Old Goats

A group of Canadians was traveling by tour bus through Holland.

As they stopped at a cheese farm, a young guide led them through a process of cheese making, explaining that goat's milk was used.

She showed the group a lovely hillside where many goats were grazing. These, she explained, were the older goats put out to pasture when they no longer produced.

She then asked, "What do you do in Canada with your old goats that aren't producing?"

A spry old gentleman answered, "They send us on bus tours."

The earliest fireworks were developed in China from 960 to 1279, during the Song dynasty. The firework displays that resembled flowers were named after them, such as peonies, dahlias and chrysanthemums.

Fireworks in the garden

These days you can find many flowers available for your garden that resemble fireworks and include the words "fireworks" or "firecracker" in their commercial name. The much-loved crossandra is known as "firecracker flower," and russelia is known as "firecracker plant."

No place has a shortage of cats and every locality is dealing with what to do about cats. It is vital to keep cats inside. Outside cats face many dangers, and their life expectancy is 1-5 years. A cat kept strictly inside has an average life expectancy of 12-18 years. Contact with other cats outside leads to the risk of disease transmission. Feline leukemia and feline immunodeficiency are transmitted from cat to cat and, once contracted, result in the eventual death of the animal. Dogs and other wild animals pose a threat to cats; the very real danger is one of exposure to rabies. Outdoor cats can suffer torn ears, cut eyes, abscesses, and other injuries requiring veterinary treatment. Indoor cats are not generally exposed to fleas, ticks, ear mites, or other parasites that can cause anemia, skin irritations, allergic reactions, and even death. Outdoor cats are at risk to be poisoned. Neighbors may deliberately poison cats they view as nuisances, but accidental poisonings also occur. Chemically treated lawns, bait left out to kill rats or mice, and antifreeze can all be deadly dangers. It is a myth that cats are "streetwise." Cats are intelligent and alert, but they stand very little chance against traffic. We can tell horror stories, and even have the pictures, of outside cats that have been, of outside cats, electrocuted, burned, tortured, or starved. A dogfighting investigation seminar I attended a couple of years ago showed actual video of cats and kittens being used to train dogs to kill. Trees also present hazards for the outside cat. Dogs or loud noises can scare a cat to climb so high, they cannot get down. I have heard repeatedly that a cat can climb down a tree. The reality is, cats cannot easily climb down facing the ground, and they usually do not back down out of a tree. We have had to intervene countless times to get them out of trees. We have also had to rescue countless cats (kittens, mostly) from the engines of cars. Some survive, and some do not. The list of hazards for outside cats goes on and on. Outside cats are at the mercy of the people they encounter, as well as weather conditions and other animals. We encourage everyone to keep their cats inside. It truly is the best life for a cat.

Art Nouveau

In design, the line between art and science isn't always clearly drawn. This has been true for centuries. One of the most influential figures in the art nouveau movement of the late 19th to early 20th century was a scientist, not an artist. Beginning in 1889, biologist Ernst Haeckel published a series of books called "Art Forms in Nature" that captured the geometric structure and intricate beauty of sea life, microscopic organisms, plants, animals and insects. While art nouveau designs are stylized and exaggerated, especially human figures, the influence of nature, especially as captured by Haeckel, is clear in the organic asymmetrical shapes and the use of plants, animals, birds and insects as subjects or motifs. This lamp shaped like a cluster of mushrooms with long stems and graceful curving shapes may not have been made in the art nouveau period, but it is definitely art nouveau style. Its leaded glass shades, bronze base and nature inspiration are reminiscent of Tiffany lamps, themselves emblematic of art nouveau, but compared to them, it was a bargain. While authentic Tiffany lamps can sell for record-setting prices of thousands of dollars, this mushroom lamp sold for $344 at a Hindman auction.

Q: My mom has a Furby Baby in its original box and is wondering what it could be worth and how to sell it.

