Lest We Forget to mark D-Day 80th Anniversary June 22 at Tiscornia Beach

Southwest Michigan's Lest We Forget organization is planning a huge D-Day Reenactment to mark the 80th Anniversary of the Allies World War II invasion of the Normandy beaches in France. It will all happen at St. Joseph's Tiscornia Beach, with associated activities at Southwest Michigan Regional Airport on Saturday, June 22 and Sunday, June 23.

Larry Wozniak is the president of Lest We Forget and has been involved in the impressive reenactments for years. Larry gave us a detailed overview of the plans and we share it with you here:

June marks the 80th Anniversary of the assault on the beaches of Normandy. Codenamed Operation Neptune and often referred to as D-Day, it was the largest sea-borne invasion in history. Lest We Forget will stage battles on the shores of Tiscornia Beach on Saturday, June 22.

Action begins at 9:00 a.m. with music provided by the Southwest Michigan Symphony Orchestra, a parachute flag drop and an inspection of the grounds by German High Command. As planes fly overhead, simulated bombs provided by Lance Hazen and his Great Lakes Effects Co. team will prepare

The Pet Corner

Anyone who has attended the Berrien County Youth Fair is probably familiar with the many 4-H clubs in our area. There are clubs for everything from horsemanship to crafts, home economics, woodworking, and large and small animals. You may not be as familiar with the Best Friends 4-H club. They have existed in the area since 1988 and would like you to know they are still active and looking for new members. The pandemic slowed participation, but new programs are in place and the club would love to increase their membership.

Best Friends 4-H members learn about dog training and owner responsibility and participate in competitions for Dog Obedience, Agility, Rally, and Jr. Showmanship. They are starting to train and compete for Scent work. The club is inclusive and is open to nontraditional (those with a life disability) and traditional members. New members are welcome to join year-round. Best Friends is also in need of more volunteer leaders to help with the programs.

Recognized by the American Kennel Club as the only Canine Therapy Dog Competition in the U.S., Best Friends 4-H has a therapy program that takes members to visit schools, hospitals, and nursing homes as well as libraries. They hold Book Hound events (kids reading to dogs) at schools and libraries.

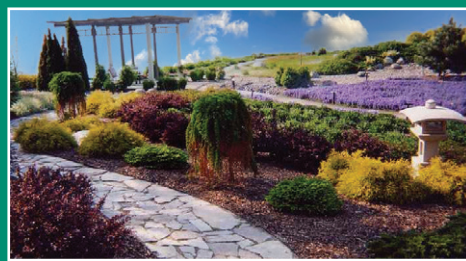

Seminars at Andrews University educate future teachers and nurses about the value of such therapy programs. Club canines are eligible for AKC Therapy Dog titles.

Best Friends Summer Dog Project Training begins in June to prepare for the fair, so if you are interested, please check their website: <https://www.bf4hclub.com> for further information on how to join the club. There is a wealth of articles available on the website to tell you more about the club and its programs. If you have a child interested in learning about dog training and competition, don't hesitate to contact Best Friends through their website. You must be a member of Berrien County 4-H to join Best Friends.

The spring shower of kittens is still in full swing, as witnessed by the many kittens and older cats available for adoption through Animal Aid at the Senior Expo in Benton Harbor and Farmers Market in Bridgman last week. To help find forever homes for them, Animal Aid will make an appearance at the Market over the summer. They've also partnered with Mason Jar in the Arts District of Benton Harbor to hold Kittens at the Café on Sundays 1-3pm. Come see the sweet babies and older pets in need of a family. If you do adopt, please be sure to have your new furry friend spayed or neutered as soon as they are old enough.

Here are items that local rescues need: kitten replacement milk, chicken baby food (for kittens just getting on solid food), cat and kitten food (wet and dry). Of course, monetary donations are always appreciated to help with the vet bills. This link will take you to the Amazon wishlist page where you'll find many needed items: <https://rb.gy/jpd9kf>. You can always leave donations in the bins at the Paw Mart pet store, too. Thank you to all the volunteers and fosters who work long hours saving the lives of homeless pets.

