Wanda D. Oakes, 93, of Lyndonville, NY, went to her heavenly home on Thu., April 11, 2024, at Hospice of Orleans with her loving family at her side. She was born on May 18, 1930, in Mays, Indiana, the daughter of the late Osro and Mae (Plummer) Draper. Wanda was raised during the Depression on a small farm in Indiana. After graduating from Mays High School in 1948, Wanda continued her education at Ball State Teachers College, where she met her future husband, James Oakes, on a blind date during a sorority/fraternity mixer. They were wed on December 22, 1950. After the passing of her father-in-law, Leonard, the couple returned to Lyndonville to manage the family farm, which was to be known as LynOaken Farms, while raising their five children. Wanda was a lifelong member of the Lyndonville United Methodist Church and was well known for her beautiful soprano voice, gracing many weddings and funerals. She loved her time portraying Mrs. Claus for the church Christmas Mini Mall and was an active participant of the Company of the Concerned, visiting the shut-ins and elderly of the community. Wanda served on the Board at Medina Memorial Hospital for many years as well as TWIGS. After raising her children, Wanda focused on helping out with the family farm on events and during harvest. She had a compassionate and caring nature for her family and community. Wanda was also proud of her Hoosier heritage and maintained a close relationship with her Indiana friends and family. She was an avid reader and NBA fan and had a life-long love of hosting visitors from all over the world including international students from American Field Service. Wanda is survived by her five children: Darrel (Linda) Oakes, Deborah (Ralph) Oakes, Diane (Rev. Daniel) Thurber, Dana (Paula) Oakes, and Wendy (Darren) Wilson. She also survived by eight grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. In addition to her parents and husband James, who passed in 1998, Wanda is predeceased by two sisters, Anna Louise and Virginia Joyce, and a great-grandson. Relatives and friends caledl from 4 PM—7 PM on Tue., April 16, 2024, at the Bogan & Tuttle Funeral Home, 112 N. Main St., Lyndonville, NY 14098. Timothy Schultz, officiating and the Rev. Daniel Thurber co-officiating. The burial will be private for the family. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Wanda's name to the Lyndonville United Methodist Church or Hospice of Orleans, 14080 Route 31 West, Albion, NY 14411. The Oakes family would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to the doctors and staff at Medina Memorial Hospital, United Memorial, Rochester General, and Hospice of Orleans for their excellent care and compassion. Kathleen Gwen Smith, 59, went to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Friday, April 5, 2024, following a lengthy illness. She was born April 25, 1964, to the late Adeline A. (Panchenko) Smith and Garra H. Smith. Kathleen is predeceased by her parents and brother, Gregory Emil Smith. She is survived and sadly missed by her brother, Jeffrey D. (Charlene Murray) Smith; sister, Judith K. Clonan-Smith (Erik Hahn); her much-loved nephew, Jeremiah G. Smith and nieces, Guinevere E. (Alan) Panek, Jocelyn L. (Devin) Foran; as well as her beloved great nephews and nieces, Graham, Alannah, Dudley, Anwyn, Brenna, Eli, Grady, and Margareta and many cousins near and far. In 1982, Kathleen graduated from Medina High School, having completed the Allied Health (CNA) program through the Niagara/Orleans County BOCES, and earned an Associate of Science in Education from Genesee Community College. She embarked on a career serving others as a lead teacher at the Medina Head Start, a Private Residential Trainer in Albion, a Direct Support Professional for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities with Empower WNY in Niagara County, and as an Independent Living Specialist for the WNY Independent Living Center in Buffalo, until she retired from the public sector. Jesus' love shone through Kathy at her true home church, Oak Orchard Assembly of God, which she attended for much of her adult life. She was a past director of vacation Bible school and much-loved Sunday school instructor, who delighted when children ran to her, calling, "Teacher Kathy!" She was an active member of the Wednesday Morning Women's Bible Study. Kathy loved them and they loved her, supporting one another for many years. She had been a member of various Christian organizations in the region where she was past president and VP of Oasis Women's Fellowship and Flame Fellowship, respectively. Kathy had been a literacy volunteer and with Special Olympics. Kathy was known for her kindness, sense of humor, and great love for her Lord. A child at heart, she took great joy in the laughter and antics of children. Kathy enjoyed providing activity experiences for church kids, family, and friends from her great store of games and art materials. She liked to play a gentle, practical joke or two on the unsuspecting like sending a CNA classmate to the supply cupboard for fallopian tubes. Even when her own health was failing, she was generous with her time and energy...always thinking of fun things to bring to her church school students. Kathy enjoyed the family dogs and cats, especially her own dog, Little Louie and her canine-nieces and nephews. Calling Hours are Wednesday, April 24 from 4-7pm at Cooper Funeral Home, 215 W. Center St., Medina. Kathleen's Celebration of Life service will be held Thursday, April 25, 2024 at 10am, at Oak Orchard Assembly of God, 12111 Ridge Road (Rt. 104), Medina, NY, followed by a luncheon at the church. Her ashes will be interred at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in W. Shelby, NY. For those who wish to do so, a memorial gift may be made to Oak Orchard Assembly of God, earmarked Children's Ministries or to the WNY Independent Living Center. ORES DMM Matter No.: 22-00026

