A Fun-Filled Calendar of Summer Events in St. Joseph

There's no better place to be anywhere on Earth than right here in Michigan's Great Southwest in the summer! Everywhere you turn, there are fun things to do, beautiful scenes to see and photograph, and wonderful people to meet and enjoy as friends for life. While business news is our focus, life in Michigan's Great Southwest is our passion at www.MoodyOnTheMarket.com. We hope it's yours, too. And we hope your calendar is filling up with the 'summer magic' of Southwest Michigan!

Here are three 'bookend' events you'll certainly want to include.

Lake Breeze Music Festival July 6

The rich tradition of smooth, contemporary jazz on a summer night on St. Joseph's Silver Beach continues in 2024 with the Lake Breeze Music Festival on Saturday, July 6. The multi-artist festival brings together three of the brightest lights of the smooth jazz genre for a night of music as the sun sets over Lake Michigan.

Here is an overview of the musical artists:

- Gerey Johnson - Most recently as the touring guitarist with Richard Elliot, Rick Braun, and Euge Groove. Gerey has been on the contemporary jazz scene for years as a musician, songwriter, producer and record company executive. You've seen him with Boney James, Rick Braun, the Sax Pack, Down to the Bone, George Duke, Warren Hill, Paul Taylor, Eric Darius and many of the other top names in smooth jazz. With credits on over 85 nationally distributed records, you can hear his work on recordings from jazz artists like Richard Elliot, Rick Braun, Brian Culbertson, the "Sax Pack", and "Down To The Bone" to R&B artists such as Janet Jackson, Mary J. Bilge and Lisa Stansfield, to gospel acts such as Yolanda Adams.
- Carmen Stokes - Although her smooth piano fingers and dynamic stage persona draws fans, Carmen Stokes has maintained her over

Plagiarizing My Mom

Every year, around this time, I write about my mom, because of Mother's Day and her birthday, which aren't far apart.

It feels different since she's passed. For one thing, she can't give me any of her "Aw, shucks, you should write about something else." Which was gen-yu-ine shucks-ing, because my mother was right at the top of the list of "People Who Would NEVER Call Attention To Themselves."

Well, tough toenails mom; because I've determined that the tradition of our annual "Let's Embarrass Mom" column shall continue!

I turn for plagiarism - I mean, inspiration - to my Mom's "Grandparent Book" - a project she did for all her grandkids, which includes her personal answers to dozens of questions about her life and times.

Let's begin at the very beginning. The path that led to my Mom's co-authorship of this column began when she met my Dad, an encounter she describes thusly in her "Grandparent Book": "I met him on a blind date in March, 1946, when my dorm at DePauw University had a dance. The dancing area was so dark (one blue light bulb in the corner) that he asked me for another date in the daytime so we could see what each other looked like."

Fortunately she liked what she saw, or I suppose I wouldn't be here.

My Mom remembers this about her wedding day: "Rev. Carl Shafer, the assistant pastor, performed the ceremony, and it was his first wedding. He was young, and was so nervous that he could hardly hold his Bible, his hands were shaking so much."

Of course, Mom was a little excited by that day too, even 50 years later, when she wrote in her "Grandparent Book" that she was also "very neervous." (As a first-grade teacher for 26 years, and an impeccable speller, Mom was never happy I mentioned this. . .she usually grounded me for a few weeks.)

Mom had her five kids in slightly less than nine years, starting in a year I can't mention because it would reveal my big sister's age, and ending in a year I can't mention because it would reveal my little sister's age. And if I reveal them, they would both ground me for life.

Regardless, what happened from that first unmentionable year on became Mom's answer to the "Grandparent Book" question "What was your most important learning experience?" Mom answers, "Raising a family. We tried to be honest and decent parents. We wanted a healthy family, where we would like each other and have fun with each other. Even with disagreements and struggles and pain and frustrations, we could forgive and smile and love each other.

"We found much happiness, even though there were struggles and sacrifices and responsibilities along the way. There was joy and happiness in the course of our family life."

