SONORA: THE CITY WITH A CAVE

Tumbleweed Smith

I've done a lot of interviews in Sonora, the county seat of Sutton County. I've done some historical reports on the city's first electricity, first water and first icehouse. Other topics include interviews with goat and sheep ranchers, cowboys, historians, rattlesnake hunters, artists, athletes, musicians and some colorful characters. Still others are the court house designed by Oscar Ruffini, the Fling Ding, Wagon Theater, outlaw Will Carver and the Wild Game Dinner. I even recorded Philip Cooper's donkeys. I really got deep into Sonora's culture.

Tumbleweed Smith

The city has wide streets and graceful shade trees and downtown buildings that give you the feeling of the old west.

Residents make you feel welcome and you get to experience real western hospitality. Sonora has abundant and productive ranch land that early settlers called Cattleman's Paradise. The rugged terrain is crisscrossed by the Llano and Devil's rivers.

There is delicate and unsurpassed beauty underground at Sonora Caverns. This National Natural Landmark is a few miles west of Sonora. It's a world-class cave because of its stunning array of calcite crystal formations. The Caverns of Sonora is internationally recognized as one of the most beautiful show caves on the planet.

I always thought the word Sonora sounded like a song. The city is named for a servant from Sonora, Mexico. He worked for Charlie Adams, a merchant and rancher who settled on four sections of land and offered free lots to prospective citizens. The county was named for Confederate Colonel John S. Sutton, an Indian fighter.

This is the home of mohair and where the Texas Goat and Sheep Raisers Association was formed. The clear sky, enchanting vistas and pleasing atmosphere were welcome sights to the Tonkawa, Apache and Comanche, early residents of this land. They were not the first. Fossils around Sonora go back tens of thousands of years to a prehistoric culture.

This is brush country, with mesquite, live oak, cedar and pecan trees. There was a problem getting a railroad in Sonora, so a man bought nearly one hundred miles of right of way, fenced it with holding pens, water wells and windmills so ranchers could drive their cattle to the railroad in San Angelo.

Wildlife in Sutton County is a big enterprise. Hunters go after deer, turkey, fox, quail and dove. The pioneer heritage prevails today and you can see it in the resident's determination, commitment and passion. Sonora is a beautiful city with attractive neighborhoods. And with three people per square mile, there's plenty of breathing room. I've always felt special going to Sonora.

I'm making a speech in Sonora later this month. I'm looking forward to a return visit to this fascinating city.

BUSINESS SERVICES

The business services industry is a very broad industry encompassing many different categories of business operations; all of them provide some sort of non-financial service to other companies. These services include advertising, marketing, consultation, logistics (including travel and facilities services), waste handling, staffing services, shipping, administration, and security services to name a few. Nearly every business in operation has need for at least one of the different kinds of service offered by the industry. Marketing companies are responsible for increasing the sales of a client company by helping the company gain new customers as well as keep current ones. Legal services are needed to deal with business transactions, as well as for litigation purposes. Logistics and shipping companies are responsible for connecting businesses to other businesses or consumers by collecting, storing, transporting, and delivering products. Staffing companies match people in need of jobs, temporary or permanent, with companies in need of qualified employees. Leasing companies fill a client's need for certain items without requiring full purchase. Security companies are responsible for keeping a company's assets secure. Consulting companies are in the business of fulfilling needs for expertise that clients cannot fulfill themselves. These companies may offer professional, scientific, or technical consulting, management or strategy consulting, or human resources consulting.

Mr. Chapin passed away at Christus Mother Frances Hospital in Sulphur Springs on Saturday, August 10, 2024.

Robert Herman Weir Jr.

Robert Herman Weir Jr., born on October 6, 1948, in Cooper, Texas, passed away peacefully in Tira, Texas, on Thursday, August 8. He was 75 years old.

Robert was the beloved husband of Yvonne Hall Weir, with whom he shared 50 wonderful years of marriage. Together, they built a loving family that includes their children: Destri Weir (Eben Esterhuyse) of Sunnyvale, TX; Dacy Campbell (Michael) of Caddo Mills, TX; Dustin-Kirk Robert Weir (Natalie) of Tira, TX; Dakota Shane Weir of Sulphur Springs, TX; and Dalton Wesley Weir of Tira, TX.

Following his military service, Robert built a successful career as a UPS driver, retiring after many years of dedicated work.

Beyond his professional life, Robert dedicated himself to his community and his passions. He and Yvonne were foster parents for 20 years, during which they fostered over 30 children, leaving a lasting impact on the lives they touched and who in turn touched theirs. Robert also took great pride in helping keep the Tira Food Pantry stocked.