Facility Description: Applicant applied to the New York State Office of Renewable Energy Siting (Office or ORES) for a permit pursuant to Executive Law § 94-c to construct and operate a 125-megawatt (MW) solar energy facility located in the Town of Somerset, Niagara County.

Written comments may also be emailed to ORES at hearings@ores.ny.gov or mailed to the Office of Renewable Energy Siting, Empire State Plaza, P-1 South, J Dock, Albany, NY 12242. Written comments will be considered equally with oral statements delivered at the public comment hearing, provided they are postmarked by Friday, June 14, 2024, or e-mailed or posted on DMM by 5:00 p.m. on that date.

Any questions about filing requirements or other hearing procedures may be addressed to Chief ALJ James T. McClymonds by telephone at (518) 473-4583. ORES's regulations may be found at <https://ores.ny.gov/regulations>.

Applicant filed the application with the Office on April 7, 2023. A notice of complete application was issued on February 5, 2024 (see <https://ores.ny.gov/permit-applications>, click on Project DMM Matter Number 22-00026).

Please take notice that written public comments will be publicly posted on the ORES DMM. ORES reserves the right not to post duplicate or repeat comments. In addition, ORES reserves the right to remove, without notice, comments containing any defamatory, infringing, obscene, indecent, discriminatory, confidential, or unlawful material or information of any kind.

Statement of Compliance with Local Laws and Regulations: Any municipality, political subdivision or an agency thereof that received notice of the filing of the application pursuant to 19 NYCRR 900-1.6(a) must file a statement indicating whether the proposed facility is designed to be sited, constructed and operated in compliance with applicable local laws and regulations in effect as of February 5, 2024, if any, concerning the environment, or public health and safety. The statement must be filed and served by 4:00 p.m. on Monday, June 17, 2024, in the same manner as petitions for party status. Any municipality, political subdivision, or an agency thereof that proposes to adjudicate any issues related to a facility's compliance with local laws and regulations must file a petition for party status as provided for in 19 NYCRR 900-8.4(c) and include the statement of compliance with local laws and regulations.

ORES staff published draft permit conditions on April 5, 2024. The draft permit conditions may be accessed at <https://ores.ny.gov/permit-applications>, click on Project DMM Matter Number 22-00026.

Issues Determination Procedure: Pursuant to 19 NYCRR 900-8.3(b), a pre-adjudicatory issues determination procedure will be conducted by the assigned ALJ. The procedure will be conducted solely on papers and briefing unless the ALJ, in the judge's sole discretion, determines that oral argument is necessary. The purpose of the issues conference is to determine party status for any person or organization that has properly filed a petition (as indicated below), and to narrow and define those issues, if any, that will require adjudication in this matter. Participation in the issues determination procedure is limited to ORES staff, applicant, and those persons or organizations requesting party status.

Applicant Statement of Issues: No later than 4:00 p.m. on Monday, June 17, 2024, applicant shall file and serve on ORES staff and the ALJ a statement of issues applicant intends to raise with respect to any determination of the Office, and briefing in support. Applicant shall serve the statement of issues and brief on persons filing petitions for party status within five (5) days of such filing. For the required contents of an applicant's statement of issues, see 19 NYCRR 900-8.4(b)(1).

ORES Staff Position: On issuing the draft permit conditions, ORES staff takes the position that the proposed facility, together with the uniform and site-specific standards and conditions contained in the draft permit, would comply with applicable laws and regulations. ORES staff recommends that the Office elect not to apply, in whole or in part, any local law or ordinance that as applied to the facility is unreasonably burdensome in view of the Climate Leadership and Community Protection Act targets and the environmental benefits of the proposed facility.

