COMING SOON: KT's Rasoi -- Authentic Indian Cuisine from an MBA in St. Joseph

Like most young people, when Thrijani Kantareddy moved away from her hometown for work, she missed the comforts of home – including her mom's cooking. She and her friends didn't have the money to go out to restaurants every night and fast food didn't satisfy, so she decided she would learn to cook. After Kantareddy had been at it for a relatively short time, her friends and family were amazed at the flavors she produced and the quality of the cuisine.

Fast forward through living in India, earning her MBA, moving to the United States, and performing contract work at Whirlpool Corporation, Kantareddy is now opening what's been her dream of owning and operating her own authentic Indian cuisine restaurant. It's called KT's Rasoi – which is her initials (KT) and the Indian word for kitchen (Rasoi).

"This has been my dream because I love cooking and I love to feed people tasty food. By God's grace, I have been gifted from my mom and grandmom because they are great cooks. So, I got that from them," Kantareddy said. "Whoever eats the food gives it a lot of compliments and that gave me this boost of, 'Okay why not start it in a commercial way?'"

Kantareddy said the idea to open a restaurant really came to life after shopping at Roger's Foodland. In the parking lot, she spotted an open storefront in the same complex with a 'Space Available' sign. She texted about the space, asking if a restaurant would work and that's when she found out it had previously been the New Hong Kong House restaurant that had permanently closed during the pandemic.

Asked about her specialties, Kantareddy said, "I like to cook Hyderabadi biryani. It's a cuisine influenced from the Middle Eastern

Ushering Summer with more events

After the hectic whirlwind that was the month of May, June started as a month where we can all catch our breath while still celebrating businesses and organizations in Southwest Michigan. That all changed and it's proven to be just as crazy as May was - and we wouldn't want it any other way!

Earlier this month we celebrated with the Village of Stevensville and Hollywood

Elementary for the first of many new Little Libraries with a ribbon cutting on Tuesday, June 4th. Then on Thursday, June 6th we joined Mike Villwock, his family, and team at Villwocks Outdoor Living in Berrien Springs for the official ribbon cutting ceremony for their new Dorothy & Al's Farm Market. Taking the name of Mike's grandparents with roots deep in the agricultural world, Mike is paying full tribute to their legacy.

This past Wednesday, June 12th our NextGen Young Professionals hosted a Cornhole Tournament at the Coloma/St. Joseph KOA Holiday which saw many of our next generation of leaders out enjoying themselves.

Looking ahead, we will be celebrating with The Boardwalk, Southwest Michigan's newest event venue with their open house and ribbon cutting celebration happening this Sunday, June 16th. The former Fraternal Order of Police lodge on Dillar Rd of M-139 has undergone a 2+ year dedicated renovation and transformation by husband-and-wife team of Matt & Kathryn.

After returning to the area during COVID, Kathryn discovered the property and had multiple "what if" discussions with Matt which ultimately led to the two purchasing the property and beginning the renovations. Together, they balance Matt's years of IT and construction background with Kathryn's design vision to bring a new guest experience to Southwest Michigan. Surrounded by 400+ acres of woods and farmland, The Boardwalk boasts a completely secluded private space on the riverfront with a variety of indoor and outdoor spaces to host celebrations in comfort and style.

On Tuesday, June 18th at 2:00 p.m. we are heading to the newest private gym in the area, with AIRA Fitness in downtown

Stevensville. Located inside the Village Square off John Beers Rd, owner and Southwest Michigan native Jacob Good, hopes that others will fall in love with fitness just like he has. His love for it is ultimately what motivated him to bring AIRA Fitness to his hometown and share his passion with the local community.

The 24/7 space allows members to have access to online booking and non-members can visit by appointment only and has a max of 5 members inside at one-time, providing a safe space to work out without the extra bodies. Which is perfect if you're just starting your fitness journey, or simply want to have the quiet that a home gym would offer, without the space needed for one.

On Wednesday, June 19th, we're teaming up with the crew from the Unified Civic Monuments Project for not one, but two groundbreaking ceremonies. The monuments celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and will help continue to bridge the gap between the twin cities of Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, as well as all Southwest Michigan. We'll first be gathering at the Dwight P. Mitchell City Center Park in Benton Harbor at 4:30 p.m. for the first groundbreaking, before heading over to the Margaret B. Upton Arboretum for the St. Joseph groundbreaking at 5:30 p.m.