Loved by God

*Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God.
1 John 4:7 (ESV)*

Do you feel loved? It feels great to be loved. It feels wonderful to be hugged by our grandkids, comforted by our spouse, and cared for by our parents. But what about the other times? The times when our spouse is too preoccupied with work to pay attention to us? The times when we work so hard to take care of our kids, and they don't even acknowledge it with a thank you or a hug as they head out the door to their next activity? The times when the boss fails to recognize our contributions to the company? The times when we look in the mirror and don't love what we see?

It is not easy to feel loved in this world or even love ourself. In fact, it is far easier to feel unloved, unappreciated, and unnoticed. These feelings can quickly spiral downward and lead us to despair, depression, and feelings of worthlessness.

In moments like these, remember that God loves you. The people in our lives may pay us little attention or give us no outward affections of love, but the God of all creation not only knows us, but says we are objects of his love. And he showed his love to us in a way that no one else ever has or ever could. To demonstrate just how loved we are, God sent his Son, Jesus, into the world to live and die for us. Jesus gave his life in our place on the cross and paid for all our sins, forever removing the eternal punishment they deserved. He did all this because God loved us and did not want us to be lost forever.

So regardless of how others may feel about you, take comfort in knowing that you are loved by God. And that will never change! God's love for you is always constant in Christ Jesus.

Prayer: Dear Father in heaven, thank you for loving me and sending Jesus to die in my place. Enable me to now live in your love. Amen.

Chamber Day at the Capitol

This past Tuesday, May 14th, your Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber and Greater Bridgman Area Chamber & Growth Alliance team spent the day in Lansing for the 2024 Chamber Day at the Capitol. This event is hosted yearly by the Michigan Chamber and provides an opportunity for businesses and fellow Chambers in the state of Michigan to convene in Lansing to hear what's happening in the advocacy and government affairs realm.

The idea behind Chamber Day at the Capitol is to provide new perspectives, challenges and opportunities across the state. This unique event – the Michigan Chamber's spin on a "lobby day" – brought together over 160 different business leaders, government affairs professionals and local and regional chamber of commerce professionals to interact with policymakers about key issues facing Michigan employers and communities while exploring what's next for our Great Lakes State.

Held at Heritage Hall, the event and meeting space attached to the Capitol, the day started bright and early with Donuts Under the Dome, which brought together Michigan business leaders, legislators, and key department staff and stakeholders to network, mingle, and enjoy a donut from East Lansing's very own Groovy Donuts. Those of us in attendance were able to use this opportunity to network across sectors to put a face to a name and expand our 21st century rolodex!

Once the official program began we were welcomed by the Michigan Chamber President & CEO Jim Holcomb and then went immediately into a Politics & Predictions panel which featured some of Michigan's top political pundits. This session focused on the current political climate, and how the November election will impact our state. Speakers on that panel included: Moderator, Lauren Gibbons, Capitol Reporter for Bridge Michigan; Jill Alper, President, Alper Strategies; Jason McBride, Senior Vice President of Strategic Accounts, Majority Strategies; Steven Ostrow, Vice President, Arena; Alexis Wiley, Founder and CEO, Moment Strategies.

Next up we heard from the Democratic legislative leadership from both the House of Representatives and the Senate who shared their priorities for the remainder of the session year, provided an update on what Michigan businesses can expect in the coming months, and touched on their time as a fully Democratic leadership team. That panel included: Winnie Brinks, Senate Majority Leader; Sam Singh, Senate Majority Floor Leader; Joe Tate, House Speaker; Abraham Aiyash, House Majority Floor Leader.

After lunch we were joined by Republican leaders in the House of Representatives and Michigan Senate who outlined key issues they've identified in the state, while touching on goals and election expectations moving into a highly anticipated House race and Presidential election year. Those panelists included: Aric Nesbitt, Senate Republican Leader; Dan Lauwers, Senate Republican Floor Leader; Matt Hall, House Republican Leader; Bryan Posthumus, House Republican Floor Leader.

The morning wrapped up with a keynote address from Neil Bradley, EVP, Chief Policy Officer & Head of Strategic Advocacy, U.S. Chamber of Commerce who touched on the what-ifs of the November election outcomes. Neil also provided a positive outlook on the state of the business economy throughout the country and highlighted the importance of Michigan's businesses in the success of the US as a whole.