Filing for Party Status and Proposed Issues: Persons seeking to participate in the issues determination procedure and any subsequent adjudicatory hearing must register on DMM and file a written petition explaining whether their request is for full party status or amicus status. For the required contents of petitions for full party status, see 19 NYCRR 900-8.4(c)(1) and (2). To determine whether an issue is substantive and significant, see 19 NYCRR 900-8.3(c)(2) and (3). For the required contents of a petition seeking amicus status, see 19 NYCRR 900-8.4(c)(1) and (3). Petitioners may also file written briefs making arguments in support of their petitions.

Responsive Briefing and Response to Comments: No later than 4:00 p.m. on Monday, July 15, 2024, ORES staff may file and serve a response to any petitions for party status, any statement of issues by applicant, and the statement of compliance with local laws and regulations. By the same deadline, applicant may file and serve a response to any petition for party status or statement of compliance with local laws and regulations. In addition, the applicant shall file and serve on ORES staff a response to public comments received during the public comment period, including any supplemental information.

Public Comment Hearing: A public comment hearing pursuant to 19 NYCRR part 900 to hear and receive unsworn comments from the public will be held at the Barker Central School District Auditorium, 1628 Quaker Road, Barker, NY 14012 on Tuesday, June 11, 2024, at 6:00 p.m.

All petitions requesting party status and briefs in support must be E-Filed on DMM no later than 4:00 p.m. on Monday, June 17, 2024. Instructions for registering in DMM and E-Filing documents may be found at: <https://dps.ny.gov/dmm-help-electronic-filing-registration-instructions>.

Tips on how to write CLASSIFIED ADS that sell!

- 1 USE A KEY WORD. This immediately tells the reader exactly what you have to sell.
- 2 Make your description CLEAR AND FACTUAL. State the year, make, model, color & size and tell what condition the item is in. Also, state the special features.
- 3 STATE THE PRICE. Successful classified advertisers have learned that the price in an ad helps increase the chances for results.
- 4 IF THERE IS A GENUINE SENSE OF URGENCY, say so. The words "We're moving," or "Must sell fast," suggest that readers respond immediately.
- 5 INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER. Classifieds get results fast and often generate immediate sales. If you cannot be available to answer the phone at all times, be sure to specify special calling times such as "after 9pm" or "before 11am."

John Snell, an Albion grad, builds successful career as football coach at Baldwin Wallace

Photos courtesy of Baldwin Wallace: John Snell, an Albion native, brought lots of energy to sidelines as head coach of the Baldwin Wallace University football team. He led the team from 2002 to 2016, and now is the college's Associate Director of Athletics.

By Levi Newell, senior Sport Management major at Baldwin Wallace University

Coach, now the athletic director, prizes work ethic and integrity in athletes over their stats

Walking into Coach John Snell's office at Baldwin Wallace University in Berea, OH, there are many things to catch the eye.

There is a Baldwin Wallace (BW) football helmet lamp illuminating his office. There are various displays of the game, including a first-win football awarded to Coach Snell following his 22-2 win against Allegheny. There are portraits of Coach Snell with amazing athletes and coaches including the former long-time National Champion Ohio State football head coach Jim Tressel.

Snell also had more recent memorabilia in his current role as Associate Director of Athletics, including himself alongside the BW Division III College World Series baseball team. The most notable piece however was a nearly life-size portrait of himself actively coaching on the sidelines. Coaching the only way he knows how; emphatically cheering on his athletes with strong determination. It is not any one item but a combination of all these things that exposed the interior of what makes Coach Snell himself, which is a BW football legend.

Sitting down to speak with Coach Snell about his career there were many topics of conversation. We conversed over everything from the makings of his coaching career to the type of father, husband, and son he has become. Signs of humility and strong integrity immediately became apparent when spending time with him. His love for those around him and his former athletes exudes his character. He spoke highly of all the athletes he was privileged to coach. However, the most storied team to grace his coaching career came in 2003, a season that was pivotal to beginning to cement Coach Snell's legacy.