If that's not enough we'll be heading to Ravitron in downtown Benton Harbor for our Business After Hours on Thursday, June 20th from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. Dave Ravitch has an evening of local flavors and community vibes planned with local beverages and BBQ from Lark's. You can't go wrong with any of this!

Dave Says

Think, Pray...and Find Your Calling

Dear Dave,
My husband and I have been very blessed financially over the course of our lives. We make a little over $200,000 a year combined, and we currently have a net worth of around $4 million. But what do you do when you're not motivated by that kind of thing anymore?

How do you find and live out God's purpose for your life, when you've already had a better life than you ever expected?

Amanda
Dear Amanda,
I can't tell you what your calling is, but I can say this. There's a lot of fulfillment and joy to be found when you're doing something that serves the people and things in your life that matter most.

If you've studied psychology a bit, you may remember something called Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs. Basically, it says once your physiological and safety needs have been met, you begin to feel the need to find other things to motivate you. It sounds like you're both hard-working, performance-driven people. I am, too. And people like us get our relaxation, and even fulfillment, away from work in different ways than most people.

If I were in your shoes, I'd start trying to think about ways you can serve other people or causes you care about. Maybe there were dreams you had a long time ago, and you put them aside for your career. What really speaks to you right now, at this stage of your life? For you, if you have kids in the house, it might mean becoming a stay-at-home mom and really pouring yourself into them. It might mean starting an animal shelter, or providing meals for people who are homebound. Everyone has dreams, and everyone's dreams are different.

It sounds like you've been thinking about this for a while, so here's my advice to you. Take a day, or even a weekend, all to yourself. Get away from everything and everyone—any and all outside distractions—and think about your future self. Bring along things to eat and drink, a bunch of notepads, pencils and a Bible. Then, before you do anything else, take a deep breath, relax and pray.

From that point on, be completely honest with God and with yourself. Open up your heart and mind to things you care about www.MailMaxOnline.com and all the possibilities. You have to have a goal that's worthy in mind, and that's the one thing that's missing. But a time of thoughtful prayer—and yes, even daydreaming—may just put you closer to an answer than you've ever been before.

Congratulations on your success, Amanda. You and your husband truly have been blessed. But now, it may be the time to become a blessing to others!

 countries. Although biryani is available in all parts of India, there are various kinds. Hyderabadi biryani, you can say... it's the king of biryanis."
 KT's Rasoi will also serve samosa, dosa, butter chicken, uttapam, idly, vada, masala chai, and mango lassi. In addition to the traditional Indian foods, the chai and lassi are beverages frequently found in South Asia and Indian culture.

"The key part here is... making fresh food, always people like it. Even if it makes them wait for a couple of minutes, it comes with a genuine taste. It comes with a true value of that authenticity. With that mindset, we have limited our menu."

Kantareddy's husband Lax is also involved in the operations – helping with everything from marketing to making sure the dining room is ready.

"We are very excited because this being (our) first venture. I just can't wait to see how people take it and come in here. I don't want to be overly optimistic, but then I do want to be an optimistic person where I want people to come in here, and I want to see the crowd here. I want to see that overwhelming response from people," said Lax.

In addition to starting up the restaurant, the Kantareddys have just secured approval from the City of St. Joseph to offer beachside service at Lion's Park Beach with a food stand that will serve summer drinks and to-go snacks.

Kantareddy has already hired staff, held a soft opening to test the kitchen and service, and will open for the public on June 21.

TJ's Baroda Tap opens to enthusiastic diners
 TJ's Baroda Tap opened for business Tuesday.

After a huge private preview night Monday TJ's owners Joe Matthews and Greg Borr pronounced everything 'ready for prime time.' So, the much-anticipated casual bar and restaurant opened to the public for lunch Tuesday.

TJ's Baroda Tap has been taking shape over the past two months in the former 'Rose and Crown' space in Baroda, previously the home to 'Baroda Tap & Grille' and 'Bill's Tap' for decades prior to the short-lived English pub concept last year.

The 15-year owners of TJ's Sports Bar and Grill at M-140 & Territorial Road decided to duplicate much of their winning Watervliet formula in Baroda. And if the preview night is any indication, they've succeeded from our observation as guests for the preview night.

