A & M'S MARITIME ACADEMY IS ALL ABOUT THE SEA

Tumbleweed Smith

"The ocean is our campus, is what they always like to say."

Jason Tieman is with A & M's Maritime Academy on Pelican Island near Galveston. It draws a unique type of student.

"Any kind of student that has a passion for anything marine or maritime related," he says. "So whether it's busi-Tumbleweed Smith ness, operating sea-going vessels, supply chain management, marine sciences, marine biology, any of the studies about the impact that we have on the environment in the maritime world, this campus hosts all of that." Some twenty-two hundred students are enrolled.

"As a freshman you're going to be taking the basic English, history, chemistry classes, then when you get into the higher level stuff you're learning how to do celestial navigation, you're learning thermodynamics or whatever the industry path you're on dictates."

Jason says of all the A & M graduates, the ones from the Maritime Academy get some of the highest paying jobs.

"We have a lot of industries that come and recruit from our campus. They like our students. There's something to be said about having students that are working in environments that are tough because you're dealing with more challenges all the time than in a normal operation. Anything that's done on the water costs ten times more than doing it on land because of all the extreme environments you're working in."

The academy is one of only seven universities in the world that offers a degree in deep sea diving. Research facilities on the campus concentrate on sea turtles and large migratory game fish.

"We've got a small boat marina here with all sorts of research vessels; everything from a seventy foot catamaran down to small outboard fishing boats. They go out in the bays and do sampling and monitoring and all kinds of research."

The academy has a full size ship, the Kennedy, that is manned by students twenty-four hours a day even when it's docked at the campus port. It takes 600 students out to sea every summer. A new ship, The Lone Star State will arrive this year. A lot of former students remember the Texas Clipper, the first ship that served as the dorm and classroom before the full campus was completed. Some of those early maritime graduates come back to lecture to the students. The academy has some side benefits.

"Of course there's Galveston. And if you like fishing we've got some of the best fishing right off our docks here."

A & M points out that seventy-one percent of the world is ocean and ninety percent of what we wear, eat, use and drive travels on oceans and inland waterways.

Mary Ross August 15, 1935 — May 17, 2024

Mary Undene Thomas Ross who was affectionately known as “Sue” a childhood nickname was born August 15, 1935 in Hopkins County, the daughter of Britt and Elizabeth Nash Thomas. She was one of 18 siblings of a blended family. She was baptized at an early age, and after moving to town from the East Caney Community in 1944, she united with Morning Chapel Missionary Baptist Church where she served faithfully in many capacities until her health began to fail. She served as the Sunshine Band Leader, Junior Red Circle, an Intercessory Prayer Warrior, a Devoted Sunday School Teacher of the Naomi Women’s Sunday School Class, and Church Mother. .

She was a graduate of Douglas High School, and attended Bishop College in Marshall, Texas. She married Lloyd Ross, and to this union two children were born: LaNelle (Horace), and Kenneth. To know Mary was to know she had a passion for sewing. Taught by her mother at an early age. A dream fulfilled when she, and husband Lloyd opened a fabric store, and named it Cutting Corners Fabrics. For 10 years Cutting Corners provided extraordinary value and selection to their customers, and meaningful personal relationships with their customers were maintained throughout the years.

A recent newspaper article highlighted Mary, her life, her passions, and many achievements, but most will remember her as someone who genuinely cared about people. To her family she was a family historian, and would often share stories from times past. She had a passion for researching people, places, cultures, heritage and the context of where and when her ancestors originated.

Mary is survived by her children, 3 grandchildren; Lance Wilson (Ebony), Ayanna Garvie, and Kendra Ross, 6 great grandchildren; Rhythm Ross, London Williamson, Ruby Wilson, Sophie Wilson, Mackenzie Simmons, and Nate Simmons. Sisters: Eunice Finney of Dallas, Texas, and Billye Lewis of Sulphur Springs, Texas, and a host of nieces, and nephews. Brief encounters that became meaningful relationships; CenterWell Home Health, Gentiva Hospice, The Charles Helm Family, and Mrs. Bonnie Huffstetler, who held a special place in her heart.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Lloyd, 10 brothers, and 5 sisters, 1 daughter in law: Daphne Ross, 1 granddaughter: Delecia Simmons, and 1 great grandchild: KynMori Ross.

Gene (Alvin Eugene) Crist August 31, 1944 — May 14, 2024

A funeral service for Gene (Alvin Eugene) Crist, age 79 of Cumby, TX was held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, 2024 at Murray Orwosky Funeral Home in Sulphur Springs, TX with Bro. Wayne Darty officiating. Interment followed at Shooks Chapel with Calvin Perry, Hunter Crist, Samuel Perry, Elijah Perry, Jack Ragland, Sean Walker, John Horsley, and Lil Gene Walker serving as pallbearers. They were married for 56 years and had two children, many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, to whom Gene meant the world, to. He was lovingly known as “Dad” to all of them. He was also loved and adored by his sisters, brother, nieces, and nephews. Gene served in the U.S. Army as an E-5 Sergeant for the 167th Signal Company during the Vietnam War. He maintained close friendships with his “brothers” from the 167th Company over the years. Gene worked as an Engineer at several Corporations during his career including Lockheed Martin, SureStart, Murdock, and Legend Aircraft. His co-workers and other retirees at Legend Aircraft became very special life-long friends. They too were like “brothers” to him.

Gene is survived by his wife of 56 years, Patsy; son, Fred Crist and wife Wanda; daughter, Jeannie Walker and husband James Walker; grandchildren, Calvin Perry, Cristine Crist, Hannah Ragland and husband Jack, Rebecca Horsley and husband John, Samuel Perry, Donna Walker and husband Sean Walker, Elijah Perry and wife Rachel, Sarah Perry, Hunter, Crist, Wesley Mayeux and wife Payton, Collin Mayeux; great-grandchildren, Jasmine, Miley, Benjamin, Malachi, Olivia, Lil Gene, Layton, Landry, Lawsyn; sisters, Bertha Owens and husband Mike, Mary Alice Benton and husband John, Alva Branson; and brother, Arthur Barnes.

Let's take time to remember all of the soldiers who have valiantly defended our freedom in all wars and conflicts, suffered injuries and made the ultimate sacrifice for the cause of democracy. May we treasure the rich heritage of freedom they have fought so bravely for.