John Patrick Snell, now 58, was raised in the village of Albion, New York. He was brought up with supportive and loving parents who instilled the value of hard work within him early on. (His parents, Peter and Irene Snell, owned a real estate business that is currently run by their son David.) As a child, John's parents had strong expectations for him to do things the right way as they led successful lives despite their hardships early on.

John's father would continuously remind him of his philosophy and mantra "work before play." John adopted and applied this philosophy to his own life, which allowed him to create great opportunities for himself at a young age. John loved sports as a child primarily participating in baseball, football and wrestling. His parents would not only support him but also attend nearly all athletic events for his other three siblings, further showcasing their dedication to their children's athletic endeavors.

Through his involvement in sports at Albion High School, he would unfortunately succumb to a serious broken left leg injury during his sophomore year in football. Because of this injury, John would miss the rest of the football season as well as the upcoming wrestling and baseball seasons during his tough recovery.

The injury ended his football career, but he continued to work at his other sports and began to strive in baseball. John would go on to follow in his brother David's footsteps, working at the family business in Albion, and becoming a student-athlete at BW.

John participated in baseball for one year in 1984 lettering as a freshman. While at BW, John became Coach Snell, finding his first opportunities to test out the profession he would later pursue.

In his four years, he gained experience coaching locally. He coached wrestling at Berea High School, baseball at Midpark High School and served as a student coach for BW football. Following graduation, Coach Snell would have coaching stints at the University of Rochester, Rutgers University, and the University of Buffalo, where he would meet his wife Shelly, before returning to his alma mater in 1996. He would serve as an assistant coach before being promoted to Assistant Head Coach and then interim Head Coach in 2002. Serving as legendary Head Coach Bob Packard's right-hand man, Coach Snell would learn valuable lessons in coaching and come to respect the winningest coach in BW history.

Coach Snell commented on Coach Packard and his impact on his coaching career, "Coach Packard was essentially Lee Tressel's right-hand man, and he did a phenomenal job of carrying on the tradition, carrying on the legacy of great coaches. He was a great mentor for me, and he never had a losing season as a head coach... One of the greatest lessons that I learned from him was that you can't allow the highs to be too high and the lows to be too low. He was very even-keel and I think that served him very well."

In Coach Packard's final three years, his teams would go 6-4 each season with room to improve. Baldwin Wallace football was not nationally relevant for his final seven years since winning a share of the conference title in 1994. With upcoming talent, and the team wanting to achieve more, Coach Snell would get his opportunity to shine.

2002 marked the year that Coach Snell would take over the reins as head coach, at least momentarily. Although he was chosen amongst his staff to act as head coach, he would still need to be evaluated following the end of the season and participate in a formal interviewing process to earn the honor of full-time head coach.

Dan Larlham, quarterback for BW (2001-2003) stated, "Having that interim title tagged to him I think only made him work harder. It lit a fire under him knowing that he needed to prove himself, and he did."

That season Coach Snell would lead the Yellow Jackets football team to a sterling 8-2 record, with their only losses to Mount Union and John Carroll each just by one touchdown. Despite the successful season Mount Union would continue on their historic undefeated run and keep BW out of the playoffs. John Carroll would also be invited as an at-large bid to compete nationally. Coach Snell quickly solidified himself as the man for the job and with support from his staff and players would win the job as full-time head coach.

Dan Larlham recalls a diner with former BW President Mark Collier, "I was at a diner with Collier, the president at the time and I remember telling him, Coach Snell, this is my guy."

With full team support and a great host of returning players, Coach Snell hoped to continue his success in making BW football nationally relevant once again. The 2003 season was a perfect storm for just that. The special group would work early and often in the gym during the offseason and hone in on their craft. They held strong expectations for themselves and most importantly had shown that they were truly up to the task in that 2002 season. They were close to where they wanted to be but had some unfinished business to attend to.

"It was a group of guys that I think were really hungry to be successful," Coach Snell recalled. "The year before they came to us and said, 'We want to get this thing back to where we feel it's nationally competitive.' They were driven to be a team that competes for the conference championship and hopefully get a national playoff berth and that's exactly what they did."

Above the level of determination and skill of this particular team, many great leaders upheld the values of the team and strove to make everybody better. Captains for the 2003 season included Dan Larlham on offense and Tom DeLuca on defense. Having just two captains was something special for this team as it allowed them to rally together as a unit. Other great players would step up in their roles not as captains but rather as fantastic leaders such as Rob Becker, Jeff Fox, and Nate Mitchell. Coach Snell believed in and encouraged his guys to lead regardless of status so that he could create a more well-rounded group dynamic.

