FROM BANK JANITOR TO BANK PRESIDENT

Tumbleweed Smith

When Curtis Nelson was in high school at Melvin he played guard on the football team.

“At that time Melvin had the longest winning streak: 31 wins without a loss,” says Curtis. “For two years at home games no one scored on Melvin.

Tumbleweed Smith

At age fourteen, while in the eighth grade, he got a job as janitor at the bank in Melvin.

“By the ninth grade I had a key to the bank and the combination to the vault. I did that for four years at a dollar a day.”

When he graduated from high school he had no interest in college. He just wanted to be a banker. He borrowed 175 dollars from the bank, bought a car, left town and found a job at a bank in Houston.

“I was there three years. They were real good to me in Houston. They let me do everything in the bank by the time I was twenty-one.”

That same year, when he was 21, he went to Port Lavaca where a new bank was getting organized.

“I hired all the employees, bought all the equipment and stayed at that bank until I was forty three. I became president of that bank and was president for a good long while.”

At age forty-three, a close friend his same age had a heart attack. He didn't want that to happen to him. So he left the banking business.

“I had always been renting land, running cows. I started buying and selling land and putting in subdivisions. Over the years I've had thirty-eight farms and ranches and sixteen subdivisions in Texas, New Mexico and Colorado.”

Curtis has three children and gave each one a ranch. “So I'm working for them now.”

While he was living in Lubbock and Santa Fe he was on his way to Wimberley when he went through Brady and saw a house he liked. It had a for sale sign in the yard. He called a realtor and within an hour the house was his.

“I like it very well. I enjoy it. It covers a whole block. It has ornamental iron fences all around it, two guesthouses and a large meal building. I was born in the hospital here in Brady now after seeing the world and doing everything I'm back within five blocks from where I was born. That's what you call getting back to your roots.”

Jane Faye Willis

Jane Faye Willis, 81, of Sulphur Springs, Texas, passed away on May 12, 2024. Jane was formerly of McKinney, Texas where she spent her childhood and most of her adult life. She moved to Sulphur Springs in 2015 to be close to her family. She was fondly referred to as Aunt Jane by her nieces, nephews, and other special family members.

Jane was a caretaker to many in her lifetime. She took care of her parents and many elderly friends and relatives. She was always ready to take them out to eat at their favorite restaurants. After moving to Sulphur Springs, she befriended neighbor ladies and Sunday School friends. She enjoyed meeting for lunches and dinners in her favorite restaurants.

She is survived by her brothers and sisters-in-law, Charles and Rita Willis of Van Alstyne, Texas, and Jimmy and Karen Willis of Sulphur Springs, Texas. Jane is also survived by nieces, nephews and spouses: BJ and Kelly Willis, Kim Willis Edwards, Holly and Chad Folmar, and Brad and Holly Willis. Her great-nieces Loryn Willis Meyer, Lindsay Willis, Chloe Willis, and Carson Folmar McCubbin, and great-nephews, Ty Crump, Toby Crump, Zach Willis, and Cole Willis also survive. She also has three great-great nieces Jade Crump, Charlie Crump, and Rhyndee Meyer.

She leaves behind a special best friend, Patricia Morgan, known as Ms. Pat to the family and as "Patricia" to Jane. She began as a caretaker after a hospital stay for Jane and soon became a best friend.

Jane was preceded in death by her parents, Frieda (Holman) and Jim Alfred Willis; her grandparents, AJ and Bessie Willis and Fred and Merle Holman; and her great-nephew, Carson Bradley Hicks.

Jane attended McKinney schools and graduated from McKinney High School in 1961. She was a member of Forest Grove Christian Church in Fairview, Texas, and after moving to Sulphur Springs she attended the First Baptist Church of Sulphur Springs. She worked at Neiman Marcus, Texas Instruments, and Honeywell in Dallas, Texas. Jane enjoyed riding and showing horses in her early years, spending time driving her dad to look at cattle and horses, and later loved to watch her great-nephews and nieces in sporting events and youth rodeos. She loved to drive the countryside on a pretty day.

A graveside service will be held on Wednesday, May 15, 2024, at Pecan Grove Cemetery in McKinney, Texas, at 3:00 p.m. with her church friend, Gary Rodenbaugh, officiating. Visitation will be held at 2:30 p.m. prior to the service. She will be laid to rest by her loving parents. Pallbearers will be BJ Willis, Brad Willis, Chad Folmar, Ty Crump, Toby Crump, Zach Willis, and Cole Willis.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Carson Hicks Memorial Scholarship Fund at City National Bank, P.O. Box 495, Sulphur Springs, TX 75482.
