Chef Tim Foley left his mark on SW Michigan

One of the giants of the hospitality industry in Michigan's Great Southwest left us this week, as we learned of the death of Tim Foley, owner of the 'Bread+Bar' restaurant and former owner of Bit of Swiss bakery for more than 35 years.

Literally hundreds of people took to social media to pay tribute to Foley for wide-ranging impact on their lives and the community.

Among them, our Founder and Publisher, Pat Moody:

"I was absolutely thunderstruck upon learning this news this morning. I loved when Tim joined me on the radio in the early days of Bread+Bar to entice us all to venture in to enjoy the magic of his culinary prowess. He was rightfully proud of his new baby, and of course seeing him regularly hard at work at Bit of Swiss was a delight as I gathered up my daily bread – the remarkable salt top rye! Still the best bread in the world thanks to his recipe!"

Sitting down with him on multiple occasions to help craft stories for publication of the many great things he and Pat and Matt were doing through the years gave me a truly special insight into his incredible work ethic, his never-ending talents, and his passion for quality food and hospitality will be legendary for years. Farewell for now Breadman! Keep delivering your unique rays of sunshine founded in that authentic Irish smile of yours! You will be sorely missed!"

This Is Another Baseball Column?!

The other day, I was playing a quiz on the all-trivia-all-the-time website Sporcle*, and realized that one of the answers was Jimmy Stewart.

No, not the movie star Jimmy Stewart – the major league baseball Jimmy Stewart, who labored, fairly anonymously, for several teams, including my beloved Chicago Cubs.

(*Public Service Announcement: sporcle.com is a fabulous place to distract yourself. I personally value it highly for helping me stop doom-scrolling about some of our esteemed elected officials over yonder in Washington, D.C., who do things such as introducing a legislative amendment stating, “the funds made available by this Act (shall include) sums for developing space laser technology on the southwest border.” This was apparently introduced in all seriousness. Even though it absolutely and altogether lacks seriousness. OMG, sorry, must interrupt this column for a Sporcle break!)

Ok, my point, if you'll accept that this is one, is that throughout the many decades of major league baseball, rosters have occasionally featured players with names that are quite familiar to people who don't give a flying fig about baseball, because the persons these names bring to mind aren't well-known for their fastballs, or runs batted in, or footwork on double plays.

For example: Most people have heard of: Jack Daniels . . . yeah! – the outfielder for the 1952 Boston Braves!; Michael Jackson, a pitcher from the early 1970s; Kenny Rogers, who once pitched a perfect game – 27 up and 27 down – and who once also appeared at an event in Texas with some entertainer named Kenny Rogers.

Will Smith is currently a catcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers; he's always a threat to hit a home run, so he's no slap hitter.

Presidential names are sprinkled throughout hardball history: I have multiple baseball cards from my youth featuring John Kennedy. Interestingly, if he'd chosen to go by his middle name, he'd STILL be co-named with a famous Kennedy – Edward.

James Buchanan and John Tyler also played ball. And I must include in this category a pitcher who checked a LOT of famous-name boxes: Calvin Coolidge Julius Caesar Tuskahoma McLish. (The seventh child in his family, he always said that his dad, who had no say in naming the first six, got permission for Cal's moniker, and darn well took advantage of the opportunity.)

More like-names from the entertainment world:

There's been a George C. Scott, an Eddie Murphy, a Don Johnson, a Mike Myers. There have been two Gary Coopers, and J-Lo has been in major league lineups at least three times – Javier Lopez, Jorge Lopez, and Jose Lopez. Bobby Brown was a pretty decent ballplayer – twice – and a prominent musician (only once that I know of).

You've got your Jim Morrison, of the White Sox and The Doors; Carlos Santana; and Davy

Jones, who played outfield for the Tigers and tambourine for the Monkees.

From the world of fiction, we can talk about a pitcher named Jackie Horner, and Lucius Fox, who played a little in 2022 but is also, in the Batman universe, the CEO and President of Wayne Enterprises

And we can wrap up with a pitcher for the 1897 Cleveland Spiders, who wasn't any better than the pitcher in a Hall-of-Fame comic strip. Yep. . . Charlie Brown.

The Ramsey Show

Dave Says

I'm going to shoot straight with you. The real problem isn't an 18% jump in rent. The real problem is what that rent increase revealed about you both—the fact that you have weak careers. You guys are like two hamsters in a wheel right now. Neither one of you is afraid of work. That much is obvious. And you're working four jobs between the two of you, so there's no lack of effort. But you're not gaining any traction. You're not making a lot of money, and the debt hanging over your heads isn't helping either.