The bar and dining room were full on Monday night and the apparently well-trained staff were looking and acting like they had been working together for years. Service was quick, efficient and courteous. The Bell's Oberon was perfectly chilled and served with an orange slice! And the Classic Smashburger—a featured menu item—was outstanding. Nearby, a Philly Steak Sandwich looked amazing, with a lovely layer of melted cheese over juicy sliced beef. A couple of other diners were heard to exclaim about the Yellow Perch Basket.

TJ's Baroda menu is quite like the Watervliet location, with appetizers, sandwiches, baskets and a few dinner features. There are a dozen beers on draft with more planned soon. There is a fresh new contemporary feel to the bar and dining room, but with the spacious horseshoe bar from 'The Tap' still in place and welcoming customers. A wall that once separated the bar and dining areas is gone, giving a more modern open vibe. Several big screens provide live sports for those who care, but the layout does not scream 'sports bar'.

At first glance, TJ's Baroda Tap would appear to be a fine addition to Southwest Michigan's excellent lineup of casual dining spots, and well worth a drive to Baroda!

Sailing Wild & Weird Trade Winds

It seems safe to presume that most of you in MailMax-land don't have occupations where you might get traded to another employer.

Of course, in sports, trades ARE a thing. And what sport have I been obsessing over, hoping that its tsunamis of historical minutiae will distract me all summer from our present super-angsty reality?!? – baseball!!

Following are a few trade-related tidbits that I just can't resist sharing with you, despite your ardent hopes that I wouldn't. (Crucial Author's Note! BEFORE YOU TURN THE PAGE, consider the delightful "travelogue" aspect of this column! Why, it's a mini-geography lesson, as you join with your kids or friends and trace the sometimes winding journeys of these probably-mostly-pretty-run-of-the-mill ballplayers!)

Ok, to begin: Say you were a ballplayer who got traded. Your team decided they'd rather have some other guy. And then, it happened again – you get traded...for THE VERY SAME GUY. In LESS THAN TWO WEEKS.

This happened, 40+ years ago. Here's the deal – wait, I should say, here are the deals:

* Philadelphia trades Dick Davis to Toronto for Wayne Nordhagen; Philadelphia immediately trades Wayne to Pittsburgh for another guy.

*One week later, Toronto trades Dick to Pittsburgh for a player to be named later (aka PTBNL).

*Three days after that, Pittsburgh and Toronto agree on the PTBNL to complete the trade for Dick – it's Wayne...who is now back where his trade odyssey started in the first place -- Toronto!

In case you're interested – bwahahaha! I know hardly any of you are! – the last game Dick played before all this swapping (he was with Philly) was against the Cubs, and the first game he played after all this swapping (he was with Pittsburgh) was against the Cubs.

Wayne played once for Pittsburgh between trades, against Philadelphia, Dick's original team. And the following year, he didn't have to endure any trades. But he did have to endure playing the last 21 games of his major league career for the (TERR-i-BULL) Cubs.

So, I can imagine Dick and Wayne pondering and wondering things like, "Why did my team want him so bad they traded me for him twice?," or, "Does the clubhouse manager know where to send my gear?," or "Why are 'pondering' and 'wondering' pronounced differently?"

That's all pretty heavy, but imagine experiencing this: In 1962, Harry Chiti was traded from Cleveland to New York (the new and truly terrible Mets) for a PTBNL. Two months later, the Mets sent Cleveland that player – Harry Chiti. He was traded for HIMSELF! (It's actually happened three more times since!)

People who wax rhapsodic about baseball often dwell on failure as much as they do success. Career minor-leaguer Dale Holman may be the ideal personification of this.

In 1986, playing for Syracuse against Richmond, he got a couple hits in a game that was halted due to rain. Two months later, that game resumed where it had left off. And Dale got another hit. For Richmond.

See, after the suspension, Syracuse released him, and later Richmond signed him. Thus, the final statistics for the game show Dale Holman getting hits for both teams. And in a twist sure to warm the hearts of baseball romantics, he played for the loser...and the winner!

The Spirit of Truth

[Jesus said] "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father—he will testify about me. And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning."

John 15:26,27

When you look at a photograph of yourself, you flash back to that moment in time. One feature of storing photos digitally is you can get an automatic flashback notification on your phone. For example, Amazon Photos or Google Storage will show you pictures you took a year ago, five years ago, or however long it's been. You can relive that day through the pictures you took.