A: Furby and Furby Babies are battery-operated electronic toys that can "talk." The toys have their own language, "Furbish," but can learn to speak English and several other languages. Furby was created by Dave Hampton and Caleb Chung. They sold the rights to the toy to Tiger Electronics Inc., which became part of Hasbro in 1998. Furby quickly became "the toy" to have and millions were sold. Furby Babies were introduced in 1999. They are smaller and know more phrases. They were made in 25 different colors. Hasbro stopped making the original toys in 2000 but has made new Emoto-Tronic Furby toys since then. Furby Babies sell today for about $20 to $40 without a box and $40 to $60 in the original box.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Temper your typical Arian urge to charge into a situation and demand answers. Instead, let the Lamb's gentler self emerge to deal with a problem that requires delicacy.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You are aware of what's going on, so continue to stand by your earlier decision, no matter how persuasive the counter-arguments might be. Money pressures will soon ease.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) By all means, have fun and enjoy this newly expanded social life. But don't forget some people are depending on you to keep promises that are very important to them.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You need to wait patiently for an answer to a workplace problem instead of pushing for a decision. Remember, time is on your side. A financial matter also needs closer attention.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You now have information that can influence a decision you planned to make. But the clever Cat will consult a trusted friend or family member before making a major move.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Good news: You're finding that more doors are opening for you to show what you can do, and you don't even have to knock very hard to get the attention you're seeking.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your gift for creating order out of chaos will help you deal with a sudden rush of responsibilities that would threaten someone who is less able to balance their priorities.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Congratulations! Your energy levels are coming right back up to normal — just in time to help you tackle some worthwhile challenges and make some important choices.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) The sage Sagittarian should demand a full explanation of inconsistencies that might crop up in what had seemed to be a straightforward deal.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A conflict between obligations to family and your job can create stressful problems. Best advice: Balance your dual priorities so that one doesn't outweigh the other.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Don't guess, speculate or gossip about that so-called "mystery" situation at the workplace. Bide your time. An explanation will be forthcoming very soon.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Boredom might be creeping in and causing you to lose interest in a repeat project. Deal with it by flipping over your usual routine and finding a new way to do an old task.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can warm the coldest heart with your lyrical voice and bright smile. You find yourself at home wherever you are.

Danville Utilities secures major funding for key projects

Danville Utilities has received substantial grants and low-interest loans to support major capital improvement projects aimed at enhancing service reliability and supporting regional growth. These projects include the expansion of the Southside Pumping Station, replacement of a critical gas main loop, and an inventory survey of lead and copper water pipes.

"We are thrilled to receive this significant funding, which will enable us to make essential upgrades to our infrastructure," said Jason Grey, director of Danville Utilities. "These projects are crucial for supporting our community's growth and ensuring the reliability of our services."

Expansion of Southside Pumping Station
 Danville Utilities will undertake a $30 million project to expand the Southside Pumping Station's capacity from 7.6 million gallons of wastewater per day to 11 million gallons per day, addressing projected economic development growth.

This project is funded by a $10.5 million low-interest loan from the Virginia Department of Environmental Quality's Clean Water Revolving Loan program, with an interest rate of 0.5%. Additionally, a $4.5 million grant will be used for principal forgiveness under this loan program. Preliminary engineering has been completed, and the expansion is expected to take four to five years. Danville Utilities will apply for an additional $15 million in funding this summer.

Replacement of a main gas loop
 Last month, Danville Utilities received a $10 million grant to replace the leak-prone ductile iron gas main loop serving Goodyear Boulevard, Gypsum Road, and South Main Street. The current main, which serves Goodyear Tire & Rubber, will be replaced with a higher capacity steel gas main, resolving one of the most problematic areas for leaks in Danville Utilities' service network. The replacement will occur in three phases.

Lead and copper water pipe inventory
 A third grant of $500,000 from the Virginia Department of Health will fund an inventory survey of lead and copper water pipes. This survey is scheduled to be completed by October, ensuring the community's water infrastructure meets safety and regulatory standards.

Electric vehicle fast charger
 A fourth grant of $76,580 from the Department of Energy's Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grant Program will cover the installation of a DC fast charger at the Danville Visitor Center at 645 River Park Drive.

DC fast chargers are currently the fastest charging option available for electric vehicles. They can charge a vehicle in less than an hour. The charger would be managed by a third party and charge rates that would cover electric costs for anyone using the fast charger. Total funds In total, Danville Utilities has secured $15.1 million in grants and $10.5 million in low-interest loans. The utility has also applied for an additional $45.5 million in grants and $33.9 million in low-interest loans to further support various capital improvement projects.

Danville Kiwanis Club Speakers

On June 20, 2024, Kiwanis Club members heard from two speakers from the Piedmont Access to Health Services (PATHS) program. Members were informed that PATHS is a federally qualified health center that serves 26,000 patients and employs 347 professionals who provide medical services at any one of 12 sites. Danville is the largest of the 12 sites. Pictured (L-R) is Lawrence Meder who is the chairperson of the Kiwanis Club Program Committee, Joanie Littleton who has been employed with PATHS for 14 years and Marsha Mendenhall, PATHS CEO. If interested in membership, contact Lawrence Meder at (636) 448-6159 or email him at tger3@aol.com for Kiwanis Club membership information. Kiwanis Club meetings are held on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month at 6:00 p.m. with meetings held at the Averett University Student Union Building, Multi-Purpose Room.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Fifty-five-year-old Hugh Jackman put his Broadway musical training to good use when making "Deadpool & Wolverine."