Your parents are obviously good-hearted people, Melissa. If you do this, I want you, your husband and your folks to go into it with this mindset—your stay with them is a brief stopover on your way to prosperity. Don't go into this—any of you—with an attitude of the world is mean, rent went up, and we can't make it out there. This is a safety net, not a hammock. Use this time to begin addressing your financial issues, and take a long, hard look at your career and income situation. If you use this opportunity wisely, you can emerge in a better place with your money and with getting ahead in your careers.

God bless you all!
— Dave

Dave Ramsey is an eight-time national bestselling author, personal finance expert and host of The Ramsey Show, the second-largest syndicated talk radio show in America. He has appeared on Good Morning America, CBS Mornings, Today, Fox News, CNN, Fox Business and many more. Since 1992, Dave has helped people regain control of their money, build wealth, and enhance their lives. He also serves as CEO of Ramsey Solutions.

A Safety Net, Not a Hammock

Dear Dave,
My husband and I are in a bad situation, and we're thinking about taking my parents up on their offer to move in with them. We both work two jobs. I'm a medical transcriptionist with a small business on the side, and he's a warehouse clerk who is also trying to get a business off the ground. Combined, we bring home about $70,000 a year, plus we have $80,000 in debt between credit cards and a car loan. On top of all this, our rent went up 18% at the first of the year, and we can't afford the increase. Should we move in with my folks?

Dear Melissa,
I'm not opposed to families jumping into a situation together to solve a problem. That includes grown children moving back home for a short period of time. Sometimes, when the right people are involved (and proper boundary expectations are established and agreed upon), it can work out well for everyone. I just want you to be very careful that you're not using a move like this to mask the real problem.

National Day of Prayer event to be held Friday, May 3 at the John E.N. Howard Bandshell

The public is invited to join an uplifting and patriotic gathering on the National Day of Prayer, Thursday, May 2, at noon, at the John E.N. Howard Bandshell, 500 Port Street, St. Joseph. Esteemed community faith leaders will raise their voices in prayer, seeking transformation and healing for individuals and our nation. Experience the strength of unity as millions nationwide come together to pray on this day.

President Harry S. Truman established the National Day of Prayer in 1952, and it has been an official American tradition since then. The day is observed on the first Thursday of May, and the president signs a proclamation each year encouraging Americans to pray and meditate.

This Berrien County tradition started in 1985 on the St. Joseph courthouse steps and continues to unite local Christians in praying for the United States.

Don't miss young Carson praying for our police, Sheriff Chuck Heit leading the Pledge of Allegiance, and Pastor Dan Head, a founding event organizer who experienced the Jesus Revolution firsthand.

Prayers will be led by leaders of faith from across Berrien County: Pastor Jay Haynes, Pastor Rob Cheek, Pastor Windle Davis, Pastor Michael McKinnies II, Rev. Jeremy McDonald, Pastor and Benton Harbor Chief of Police Dan McGinnis, Pastor Jeff Roe, Pastor André Palmer, Sister Lisa Smith, and Prayer Evangelist Allen Weiser.

Free parking is available in specified lots. We recommend arriving early due to downtown St. Joseph's ongoing construction and street barriers. Dress comfortably for walking and for Michigan's early May weather.

Even sponsors include Freedom Finishing Inc., Grace Christian Center, Craig & Cherie Okonski, Brad & Becky Young, Dr. Sherry O'Donnell, El Bethel Church of God, Julia Ballard, Rev. Dan & Glenda Head, and anonymous supporters. In-kind donations come from Far Ahead Advertising Inc., MailMax, Mid-West Family Southwest Michigan, Kilwins St. Joseph, Mason Jar Café, and 2nd Chance True Gospel Ministries.

Capture the event's essence with Nathan Voytovick of Nate's Dronography on video and Jeremiah Griffin Photography documenting highlights. Pastor Dwayne Johnson of New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church will manage sound, and Julia Ballard, Karen Lefon, Bernice Mason, and Sue Sanders will welcome attendees.

Additional prayer events are taking place throughout Berrien County, including one at the Bridgman City Hall flagpole at 12:15 pm. To locate an event near you, visit online at www.nationaldayofprayer.org.

PRAY SW Michigan, the event host, is a faith-driven nonprofit promoting regional prayer. Their initiatives include the National Day of Prayer, weekly community prayer calls, prayer walks, and Prayer Patrol. Visit the Facebook page for PRAY SW Michigan at www.facebook.com/PRAYSWMI

Currently, PBMs help provide prescription drug coverage to more than 275 million people in the United States. In doing so, they help drive down drug costs - saving payers and patients an average of $1,040 per person, per year.