Athletes were encouraged to learn about each of their teammates, thus creating a culture of truly caring for one another. This allowed them to go into each week of competition with the best sense of teamwork, ultimately leading to a near-perfect on-field record of 9-1. BW's only blemish was an early Week 2 loss against Mount Union. They would shut out bitter rival John Carroll in Week 4 and continue to blow out opponents the entire season, their closest win being by two possessions against Ohio Northern.

Their offensive prowess allowed them to put up a large number of points week in and week out, and their complimentary defense ultimately held their opponents to fewer points taking care of business throughout the season. Following the regular season, a watch party in the Lee Tressel lounge of the Lou Higgins Center revealed that BW would make the Division III National Playoffs as an at-large bid. They would go on to win at home in the playoffs for the first time in a long while, beating Hanover 54-32. The following week they would leave for Chicago to face Wheaton where they would fall short just four points away from advancing again.

The 2003 season was a special year for the Yellow Jackets. The ability to perform at a high level brought BW back to national relevancy where it had struggled to be for a while. The success of this team was a great testament to the excellence of Coach Snell. This would be his and the program's last playoff win and appearance with Mount Union continuing their dominance to this day. Coach Snell throughout his storied career would reach a record of 92-60 overall with a .605 winning percentage. He would go on to coach many great athletes including 122 All-Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) and 102 Academic All-OAC players. With all these accolades and accomplishments as head coach, Coach Snell has made a case for himself regarding his BW legacy. But his success on the field was simply a product of how he conducted and established himself as a great leader, mentor, and father figure to so many.

Rob Becker, former player and current Director of Campus Recreation and Athletic Facilities at BW, "Coaching is one part of the legacy, it's what else you do outside of the coaching and how you impact people that actually allows that legacy to be better."

Dan Larlham stated, "He certainly sent guys into the Hall of Fame, into the record books, and reestablished BW as a national competitor. But the relationships he keeps with his players make him second to none."

A cheerleader in life, Coach Snell has allowed great opportunities for his players to set the foundation for a great life. In his athletes, he instilled core values of faith, integrity, caring for others, and doing things the right way. Coach Snell contributed, and still does as Associate Director of Athletics, to a friendly family-type culture that so many people find at BW.

Coach Snell likened coaching to parenting in that, "My hope for them, first and foremost, that we have taught them the importance of having God in their life. And second I hope we taught them the importance of being a person of integrity, a person with great work ethic and a great attitude. I hope they know and understand and feel that they are loved by their parents."

These characteristics displayed by Coach Snell were brought into his career knowing that these values could allow for success on and off the field for his athletes. In building and maintaining a positive team culture he truly solidified himself as one of the great football coaches of BW. Not only has he impacted others through his coaching career but extending himself to all sports and athletes in his current role leaving a long-lasting positive effect on BW both athletically and culturally. When people talk of the great football coaches of BW such as Ray Watts, Eddie Finnigan, Lee Tressel, and Bob Packard they ought, and likely soon will, begin to also mention John Snell at that same level.

Refill with Randy

by Randy LeBaron

Good morning! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this week right... TOGETHER!!!

In just a couple days I will be turning 50 yrs. old and I have the receding hairline, white whiskers, and protruding waistline to prove it. I am a husband and a father of four. I am a pastor, a counselor, and a chaplain. I have several degrees and have started my own ministry. I have accomplished many things which you might think would help one's self-esteem and yet, for most of my life, I have found myself feeling inadequate—unable to see myself through any other eyes than those who had bullied and abused me as a child.

I know that I typically share more lighthearted fare on here but I felt led to write about this today because I am fairly certain that I am not the only one who is living with unseen scars or who has heard the old adage, "sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me" and realized how untrue it is. The reality is that the emotional scars that a person carries from a tormented childhood may not be visible in the same sense as other physical wounds, yet they are often the hardest to overcome because the wound hasn't closed; the words have cut too deep; down to the core—down to a person's very character.

There is a man in the Bible named Gideon that I can relate to. You may remember him as the guy who who tested God by putting a fleece outside and asking God to make the ground wet with dew while leaving the fleece dry and then asking Him to do the opposite the next night. Anyway, the thing that often sticks out to me is how God addresses Gideon during their first encounter when he appears and says, "The Lord is with you, mighty warrior."(Judges 6:12b) The reason why I find this so interesting is because just a few verses later we find out that Gideon's view of himself is almost the complete opposite. When God tells Gideon that He wants to use him to save Israel from their enemies Gideon responds that he is the weakest man from the weakest clan.