"When I came back to it, it was really fun, and I was thrilled," Jackman confessed. "My body was still responding, and I realized how good it was for your brain. The hardest bit ... [was] the food! ... For me, for my body type, I'm naturally skinny. To get the size on, that's the hardest bit." Poor Jackman!

Ryan Reynolds said of Jackman, "Just the sheer relentlessness that [he] dedicated [himself] toward stunts, choreography. It was the first time I'd ever seen how invaluable a background in song and dance is when you are doing an action movie!"

***

Another actor eating his way to stardom is Chris Hemsworth, who bounced from the animated Paramount/Hasbro film "Transformers One" (due Sept. 20) to the upcoming "Transformers/G.I. Joe" crossover movie. Why keep making "Transformer" films? Maybe the $439 million grosses for "Transformers: Rise of the Beasts" last summer explain it.

***

The Barnes & Noble bookstore at The Grove in Hollywood had to call for extra security to handle throngs of fans of Thaaao Penghllis (of "Days of Our Lives" and "General Hospital" fame), who came for his book signing of "Seducing Celebrities One Meal at a Time." He regaled them with delicious tales about Claudette Colbert, Jackie Kennedy Onassis, Charlton Heston and more. But his favorite moments came when he was joined by his "Days" co-stars Susan Seaforth Hayes and Leanne Hunley, who came to celebrate his book.

***

Having covered Hollywood parties for decades, I became friends with lots of big stars. One such star was Dick Van Dyke, who came to events with his wife at the time, Margie Willett. Dick taught me a great lesson. Back in 1974 at a publicity event, I saw Dick standing in a corner by himself. I approached him, asking, "All alone, Dick? Where's your lovely wife?" He replied, "We separated today. She got the house, I got the mortgage. She got the car, I got the payments. She got the elevator, I got the shaft!"

Actor and comedian Dick Van Dyke

Undaunted, I forged ahead, trying to save myself, and said, "Well, at least you have 'The New Dick Van Dyke Show' to keep you busy!" "It was canceled today," he sadly said. And from then on, I learned not to mention spouses or TV series to actors ever again!

Now at 98, Dick has announced, "I'd still like to do a one-man show. Cary Grant did it. And Gregory Peck. Went on the road and talked about their careers. I think it'd be fun!" What I'd never dare say to him is that Grant died doing that show in Davenport, Iowa! Can you say swan song?!

Medicines Usually Maintain Efficacy Past Their Expiration Dates

DEAR DR. ROACH: I recently tested positive for COVID using an expired home test, and I self-isolated for five days. I also realized every Tylenol, antihistamine, DayQuil, NyQuil and allergy pill that I had was past its expiration date. Some were only expired by a few months, but most were expired by two to four years. I guess I don't get sick often.

My question is: Before I dispose of these, how effective are they, and are any of them dangerous to use? -- K.L.

ANSWER: Drug manufacturers are required to make expiration dates, and they guarantee that the drugs are what they say they are and are effective until a certain date (at least if they are properly stored in a cool and dark area). This does not necessarily mean that they become ineffective or dangerous after expiring, and many drugs have been proven to maintain efficacy for years or decades after the printed expiration date.

A military study found that 90% of drugs are still effective 15 years after expiration. It is rare for a drug to become dangerous; however, the tetracycline class of antibiotics is one where toxicity has been found.

In general, if a drug is a few months to a year past its expiration date, it is probably OK. (Liquid drugs, nitroglycerin and insulin are notable exceptions.) But at some point, you have to ask yourself whether it is worth the small risk of the medicine being less effective, especially for inexpensive over-the-counter (OTC) drugs.

Also, COVID test kits may have an extended expiration date. The Food and Drug Administration maintains a list at tinyurl.com/COVIDTestKitExpire.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual questions, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu.

FAMILY FEATURES

Break out the red, white and blue and (safely) set off your favorite fireworks – it's time to honor America's birthday. Along with all the booms and blasts, make sure your crowd is satisfied with one of the country's most beloved snack foods and a true firecracker in the kitchen: popcorn.

Celebrated for its seed-to-snack simplicity, popcorn's smell, taste and versatility mean it can enhance any occasion as a budget-friendly solution for family gatherings. As a timeless treat nationwide, it's an especially perfect partner for

Fourth of July get-togethers as it bursts while cooking and brings a thrill to the senses.

Whether your gathering will take place poolside, in air-conditioned comfort or while watching spectacular fireworks shows among the backdrop of the night sky, tasty treats that honor the occasion allow you to show off your patriotic pride.