Why is this important? When employees are unable to access affordable prescription medications, they face difficult choices between their health and financial stability. When this happens, the unfortunate reality is employees will most often opt to forgo their prescribed medication. This not only undermines their own health and well-being, it weakens the strength and stability of our workforce.

But it doesn't have to be this way.

At a time when Michiganders continue to face high rates of inflation, keeping costs low is critical. This means that employers need to be able to offer health care to their employees without breaking the bank, and pharmacy benefits play an important role in accomplishing this.

We urge lawmakers to recognize the important role PBMs play and work to protect it, not undermine it. In doing so, we'll ensure a happier, healthier, more productive workforce for all.

Protecting Pharmacy Benefits

As the "Voice for Business" in Southwest Michigan, we work tirelessly to represent our members, defend free enterprise, and promote pro-business policies at the local, state, and federal level. While this work often occurs behind the scenes, it is critically important to the growth and prosperity of our region.

The health and vitality of our workforce is another element that is critical to our collective success. Without healthy employees, our businesses cannot operate at their full potential, and our economy cannot thrive. Unfortunately, we believe recently proposed legislation has the potential to undermine this vital aspect of our economy.

The legislation we are tracking, House Bill 5338, would open the Pharmacy Benefit Manager Act for further regulation and we are concerned that the proposed changes would eliminate choice and increase costs for both businesses and consumers.

Health plan sponsors, including public and private employers, unions, retirees, and government programs, currently utilize Pharmacy Benefit Managers (PBMs) to offer affordable, high-quality health care and prescription drug coverage to their employees and their families.

PBMs, for those who are not familiar, are companies with unique expertise in navigating the specialized field of prescription drug benefit and delivery. They help negotiate with drug companies and pharmacies to lower drug costs; provide plan sponsors with a variety of coverage choices and flexibility to provide affordable prescription drug coverage to participants; and help sponsors navigate their coverage options to identify and select plans that best serve the needs of their participants.

Jane Ammeson has written about food and cooking in the region for many years and commented on Tim Foley's passing:

"Tim had such a passion for cooking, for his family and friends, and for life. He's the one who introduced French-style bread baking to the region and more, with the installation of the second French-manufactured bread oven in the U.S. He won coveted international awards, spent time in France learning to craft the perfect baguette, and was always open to learning and sharing. We will miss him terribly."

Numerous individuals paid tribute to Foley as a mentor in their hospitality careers, including Kelli Reeves-Hayes, owner of The Brick House in the Benton Harbor Arts District:

"Lots of sadness today for a lot of people that loved Tim Foley. My Mentor, my friend, and the best boss ever. Tim, this community will miss you so much. You were amazing."

Bit of Swiss had its beginning more than 55 years ago when Emil Tosi bought the bakery equipment from the closing of The Whitcomb Hotel in downtown St. Joseph. He renovated a cabin on the Tosi property and called his baker friend, Hans Kottman, and said, "The Bakery is ready!" Kottman opened Bit of Swiss Pastry Shoppe in 1967.

In 1987 Pat and Tim Foley purchased the bakery and owned it for the next 35 years. Having met in San Francisco in culinary school, the two made their way to Stevensville making the transition from aspiring chefs to aspiring bakers. Their efforts resulted in national and international awards for their bakery creations.

In 2022, the Foley's sold Bit of Swiss to longtime employees Jessica and Jose Hernandez who have maintained the tradi-www.MailMaxOnline.com tions and recipes of the bakery. Since then, Foley focused on the casual upscale Bread+Bar on Riverview Drive, featuring an eclectic menu amid a contemporary vibe.

Tim Foley's funeral is scheduled Wednesday, May 1 at St. Joseph Catholic Church. Visitation is Tuesday, April 30 at Starks & Menchinger Chapel in St. Joseph. Time to be determined and posted at www.starksfamilyfh.com www.MailMaxOnline.com is told what the essay topic will be, and then they're given time to write their entry. The topic this year was 'mental health and how schools respond to mental health'. Fee says the students showed a lot of insight. "I think we as adults underestimate how knowledgeable and how much experience our students have, whatever the topic is, but particularly I think with mental health, I think the way youth today experience mental health and how it's discussed and the openness of it amongst their peers is very different from how we as adults have experienced mental health issues at that age," Fee said. Fee says Berrien County has some talented young essayists.