Before heading out to tour the Capitol building and chat with State Rep Joey Andrews, the MI Chamber Board of Directors Chair, Mike Puerner, Chief Legal Officer, Hastings Mutual Insurance Company closed the official Chamber Day at the Capitol session for us. During his closing remarks, Mike shared the long list of Michigan companies that have been around for 100+ years and are continuing to go strong and the importance of tending to the garden of all businesses no matter the size to create a strong economy.

Overall, the day provided us an opportunity to: hear forecasts for what to expect in 2025 and beyond; highlight Southwest Michigan and our amazing businesses to other groups across the state; and provided a much needed opportunity for face-to-face time with our state legislatures on both sides of the aisle.

“I did not want to take a benefit away from another vet.”

My journey to the Berrien County Veterans Service office was different than most. I joined the Air Force in 2003, right out of high school and experienced two tours in the Middle East where I was exposed to the harsh realities of war at a young age. Upon discharge, I just wanted to come home to re-start my life. I had some amazing job opportunities throughout my working career, however nothing seemed to be a good fit. I left several companies that most people would fight years to get into; I just could not find my peace.

Eventually I started my own small excavation company and learned that working alone was a blessing for me, although business ownership can be very stressful at times. I came to the realization that life for me was manageable as long as I stayed busy. Just when I thought I had it all figured out this unpredictable world unfortunately involved me in yet another tragic event that sent my mental health into a tailspin.

Thankfully some caring people in my circle were looking out for me and contacted the Berrien County Veteran Service Office on my behalf because they knew I would never make the call myself. The Veteran Service Officer (VSO) at Berrien contacted me and honestly went above and beyond to help me get engaged with the South Bend Vet Center where a talented counselor who specializes in PTSD helped me get my life back on track.

My world transformed from believing I was best alone and busy to becoming a part of an amazing veteran community that I didn't even know existed. I've even had the opportunity to help other vets as a commissioner for the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Act; all due to a call to my local Veteran Service Office.

Cuttin' Up with Nicks*
(*Nicknames)

It has come to my attention that I may owe you readers something of an apology. I've been told that a lot of columns have run lately over my byline purporting to be "about" baseball, when close inspection reveals their connection to the sport is wispier than a tiny wafer-thin mint!

I'm sorry about this. I guess that's what I get for having those recent columns authored by A.I.

"A.I." in this case referring to former major league ballplayer Alex Infante. (Alex is one of only two players in the history of the sport to have the initials A.I. He is also by far the lesser of the two, as he concluded his career with a .109 batting average, which, if you find baseball statistics numbing and obscure, is even more wispy than a tiny wafer-thin mint.)

This week, I take back the reins and write this column myself. With another non-baseball baseball column about interesting names and nicknames! – I know! Exciting, right?!?!)

I'll start with player names that don't exactly reek of good baseball vibes. For example, no one wants to go the ballpark when it (Tim) Raines, or it's (Chuck) Rainey.

Fans could feel a little uneasy about the team's chances for victory if the lineup were to include Blas Minor ("blahs" and "minor," oy!); Mike Butcher; Aaron Bummer; Doug Strange; Don Bosch.

There are quite a few nicknames in that same dispiriting vein, along with scads more that are just, shall we say, less than complimentary: Crash Landing Bradley; Balk Bochtler; Clank Blefary; Ding Dong Bell; Fat Elvis Berkman; Weasel Bessent; Old Shufflefoot Boudreau; Dirt Tidrow; Old Aches and Pains Appling; Squints Cecil.

Problems with lower extremities must've affected these guys: Corns Bradley, Gimpy Brown, Slewfoot Butler (I had to look up "slewfoot"; now I know that it means , overly large, turned out, or clumsy feet.)

Charlie Hickman was not at all fleet of foot, and thus got nicknamed "Piano Legs." On the flip side of that equation was Sam Byrd. His biggest claim to major league fame was as a defensive replacement and pinch runner for the immortal George Herman Ruth, which led to his nickname – "Babe Ruth's Legs."