I get it. I get why Gideon had a hard time seeing what God saw in him. Just as God called him a mighty warrior long before he actually grew into that title others had probably called him by other names that had already shaped his identity and caused him to focus on what he could not do or what he would not become. I get it.

As I stated earlier, I am about to hit the half century mark and have actively lived out God's call on my life for over three decades now but still, no matter how many times I am addressed as Pastor or Leader, I will often find myself feeling like I am back in the body of my 8 year old self; listening to my father explain why he never wanted me and that I was not worth the effort for him to be a dad again, or when I was 10 yrs. old just waiting to get off the bus so that I could burst into tears over the hurtful words heaped onto me without further humiliation, or beginning middle school and realizing that even though it was supposed to be a fresh start that I was still the odd man out (no thanks to my speech problems or alternative sense of style), or in high school when I would try to find any excuse to avoid the rest room (or school all together) because of the constant array of verbal, emotional, and physical attacks that I had to endure on a daily basis.

People often wonder about my fascination with Batman (I am a big fan and avid collector for those who didn't know) but why wouldn't I relate to a boy who had his childhood torn away from him because of the ruthless actions of others and, rather than dwelling on that feeling of helplessness, took control of the situation and chose to become a symbol and to stand up for those who could not stand up for themselves? The irony is that even in becoming "The Batman" Bruce Wayne was still just a scared little boy trying to overcome his fears by becoming fear itself to those who would prey on the weak. I get it.

The fact is that I AM a pastor. I AM a leader. I AM a husband. I AM a father. I AM a friend. But I am also that wounded young boy that longs to be accepted, affirmed, acknowledged, and appreciated, not because of anything I have done but simply because of who I am and who I was created to be. The scars are still there but the healing has begun.

Thanks to The Lord names like "Mighty Warrior" and "Pastor" seem more suitable than weakest or worthless. And, for anyone out there reading this while mentally replaying the names others have given to you, I want to remind you that you are so much more. I would say to you what I would have loved to have been able to go back and say to my my younger, scrawnier, insecure, blue-haired, pierced, speech impaired, skateboard loving self. I would say things like, "Do not allow others to define who you are, how you feel, or who you will become, by their derogatory remarks", "Do not treat others the way that they treat you but rather how you would want to be treated", and "Do not give up because your potential and your purpose will outshine anything that you are dealing with in the present or that you have carried with you from your past.

Thankfully, though it took me much longer to learn these lessons on my own, I can say that I have not only found healing from my past but that I now experience hope and peace in the present. I have had the opportunity to reconnect and reconcile with some of my high school bullies on Facebook and I also became the primary caregiver for my father, who was probably the bully who left me with the most scars, which led to me having the unique privilege of being his pastor and praying with him to be set free from his own past hurts. It was then I finally started to see myself through God's eyes. I hope that you will begin to see the real you today too.

See you in two weeks!
Pastor Randy

Helping to Save Lives

Orleans/Niagara BOCES' Health Occupations Technician (HOT) students did a great job helping out at the ConnectLife Blood Drive at the Orleans Career and Technical Education Center.

Teacher Debbie Dittmer, teacher aide Meghan Carpenter and their seniors and juniors assisted in taking blood pressures and handing out snacks to the volunteers.

Members of the Career and Technical Education Center's Maintenance staff stepped up to the plate to donate blood to help save lives. ConnectLife blood donors help supply more than 75% of the lifesaving blood supply in our community. Every day, people across Western New York need whole blood donations for multiple reasons, those in the hospitals with traumatic injuries, those fighting cancer, blood disorders, surgery patients, mothers who have given birth and more. So proud of everyone who helped out for this important cause. You are all heroes!

Notary Public Review

This course will demystify the office of notary public. For anyone planning to take New York's notary public examination, and for commissioned notaries who want to improve their understanding of regulations, this seminar will use plain English to clarify laws, concepts and procedures. You will learn how to avoid conflicts of interest, maintain professional ethics, establish proper fees, minimize legal liability, handle special situations and more. To become a notary, you must be at least 18 years of age and either reside in New York or engage in business in the state.