The top prize winner this year was Marina Ferreira, a senior at Lakeshore High School. She received a $1,000 scholarship. Second prize, with a $750 scholarship, went to Hannah Webb, a senior at St. Joseph High School. Third place, with a $500 scholarship, went to Kaylee Bradshaw, a senior at Grace Christian School.

United Way volunteer scholarships awarded

The United Way of Southwest Michigan has announced the winners of its Volunteer United Youth Scholarship Awards. One scholarship goes to a youth from each of the United Way's service counties – Berrien, Cass, and Van Buren – who have demonstrated a commitment to volunteerism in their community. The winner for Berrien County is Sawyer Lundberg of Niles High School. The United Way says he's volunteered at the hospital in Niles, helping patients and staff with whatever is needed and using his art to encourage the hospital team.

The Van Buren County winner is Tiyanna Covington of Hartford High School. She started a tutoring program at Hartford Middle School called "Helping Hand" and was later recognized at the Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America state competition for her efforts. Cass County's winner is Addyson Wrigley of Edwardsburg High School. Her favorite volunteer event thus far has been "Operation Christmas" during which the National Honor Society's members provided a great Christmas for a local family. The United Way of Southwest Michigan says the winners were selected by a panel of their peers.

Real Resurrection

[Jesus said] "Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see, a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see I have." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Luke 24:39-43

The early disciples must have wondered if Jesus was a ghost when he rose from the dead. It would have made sense to them. They had seen him die, and they had seen him buried, so if he were to come back from the dead, it would have to be as a spirit.

Jesus demonstrated to them that he had risen from the dead in far more than spirit. He had them touch his body. He showed them the hands and feet that had been nailed to the cross. He ate real food. Jesus had risen from the dead with both soul and body.

In these modern days there are people who insist that Jesus could not actually have risen from the dead. After all, no one does that, right? People are willing to consider the possibility that there are ghosts and even willing to consider the idea of zombies, but they are unwilling to believe that people can rise from the dead, body and soul.

Jesus did rise from the dead, body and soul, and he made it clear that everyone who believes in him will do the same. On judgment day, believers in Jesus will have their real souls reunited with their real bodies in a glorified form, unable to sin anymore.

Because Jesus lives, we too shall live.

Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank you for your promise of real resurrection. Amen.

Notice of Public Hearings to Establish Special Assessment

for Rubbish/Recycling Collection

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE That the Bridgman City Council, City of Bridgman, Berrien County, Michigan, will hold a public hearing on the establishment of a City-wide Special Assessment District for Rubbish/Recycling Collection. Two (2) separate public hearings will be held at Bridgman City Hall, 9765 Maple St., Bridgman, MI 49106 on the following dates: Monday, April 15, 2024, at 5:30 p.m., & Monday, May 6, 2024, at 6:30 p.m.

Properties are proposed to be assessed in the amount of $172.80 for each individual residential unit at the parcel for the first year of the assessment, which amount is the cost of providing rubbish/recycling services per residential unit for the first year of services. The special assessment is proposed to run concurrent with the terms of the contract for rubbish/recycling collection between the City and Lakeshore Recycling and Disposal, appearing first on the July 2024 tax bill and ending with the July 2028 tax bill.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE That the City will hold the first public hearing on Monday, April 15, 2024, at 5:30 p.m. at the City Hall, 9765 Maple Street, Bridgman, MI 49106, at which time the City Council will consider whether to proceed with the creation of a City-wide special assessment district to pay for rubbish/recycling, what the assessment covers for rubbish/recycling services, whether to direct the City Treasurer to prepare a final special assessment roll, and to hear public comments, including objections. Citizens wishing to comment on the special assessment may do so by attending the meeting in person, by emailing comments to Christine Fisher, City Clerk at cfisher@bridgman.org, placed in the drop-box, or by mail or in person at City Hall, 9765 Maple St., Bridgman, MI 49106.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that all cost estimates and related documents are on file with the City Clerk for public examination. An owner or person having an interest in the real property may file a written appeal of the special assessment with the State Tax Tribunal, PO Box 30232, Lansing, MI 48909, within 30 days after the confirmation of the special assessment roll if that special assessment was protested at the hearing held for the purpose of confirming the roll.

This notice is posted in compliance with the Michigan Open Meeting Act, Public Act 267 of 1976, MCL 15.261, et seq., and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Individuals with disabilities requiring auxiliary aids should contact the City Clerk by writing or calling the following: Christine Fisher, City Clerk (269) 465-5144, 9765 Maple St., Bridgman, MI 49106.