To appreciate what kind of person my Mom is, simply update these last few sentences to the present tense. Though her flesh is weak, her spirit still strives to reflect joy and happiness. She shows us her best effort to accept life gracefully and gratefully, reflecting one of her favorite sayings: "Good examples have more value than good advice."

Thanks, Mom, for your life of good examples. I love you.

Dry Bones to Living Hope

Then he said to me: "Son of man, these bones are the people of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.'"

Therefore prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: My people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you, my people, will know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves and bring you up from them.'
Ezekiel 37:11-13

The imagery of dry bones symbolizes the desolation and despair felt by the people of Israel during their exile to the country of Babylon. They believed their hope was lost, their identity cut off, and their future buried in the dust of defeat. Yet, amid this hopelessness, God speaks a powerful word of promise through the prophet Ezekiel.

God reveals to Ezekiel that these dry bones represent the people of Israel who feel spiritually and nationally dead. They have given up hope, feeling disconnected from their heritage and purpose. But God declares that he will intercede. He will open their graves, bring them back to their land, and restore their relationship with him.

Maybe you have experienced seasons of dryness like the Israelites. Your faith seemed empty, your hope evaporating, and your connection to God distant. You felt like those dry bones, disconnected from the life-giving source of God's presence and promises.

Yet, just as God promised restoration to Israel, he promises the same to you. He can breathe life into your dry bones, renewing your hope and reviving your faith. No situation is beyond his ability to restore and redeem. When you feel cut off and hopeless, God invites you to trust in his faithfulness.

God's promise of opening graves and bringing life from death is not just a historical event for Israel; it's relevant for you. In Jesus, you have the ultimate fulfillment of this promise. Jesus' resurrection shows God's power to bring life out of death, hope out of despair, and victory out of defeat.

Prayer: O Lord, you are the God of resurrection and restoration. Send me your Spirit to restore my soul and bring me to life eternal with you. Amen.

Krasl Art Fair July 13-14

The Krasl Art Fair on the Bluff is set for July 13 and 14 this year. Krasl Art Center Director Tami Fauver tells us the event will be a chance for everyone to stop by Lake Bluff Park and check out the work of a wide array of artists from all over the country. "We're going to have 172 artists from across the country sharing their artwork with the community," Fauver said. "We have on our grounds a bunch of community-centric events. So, we have an emerging artist tent, we have a faculty tent, we have some of our local organizations sharing their work and projects." The art fair will not charge for admission this year. During COVID, Krasl started charging for admission, but that has since ended. The St. Joseph City Commission suggested Krasl not charge for admission due to the event being held in a public park. Fauver says that's no problem, the organization will gladly and graciously accept donations from art fair patrons. "I think it's a matter of semantics. The Krasl

Art Fair has always been an event that supports the work of Krasl Arts Center year-round. This year, rather than having an admission, we will have a suggested donation. So, we do certainly ask that people attending the fair consider donating, and we'll have lots of ways for them to do that."

The starting suggested donation is $5. Fauver says those who enter will still be given a wrist band, and the area will be fenced off so organizers can keep track of attendance and easily organize the fair's layout. Nearly 23,000 people attended the fair last year.

Fauver notes tickets are on sale now for the Krasl Friday Night Block Party on July 12. That kicks off the fun with a celebration taking place from 5 to 9 p.m. on the Art Center grounds.

Dave Says

That's a Pretty Good Deal

Dear Dave,
I'm in college full-time right now, and my parents have been generous enough to pay for some of my school expenses. In addition, they let me live at home while I complete my degree. I work some nights and most weekends so I can go to school debt-free, but I'm trying to figure out how to move out on my own and continue working, while remaining a full-time student and attending career-related campus events. The cost of living is high in our area, so I'm having trouble figuring out how to make it all work. Do you have some advice?

