letter telling me I owed all the money they had sent me back. I immediately went to the Berrien Service Office and was told, in every VA letter was a notice to inform the VA if I returned to work. It was my mistake yet the Service Officer assured me I had options and helped me prepare several debt waiver requests; which were granted.

Just when I thought I was in good shape, I learned I had an illness relating to Agent Orange exposure and once again the Berrien County Veteran Service Office was there to help, this time with a compensation claim.

I have been very glad to have them available to explain the letters sent, answer my questions, and guide me through the many benefits available, they even hosted a home buying seminar that I was able to take advantage of. I highly recommend getting to know the Berrien County Veteran Service Office.

What is your Veteran Benefit Handicap?

Come improve your knowledge to become a MASTER & overcome the obstacles that separate you from your VA benefits.

Perfect Peace

While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." Luke 24:36

In the Middle East, it is common to greet one another by saying, "Peace." That was true already at the time when Jesus rose from the dead. So when he appeared to his disciples and said, "Peace be with you," it could have been understood as a simple greeting.

But it was far more than that. The disciples were unsettled. They were not sure that Jesus had really risen from the dead. They were uncertain whether they had done the right thing at the time of his trial and crucifixion. They did not know where they stood with one another, much less where they stood with Jesus.

All those uncertainties made it important for Jesus to greet them by saying, "Peace be with you." He needed to assure them that his relationship with them was good. Because he had died to take the punishment for their sins because he had risen from the dead to prove that his promise of forgiveness was true, he could calm a whole range of anxiety with those simple words, "Peace be with you."

We also live with uncertainty. We wonder whether we have done the right thing. We don't know how we stand with one another, and we waver in our confidence that Jesus loves us. Because Jesus died to take the punishment for our sins because he rose from the dead to prove that his promise of forgiveness for us is true, we rejoice to hear Jesus say it to us, too. "Peace be with you."

Prayer: Thank you, Jesus, for calming our anxiety by assuring us that we have perfect peace with you. Amen.
