NY approves legislation to combat addictive social media targeting kids

Press Release, Gov. Kathy Hochul's Office

ALBANY – Governor Kathy Hochul today celebrated the legislative passage of two nation-leading bills to protect kids online. The Stop Addictive Feeds Exploitation (SAFE) for Kids Act will restrict a child's access to addictive feeds on social media, and the New York Child Data Protection Act will keep children's personal data safe.

"New York is leading the nation to protect our kids from addictive social media feeds and shield their personal data from predatory companies," Governor Hochul said. "Together, we've taken a historic step forward in our efforts to address the youth mental health crisis and create a safer digital environment for young people."

The SAFE for Kids Act will require social media companies to restrict addictive feeds on their platforms for users under 18. Unless parental consent is granted, users under 18 will not receive addictive feeds.

Users may still search for specific topics of interest. It will also prohibit social media platforms from sending notifications regarding addictive feeds to minors from 12 a.m. to 6 a.m. without parental consent. The legislation will authorize the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) to bring an action to enjoin violations of the new law as well as seek civil penalties of up to $5,000 per violation, among other remedies.

And finally, it calls for the establishment of acceptable age verification and parent consent methods, to be determined by the OAG as part of a rulemaking process once the legislation is enacted.

The New York Child Data Protection Act will prohibit online sites from collecting, using, sharing or selling personal data of anyone under the age of 18, unless they receive informed consent or unless doing so is strictly necessary for the purpose of the website. It also authorizes the OAG to enforce the law and enjoin and seek damages or civil penalties of up to $5,000 per violation.

New York State Attorney General Letitia James said, "Our children are enduring a mental health crisis, and social media is fueling the fire and profiting from the epidemic. The legislation my team worked on and supported along with bill sponsors Senator (Andrew) Gounardes and Assemblymember (Nily) Rozic will help address the addictive features that have made social media so insidious and anxiety-producing. I applaud Governor Hochul, Senate Majority Leader Stewart-Cousins, Assembly Speaker Heastie, and the legislative majorities for supporting this legislation and for agreeing that protecting children's mental health must be a top priority. New York state is once again leading the nation, and I hope other states will follow suit and pass legislation to protect children and put their mental health above big tech companies' profits."

Editor's Note: The New York State United Teachers also issued this statement from NYSUT President Melinda Person:

"Educators see the harmful effects of social media on our kids every day, and this legislation is a tremendous first step toward ensuring these influences remain in their proper places. We are grateful to the Legislature, the Attorney General and the governor for championing the mental health of our students as they navigate our rapidly changing world online.

"These platforms have potential to enhance teaching, learning and connectivity in our classrooms, but should never risk our children's health or safety. New York can lead the nation in creating protections for the mental and physical wellness of the future generation, and this is just the beginning."

"In September, NYSUT will convene educators, mental health providers, union leaders, school district leaders, parents, elected officials and advocates for Disconnected, a conference for sharing strategies and solutions to the impact of cell phones, social media and technology on children, schools and learning."

Refill with Randy

by Randy LeBaron

Good morning! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this week right TOGETHER!!!

Good afternoon! Grab your favorite cup. Fill it up. And let's start this week right... TOGETHER!!!

This past week while I was watching several family members and friends cross the finish line at the Strawberry Fest 5K and got a little nostalgic, so today's article will be a throw back to an earlier one.

Back in 2011 when some members of my church decided to start a Couch to 5K program for the community called "Run 4 God". Some of you may have participated as it was very popular at the time. The goal was to get people physically fit in time to finish The Strawberry Fest 5K. As the pastor I felt like I should be supportive and take part but, as someone who was out of shape and had never felt the desire to run without being chased, I was also dreading the process. Sure enough, it was a hard fought battle but come June I ran the race and even beat the Strawberry! And just like that I was hooked.

I continued to train with friends and increased my distance. By the end of the summer one of my favorite routes was to run from my home to Albion Free Methodist Church, which was exactly 3.1 miles (5K), where I would meet up with a friend to run the Strawberry Fest 5K route and then I would continue back home. I found that I actually enjoyed running longer distances, so much so that when some friends invited me to run the Hospice Dash Half-Marathon with them that September I accepted. I was feeling pretty confident having ran 10 miles a couple of times already and figured one more 5K (13.1 miles total) added to the end would not be that big of a deal.

Fast forward to September 24th when I am running with a crowd through Fort Niagara exactly halfway to the finish line at exactly the 1 hr. mark. I was feeling fantastic and then, a little while later when the Runmeter App on my phone said I had hit the 10 mile mark ahead of schedule, I was even more elated! But then it happened, after running almost 2 miles more I stopped dead in my tracks as I saw the "You made it 10 Miles!" sign and realized that my app must have been malfunctioning. I still had 3.1 miles to go and it felt like forever. I just stood there feeling like my feet were stuck in tar and all the thirst and pain I was able to ignore when I thought I was almost done overtook me and made it difficult to walk let alone run. Eventually I got moving again and sputtered along for the next couple of miles but when I still could not see the finish line I stopped again feeling exhausted and discouraged. And that is when my friends showed up.

Having already finished the race well ahead of me my friends had run back to where I was and started cheering me on and telling me that the end was not far off. As they ran side by side with me, I picked up the pace and soon enough I was crossing the finish line with a still respectable 2:24 time. What my friends did for me was they gave me hope and they let me know that the end really was in sight which helped me to persevere and finish the race. No matter what you are going through in life I pray that you will have friends to come alongside you and remind you that the end is in sight. Keep pressing on!!!