Will
Dear Will,
You sound like a very driven and mature young man. Congratulations on everything you've been able to accomplish so far. I'm glad you're working hard in school with an eye toward the future. First off, out of the three considerations you mentioned—school, work, and cost of living—I think you need to decide which is your number one priority. If I were in your shoes, school would come first.

Now, to go to school without borrowing money, you're going to have to keep working. But finishing school on time, while attending some of the extracurricular events that will move you toward your career, might pre-empt work. You'll have to work enough to pay for things, but if you can finish school and hit your academic and graduation goals while staying at home just a little bit longer? That sounds like a winner to me. It's a pretty nice deal your parents are offering, but I can understand your desire to be out on your own, too.

I want you to be out on your own as soon as you can, as well. But if you do that right now, you're going to have extra bills and be forced to work even more. That's going to throw your entire school process out of whack. Guess what your number one priority was in that scenario? Right, moving out. If it's the tail that's wagging the dog, it has become the number one priority. If it's disrupting work, and thereby disrupting your academics, then in my mind you've put your focus on the wrong thing.

Your number one goal should be finishing school on time, while attending as many connected events as possible. Meanwhile, keep working enough so that you're able to continue doing all this debt-free. If that means you're staying at home a little bit longer to pull it off, I'd do it!

*Director,
Bridgman Chamber of Commerce and Growth
Alliance (Bridgman CGA)*

Bridgman Update

I am Nancy Kiernan, and it brings me great joy to serve as the Director for the Bridgman Chamber of Commerce and Growth Alliance (Bridgman CGA).

After spending my formative years in St. Joseph, surrounded by its charm and beauty, I am thrilled to be back in Southwest Michigan. Before returning to this region, my husband and I established and managed a used, rare, and out-of-print bookstore, followed by specialty toy stores on the Southside of Chicago.

Being both a parent and a business owner, community engagement naturally became an integral part of my life and a value that has shaped my professional journey. I have had the privilege of serving as an urban planner for three Chicago mayors and have earned certifications in urban planning (AICP) and sustainable design (LEED AP). I am proud to have been recognized as a leader in community development and establishing effective public-private partnerships.

These experiences have prepared me well for my role with the Bridgman CGA. Established in 2006, The Greater Bridgman Area Chamber of Commerce and Growth Alliance (CGA), Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit, member-driven organization that serves as the economic and community development arm of the City of Bridgman, Lake Charter Township, and the surrounding area. We are an affiliate of the Southwest Michigan Regional Chamber and operate from an office located within Bridgman City Hall at 9765 Maple St, Bridgman, MI 49106.

Our responsibilities cover a wide range of economic development activities, including spearheading initiatives for job creation and retention; developing industrial, residential, and commercial properties; placemaking efforts; and creating new mixed-use and residential developments.

At present, there are two ongoing residential developments in the City and the Township: Bridgman Trails and Hidden Creek. These projects aim to add roughly one hundred new homes to our area.

Additionally, we are excited about the emergence of new businesses such as Rising Kites Coffee, Lake Time Brewing and Spirits, and O & Co. We are also pleased to witness the expansion of the much-loved Lake Side Fit, along with the renovation of the American Legion Post 331. These venues will be available for both community residents and visitors to enjoy this summer.

In addition to these great amenities, visitors to our small Lake Michigan coastal community often find themselves pleasantly surprised by the numerous unexpected pleasures and fun activities available.

We invite everyone to join us on June 8th at Weko Beach for the Maker's Trail Festival, the biggest beach party of the season. On July 13th, we will celebrate Bridgman's history, businesses, and families with the 75th Birthday Bash in the delightful downtown area. Our unique shops, one-of-a-kind restaurants, and local craft beverage establishments will be part of the festivities.

For music enthusiasts, Bridgman boasts not one but two Summer Concert series; one at Weko Beach every Sunday evening, and another at the award-winning Bridgman Courtyard every Friday evening at 7 p.m. At the latter, you can even enjoy an adult beverage, courtesy of the Social District we established.

Whatever your interest, we look forward to welcoming you to our vibrant community and sharing the many experiences that await.