These Peanut Butter Cups are an ideal summer snack that's easy to prepare with everyday ingredients. All you need to do is melt together peanut butter, butter and marshmallows then mix in popcorn, shredded wheat, peanuts and raisins. Bake in individual paper liners for grab-and-go convenience then share with your nearest and dearest. For added flair, use American flag-themed liners or finish your creation with toothpicks connected to miniature American flags.

Add a touch of heat to this year's celebrations with Cinnamon Candy Poppers that bring a real bang to the snack table. Inspired by those classic firecrackers that a Fourth of July party can't go without, these balls of ooey-goey goodness provide a truly patriotic spark.

Cinnamon Candy Poppers

Yield: 24 balls

- Nonstick cooking spray
- 3 quarts popped popcorn
- 4 tablespoons (1/2 stick) butter or margarine
- 3 cups miniature marshmallows
- 1/2 cup cinnamon-flavored candies
- red and blue confection stars
- red licorice string

Spread large sheet of plastic wrap on work surface and spray with nonstick cooking spray.

Spray large mixing bowl lightly with nonstick cooking spray and place popcorn inside.

In medium saucepan over low heat, melt butter. Stir in marshmallows until melted and mixture is smooth. Pour over popcorn. Add cinnamon candies and mix well until coated.

Spray hands with nonstick cooking spray and form mixture into 24 balls. Gently press red and blue stars onto each ball. Place piece of licorice string on top of each ball.

Peanut Butter Cups

Yield: 24 cups

- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1 package (10 1/2 ounces) miniature marshmallows
- 6 cups freshly popped popcorn
- 6 cups spoon-size shredded wheat
- 1 cup dry roasted peanuts
- 1 cup raisins

Preheat oven to 250 F.

In microwave on high heat using large, microwavable bowl, melt peanut butter and butter 1 minute.

Add marshmallows and microwave on high 1 minute, or until marshmallows puff; stir.

Add popcorn, shredded wheat, peanuts and raisins; stir gently.

Place paper liners in two 12-cup muffin pans. Divide mixture into 24 cups.

Bake 10 minutes.

Remove from oven and tore "cups" in airtight container.

SKILLET BLACKBERRY COBLER

INGREDIENTS

- 1 box of 2 refrigerated pie crusts (I prefer Pillsbury)
- 2 (10-14 oz) bags frozen blackberries
- 1 stick butter, melted
- 1 1/3 cups sugar (for berries)
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/4 cup sugar (to sprinkle on crust before baking)
- 1/2 stick butter, cut into small cubes (to dot onto crust before baking)
- 1/2 cup water

INSTRUCTIONS

Heat oven to 350 degrees.
Unroll one pie crust and place in bottom and up sides of 12" cast iron skillet.
Pierce bottom and sides of crust with a fork.
Bake 7 minutes; remove from oven.
Increase oven temp to 375 degrees.

In a large bowl, mix melted butter, 1 1/3 cups sugar, and all of flour.
Put berries in bowl with butter/sugar/flour mixture; toss until berries are covered and mixture is crumbly.
Gently pour berries into skillet; sprinkle water over berries.
Unroll second pie crust over top of berries, seal crust at the edge of the skillet.
Scatter the small pieces of butter on top of the crust.
Sprinkle 1/4 cup sugar on top of crust.
Cut tiny slits in top of pie crust.
Bake for approximately 45 minutes or until bubbly at edges and beginning to brown on top.
(I highly recommend a pie shield to keep edges of crust from over browning.)

* My best tip for the beach? A laundry basket and a bungee cord. I put my cooler, bags and sand toys in the basket and pull it along the sand using the bungee. It has worked for me many times -- and it's so convenient to keep things corralled in! Here's more tips on beach vacationing. -- JoAnn

* Must-haves at the beach: Zipper-top bags for trash and clothespins to clip a napkin down so it won't blow away!

* "Freeze bottles of water (take out a sip or two to allow the ice to expand) and juice boxes or pouches before you head out to the beach (or anytime you're taking a cooler). They will act as ice packs to keep food and snacks cool, and double as refreshing beverages along the way!" -- A.A. in Florida

* "My eyesight started to falter a few years ago, and I had found that my glasses slipped and were uncomfortable during seaside trips. I dearly love to read, and have since discovered audiobooks, or books on tape. I download them to a digital music player and can listen all day if I like. It also allows me to people-watch and even doze off! I am almost 80, so I can do that if I feel like it!" -- R.A. in Connecticut

* "I keep an empty gallon jug in the trunk of my car. When I go to the beach, if there's no shower, I can fill it with water at a faucet and get a good rinse there before I leave." -- L.G. in Mississippi

* "I bring a thin nylon bag to the beach in case I go shopping or collect shells, etc. It folds and zips down really small, so it takes up no room, but has come in handy most times that I've gone to the shore." -- T.T. in New York