On the Day of Pentecost, Jesus' disciples had a flashback. Jesus had promised his disciples that he would send them the Advocate, a helper. This Advocate was the Holy Spirit, who came upon the disciples in power on Pentecost. They remembered that Jesus had promised to do this for them.

Jesus had also told the disciples what the Holy Spirit would do. He would testify about Jesus. And the Spirit would help the disciples to do the very same thing. With the help of the Spirit, the disciples recalled the life of Jesus, the words he spoke, and the deeds he did.

www.MailMaxOnline.com
Guided by the Spirit, they wrote about Jesus and his teachings. These writings make up the New Testament of the Bible. They testify about Jesus.

It's always interesting looking at a photo with others who were also in the picture. You remember different things, different details. You help each other to fill in the memory blanks.

The Holy Spirit would make sure the disciples would record and remember everything about Jesus' life we needed to know. They testify so "that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name" (John 20:31).

Because Jesus sent the Holy Spirit, we can be sure that God's Word is the truth. We can be sure that the same Holy Spirit will work through that Word to create and strengthen faith, to forgive sins, and to give new life Prayer: Dear Jesus, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit on the disciples. Help me to trust the testimony written about you in the Bible. Amen.

Pet Lover

The Pet Corner

It's great to see so many fundraisers and events happening in our area in support of the pets who are looking for new homes. There is a lot going on this month, starting with the Berrien County Animal Control summer adoption program. Due to overcrowding, all dogs who have been at the shelter for over 30 days may be adopted for $30 plus license. These dogs are all spayed/neutered, vaccinated, micro-chipped, and ready to go. So often potential adopters overlook dogs at the county shelter, but there are some wonderful pets there looking to be your next best friend. Check them out at www.Mi564.petfinder.com. You may bring your vaccinated dogs for a meet and greet when planning to adopt, but please plan to transport them home separately. Hours at the BCAC are 9-5:30 M-Th; 9-2:30 Fridays. Direct message them for appointments in the evening or on weekends. The shelter is at 1400 S. Euclid Ave., Benton Harbor. Call 269-927-5648 for more information or visit their Facebook page. Berrien County Animal Control is also holding a Vaccination and License clinic on Sunday, June 23rd, at the Eau Claire Fire Dept., from 10am-2pm. Rabies, distemper, and Bordetella shots will be available as well as licenses and micro-chipping. Register at the Berrien County Animal Control site. All dogs must be leashed with cats in carriers. This is an excellent opportunity to make sure your pets are vaccinated against these dangerous but easily preventable diseases, and at reasonable prices. With wild life more prominent during the summer, we must guard our pets against transmittable bacteria and viruses. Animal Aid will hold a Summer Bash on Saturday, June 22 at The Secret Garden, 209 W. Main St., Benton Harbor, from 6pm-midnight. Come join the fun when three bands take the stage. They will have a tattoo contest (best and worst) and a 50/50 drawing. There is a $10.00 cover charge and all profits benefit Animal Aid 100%. Thank you to the many sponsors who are making this event possible. On Saturday, June 29th, visit the Humane Society of SW Michigan, 5400 Niles Rd., St. Joseph, for their Community Day, 10:30 am-1:30 pm. The event includes kennel walk-throughs, entertainment for the kids, food, giveaways, door prizes and much more. Take home merch and information from participating businesses. Call 269-927-3303 for more information or visit their Facebook page. June is Adopt-a-Shelter Cat month. Many cats and kittens have filled shelters and foster homes this spring, and they appreciate donations of cat and kitten food, both wet and dry. Most importantly, please make sure to spay or neuter your cats so they're not adding to the overpopulation problem. Another gentle reminder: when walking your dog, whether through your neighborhood, town, or hiking trail, please be kind and clean up after them. The only way to keep dogs welcome in public spaces is to keep those spaces pleasant places! Many parks have bags for our use, but just in case, make a habit of carrying a clean-up bag. In your own neighborhood, be courteous to others' lawns and walkways. Dogs really can't "hold it" until they get home, so plan on it happening. Keeping those spaces clean also helps keep our waterways from becoming contaminated, so it's win-win in many ways.

PET OF THE MONTH

Anna

Anna is an 8 month old, fully vetted (including spay) staffy mix. She loves to play and snuggle and would make a great addition to your family.