See you in two weeks!

Pastor Randy

JOHN SANSONE

ELECTIONS ARE ABOUT CHOICES, ESPECIALLY IN PRIMARY ELECTIONS

THE RIGHT ONE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

Vote For John Sansone on June 25th
Early Voting Starts June 15th

When the Orleans County Republican committee met to choose their candidate for D. A., they weighed lots of information... That is why I am proud to be the selected and endorsed Republican Candidate.

HERE ARE SOME THINGS THAT DIFFERENTIATE ME FROM MY OPPONENT THAT MAY BE HELPFUL FOR YOU TO KEEP IN MIND

- 1 I have the most trial experience hands down! I go to trial to win! Many times, prosecutors plea bargain to avoid the hard work of a trial
- 2 Credibility with Judges is key to being a great prosecutor and I have it. I have been in every court in every part of Orleans County with great outcomes! Not every prosecutor can say that.
- 3 Law enforcement has to work with the D.A. as a partner to keep you and your family safe. It says a lot that I am the only candidate endorsed by law enforcement and I am proud of the trust they have placed in me.

Think about it...
Our Republican Party selected me... And law enforcement says I am the right person to be D.A. ...

I AM ASKING FOR YOUR VOTE TOO...
ON JUNE 25, PRIMARY DAY
VOTE JOHN SANSONE FOR D.A.

WE ARE SO SORRY
for
YOUR LOSS

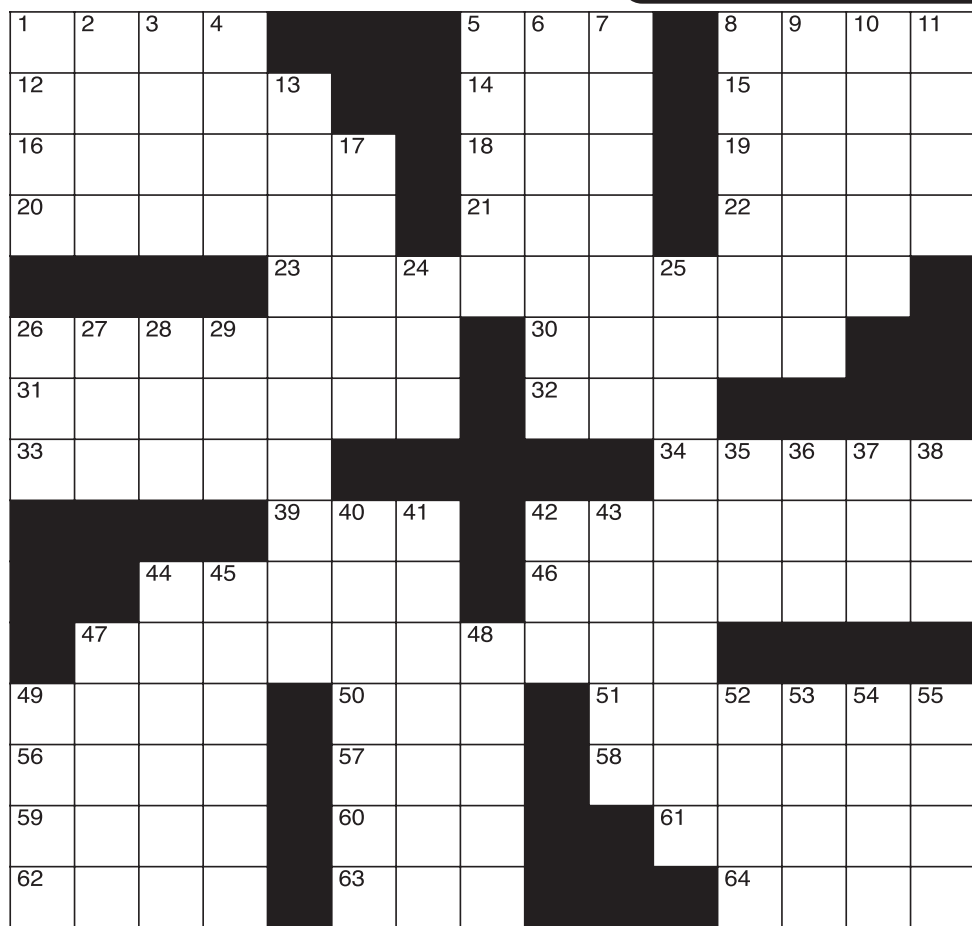

Remembering
Brian Froman
Thank you

Words can't describe how grateful our family is for the love shown to us during the loss of our husband and father, Brian Froman. From the support surrounding us immediately from family and friends. Those who dropped off food, flowers, and much needed hugs. Big hugs, just like the ones he gave. The stories that were shared about Brian and the impact that he had on those around him we will carry in our hearts forever. The work that was put into his service and the dinner is hard to even thank because it's hard to find the words to express our gratitude. I guess I'll end it with something Brian would say "if your gonna do something - do it right!" YOU DID IT RIGHT!! He was smiling, enjoying the most delicious spread of food, and laughing at the stories right there with us. Lastly we want to thank everyone that was there for Brian and our family these past few years. Hospice of Orleans for the love shown to Brian, and our entire family. The laughs that were shared, the absolute comfort. We cannot thank you enough. The Village House restaurant for the support and care you have shown our family all along the way. Our family and friends who provided love, food, laughs, transportation, smiles, emergency medical support, a listening ear....we thank you.

*With so much love and gratitude,
Diane, Lace & Brandi*