In one of the better mixed metaphors I stumbled across while researching this column was this description of outfielder Eddie Brown: "His

www.MailMaxOnline.com
Achilles' heel was the oft-noted weakness of his throwing arm." So, what should we be worried about? – his heel or his wing? Anyway, to his fellow major leaguers, anyone with a throwing arm deemed "utterly useless in a baseball way" got tagged with the nickname Eddie sported -- "Glass Arm" Brown.

More "Guys With Nicknames That Do NOT Inspire Enthusiasm": Pigpen Byrnes; Rube Walker, Rube Ellis, Rube Wahlberg, Rube Bressler, Rube Vickers. . .ok, let's just stipulate, any player named "Rube"; Ding-a-Ling Clay. . . who had another less-than-inspiring nickname as well – Sniffy; Bozo Cicotte; Whoops Creeden; Dim Dom Dallesandro; Dingle Croucher; Wacko Dauer; Bat Boy Davies; and Brat Stanky.

Let's wrap on a "up note"! As in, I cracked up when I learned this one: In the mid-1970s, there was a pitcher known as Mark "The Bird" Fidyrych. Which led to another mid-1970s pitcher being tabbed Doug "The Fidyrych" Bird.

After the morning D-Day Reenactment, action continues Saturday afternoon with a focus on the South Pacific War.

The Battle of Saipan was an amphibious assault launched by the United States against the Empire of Japan during the Pacific campaign of World War II, between 15 June and 9 July 1944. At 1:00 p.m. on Saturday a reenactment of this battle will take place. During the time between these two battles there will be a Flamethrower demonstration by Katie Gromlovits and WWII stories.

WWII veterans and their families will have reserved VIP seating at Tiscornia Beach. RSVP by calling 269-429-2098.

The Lest We Forget event is FREE for everyone and is family focused on Education. Lest We Forget is funded through fundraisers, grants and donations. Past annual Lest We Forget productions have focused on World Wars I & II, Korea, Vietnam, the United States Navy, Women in Service and the Cold War. Dave Ramsey

Financial Expert
The Ramsey Show

Dave Says
The Walking Debt

Dear Dave,
A few years ago, I had a real problem with credit card debt. Since then, I've gotten much better at handling my money, and I'm making about $80,000 a year. Two weeks ago, I received a letter about a credit card I had in 2020. The amount owed is $7,688. The letter doesn't say I'm being sued, but it says I have to appear before a judge in two months for a pretrial conference. I live in Florida, and I've never heard of anything like this. I only have $1,000 in savings.

Damari
Dear Damari,
I'm glad to hear you're handling your finances better now than you did in the past. But at this point, you're learning that old debts don't necessarily die, aren't you? Ignoring debts isn't a good plan, because many times they come back to life like a zombie and come looking for you.

I'm not an expert on Florida law, but a pretrial conference in a case like this—over a $7,688 credit card bill—is highly unusual. I've been helping people with money problems for 30 years, and I've never heard of anything like this. It could be some kind of new tactic the collections attorney is using to try to intimidate you.

If I were in your shoes, I'd call the attorney who's suing you and try to negotiate a payment plan or settlement. Do you have anything you can sell? Because I've got a feeling if you can come up with $3,000 or so and offer it as payment in full, they'll take it. I don't mean to be unkind, but these guys figure you're a deadbeat because you've got a 5-year-old debt hanging over your head and haven't tried to pay it. They'll take almost anything they can get at this point.

In general, when you go to court over a situation like this, you're going to lose. You have a legal debt, and you haven't paid it. It's that simple. So, if you don't have anything to sell to make some money that way, you need to get busy working an extra job or two. I'm talking about doing Door Dash or something—in the morning before work or in the evening after work. Kiss those weekends goodbye too. Just go nuts for a few weeks, and make a bunch of extra money fast.

It won't be easy, and you're going to be dog-tired for a while. But you can scrape together $3,000–4,000 before June easily if you'll just put your head down and make it happen. Then, offer it up to the attorney. Demand a written release, with the debt declared settled and paid in full, and chances are, this thing will be off your back!

— Dave
